What Will Our Descendants Be? Anglo-Saxon or Mulatto ???

With all the racial propaganda by the NAACP and their white stooges, and as the years roll by the prophesy and words of Abraham Lincoln may become a reality. At the rate we are now moving, in another hundred years the Ethiopian or mulatto will be the rulers of our Anglo-Saxon nation, founded by our great forefathers of Virginia and Massachusetts.

You cannot build in a Democracy a nation inside a nation of two antagonistic races. The future American must be Anglo-Saxon or Mulatto.

You can never have social and political equality with the Negro without asking him to your home sooner or later. If you ask him to your house, he will break bread with you at last. And if you seat him at your table, he takes the right to ask your daughter's hand in marriage.

The man or woman of Negro ancestry, though a century removed, will suddenly breed back to a pure Negro child, kinky-headed, flat-nosed, thick-lipped, black skinned. ONE DROP of Negro blood in your family could push it backward three thousand years in history.

In a debate with Judge Douglas at Charleston, Illinois, September 18, 1858, Mr. Abraham Lincoln expressed his views and his stand on the racial question, in part as follows:

"I am not nor ever have been in favour of bringing about in any way the social and political equality of the white and black races! I am not nor ever have been in favour of making voters or jurors of negroes, nor of qualifying them to hold office, nor to intermarry with white people. I will say in addition to this that there is a physical difference between the white and black races which I believe will forever forbid the two races living together on terms of social and political equality: and inasmuch as they cannot so live, while they do remain together there must be the position of the inferior and superior, and I am, as much as any other man, in favour of having the superior position assigned to the white race."

BIRCHERS CHART WARREN ATTACK

Welch Tells of Plan for New Drive for Impeachment

Special to The New York Times

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11—Robert H. W. Welch, Jr., president of the John Birch Society, said today that the right-wing organization would probably mount an intensive, organized national drive to have Earl Warren, Chief Justice of the United States, impeached.

The society has been fostering an "Impeach Earl Warren" campaign for several years, based on resentment of the liberal trend of United States Supreme Court decisions.

But Mr. Welch said this had been a relatively low-key, academic gesture compared with what is now contemplated.

"Our national field staff of 30 full-time coordinators has not worked on the impeachment campaign at all," he said.

"Under the program we're considering," he said, "starting within the next three or four months, they would be put to work on speeches and petitions, along with our 1,100 volunteer section leaders throughout the country—doctors and retired businessmen and people like that."

Impeachment Defined

Impeachment is a formal declaration by the House of Representatives of charges that are then the subject of a trial in the United States Senate.

Mr. Welch, who is here from his headquarters in Belmont, Mass., on a speaking tour, told a news conference at the Statler Hilton Hotel that the stepped-up impeachment idea stemmed primarily from the conservative tide of public opinion reflected in last November's election, rather than from anything new in the Court's trend.

"We were serious about the idea before," he said, "but we didn't feel we had any immediate chance of success. Now I think the chances against our succeeding by, say, 1968, are 2 to 1 or 3 to 1, but no impossible odds by any means."

The Birch leader rejected a suggestion that such a campaign would go beyond the stated "educational" character of the society's activities into the realm of politics.

Labor and management can and should work jointly, Administration officials concluded, on such problems as the location of industry for good regional development, the training and retraining of workers, industrial safety and the development of foreign trade policy.

If the Labor and Commerce Departments were merged into a Department of Business and Labor, the Administration came to feel, the areas in which labor and management have identical—rather than conflicting—interests would receive greater emphasis.

Secretary Connor's support for the merger, persons close to him said today, stemmed in large measure from his discovery shortly after becoming Secretary of Commerce two years ago that his department had relatively little influence on the formulation of basic governmental economic policies.

The Council of Economic Advisers, the Treasury Department and the Bureau of the Budget have for two decades been the key agencies in the economic policy area, with the Departments of Labor and Commerce both essentially on the outside looking in.

Mr. Connor reportedly came to believe that a merged department, speaking in one voice for the entire industrial sector of the economy, could not be so ignored.

In a formal statement today on the proposed merger, he said it had his "strong endorsement and enthusiastic support."

"I was one of those who recommended this action," he said. "It makes sense to establish these two great departments as a unified focal point within the Federal Government for strengthening the national economy and the free enterprise system."

Mr. Connor's decision to leave the Government was made some weeks ago, primarily because he simply is tired after two years

In Soviet Russia, 4½ million Jews keep 170 million Russian Gentiles in total submission; abject slavery. The masters of deceit have been scheming for centuries to take over the world and now they're doing it. The Russian people don't like Communism and would throw the serpents out of the Kremlin if only they had guns — but they haven't any weapons. In the Soviet Union, it's a crime for a private citizen to own firearms. Only the Kike secret police are armed; the rest of the people cannot call their souls their own. That could happen here. Don't let them take your guns away!

There is already a disarmament plot at work in Washington. Our army and navy are being whittled away; issued obsolete weapons and shipped off to Viet Nam to get rid of them. Senator Dodd has a bill in committee to make it almost impossible for American citizens to own personal firearms. The bill is S 1592.

RABBINISM.

First, the bill would prohibit a hunter or gun-collector from going to another state and taking his guns along or having them shipped to him. The bill also restricts mail-order purchase of firearms, which would make it almost impossible for persons in outlying areas (central Wyoming, for example) to purchase weapons. Citizens who prefer to remain armed in face of the growing Soviet menace to American peace and security would be effectively immobilized by this legislation. (In the Soviet Union, citizens must have passports and permission of the Communist Party in order to travel from one city or province to another. Usually, only Jews are granted such permission.) The bill would also make it illegal for a gun-dealer to sell a firearm to anyone not a resident of his particular state. This provision, too, would help to immobilize the American people in a time of national crisis. If this great country were suddenly invaded and most of our armed forces were off in Viet Nam or some place in Asia, who would defend the American homeland? The U. N.? That would be a fine kettle of Kosher gefullte-fish! The red-front U. N. is to defend a disarmed America from the Soviets, eh? Ho!

But it's no laughing matter.

Senator Dodd pretends to be concerned about the safety and security of our future presidents. Well, what about the security of future citizens? What need would the U. S. A. have of a secure president if the citizens cannot defend their own homes against a marauding invader or a rioting rabble?

New York City has a very restrictive gun law: the Sullivan Act. It was enacted many years ago to deter crime in that city. But FBI figures show that 25 states have a per capita homicide rate lower than that of New York with its Sullivan Law. The fact is, where honest citizens are disarmed, criminals run rampant.

AND COMMUNISM IS THE BIGGEST CRIMINAL CONSPIRACY IN WORLD HISTORY!

An "Unfortunate Encyclical"?

POPE PAUL VI's latest encyclical, Populorum Progressio, which THE WANDERER appraised editorially two weeks ago, has been less enthusiastically greeted in various quarters both here and abroad. A few of our readers, too, have written to tell us they could not agree with our characterization of this Papal document as a "great encyclical," because — as one such critical correspondent expressed it — "Pope Paul, unlike all of his predecessors on the Chair of Peter, apparently sees fit in this encyclical to condemn ONLY THE CAPITALIST SYSTEM but not the far more inhuman, militantly atheistic, materialistic system known as Socialism and/or Communism."

In a similar vein, William F. Buckley Jr. has described Populorum Progressio as "an unfortunate encyclical," one in which "the Pope seems to be calling attention to the limitations of capitalism" while ignoring the economic profligacy and criminal injustice inherent in modern-day forms of Socialism-Communism.

We frankly admit that, upon first reading this encyclical, certain passages — e. g., paragraph 26, on the capitalist "system" — seemed somehow ambiguous, distorted, even misleading. Nevertheless, long experience has taught us: (1.) that an encyclical letter must never be read as an isolated document, but must always be carefully analyzed in context with the entire antecedent program of Papal thought and teaching as enunciated in all of the encyclicals and allocutions of the Popes, past and present; (2.) that any encyclical letter which at any point seems to veer save "new injustices" and "new disasters." He urges all people, as individuals working together in "intermediary bodies" and, where necessary, also in co-operation with public authorities (para. 33), to help the poor, the oppressed and the afflicted peoples of the world to think and act as befits men made in the image of God.

At the same time he admonishes the State and other public authorities that by encouraging private initiative and intermediate bodies to work toward this desired goal, they will avoid "the danger of complete collectivization or of arbitrary planning, which, by denying liberty, would prevent the exercise of the fundamental rights of the human person."

In view of this unequivocal condemnation of Socialist-Communist totalitarianism, it is abundantly clear that Pope Paul has in no way negated the principle of private ownership on which the free enterprise system and human liberty itself are predicated. When he refers, in paragraph 2, to the great encyclicals of his predecessors, particularly Leo XIII's REDEMPTIO HUMANI GENERIS and John XXIII's MATER ET MAGISTRA, and PACEM IN TERRIS, we may be sure that he does so for one reason only, and that is to IDENTIFY himself and his program with these illustrious forebears, not to divorce himself from them and their teaching.

And what did Leo XIII have to say about private ownership in his ReDEMPTIO HUMANI GENERIS? "Private ownership," he wrote, "is the natural right of man, and to exercise that right, especially as members of society, is not only lawful but absolutely necessary." But Leo XIII also pointed out, as does our present Holy Father, that, in the USE of one's own possessions, we are obliged as Christians to share whatever SURPLUS we may have with our less fortunate brethren. This obligation, said Pope Leo, "is a duty not of justice (save in extreme cases) but of Christian charity, a duty not enforced by human law." Here, obviously, Pope Leo was giving the public authorities to understand that they may not, like Robin Hood, simply confiscate or seize arbitrarily the possessions of the rich to give to the poor. Only in extreme instances, the Pontiff declared, where organized bodies inflict intolerable injustice and hardship on individuals, only then is the State obliged to interfere — and even then "the limits (of such intervention) must be determined by the nature of the occasion which calls for the law's interference — the principle being that the law must not undertake more, nor proceed further, than is required for the remedy of the evil or the removal of the mischief." For "it should ever be borne in mind," said Pope Leo, "that the main thing to be realized is the safeguarding of private property," by which is assured the welfare of the workers and all other segments of society who must likewise be protected against insidious revolutionaries and fomenters of discord and disorder.

It was to these same principles, particularly the principle of private ownership, free enterprise, and subsidiarity, that Pope John XXIII freely committed himself in Mater et Magistra and Pacem in Terris. While public authority in the domain of social welfare "must not remain inactive," he wrote, it must always keep in mind the principle of subsidiarity.

No Heresy?

WHILE a partial survey among American Catholic Bishops has revealed "no instances of definite heretical teachings or writings in American Catholicism" at this time, many individual Bishops admit that there is much unrest and ferment and a great deal of misdirected zeal in the Church in the United States.

The contents of the Bishops' survey, revealed at a press conference during a meeting held last week in Chicago by the National Conference of Catholic Bishops, was in response to an inquiry, concerning questions of faith, which had been sent by Alfredo Cardinal Ottaviani, pro-prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith in Rome. The Cardinal had sent similar letters to the national Bishops' conferences of other nations last July. In it he called attention to certain abuses and excesses in the interpretation of various documents promulgated by the Second Vatican Council, and asked the national Bishops' conferences to be on the alert for them.

Bishop Alexander Zaleski, chairman of the American Bishops' committee on doctrine, said the "no heresy" report, though representing only 68 replies out of a total of 261 American Catholic Bishops, was in response to Cardinal Ottaviani's letter. The Bishop explained that the report is therefore only a sampling, or an "interim report," based on evidence thus far available. Nevertheless, Bishop Zaleski said, this report was unanimously approved last week by the full Bishops' conference, and thus "it can be presumed the Bishops as a whole feel there is no heresy in this country." (Catholic Herald Citizen, April 15th, 1967.)

Two blocks from the Chicago Bishops' Conference, meanwhile, according to a Chicago Tribune report, "Roman Catholics of the 'new breed' variety," representing some 23 lay persons from eight different U.S. dioceses "huddled far into the night last week, in a basement conference at the Harrison Hotel, to get acquainted, share ideas and chart what may be a national strategy of great significance to the Church in this country." Calling themselves the Association of Christians for Church Renewal, the "new breed" group is reportedly hoping to persuade the American Bishops, via "effective liaison" with their national conference, to establish so-called "pastoral councils" across the country, through which "priests, nuns, brothers and laymen would help run the church in America at parish, diocesan and national levels." (In Pope Pius X's encyclical on Modernism, published in 1908, in the chapter on "The Modernist As Reformer," the sainted Pontiff describes the "reforming mania" which characterizes the Modernists in their frenzied efforts "to bring pressure to bear on the depositaries of authority, until the latter consent to a compromise." One can't help noting how closely this description fits the 23-member "new breed" lobby, whose announced plans include, among other items, "updated high-school religious courses, revision of the sacrament of penance, consideration of administering Confirmation at a later age, and wholesome sex education programs directed at both parents and children.") edging that disbelief had not attained the extent or the stature that it has today. But in our own century, particularly in intellectual circles, agnosticism and even militant atheism have been rampant; and Catholics have been at the same time subjected to attacks on their Faith on the part of other Christians. They have heard their Church referred to as the Scarlet Woman of Babylon: their religious rituals as idolatry; their devotion as superstition. And none of this had very much effect. Actually, the attacks from without had the opposite effect: that of developing a Catholicism prepared to defend itself; to explain that its premises were based on logic, reason and natural law as well as upon revelation; to stand firm in the midst of ridicule.

So why the change today? Modernity cannot be the answer: to itself, every age has been "modern," and, in terms of years, there is not much difference in eighteen hundred, nineteen hundred, or two thousand. For a long time, Christianity has been OLD.

The conspicuous change that has taken place in the more recent past is this: that faith is now being undermined FROM WITHIN. As The Florida Catholic observes, "we have all seen various attempts to question or distort such fundamental Catholic doctrines as original sin, the Resurrection of Christ, His Real Presence in the Eucharist, the Incarnation, and the virginity of Mary." The faithful are told by priests and Religious, or through religious publications, that "the old concepts are outmoded," that traditional beliefs and practices are "not relevant to the modern world," and that the very concept of authority is suspect.

Examine the literature rack in any church vestibule: there's a good chance that you will find from one to half a dozen periodicals with articles that raise questions about points of doctrine, that condone disobedience to authority, or that manifest antagonism toward the morality taught by the Church. Visit Catholic bookstores, and in many of them you will find books by theologians, so-called, who attack the foundations of ALL Christianity; who write, in an ambiguous and cynical vein, about the "mythological" character of Scripture; who even promote, in the most extreme cases, the abandonment of all religion.

Where formerly books dealing with the problem of unbelief sought to provide the answers, we are now more likely to find them confirming doubt. Emphasis is placed upon a supposed unwillingness, if not an utter inability on the part of the people, to accept traditional doctrine; upon the rising tide of apostasy, the lack of "relevancy" in religious teachings. The reader who takes all this seriously will come out much more confused and doubtful than he was before.

A graduate student recently handed me a book recommended to him at a Catholic student center as a help toward "understanding the problems that confront the young person today." The book was a recitation of doubts concerning religion, and criticism of traditional Catholic teachings. This student was one of the more dithering; and, yet, his question was: "Why do they recommend stuff like this?"

Catholic teaching will invariably prove to have been due to a poor translation or mistranslation from the original text in which it was written.

This latest encyclical, more specifically the one or the other important passage contained therein, is evidently not an exception to this rule. Just as the late Pope John's encyclical, Mater et Magistra, was originally translated, or mistranslated, so as to include what appeared to be a Papal endorsement of "socialization," when in point of fact there was no literal equivalent for this word in the official Latin text, so too in Pope Paul's latest encyclical, a key word has apparently been translated in such a way that the "capitalist system," rather than certain accidental features thereof, seemed to have been condemned by the Pontiff. (See report on p. 1, by Fr. Felix Motion, O.P., and also the comment by Osservatore Romano, same page).

This erroneously translated passage, which, as it stands, reads like an all-out attack on the capitalist "system," will be enough to throw the whole encyclical off balance, at least for superficial readers, and will tend to color other important passages wherein the Pontiff is obviously addressing his urgent plea for justice and charity not in first place to the United States of America — whose people, whatever else their faults, are universally recognized as the most generous people in the world — but rather to the Socialist and Communist countries whose hate-ridden and criminally predatory regimes are ineluctably opposed both to justice as well as charity!

At any rate, of this much we may be sure: The Vatican newspaper OSSERVATORE ROMANO observes that, despite enthusiastic comments by Liberals, Socialists and Communists, Pope Paul's POPULORUM PROGRESSIO does NOT condemn capitalism as a system, it does NOT condemn just profits, nor savings, nor decent competition, but it does criticize certain errors and abuses of untrammeled "free enterprise"; it does criticize inordinate greed and lust for power, it does criticize the Mammonistic spirit, the ignominious principle of "anything-for-the-almighty dollar" and perhaps even the shameful policy of U.S.U.S.S.R. "bridge-building," currently operative among certain financial speculators and business interests here at home!

But just as Pope Leo XIII, in his encyclical Rerum Novarum, did not condemn the system per se and in fact insisted that, under this flourishing regime of economy and industry Labor and Capital ought to work together harmoniously in the interests of the commonweal, so too Pope Paul is pleading not only with businessmen, industrialists and workmen, but with all men and women of good will to become truly mindful of their tremendous responsibilities in this dread hour. He is urging them — urging everyone in fact — that unless we rid ourselves, in our morals and institutions, of the searing blight of Godless materialism, — of inordinate selfishness and greed and other predominant vices of this crisis-ridden era — civilization itself may perish, along with whatever good and bad systems of economics and politics have thus far been devised by the minds of men. Far from counselling overthrow of or revolution against the existing order, Pope Paul cites the great danger in such a course (para. 34) and tells us that along this road we have nought to expect ity — to aid but never to absorb or destroy the individual citizen — which is "a fixed and fundamental principle of social philosophy." "The principle must always be reaffirmed," said Pope John, "that the presence of the State in the economic field must not be exercised so as to reduce evermore the sphere of freedom or the personal initiative of individual citizens, but rather so as to guarantee in that sphere the greatest possible scope, by the effective protection for each and all, of the essential personal rights, among which is to be numbered the right that individual persons possess, of being always primarily responsible for their own support and that of their own family, which implies that in economic systems the free development of productive activities should be permitted and facilitated." (Mater et Magistra).

It is obvious, therefore, that regardless whether it be Pope Leo, Pope John, Pope Paul or any of the other great Pontiffs of modern times, the message has always remained essentially the same. That message is in first place a calling upon individuals and intermediary groups everywhere to join together in common purpose and, with the added help of the public authorities, earnestly and conscientiously strive, each and everyone in accordance with his own particular competence and station, to restore some semblance at least of justice and charity, tranquillity and peace, sanity and sanctity, to a seriously incapacitated and ailing society. The thing for all of us to bear in mind, therefore, is not — as one of our readers put it — that the Popes have never condemned Capitalism, while all of the Popes have condemned Socialism and Communism — though this fact, admittedly, is important too. What IS important, as all of the Popes have been trying to get through to us down through the years, is the one overriding central fact that throughout the length and breadth of the entire world, and not merely in the Communist East or in the Capitalist West, society itself is mortally sick, and the chief cause of this sickness is neither economic nor even social-political, but is above all else moral and spiritual, a sickness that proceeds from out of the minds and hearts of men and which will never be cured save by hard work, personal sacrifice, penance, and prayer, combined with the hoped-for blessings and bounty of Almighty God: W. L. M.

ALL over the Country solemn-faced people are getting together to eat tuna-fish sandwiches, drink lukewarm coffee, and carry out an activity called Interfaith Dialogue. . . .

I have no objection to ministers, priests and rabbis getting together to discuss the poverty program or juvenile delinquency, or, for that matter, the prevalence of noisy motorcycles.

But when Christians and Jews get together to discuss religious differences, I sigh and shake my head.

The sad fact is that when laymen engage in theological dialogue they cheerfully exchange superficialities and misinformation. And when clergymen or scholars do it, they walk gingerly around certain topics, like infantrymen poking their way through a minefield. — (RABBI HOWARD SINGER, in The Saturday Evening Post.)

warned the Italian Bishops (NC report) that "something very strange and sorrowful is happening" not only in the a-religious and irreligious world, but also in the Christian Catholic camp. The Pontiff referred to what he called "subversive voices," and to an inexplicable "dizziness of the spirit" that has become manifest everywhere. He spoke of "radical assaults on the most sacrosanct truths of our teaching." "Every dogma," he said, "which is not pleasing [to certain updated Catholics] is called into question," and "the irreplaceable and providential authority of the magisterium is no longer considered." Some pretend, he said, "to preserve the name of Christian, though arriving at negations far from any religious content." In the circumstances, the Pontiff said:

"It is up to us Bishops above all, being the teachers and witnesses of the faith, to take positions with positive affirmation of the word of God and of the teaching of the Church which is derived from it. And where that is not enough, we must denounce calmly and sincerely the errors circulating sometimes like an epidemic! It is up to us pastors of souls to understand, to take pity upon, to instruct, to correct those who are still open to dialogue and to the search for truth, and who are often eager for a serene and reasonable example of our witness and closer than they perhaps seem to reopening their eyes to the light of Christ!"

Why A "Crisis Of Unbelief"?

By EDITH MYERS

WITHIN the last five years, says a Catholic theology professor, an increasing number of students are saying frankly that they are not sure they accept the teachings of the Church; that they are not sure, in fact, if they have any faith at all.

What is the reason for this phenomenon? The answer which is repeated with tiresome uniformity is that because of the advance of science and of the influences of a secular society, the problems presented by evil in the world and the growth of questioning minds, the traditional truths of Christianity are no longer "relevant" and "meaningful" to the young, and they are no longer willing to accept them.

But this is hardly an adequate explanation. The advance of science has been with us for many years, and some of the scientific accomplishments of past ages — the findings of Copernicus and Galileo, the discovery of the New World, etc. — were far more world-shaking in their time than is space travel for present-day man, who has become accustomed to technological achievements.

Certainly evil in the world is nothing new; down through the centuries men have discussed this problem. The wisest men have recognized their incapacity to arrive at answers to everything in the world; they are aware that man's finite understanding can never, in any century, know more of the mind of God than He has chosen to reveal. Thus Christians have always faced the existence of suffering and evil without having their faith destroyed.

Secular war upon religion is not new either. We will pass over the attacks in past centuries, acknowl-

I could not but agree with him that it would set to CREATE doubts and to undermine the religious certainty of many, if not most, young readers.

Over and over, today's young Catholic is told — until he begins to parrot the line — how "irrelevant" his religion is; how pointless and restrictive its regulations. I have heard a priest say flatly, in a sermon: "Young people AREN'T HAVING the beliefs that their parents took for granted." (Since this priest is an ardent proponent of "new ideas," is it unreasonable to suspect that his statement comes of wishful thinking?) Priest-speakers, with an apparent eagerness to show that they are "in," discourse on the "valuable contributions" made to religious thought by the farthest-out Protestant theologians, and advise their listeners to revise "outmoded" religious concepts.

If such speakers and writers are not aware that they do great injury to the faith of many of their listeners, then they are highly unperceptive. If there is a "crisis of unbelief," then it has come about largely through the influence of a self-appointed leadership — both clerical and lay — which is propagating its own dissatisfaction and uncertainty.

Dissatisfaction with sound doctrine, while it may now be wider-spread than ever before, is not a twentieth-century development. The danger in its diffusion has, in fact, been noted since the days of the early Church, when St. Paul warned Timothy about the influence of those "having itching ears" who will "turn away their hearing from the truth." This is a warning that is highly relevant right now.

Ecumenism, No! Cooperation, Si!

THE ecumenical movement is a waste of time and should be scrapped in favor of a militant move by all Christians to carry battle into the materialist camp, say the British authors of a book called The New Morality.

Sir Arnold Lunn, a Roman Catholic who has often lectured in the United States, and Dr. Garth Lean, an Anglican, have now brought out additional chapters to the book they published in 1964. They say of the ecumenical movement:

"We are convinced it is a waste of time at best, and at worst an excuse for inactivity to discuss reunions so far at least as Rome is concerned. There is not in the foreseeable future the remotest chance that Rome will abandon or that the non-Roman churches will accept the basic claims of the Roman Church."

But cooperation between churches is needed, they say, because no one church can reverse the advance of atheism.

Since 1964, they contend, attacks on Christian faith and morals have been pursued with increasing confidence and ever-increasing success by secular New Moralists, who are out to destroy both. Nevertheless, they insist:

"The advance of atheism can be reversed and the decline of Christianity can be arrested. A great Christian revival is not only possible but probable, provided that Christians in general recover their mor and . . . cooperate. . . ."

Confusion In The Ranks

By FR. EDWARD LODGE CURRAN, Ph. D.,
MESSAGE, March, 1967, Woodside, N. Y.

EVER since the close of the Second Vatican Council, there has been much intellectual fermentation and emotional effervescence in various movements launched in Catholic dioceses and parishes in the United States. While the purpose of these new attitudes and activities is presumed to be one of enlightenment, many Catholics are pained by the evident, widespread confusion that has resulted.

This confusion has sometimes been caused by exaggerated statements on the part of a few Catholic speakers and writers and also by some seemingly contradictory pronouncements of those in authority. Thus, quite recently, Bishop Sheen of Rochester announced that the Sacrament of Confirmation would not be administered until the recipients had reached their middle or teen age, namely not until they have entered high school.

Simultaneously, in a press interview, Bishop Curtis of Bridgeport stated that "he has been trying to lower the age of Confirmation from the eleven to twelve-year-old group that has been the accepted practice." The same newspaper which quoted the divergent views of Bishop Sheen and Bishop Curtis contained the following report: "A spokesman for the U. S. Catholic Conference, the welfare agency for the U. S. Catholic Bishops, said that the tendency has been to lower the age for the last twenty years. I am certain that no other diocese has raised its age."

In the ancient Church, and even in certain dioceses of our modern Church, the Sacrament of Confirmation immediately succeeded reception of the Sacrament of Baptism. Lowering the Confirmation age, therefore, seems to be more in accord with the ancient practices of the Church, to which so many of our "updating" Catholics in the Liturgical Movement are devoted. Leaving aside the desirability of either raising or lowering the age, the facts here confused as surely cause confusion in the minds of ordinary Catholics. They have a right to expect that our Bishops will get together in these matters and present a united ecclesiastical front.

Some confusion was created in Catholic minds by an incident or emasculation of the fact that Christ is Our Divine "Savior." The humanity of Christ is played up by some so-called religious leaders to the exclusion of Christ's Divinity. Any movement in the Catholic Church which overplays the brotherly relation of Christ to us and underplays His Divine relation, has no right to the support of either the Catholic priesthood or the Catholic laity.

Still another source of confusion and resentment is the linguistic desecration of the Gospels in their modern literary dress. All Catholics resent the reference to Christ as a "fellow" in one of our modern Gospel readings. Others wonder why the word "Amen" had to be eliminated and replaced by the phrase "I assure you." Nothing could be more ridiculous. The word "Amen" is a Hebrew word, meaning "So be it." One dictionary refers to it as "the most widely known word in human speech." It is used in worship by Christians and Jews and Mohammedans. It is a strong affirmation of the truth which is going to be spoken or which has already been spoken. When Christ preached to the Jews in their synagogues and cities, the word "Amen" was frequently upon His lips. Why, then, should not this word used by Christ Himself be retained in quoting His Gospel message today?

The purpose of this article is not to pile confusion upon confusion. It is to awaken Catholic leaders to the fact that such confusion exists and that everything should be done to dispel it. No Catholic should be dismayed by confusion. The Catholic Church is still the same Church which Christ Himself established. He has promised to be with it always. He will not allow anyone or anything to destroy it. Confusing experiences only create clouds upon the mind's horizon. Clouds disappear. When they do, the sun, which forever shines behind them, reappears in all its pristine and effulgent and permanent glory.

Intellectual Vandalism

A review of THE FUTURE OF BELIEF by Leslie Dewart (New York: Herder & Herder, $4.95). — Reviewed by FRANK MORRIS, in the DENVER REGISTER of April 2nd, 1967.

PROFESSOR Dewart is the advance man for the approaching humanistic extravaganza in history. The "Theism In A World Come Of Age," as his subtitle reads, will be a religion in which the superiority of God and the inferiority of man is done away with, a religion recast "in terms that do not at all imply God's ascendancy over man, or man's submission to God."

We learn this on p. 200 of two hundred and fifteen pages of text, and then the rationale of this book becomes clear. Man is about to lift himself to the plane of God, and Dewart is the herald for this space-age launching tower to the theological heights.

We learn this on p. 200 of two hundred and fifteen pages of text, and then the rationale of this book becomes clear. Man is an equal with God at the center of future belief, and Dewart is man's prophet.

This undoubtedly explains the popularity of this book with the new breed, who otherwise would surely have found the philosophic instead to talk much about how man conceives God. This, he says, has been all wrong in the past, or at least what the conception of the past has been is wrong for the present and future.

The wrong thing is that man has been so infernally proud as to conceive God as existing, or as Being. This Professor Dewart believes to be the worst kind of anthropomorphism. Future man will strip God of any claim to existence, and simply have a working agreement with Him as a Presence, and a remarkably fraternal Presence at that. How man can conceive a Presence without conceiving that Presence as existing Professor Dewart never adequately explains.

One thing is certain: for all his evident knowledge of the history of philosophy, the author shows considerable ignorance of what the metaphysical understanding of "to exist" really is. Dewart equates it with the root meanings of the word "exist" — that is, "to emerge out of," or "to come into being." For the metaphysician, of course, "existence" is the name

The Rev. Adam Powell And The Blessings of Life

By E. F. W. WILDERMUTH

A March 18th, 1967, UPI dispatch, published in the New York Sunday News for March 18th, states:

"Adam Clayton Powell fished in the tropic Bahamas waters off Bimini today, confident that a way will be found for him to return to Harlem without risking arrest. . . . Friends of the ousted Congressman, who capelled a Palm Sunday appearance in Harlem, reported that the Negro Democrat was highly hopeful that his attorneys would work out a legal way for him to visit his district. . . . Powell called off his return to Harlem this weekend on grounds his arrest might trigger violence by his constituents."

A hearing on Powell's suit in Washington, D. C., to compel Congress to seat him is scheduled for April 4th. It will be recalled by a 307-to-116 vote on March 1st by the House of Representatives, Powell was excluded from the Ninetieth Congress.

Powell claims that his ouster is unlawful in the light of the fact that he met the three constitutional requirements to become a Congressman, namely, that he is a citizen of the United States, is over the age of twenty-five years and is an inhabitant of the State from which he was elected. . . . New York State.

Should the U. S. Supreme Court undertake to review Powell's lawsuit, and should it direct the seating of Powell, the effect could be far-reaching.

At the outset, to undertake such review, the Supreme Court declined to review "ouster" action by either House, upon the ground that such action is political and therefore not reviewable by the Judicial Branch of the Federal Government.

In other words, it has always been the position of the Supreme Court that it was without power to judicially determine matters involving the constitutional right of each House of Congress to determine who could sit in its deliberations, vote, etc.

The wisdom of such constitutional provision is self-evident, as has been the wisdom of the Supreme Court in refusing to become involved in matters essentially political in nature.

In the event the Supreme Court undertakes to direct the House to seat Powell, it may very well open a Pandora's box. Among States from voting on the Fourteenth Amendment. It is interesting to note that at the time he was living with a Colored mistress.

In support of the action excluding Senators and members of the House from the ten Southern States from the Congress of the United States of America, Senator Stevens urged the provision in the Constitution which authorized each House to be the judge of elections, returns and qualifications of its members.

The Constitution provides that whenever two-thirds of the members propose an amendment to the Constitution, such proposal becomes a valid part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the States.

In 1866 there were thirty-seven States in the Union, and twenty-eight States were necessary to ratify a proposed amendment to the Constitution. California failed to ratify it. Thus, only twenty-three States ratified the Fourteenth Amendment when twenty-eight were required to make it a valid part of the Constitution. It will be noted that every person excluded as Senators and members of the House from the ten Southern States met the same qualifications Powell urges as the basis for his lawsuit to compel the House to seat him.

Sheer logic and judicial consistency dictate that if the Supreme Court directs the House to seat Powell, it must uphold a challenge to the validity of the Fourteenth Amendment. In so invalidating the Fourteenth Amendment, Pandora's curiosity in opening the box containing the mythical blessings of life will pale into utter insignificance. The many judicial "blessings of life" based upon the foundation of the invalid Fourteenth Amendment, become null and void . . . without legal force. When the basis for a judicial determination is based upon an invalid authorization, the judicial determination is equally as invalid. A crumbled foundation cannot support the Supreme Court's blessings of life and all that stands upon such foundation, by mere force of gravity, crumbles with the crumbled foundation.

Perhaps it will come to pass that those things over which only the Rev. Powell had control and which led to his exclusion from the Ninetieth Congress will prove to be "blessings of life" in many respects.

In the light of the foregoing, it is appropriate to note the following wisdom expressed by a great American patriot and one of this Nation's foremost constitutional lawyers, Daniel Webster (January 18th, 1782-October 24th, 1852):

"Let our object be our Country, our whole Country, and nothing but our Country. And, by the blessing of God, may that Country itself become a vast and splendid monument, not of oppression and terror, but of wisdom, of peace, and of liberty, upon which the world may gaze forever."

The Book Shelf

A review of THE NEW PRIESTS by Michel de Saint Pierre, translated from the French, B. Herder Book Company, 1966. Paperback, two hundred and nine pages; $1.95.

The theme of this novel is conflict between the thinking of the "new priests" ("new" is not synonymous for "young") who see their mission as a crusade for socio-economic betterment of the less-privileged, and the priests who believe their work is one of spiritualizing man, and bringing him to a knowledge and love of God.

The story centers around the career of young Fr. Paul Delancey, who is transferred from his briefly-held position as the Bishop's secretary to parish work in Ville-dieu, a district on the outskirts of Paris. The pastor, Fr. Florian, is not well, and spends most of his time in writing. His two assistants are busily engaged in visiting the workers (to whom they never mention God), and in attending meetings of Leftist groups of various shades, including Communist gatherings. When Fr. Barre, the elder of the assistants, sets out to brief the new arrival on conditions in the parish, the latter is astonished to detect "a strange note of joy" in the speaker's voice when he explains that in the last election, nen. He is saddened to find the church, which is of beautiful thirteenth-century architecture, stripped of statues and of all that could lend it interior beauty. And he is the more disturbed by the offerings in the pamphlet rack, which range from publications that foster social bitterness to others frankly frivolous and worldly. He finally comes into open conflict with Fr. Barre when he destroys these publications.

Rejecting the older assistants' conviction that theirs is the only method that is "relevant" in the modern world, Fr. Delancey sets out to preach, forthrightly, the Gospel of Christ. His first success is in reaching the children in his catechism class; and their response brings more and more older people to the church.

The pastor finally confides his difficulties with his two assistants to the Bishop, requesting that he be transferred from the parish. The Bishop sends for him and, refusing his request for transfer, insists that he take his parish in hand and demand obedience of the two recalcitrant assistants. In Florian finds himself better able to deal with the dangers that confront the Church, from within and from without. And with Fr. Delancey, he has an able assistant in carrying on his work.

Closely involved with the story of the four priests is that of a scientist and writer, who finally extricates himself from an illicit love affair and returns to the fervent practice of his Faith. He is helped in his spiritual battle by a priest in a neighboring parish who also works with the poor, with unswerving dedication to the Cause of Christ.

For adult readers, the book is highly recommendable.

connected with the attempt of the State of Minnesota to liberalize its abortion law. In New York State, the Ordinaries or episcopal heads of all eight dioceses joined in a pastoral letter condemning the New York proposed Blumenthal Bill, which would make abortion, or murder by request, more available than it is under the present law. All, except some politically-minded Catholics, applauded this unanimous and magnificent proclamation. The Catholic Church has always defended the right of the unborn to live, against any individual, or any State that has tried to deny this right by abortion.

To the annoyance and disgust and consequent confusion of Catholics, an editorial appeared in the official newspaper of the Diocese of Winona, supporting the liberalization of the abortion law in the State of Minnesota. The editorial was immediately denounced by Bishop Edward Fitzgerald of Winona. He declared that the editorial did not represent the official opinion of the diocese. He also stated that the Bishops of the State of Minnesota, like the Bishops of the State of New York, were drawing up an official statement regarding proposed liberalization of Minnesota's abortion law.

No wonder some Catholics get confused. Here is a Catholic editorial writer who has the arrogance as well as the ignorance to place himself in opposition to the explicit condemnation of abortion by Pope Pius XII in 1951 and to the nationwide protest of all Catholic Bishops against the liberalization of presently enacted abortion laws. When a Catholic writer can use a Catholic newspaper to publicize such opposition, something should be done to forestall any similar repetition in the future.

Another source of Catholic confusion is the sole reference of some speakers and writers to Christ as our human "brother" and their simultaneous omission repugnance that Dewart uses to reach this conclusion merely boring. Alongside the sophistry in this work, an argument about how many angels can dance on the head of a pin would be an eminently practical dialogue. The method is distinctly scholastic, a method normally repugnant to the new breed, but what matters that when the conclusion about man's near apotheosis is so delectably humanistic?

Dewart must admit that this happy democracy of God and Man in the belief of the future does not quite reflect the way Jesus himself spoke about His Father, or the attitude Christ recommended man have in regard to His Father. Dewart tries to escape from this by saying the Gospel accounts in this regard are "conditioned by cultural factors such as the Hebrew culture of Jesus' own mind and thought." This is dangerously close to claiming that Christ did not really know the Father as the Father truly is. Dewart never does escape from the Son-Father paternalism so clearly related in Scripture, although he disavows any paternalistic relationship between God and man in future theism. "... I think that the Christian theism of the future might so conceive God as to find it possible to look back with amusement on the day when it was thought particularly appropriate that the believer should bend his knee in order to worship God." If Professor Dewart ever does explain the inconsistency between his use of the term "worship" and his repudiation of the "ascendancy-submission" relationship, it escaped this reviewer.

Dewart sees the Church's "crisis of authority" linked to the "crisis of absolute theism." Both imply a hierarchy, and since future man is going to overthrow hierarchies, there will have to be a new type Church and a new type faith. Dewart, however, is impaled upon the hierarchical order of creation, something he never adequately deals with, preferring site of "nothingness," and says nothing of origin. Any first-year student of metaphysics could have assured Dewart of this.

If Dewart merely wanted to abandon this way of thinking or speaking, then his thesis and its antithesis would merely be a matter of semantics. Some reviewers have seen it as simply this, and have had high praise for his courage in seeking new and more relevant concepts about God. The Future Of Belief is much more, however, than an exercise in semantics — it is a handbook for "theistic" humanism and its jettisoning of scholastic concepts (after a tortured exercise of scholastic method) is not a getting rid of barnacles or impeding ballast; it is destruction of a treasure by a modern intellectual vandal. That which is ogered in substitute is really an insult to man. Faith is a type of heroism; but Dewart's idea of man holding hands with a Presence is merely childish.

Dewart quotes at length and with some approval from the Marxist Roger Garaudy, finding favor in the French Red's exhortation of the faith of the past for turning man's eyes away from earth and toward an earthly paradise. This is a hoary charge against religion, but not a very pertinent or historical one. Not surprisingly, Professor Dewart is not so impressed with the views of another Frenchman, Jacques Maritain, even though Maritain far outowers Garaudy as a thinker.

All in all, The Future Of Belief is a sterile sort of gnosticism, a pretending to prophecy and an out-of-hand rejection of the wisdom of the ages in favor of the pottage of Teilhardian evolutionism.

It is an important book if only to show how a race of pygmies now holds court in what was once a kingdom of giants. It is a good object lesson in the Year of Faith for those who might say the Pope is overly alarmed.

other things, such patient action will open wide the door to challenge the validity of the Fourteenth Amendment, upon which it has relied heavily for its authority during the past thirty or more years in imposing its social and economic philosophy upon Americans. During this period, the Supreme Court has invaded many fields, among which are those of religion, race relations, education, morals, politics, communications, subversion, States' rights, law enforcement, passports, the postal power, labor relations, local law and order, such as the manner in which candidates are elected to represent Americans in the Congress of the United States of America. It also often cited the Fourteenth Amendment as its authority for adjudicating in favor of contentions for restriction of State regulatory power and the enlargement of Federal regulatory power, as well as in support of its decisions tending to coerce racial integration and others designed to break down established systems in political, educational, social and economic fields.

The Supreme Court also cites the Fourteenth Amendment in support of its invasion in areas specifically reserved under the Constitution to State regulation, or to individual or group action.

BACKGROUNDS ON THE FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT

Since the adoption of the Fourteenth Amendment by the Thirty-Ninth Congress in 1866 and its having been made a part of the Constitution on July 28th, 1868, many people have questioned its validity. Many urge that it is the product of fraud, deception and coercion.

To better understand the basis for challenging the validity of the Fourteenth Amendment, a brief statement of some undisputed facts concerning its "adoption" and "ratification" may prove helpful.

When General Lee surrendered on April 9th, 1865, President Lincoln ordered a general pardon of all offenses against the U.S. Government during the Civil War.

Yet, some eight months later, both Houses of Congress summarily excluded members elected in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas and Texas. Those States had earlier ratified the Thirteenth Amendment, better known as the anti-slavery Amendment. Such ratification had apparently incurred the displeasure of the North.

Senator Thaddeus Stevens from Pennsylvania was the Northern leader in charge of the movement to exclude the ten Southern almost three-fourths of the votes were for the Communists.

Fr. Delancey, who comes from a worker's family, is puzzled and distressed by the older assistants' lack of concern for everyone but the workers; he believes that the mission of the priest is to all place of permitting them to follow their "new" ideas. If there is a remedy for a de-Christianized society, he tells Fr. Florian, it must be through priests with a greater spirituality, which must be cultivated in the seminaries. Encouraged by the Bishop, Fr.

ZIONISTS STAB GERMANY IN BACK AS BRITISH DOUBLE-CROSS ARABS USA railroaded into two world wars in conspiracy to usurp Palestine for a so-called "Jewish State"

BY BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN
Founder 1950, Christian Anti-defamation League (PART II)

The slaughter of the flower of USA youth now going on in Viet Nam will dwindle into insignificance by comparison with their slaughter in Palestine in the not-too distant future. USA armed forces will soon be fighting as the ally of Zionists in occupation of Palestine to prevent the return of Christians and Moslems to their homes from which they were expelled in 1948 without any justification or provocation by an armed uprising of transplanted Zionists.

Four USA Presidents pledged Zionists USA armed forces to fight for that purpose in Palestine as the ally of Zionists transplanted into Palestine from throughout the world between 1920 and 1948 under the agreement entered into in London for that purpose in 1916 between the World Zionist Organization and British War Cabinet which railroaded USA into World War I.

The 600,000 Zionists transplanted into Palestine under that 1916 London Agreement between 1920 and 1948 "proclaimed" their May 15, 1948 armed uprising a so-called "sovereign state," a so-called "Jewish State," their so-called "State of Israel." The 1,350,000 defenseless Christian and Moslem Palestine population was totally disarmed between 1920 and 1948 by 200,000 British troops stationed in Palestine by Great Britain to implement the 1916 London Agreement pressured by the Zionists.

Four candidates for election to office as USA Presidents pledged Zionists USA armed forces if elected to fight in Palestine in return for Zionist support in election campaigns. These four future USA Presidents pledged Zionists USA armed forces to fight in Palestine to forcibly protect and preserve Palestine as a so-called "Jewish State" as a matter of political expediency to make election more certain. These pledges to Zionists were renewed after elections, again and again and again, and remain USA foreign policy to this day.

The flower of USA youth ought not be sacrificed to liquidate the liabilities of USA political parties to Zionists for services rendered in the election of candidates to office. Nor should the flower of USA youth be made to pay with their lives to give effect to Great Britain's unfulfilled obligation to Zionists under the 1916 London Agreement, to pay with their lives to aid and abet thieves retain possession of stolen property, or as many are now saying, "to help crooks hold onto their stolen plunder."

The terms of that 1916 London Agreement obligated Great Britain to hand Palestine over to Zionists for a so-called "Jewish State" after Germany's defeat by Great Britain as payment by Great Britain to Zionists for exerting Zionist influence to pressure the USA into World War I on April 6, 1917 as Great Britain's new ally.

It will no doubt come as a great shock to the nation to learn the truth for the first time at this late date why the USA was railroaded into World War I as Great Britain's ally in 1917, to learn the circumstances responsible for that avoidable war in USA history, to learn the truth for the first time why the USA was railroaded into a war in 1917 which Great Britain had unsuccessfully fought since 1914 against Germany without a possibility of winning.

In the late Summer and early Autumn of 1916 the British War Cabinet by necessity rather than by choice was giving serious consideration to accepting Germany's offer for a "negotiated peace" on a "status quo ante" basis. Germany's 1916 peace offer to Great Britain held great promise of restoring all Europe to the status that existed there prior to the outbreak of World War I in Europe in August 1917.

Existing conditions in the late Summer and early Autumn of 1916 left Great Britain with little choice in the matter of accepting Germany's peace offer. Germany's armed forces already occupied the greater part of western Europe but until then no enemy soldier had set foot on German soil. Germany's submarine campaign everywhere in the world was proving more effective than anyone anticipated. Great Britain's food reserves were reduced to about one week's supply for the entire nation. British troops in front-line trenches in France were being sent to the rear because ammunition ran out at the front as submarines sank convoyed ammunition.

The French army had mutinied over the slaughter of the flower of French youth, more than 700,000 were killed in the first year of the war. The French people were growing tired of the war. Italy, an ally of Germany at the outbreak of war, was bribed with territory to come into the war as an ally of Great Britain against Germany. Italy's armies quickly collapsed and Italy was out of the war shortly after coming into it. Czarist Russia's armies were retreating so very fast the German armies would very often lose contact with them.

It was daily becoming more difficult in 1916 for Great Britain to view the outcome of the war with Great Britain's earlier optimism. At the outbreak of World War I in August 1914, Great Britain was predicting Germany's defeat before Christmas of that same year, in a matter of only six months. Great Britain was then telling the world "the boys out of the trenches by Christmas." But after fighting for two whole years, the British War Cabinet was deliberating upon the necessity of accepting Germany's peace offer without further delay. Great Britain could hardly continue to fight a war without food, without ammunition and with allies unwilling to fight.

Great Britain sent three missions to the USA during World War I to persuade the USA to come into the war as Great Britain's ally. They were unsuccessful. France sent a mission to the USA for the same purpose but was likewise unsuccessful. Italy's mission likewise failed to persuade the USA to come into World War I as Great Britain's ally. These missions all found sentiment in the USA predominantly pro-German but could do nothing about it.

From the earliest days of World War I, Great Britain made overtures to wealthy USA so-called Jews of German origin expecting through them to enlist USA support for Great Britain's war effort and war aims. Great Britain's overtures proved unsuccessful however because practically all wealthy USA so-called Jews were of German origin, particularly the partners of important banking houses in New York with great influence on foreign policy decisions made in Washington in World War I.

USA newspapers featured pro-German news and views under pressure from wealthy USA so-called Jews. The friction between Czarist Russia and Russia's large number of so-called Jews of Khazar origin was frowned upon by wealthy USA so-called Jews of German origin. The fact that Great Britain was Czarist Russia's ally in World War I heightened the strong anti-British sentiment of wealthy USA so-called Jews of German origin who loathed Russia. In the USA so-called Jews of Russian origin circulated much pro-German propaganda.

Germany at that time was demonstrating great understanding and sympathy for so-called Jews of Khazar origin in the eastern European countries. This was particularly true in Poland, occupied by Germany in World War I, a fact verified by many German army documents recovered after the war. Great Britain was not able to counteract the strong pro-German sentiment of wealthy USA so-called Jews of German origin prior to the 1916 London Agreement.

Zionists quickly learned of Germany's offer of peace to Great Britain. They also learned why the British War Cabinet was then giving serious consideration to accepting Germany's peace offer. Zionists immediately proposed the 1916 London Agreement between the Zionist World Organization and the British War Cabinet. The British War Cabinet quickly concluded the 1916 London Agreement and discontinued further consideration of Germany's peace offer. Shortly thereafter, the USA was railroaded into World War I as Great Britain's ally pressured by Zionists in the USA.

For a reason vital to continued world leadership, Great Britain elected to continue to fight World War I with the USA as Great Britain's ally rather than to enter into negotiations with Germany for a "negotiated peace" on a "status quo ante" basis. Great Britain believed Germany could be defeated with the USA as Great Britain's ally. Great Britain's defeat of Germany would end the threat to Great Britain's world leadership by Germany's Berlin-to-Baghdad railway when completed.

Great Britain believed the "status quo ante" basis of Germany's peace offer, the return of European countries to their status prior to the outbreak of World War I, confirmed that Germany planned to proceed with the construction of Germany's Berlin-to-Baghdad railway project, an eight-day overland all-rail route from Hamburg in Germany to Basra at the head of the Persian Gulf, made possible by the concession granted to the German Kaiser by his friend the ruling Sultan of the Ottoman Empire.

At the outbreak of World War I the territory of the Ottoman Empire included the present territory of countries known since the Versailles Peace Conference in Paris in 1919 as Turkey, Syria, Iraq, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia, Yemen, Kuwait, Palestine and Jordan. Under the concession granted by the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire to the German Kaiser in 1875, Germany's Berlin-to-Baghdad railway was to be built on territory of the Ottoman Empire between the two cities of Constantinople and Basra.

Germany's eight-day overland all-rail route from Hamburg to Basra would provide Germany with access to the markets and the natural resources of the Far East without Germany's shipping at the mercy of the British navy at all times. Germany's access to the markets and natural resources of the Far East was at that time through the Mediterranean with Gibraltar at one end and the Suez Canal at the other end, both defended by impregnable British fortifications to blockade the Far East in war.

Germany's foreign trade was at all times at the mercy of Great Britain's navy. Great Britain's navy was undisputed ruler of the seas. Germany's world-wide foreign trade everywhere was at the mercy of Great Britain's navy. German shipping to the Far East had to take either the shorter route through the Mediterranean or the longer route around the Cape of Good Hope which also was defended by impregnable British fortifications for similar use.

The shorter route from Hamburg to Bombay then required approximately three weeks and the longer route approximately eight weeks. The same trip would require less than eight days upon completion of Germany's all-rail overland Berlin-to-Baghdad railway between Hamburg and Basra.

The completion of Germany's Berlin-to-Baghdad railway would make it possible for Germany to land troops on India's border in less than two weeks time. Great Britain regarded Germany's rapidly expanding military power and Germany's rapidly increasing world trade as a grave challenge to Great Britain's world leadership in these two fields for many centuries.

Germany's growing challenge to Great Britain in world affairs was the outcome of the creation of the German Empire and the defeat of France by the German Empire in the Franco-Prussian war. The German Empire was created only shortly before the 1870 Franco-Prussian war by uniting three hundred small separate states occupying an area approximately the size of the State of Texas. They were sovereign and independent at the time of the French Revolution in 1793. Prior to the creation of the German Empire world affairs were dominated by Great Britain with very little to fear from competition of any other power.

The newly created German Empire possessed no colonies. The maritime nations on Europe's Atlantic seaboard, Great Britain, France, Spain, Portugal and the Netherlands, colonized practically the entire world in the three centuries following the discovery of the Western Hemisphere by Columbus (?) in 1492. Little of this world remained to be colonized when the three hundred small separate German states united to form the German Empire and create a great German merchant marine.

The Ottoman Empire was defeated by Czarist Russia in a disastrous war shortly after France's defeat by Germany in the Franco-Prussian war. The Sultan of the Ottoman Empire entered into an arrangement with the German Kaiser for the reorganization by Germany of the Ottoman Empire's military forces. A great personal friendship soon developed between the German Kaiser and the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire that gave Great Britain worry.

Germany's Kaiser had obtained from the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire a concession to construct Germany's Berlin-to-Baghdad railway on territory of the Ottoman Empire from Constantinople to Basra. Great Britain resorted unsuccessfully to every form of diplomatic pressure to induce the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire to cancel Germany's Berlin-to-Baghdad railway concession but they were never able to do so.

Unsuccessful in that attempt, Great Britain then offered to pay the complete cost of construction for the Berlin-to-Baghdad railway as the price paid by Great Britain for a one-half interest in Germany's concession. Great Britain also proposed dividing the world into two "spheres of influence" aiming in that way to monopolize world trade between Great Britain and Germany promising many mutual benefits.

Germany was a young nation and unable financially to undertake the construction of the Berlin-to-Baghdad railway all at one time. In spite of Great Britain's attractive offer, the offer was refused by Germany. Germany at that time was in a financial position to construct only small sections of the Berlin-to-Baghdad railway and was only able to do that with the assistance of German bankers among whom were German so-called Jews anxious to supply funds.

A frustrated Great Britain was becoming increasingly frightened. Germany was already challenging Great Britain's leadership in world trade. With the prestige and power added to Germany's position in world affairs by the completed Berlin-to-Baghdad railway, Great Britain's leadership in world affairs would be seriously jeopardized. Great Britain reasoned that the only solution to the problem presented by Germany's Berlin-to-Baghdad railway project was to "smash" Germany in a war that would eliminate forever threat of a future German Berlin-to-Baghdad railway.

Great Britain reasoned if Germany could be "smashed" in a war with Great Britain that the Ottoman Empire would collapse as the ally of defeated Germany. The Ottoman Empire's collapse would make the Ottoman Empire's territory "spoils of war" subject to terms of surrender dictated by Great Britain. Great Britain planned by adopting that course of action to end the threat of Germany's Berlin-to-Baghdad railway concession. Great Britain for that purpose premeditated, provoked and precipitated World War I to "smash" Germany.

Great Britain in 1904 approached France seeking a so-called "joint defense alliance" against Germany. France welcomed the idea, recollecting France's ignominious defeat by the infant German Empire thirty years earlier. France feared Germany's phenomenal military and industrial expansion in the intervening thirty years. This so-called "joint defense alliance" against Germany was a "shot-gun wedding" between Great Britain and France, historic enemies. France was not in a position to decline Great Britain's offer and accepted immediately and without reservations.

Great Britain next proposed a so-called "joint defense alliance" against Germany to Czarist Russia. Great Britain offered Czarist Russia the inducement of the Dardanelles as a "warm-water seaport" for Russia, the dream of Russia's Czar for centuries. Czarist Russia was to be rewarded with the Dardanelles as the "spoils of war" after Great Britain's defeat of Germany and the inevitable collapse of the Ottoman Empire, the ally of defeated Germany, the Ottoman Empire's champion.

Having completed their "ring of steel" around Germany, Great Britain's diplomats around the world left no stone unturned to provoke Germany into committing "an act of war." Two notable instances that almost provoked war were the "partition" of Morocco and the serious Dakar "incident."

Time was working in favor of Germany. Great Britain was in a hurry to "smash" Germany before Germany grew too strong for Great Britain to "smash." On the other hand, Germany did not intend to be rushed into war against the world's three leading military powers. Germany intended to wait until such time as Germany's military strength insured victory for Germany if provoked into war against Great Britain, France and Czarist Russia all at one time, whose so-called "joint defense alliance" against Germany was no longer a secret.

Great Britain's long awaited opportunity to "smash" Germany was provided in July 1914 by the assassination of Austria-Hungary's Crown Prince Ferdinand. No person in possession of the facts in their right mind will believe that Crown Prince Ferdinand's assassination was actually the "reason" for World War I. Nothing could be further from the truth. Crown Prince Ferdinand's assassination offered Great Britain the long awaited "excuse" for setting in motion Great Britain's plan to "smash" Germany. Great Britain acted immediately.

It is not important to now decide at this late hour whether it was Germany or Czarist Russia which first mobilized their armed forces in July 1914, or which one first crossed the border a few feet into the other's territory by a few hours. The confusion intentionally created at that time by delaying communications made war inevitable. Great Britain's long awaited war to "smash" Germany became a reality in July 1914 again substantiating the inevitability of the unpredictable. World War I was on!

The important thing at this late date is to establish why the USA was railroaded into a foreign war in which USA interests were not involved. The truthful reason for Great Britain's determination to "smash" Germany was not any concern of the USA. The truthful reason for Great Britain's determination to "smash" Germany became one of the best kept secrets in all history.

The entry of the USA into World War I in 1917 as Great Britain's ally transformed Germany's victories on land and sea prior to 1917 into Germany's ignominious defeat in 1918. Germans correctly construed the misfortunes which overtook Germany since Germany's defeat in 1918 as the direct and indirect results of Germany's stab in the back by the 1916 London agreement which railroaded the USA into World War I on April 6, 1917 as Great Britain's new ally.

Germans have always been convinced that if Zionists had not proposed their 1916 London Agreement to the British War Cabinet at the time they were giving consideration to accepting Germany's peace offer that Great Britain would have accepted Germany's 1916 peace offer at that time. World War I would have ended in 1916.

Germans realized that if World War I had ended in the late Summer or early Autumn of 1916 that there would have been no war going on between Great Britain and Germany on April 6, 1917 into which USA could be railroaded by Zionists.

Germans were convinced upon learning about the 1916 London Agreement that the USA was railroaded into World War I as Great Britain's ally solely as the result of Germany's stab in the back by Zionists. Germans at that time could not imagine that Zionists would stab Germany in the back to acquire Palestine as a so-called "Jewish State" by destruction of Germany.

The most cordial relations always existed between Germany and the World Zionist Organization prior to the 1916 London Agreement. The world headquarters of the World Zionist Organization was in Berlin until 1915. Germans could hardly anticipate a Zionist stab in the back under circumstances existing prior to the 1916 London Agreement. That was unthinkable!

Germans for countless centuries offered sanctuary to eastern European so-called Jews of Khazar origin. Germany for centuries offered security and opportunity to so-called Jews of Khazar origin fleeing from Czarist Russia. The celebrated Emancipation Edict of 1812 gave so-called Jews full civic equality with all other Germans. German authorities thereafter were neither entitled nor inclined to prevent so-called Jews from practicing any profession. The Emancipation Edict of 1812 attracted so-called Jews to Germany from all over the world where they could study medicine, law, chemistry and other sciences in German universities which welcomed them all.

The German Kaiser made many appeals in person between 1895 and 1915 to the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire on behalf of Zionists. The German Kaiser appealed to the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire to grant a territorial concession to Zionists for a so-called "Jewish State" in Palestine. Germany's Kaiser made a famous trip to Palestine in person for that purpose. Germany's Kaiser was continuing these efforts on behalf of Zionists up to the time of Germany's 1916 stab in the back by Zionists.

Zionists had anticipated at the outbreak of the war in August 1914 that Germany would quickly defeat Great Britain. This was the wishful thinking by Zionists because in World War I Great Britain was the ally of Czarist Russia for whom Zionists felt no love. Zionists throughout the world were as pro-German as they were anti-Czarist Russia. Zionists did not want to see a strong Czarist Russia emerge a winner to suppress Zionist dual allegiance.

Zionists had faith the German Kaiser would prevail upon the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire to grant Zionists a territorial concession in Palestine for a so-called "Jewish State" after the defeat of Great Britain awaited most happily by Zionists.

The Sultan of the Ottoman Empire had always refused to give favorable consideration to appeals by the German Kaiser on behalf of Zionists for a territorial concession for a so-called "Jewish State" in Palestine, justifying his numerous refusals by emphasizing that Palestine was not his to give away or to sell regardless of the tempting Zionist offers, never failing to recommend to the German Kaiser that Zionists submit their proposition to the legitimate owners of the land in Palestine.

Germany's unexpected 1916 peace offer to Great Britain changed everything. Zionists realized if Great Britain accepted Germany's peace offer on a "status quo ante" basis that Palestine would remain a province of the Ottoman Empire. In that event, it was possible the German Kaiser might never prevail upon the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire to reverse himself on the question of granting a territorial concession to Zionists for a so-called "Jewish State" in Palestine and Zionism would soon collapse.

Zionists realized if Germany defeated Great Britain, or if Germany concluded a "negotiated peace" on a "status quo ante" basis with Great Britain, that Zionists would be faced with the prospect of never creating a so-called "Jewish State" in Palestine as Palestine in either event would remain a province of the Ottoman Empire.

Zionists had little reason to feel hopeful that the German Kaiser could prevail upon his good friend and ally the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire to reverse himself about granting Zionists a territorial concession for a so-called "Jewish State" in Palestine.

Zionists immediately revised their strategy when they learned of Germany's 1916 peace offer to Great Britain for a "negotiated peace" on a "status quo ante" basis. Zionists quickly plotted their 1916 London Agreement as the revised strategy of their program to woo the British War Cabinet.

Zionists were convinced Great Britain would be forced by existing conditions to accept Germany's peace offer. Zionists did not think Great Britain could continue the war without food and without ammunition and with no ally able or willing to fight.

Zionists were certain Great Britain could defeat Germany with the USA as Great Britain's ally. Zionists were certain when Great Britain defeated Germany the Ottoman Empire would collapse. In that event, the Ottoman Empire's territory would become "spoils of war" subject to terms of surrender dictated by Great Britain. Palestine would then be available to Great Britain as "spoils of war" and Great Britain could then hand Palestine over to Zionists under their 1916 London Agreement.

The Zionist strategy for acquiring Palestine as a so-called "Jewish State" was then revised as follows, (1) prevail upon the British War Cabinet to delay consideration of Germany's peace offer, (2) convince the British War Cabinet that Great Britain can defeat Germany with the USA as their ally, (3) obtain a commitment from Great Britain to hand Palestine over to Zionists after Germany's defeat as their payment for railroadng USA into World War I as Great Britain's ally, and (4) use maximum Zionist influence then for pressuring USA into World War I as Great Britain's ally.

Everything else to Zionists has always been secondary to acquiring Palestine for a so-called "Jewish State." But Germans could not conceive by the wildest stretch of their imaginations that Zionists would stab Germany in the back for that purpose. Germans could not believe until it happened that Zionists would conspire in time of war with Germany's enemies to defeat Germany. Germany's hindsight suggests Germany should have used their foresight.

Germans understandably felt bitter towards Zionists under the circumstances. Germans attributed the many misfortunes which overtook Germany since 1916 to Germany's stab in the back by Zionists. It is an incontrovertible fact that Germany's stab in the back by Zionists in 1916 transformed Germany's victories on land and sea prior to 1916 into Germany's ignominious 1918 defeat with its consequences.

It is not difficult to understand why German feelings towards Zionists changed for the worse so rapidly after World War I. German hostility towards Zionists worsened very fast after Germans learned that Germany was stabbed in the back by Zionists in 1916 only to acquire Palestine for a so-called "Jewish State" after World War I. German hostility towards all so-called Jews in general was the natural and normal consequence of world-wide Zionist propaganda contrary to fact that all so-called Jews were Zionists, and that Zionism and Judaism were actually synonymous.

Germans acquired knowledge of the 1916 London Agreement for the first time at the Versailles Peace Conference in Paris in 1919. Zionists throughout the world sent a "delegation" of 117 so-called "delegates" to the Versailles Peace Conference, headed by Bernard M. Baruch, the USA "elder statesman" and USA "adviser to Presidents." Germans were completely taken by surprise at the Versailles Peace Conference to there hear the reasons given by the Zionist so-called "delegation" for demanding Palestine for a so-called "Jewish State" and reacted to it soon after.

Great Britain could not deliberately hand Palestine over to Zionists at the Versailles Peace Conference without double-crossing the Arabs. Nevertheless, Great Britain had no shame and did just that. Without any remorse proceeding from a consciousness of guilt, Great Britain proceeded to double-cross the Arabs. That double-cross of the Arabs is the most reprehensible double-cross in modern history.

Great Britain brazenly double-crossed the Arabs while the Arabs were momentarily expecting Great Britain to honor Great Britain's October 25, 1915 pledge to Arabs to create an independent Arab government in Palestine after World War I ended. Instead of honoring Great Britain's October 25, 1915 pledge after World War I ended, Great Britain hastened to station 200,000 British troops in Palestine in 1920, then transplanted 600,000 eastern European so-called Jews of Khazar ancestry into Palestine behind a shield of 200,000 British troops kept there for that purpose.

Great Britain pledged the Arab an independent Arab government in Palestine on October 25, 1915 in writing. Great Britain pledged the Arabs on October 25, 1916 not to conclude a peace treaty with Germany that did not guarantee the complete liberation of Arabs from Turkish domination. Great Britain's pledge guaranteed Arabs not to conclude a peace treaty with Germany in which the complete freedom of Arabs did not form an essential condition. In communicating with Arabs Great Britain thereafter referred to World War I as "our just cause" to mislead the Arabs.

World War I was going very badly for Great Britain in the Near East in 1915. Things were as bad as they could be for Great Britain. Gallipoli was about to be evacuated. Gallipoli was the greatest defeat for the British navy in history. Sullum had already been evacuated. Hostilities against the Senussi in Africa had become necessary. Germany's submarine warfare was becoming effective against British supply lines in the Mediterranean to the Near East. Great Britain's forces under General Townshend were besieged in Kut-el-Amara with no prospect of lifting the siege. It was imperative that Great Britain obtain Arab assistance without delay or accept defeat by Germany in 1915 in World War I.

Great Britain was no longer able to hold the Suez Canal without Arab assistance. The Suez Canal was the vital link in Great Britain's lifeline to and from the Far East. Great Britain could not continue to fight World War I if the Suez Canal fell into enemy hands. The only solution to Great Britain's problem was the revolt against Turkey by the Arabs who constituted Turkey's army fighting against Great Britain.

The Arabs promised Great Britain to revolt against Turkey and to fight against Turkey in the Near East as the ally of Great Britain in return for Great Britain's pledge that Arabs were to be freed from every foreign control when World War I ended. Great Britain gave that clearly and definitely worded pledge to Arabs in writing as follows, "Great Britain is prepared to recognize and support the Arabs within the territories included in the limits and boundaries proposed by the Sherceef of Mecca." Palestine was wholly within those limits and boundaries. There was never any mention made of excluding Palestine. Great Britain guaranteed the Arabs that Great Britain would conclude no peace treaty with Germany that did not provide for Palestine as an independent and sovereign state and freed from foreign rule.

Great Britain's victory in the Near East depended more and more each day upon Arab assistance. Great Britain's High Commissioner Sir Henry McMahon was instructed in Cairo by cable from London to conclude the treaty with the terms proposed by the Arabs as quickly as possible. Great Britain's, now famous, October 25, 1915 pledge in writing of an independent Arab government was as solemn and binding a treaty as any treaty ever entered into by Great Britain. Without any "ifs," "ands" or "buts," Great Britain was bound by that treaty to recognize and support the independence of Arabs throughout the Middle East at the end of World War I.

There is nothing for which Great Britain should feel more ashamed than Great Britain's double-cross of the Arabs of Palestine. The soil pressed by the feet of Jesus Christ in the Holy Land ran with blood from end to end because Great Britain elected to double-cross the Arabs in preference to honoring a treaty entered into by Great Britain as consideration for Arab assistance when Great Britain needed that assistance critically to win World War I.

To Great Britain's disgrace, let it not be forgotten that with 200,000 British troops in Palestine, Great Britain failed to hold the election to create the Government of Palestine for which Great Britain assumed the temporary administration of Palestine in 1920 under Article XXII of the League of Nations Covenant. Great Britain administered Palestine for twenty-eight years with 200,000 British troops stationed in Palestine but never made an attempt to hold that election. Incontestible documentary evidence establishes beyond all question of any doubt that Great Britain never intended to hold that election until Great Britain first created a Zionist majority in Palestine pressured by Zionists to do so.

When Great Britain assumed the temporary administration of Palestine in 1920, there were 700,000 Christians and Moslems in Palestine, and 50,000 so-called Jews, of whom only about one-half were Zionists. Between 1920 and 1948 Great Britain transplanted 600,000 eastern European so-called Jews of Khazar ancestry into Palestine. In the twenty-eight years between 1920 and 1948 the Christian and Moslem population in Palestine increased from 700,000 to 1,350,000. Great Britain was never successful in creating a Zionist majority in Palestine. With 200,000 British troops stationed in Palestine with which to facilitate transplanting Zionists into Palestine to create a Zionist majority, Christians and Moslems continued to form the majority of the Palestine population between 1920 and 1948 when they were expelled.

Great Britain could not hand Palestine over to Zionists in 1920 for a so-called "Jewish State" with a Christian and Moslem majority. In the twenty-eight years between 1920 and 1948 Great Britain attempted in vain to create a Zionist majority in Palestine. Under pressure from frustrated Zionists, Great Britain turned the problem of creating the Government of Palestine over to the United Nations.

On November 29, 1947 United Nations General Assembly approved a resolution which "recommended" a plan for a Government of Palestine. Under United Nations Charter, Chapter IV, Articles 10 and 11, under "Functions and Powers," United Nations "may" make "recommendations." United Nations Charter limits United Nations to making "recommendations" in the search for a solution to international wars.

The dishonorable procedure employed in United Nations under Zionist pressure to obtain a two-thirds majority for the November 29, 1947 so-called "Palestine Partition Plan" appears in the Congressional Record of December 18, 1947 on page 1176, where Congressman Lawrence H. Smith then felt it his duty to insert this: "Let's take a look at the record, Mr. Speaker, and see what happened in the United Nations Assembly meeting prior to the vote on partition. A two-thirds vote was required to pass the resolution. On two occasions the Assembly was to vote and twice it was postponed. It was obvious that the delay was necessary because the proponents did not have the necessary votes. In the meantime, it is reliably reported that intense pressure was applied to the delegates of three small nations by the United States member and also by officials 'at the highest levels in Washington!' Now that is a serious charge. When the matter was finally considered on the 29th, what happened? The decisive votes were cast by Haiti, Liberia, and the Philippines. These votes were sufficient to make the two-thirds majority. Previously, these countries opposed the move . . . The pressure by our delegates, by our officials, and by the private citizens of the United States constitutes reprehensible conduct against them and against us."

Drew Pearson in his Merry-go-round column invited the animosity of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt when he exposed the ultimatum she delivered to President Truman in her vigorous around-the-clock campaign to repay Zionists for past services to her husband. Drew Pearson then goes on to say: "Mrs. Roosevelt was among those who urged Truman to get busy. She informed the President that she would have to resign from the American delegation if partition failed because of State Department fumbling."

In his Merry-go-round column of December 2, 1947, the extremely pro-Zionist Drew Pearson was courageous enough to defy Zionist reprisals when he exposed how President Truman abused his high office to deliver ultimatums to foreign governments to make certain the necessary two-thirds majority in United Nations for approval of the November 29, 1947 so-called "Palestine Partition Plan." Drew Pearson said this about President Truman: "Few knew it, but President Truman cracked down on his State Department harder than ever before to swing the United Nations votes for the partition of Palestine. Truman called Acting Secretary Lovett over to the White House on Wednesday and again on Friday, warning him he would demand a full explanation if nations which usually line up with the United States failed to do so on Palestine. Truman had in mind that such countries as Liberia wholly dependent on the United States; Greece, which would fall overnight without American aid; Haiti, which always follows Washington's lead, and Ethiopia, also indebted to the United States, were stepping out of line on Palestine."

Drew Pearson was playing with fire when he dared to expose in his Merry-go-round column how USA political leaders seeking Zionist support in elections in states having 151 of the 531 electoral votes, actually 60% of the electoral vote majority required to elect the President of the USA, degraded the USA by acting as Zionist lobbyists for an international criminal conspiracy. Drew Pearson then said:

"It didn't leak out but one thing that helped turn the tide in favor of the partition vote for Palestine was a telegram from 26 U.S. Senators to 12 United Nations Delegations on the fence. The telegram was drafted by Democratic Senator Bob Wagner of New York and was sent to Haiti, Greece, Luxembourg, Argentina, Columbia, China, El Salvador, Ethiopia, Honduras, Mexico, the Philippines, and Paraguay. Of these, four countries, Haiti, Paraguay, Luxembourg, and the Philippines finally changed their vote."

Drew Pearson was brave enough to publish in his Merry-go-round column the names of other Zionist protagonists who used their prominence in public affairs to pressure foreign countries to change their votes to make certain the two-thirds majority in United Nations for approval of the November 29, 1947 "Palestine Partition Plan." Drew Pearson then said this: "In the end, a lot of people used their influence to whip voters into line. Harvey Firestone, who owns rubber plantations in Liberia, got busy with the Liberian Government. Adolph Berle, adviser to the President of Haiti, swung that vote . . . China's Ambassador Wellington Koo warned his government . . . French Ambassador Bonnet pleaded with his crisis laden government for partition . . . However, the two men who swung the most important influences were Foreign Minister Evatt of Australia . . . and his friend Oswaldo Aranha, President of United Nations, both of whom worked together to put across Palestine partition."

Cardinal Spellman may have planted the seeds of World War III when he validated Great Britain's stab in the back of the Arabs in the Holy Land. The news item in The New York Times on May 14, 1964 speaks for itself. The New York Times under the headline, "Spellman aid in getting Israel into United Nations in 1949 is disclosed," revealed the following:

"A leading American Zionist disclosed last night that Cardinal Spellman had an active role in the admission of Israel to the United Nations in 1949. Charles H. Silver said the Cardinal had been influential in swinging several South American delegations to the side of the struggling new nation. Mr. Silver, a close friend of the Cardinal, made the disclosure in introducing the Cardinal at Beth Israel Hospital's 75th anniversary dinner at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel. Mr. Silver is president of the hospital. A former president of the Board of Education and now an executive assistant to Mayor Wagner, Mr. Silver said he had kept the secret of Cardinal Spellman's participation 15 years.

"He said that Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver visited Mr. Silver and asked him to obtain a statement from Cardinal Spellman supporting Israel's cause in United Nations. The same day, on an outdoor walk Mr. Silver said he presented the proposition to the Cardinal. 'I will do something that may mean a great deal more,' the Cardinal is reported to have replied, the Cardinal according to Mr. Silver said he would call on Delegates and persons of importance in the South American bodies and 'share with them his fond wish that Israel be admitted.'"

"The rest," Mr. Silver said, "is history. When the vote was taken, Israel became the 59th member of the United Nations, winning almost exactly the number of countries to which His Eminence had gone for assistance in our cause." After his talk Mr. Silver explained that the Cardinal had talked with every South American Delegation and the one from the Philippines."

Thanks to Cardinal Spellman, a representative of the so-called "State of Israel" is sitting today in the seat in United Nations that should be occupied today by the representative of the Arab Government of Palestine. If Cardinal Spellman had not used the prestige and power of his position in the Catholic Church to compel admission of the so-called "State of Israel" to United Nations, the so-called "State of Israel" would today have the status of any armed uprising in authority in the territory they now occupy like any other armed uprising.

Dear Mrs. Molitor!

You stated in your letter to the Editor in Aurora Beacon ^{mag.} that President Kennedy is trying to keep our country great which I commend him for, but trying and actually doing so is a lot different. There are some jockeying things taking place, such as Senator Dodd is pointing out, namely losing Congo to the Communies.

I am enclosing his speech and copy of Senator Dodd's letter to President Kennedy.

If Pres. Kennedy is trying hard on this particular difficulty, I have not been informed.

Please forward what information you may have in ^{the} regard to the ~~Congo~~ Pres. Kennedy's action and accomplishments. Sincerely yours,
For God and Country
B. L. Brom

P.S. I am also enclosing a copy of "The Coming Red Dictatorship", thought you would be interested.

THE COMING RED DICTATORSHIP

ASIATIC MARXIST JEWS CONTROL ENTIRE WORLD AS LAST WORLD WAR COMMENCES. THOUSANDS OF PLOTTERS PLACED IN KEY POSITIONS BY INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT. FEW WERE EVER ELECTED.

1. The information printed here is not available from any of the regular channels of information which are controlled by our enemy.

2. Read carefully and judge for yourself about what is wrong with America.

3. UNLESS YOU ACT AT ONCE to stop this plot which has been steadily progressing for many years, and especially the last 20 years, and now has its key men in the desired positions of power, ready to pull the strings which will submerge Gentile humanity forever.

4. Every Senator and Congressman is constantly voting on questions concerning the world crisis, yet few have the guts to tell the people what is back of the entire world crisis and to advocate measures to counteract it.

5. Rather than endure the smear that would come their way, many members of Congress are willing to sell their own future generations into slavery. Spineless creatures engrossed with the egotism of the might lose advertising.

15. The International Jewish Council met at Basle, Switzerland, in 1879 and drew up the "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion" as the formula for their plan to capture control of the world.

16. Jews claim the Protocols are forgeries. A forgery is an unauthorized copy of an original. The Jews never question the authenticity of the original Protocols which were written in Hebrew. The important fact is that the Jews are carrying the plot out to the letter.

17. The Russian Revolution was financed by Jews, Jacob Schiff, Otto Kahn & Paul Warburg, of Kuhn, Loeb & Company, New York bankers. They advanced 48 million dollars and trained 276 Jewish revolutionaries in New York City on the lower East Side who were shipped to Russia in 1917 to direct the overthrow of the government and set up the present Communist government of U. S. S. R. They passed through Germany (with whom we were then at war) by permission of Paul War-burg's brother, who was the Kaiser's Chief of Espionage, and permission of the German Chancellor, Von Bethman-Hollweg (Jew). Trotsky and Lenin were the leaders. All attempted assassinations and assassinations of Cezars were carried out by Jews.

Protocol XX, 20. "Economic crises have been produced by us for the goyim (Gentile) by no other means than the withdrawal of money from circulation."

This was written in 1905 and referred to the panic of 1893 which was caused by simply and suddenly withdrawing a large amount of gold from the New York Stock Exchange and sending it to Montreal. "The Federal Reserve Conspiracy" documents the details of this operation from economic journals and from little-publicized Congressional investigations. The money panics of 1907 (which occurred in a year of general prosperity), 1921 and 1929 were caused in the same way, and the details are similarly documented.

22. THE HOUSE OF ROTHSCHILD, Jewish banking house, loaned money to both sides in World War I (in line with the Protocols plot). Without such loans there Lithuania have been digested by the Communist Jews) — with a few Gentile stooges to front for them. Two and a half million Jews in Russia occupy nearly all government positions and live in luxury with the finest cars and mink coats while the Gentile population lives in slavery and squalor as their slaves. LAZAR KAGANOVICH, Jewish brother-in-law of STALIN was the "FELIX FRANKFURTER" of the Soviet Union.

World War III is to exhaust the nations so that they will agree to a Jewish world government. The Jew-controlled United Nations is to be the world government; the flag of the United Nations is taken from the flag of Israel and Russia.

28. The world crisis is made by BERNARD BARUCH, FELIX FRANKFURTER, LEHMAN, JAMES PAUL WARBURG, LEWIS L. STRAUSS (of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and who was recently appointed Chairman of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission by EISENHOWER), ROTHSCHILD estate, MORGENTHAU, EIN-STEIN, and the rest of their Jewish conspirators.

35. She was backed by BERNARD BARUCH for her position. She is a friend of EISENHOWER. BARUCH is the secret President of the United States. EISENHOWER is his mouthpiece. EISENHOWER, on BARUCH's advice, opposes the BRICKER amendment so our Constitution can be set aside and world government set up, and the White Race destroyed.

36. Jew EINSTEIN caused the Atomic Energy traitor. KLAUS FUCHS, to be released from jail in Canada and brought to the United States, where he acted as the world's leading atomic energy spy. EINSTEIN was a strong supporter of traitors JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG. EINSTEIN in a letter to Jew WILLIAM FRAUENGLASS, New York teacher, ad-

Importance of their positions and thinking they are the all-wise mentors of the nation passing on its vital questions, whereas they are guilty of the grossest hypocrisy of all times in evading the one and all important issue which is the foundation of all other questions. They are presiding over the distribution of the world.

6. Many members of Congress desire to lead a life of hypocrisy and escape the real issue, leaving it for others, who, in like manner, leave it for others, and all touch it not. Thus the internal enemy has a free and untrammelled field in which he is moving rapidly forward to the climax.

7. Needed is a simultaneous effort of a large group of Senators and Congressmen to expose this plot because there is protection in numbers. The public could thus be aroused, and once aroused, would give them its support, and smear of individuals could not take place when a goodly number act simultaneously.

8. Communism was set up by Jews in 1917.

9. It is the Jewish plot to enslave the Gentiles and to rule over them as kings over slaves.

10. The Jews consider this their destiny as "the chosen people".

backed by WARBURG of Kuhn Loeb & Company on the promise that he would obtain passage of and sign PAUL WARBURG'S "Federal Reserve Act of 1913"—which he did—which placed the banking reserves of the United States under the control of the Jewish international bankers. ROTHSCHILD, KUHN, LOEB, and LEHMAN, etc.

19. The public thinks the Federal Reserve banks are government owned, but they are privately owned, the geographic dispersal of twelve to represent decentralization just being window-dressing as they all are dependent on the Federal Reserve Bank of New York which is under control of the Wall Street Jewish international bankers.

20. They collect the dividends resulting from the interest payments of the U. S. government on its bonds sold to the Federal Reserve Banks, financed by deposits of which had elected him, and he put three Jews in complete charge of the United States — BERNARD BARUCH as head of War Industries Board, PAUL WARBURG as head of banking interests, and EUGENE MEYER who now owns the leftist paper "Washington Post" and also controls Allied Chemical and Dye, head of the Liberty Loan drive. BARUCH spent 10 billion dollars of allied money, giving his own companies the choicest contracts, on which he also could fix prices, and made himself a multi-millionaire by fleecing the people of the United States.

24. BARUCH has spent his life carrying out the plot of the "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion" while representing himself to the public as "Elder Statesman" and "Advisor to Presidents". He pretends to be a patriot by advising America what it should do for protection against war crises which he and his gang has foisted on America in their plot.

30. Why did Truman in 1945, in appointing a five-man civilian board Atomic Energy Commission, appoint four Jews as members? Chairman DAVID ALLENTHAL, then shown to be a member of two Communist fronts, yet backed by BARUCH for the position. Other Jew members, W. W. WAY-MACK, R. F. BACHER, and LEWIS L. STRAUSS.

31. Why does Eisenhower now appoint LEWIS L. STRAUSS, Jewish Kuhn Loeb banker, as chairman of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission?

32. Why did Eisenhower appoint Jewish Austrian-born Prof. ARTHUR F. BURNS his Economic Adviser? (The Protocols say the Jews must occupy the positions of economic advisers).

33. Why did Eisenhower appoint Jewess FREDA B. HENNOCK Federal Communications Commissioner, and Jew SAMUEL nism in accordance with the Jewish plan to control the world as outlined in their "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion" have complete control of both the Democratic and Republican parties.

With their unlimited supply of money, they can buy anything. Protocol III, 11. "With the aid of gold — which is all in our hands — we shall create universal economic crises which will bring industry to a standstill."

Protocol IV., 4. "To give the Gentiles no time to think, their minds must be diverted — thus all nations take no note of their common foe."

38. The United States is already captured. Its government is under the control of its 11 million Jews headed by the BARUCH, FRANKFURTER, LEHMAN, MORGANTHAU, WARBURG gang.

11. To accomplish this they create wars, revolutions, and depressions in order to seize the power during the resulting chaos.

12. For hundreds of years this has been the Jewish plan on the instructions of their Grand Sanhedrin of Constantinople in its Vengeance Protocol of 1492.

13. To do so, they have cornered the world's gold supply and have sold the world the fiction that gold is wealth, instead of the land and commodities being recognized as wealth. By their control of gold, they have enslaved all nations to them through loans. They hold the world in an economic straitjacket.

14. By their control of gold, they control the means of propaganda, smearing all newspapers and publications who do not kow-tow to their wishes, and also shutting off all foreign news they do not wish a nation's people to hear. Every regular newspaper in the land talks of the world crisis, but not one dares to inform the public of the Jew plot behind the crisis. They commercial banks throughout the country — YOUR MONEY. The U. S. government pays interest on its own credit and the Jewish international bankers collect it. In 1946 on a national debt of 246 billion, the interest was 14½ million dollars a day. Today, 1954, the National debt is 276 billion dollars. Can you see where the money power lies? By their control of gold the Jewish international bankers get richer while Gentile America gets poorer and poorer. In the "Protocols" they say they will drain the entire product of material and labor off the land into their treasuries.

21. The Congress "abdicated" in 1913 when it passed the Federal Reserve Act. The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Banks met behind closed doors and has more power than the Congress of the United States. Said Board of Governors is not responsible to the public nor to Congress and has repeatedly shown that it is under the control of the international banker. By raising the rediscount rate (a

BARUCH spent $10,000 to bring the Communist church burners back from Spain where they burned religious leaders alive after covering them with kerosene. (Time Magazine, Jan. 2, 1938.)

25. World War II was forced on Germany by the Jewish International bankers who squeezed Germany financially for this purpose. Jew, SAMUEL UNTERMEYER, brought about the boycott of Germany in 1933 for this purpose.

26. World War II was for the purpose of the Jews doing to Germany what they did to Russia in World War I, causing revolution and establishing Communism.

27. World War III is being arranged by the Jews in order to bring the entire world into Communism, which is Jewish super capitalism, with the Jews controlling the government as they do now in the Soviet Union and all other Communist countries — Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Roumania. China (Estonia, Latvia and

R. GRONER her assistant? The Protocols say they must control all communications.

34. ANNA M. ROSENBERG, who attended Communist front meetings according to sworn testimony by RALPH DE SOLA, hired 10,000 people for the Manhattan (Atomic Energy) project, (The New Yorker, September 15, 1945). This included the spies JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG, GREENGLASS, SOBEL, GOLD, KLAUS FUCHS and others. SIDNEY FIELDS, writing in the New York Mirror November 15, 1950, describes the power ANNA had while in charge of the nation's manpower: "Tomorrow MRS. ANNA M. ROSENBERG assumes her duties as Assistant Secretary of Defense in charge of the nation's manpower. There are about 115 different U. S. government agencies concerned with manpower." Mr. FIELDS quotes Mrs. ROSENBERG: "Today we are in for a long pull . . . I would not dare estimate how long. Nobody would believe us.

One hundred and sixty million American Gentiles ruled by 11 million Jews. A nation within a nation. And in the world, billions of Gentiles are ruled by 16 million world Jews.

39. DAVID SENTER, political writer for the Hearst papers, on July 6, 1953, states that the man behind the guns in the EISENHOWER administration is SIDNEY JAMES WEINBERG. Wall Street investment banker of GOLDMAN, SACHS and COMPANY. It is clear that the EISENHOWER CABINET was hand-picked by WEINBERG'S man, General LUCIUS CLAY, whom WEINBERG made Chairman of Continental Can. Jews WEINBERG and BARUCH rule EISENHOWER, that is definite.

40 While focusing our attention on the enemy from without, the enemy from within has captured the United States government. The power passed from the people to the state about twenty years (See Other Side) ago. No longer are the three divisions of government, Legislative, Executive, Judicial of equal power as was intended by the founding fathers.

41. Only the form of a Republic is maintained, deceiving the people into believing they have a Republic. They have same on local level only, not on a national level.

42. The Executive is all powerful. Congress is powerless. By patronage and by strategy the Executive gets his way. He can buy legislation. Congressmen admit they have no check on the astronomical budget figures they vote for, and once voted, the Executive can spend it at will with no check up. The Executive appoints the Supreme Court Judges and so controls that also.

43. The Invisible Jewish government has been in control of the U.S. since F.D.R. took office, and also controls WINSTON CHURCHILL, England, France, the Soviet Union, Israel, Hungary, and Czechoslovakia, Poland, and Rumania.

44. The land in Israel is owned by the taken to Russia to be tried, without protection of the U.S. Courts and U.S. Constitution, and trial by jury. It makes it a crime to say anything reflecting upon any race, or group, and this law the Jews want so they can proceed unhindered in their plot, and it will be criminal to accuse them.

(j) Universal Military Training is for the purpose of getting the young men of America under control of the Jews for 8 year periods and with the military whiphand over them, they will be forced to study and accept Communist propaganda. Those who accept will be given the advancement and allowed to study for the positions of doctors, dentists, lawyers, etc., but those who rebel against it will be chosen for floor scrubbers, etc.

(k) The Human Rights Covenant, drawn up by ELEANOR ROOSEVELT, DEAN ACHISON, and two Russians, gives the government of any member nation of the United Nations the right, if it thinks itself threatened, to curb the freedom of the press, and impose martial law, and to take over all industry and all labor.

we were not allowed to win the war.

Protocol 11.1 says "It is indispensable for our purpose that wars, so far as possible, should not result in territorial gains; war will thus be brought to the economic ground.... Our international rights will then wipe out national rights, in the proper sense of right, and will rule the nations precisely as the civil law of States rules the relations of their subjects among themselves."

54. EISENHOWER advocated the LEHMAN inspired legislation to admit 214,000 additional immigrants (mostly Jews, you will see) to replace the Gentile Americans destroyed in the Korean war. Eighteen gullible Republican Senators sponsored this legislation which they would have voted against the previous year had TRUMAN introduced it, but now they consider they have a "Republican" President. Since the end of World War II, ACHESON let in five times as many immigrants as the law allows and 77 per cent of them were Jews. Congress stands supreme

(f) He refused to win the Korean war.

(g) He gave the Communists everything they asked in the truce negotiations, including giving up the strategic island of Cho and two others.

(h) He is against tax reduction, although he had promised it.

(i) He has refused to clean out the Reds in government positions.

(j) He is against McCARTHY and never talks against the enemy from without. On line with the Protocols wherein they say they will divert the attention of the people while they do their work of the plot. "To give the Gentiles no time to think, their minds must be diverted... thus all nations will take no note of their common foe."

(k) He is for the United Nations [which is to be the Jewish World Government].

will be shot! This is your last chance. When the Jews pull the dictatorship, they will shoot you or put you in concentration camps. You have presided at the passing of the United States and the passing of the white race. You let it happen. Now get together in one mighty effort to stop it. This is reality. You have only one chance left and that is to arrange a simultaneous outcry by a group of your fellow members of Congress to indict this conspiracy by the size of which the Capone gang and the Mafia are infants. The Jewish Anti-Defamation League, its Ethel Bricht, the American Jewish Congress, are subversive conspiracies carrying out the Jew plan. They are a "Gestapo" in every community. The Jewish communities everywhere fully cooperate—none disavow it. They have been taught it for hundreds of years. The Protocols of Zion are being fulfilled. Act now or your posterity will be slaves forever! BENJAMIN FRANKLIN predicted this in his Convention Speech in 1784, and you have carried it out and brought it to the point at which the trap is about to snap. Get together at once and undo it or be prepared to take the consequences PALESTINE POTASH CORP. and the PALESTINE ECONOMIC CORP. represented in the United States by the National Jewish Fund. Arabs had occupied part of this land for 1,300 years and part 1,700 years. The Jews came in from other parts of the world and murdered the Arabs and pushed nearly a million into the desert where 850,000 still exist.

45. WINSTON CHURCHILL sent his war time messages to ROOSEVELT through BERNARD BARUCH who had his apartment in the Waldorf-Astoria in New York.

46. ANTHONY EDEN recuperated from an illness at the Rhode Island home of the daughter of Jew, OTTO KAHN, one of those who financed the Russian revolution. Mrs. OTTO KAHN was feted by Bolshevik Russia like an empress.

47. THE JEW PLAN

(a) To cause wars to consume the American Gentile manpower which should be the seed of this nation.

(b) To replace the consumed American Gen-

This is the means they intend to use to spring the trap on the United States and take over the government with their dictatorship. They are also pushing to do the same thing by urging passage of standby mobilization legislation, for which BARUCH appeared before Congressional committees and for which he has made public speeches in advocating that the President be given complete authority to mobilize everyone from 17 to 70, in event of attack or threat of attack by Russia, a threat he and his gang will bring about at the desired time, because they control the government of the Soviet Union, as well as of England, France, Israel, and the United States.

THE PASSING OF THE WHITE RACE

48. Jews keep themselves segregated and do not intermarry but they want the Gentiles to intermarry with colored races. Why not, then, the Jews? Oh, no, they consider themselves "the chosen people" to rule over all the other races of the world.

This plot could not go on if the newspapers by while all this little child and not supposed to know.

55. HENRY MORGENTHAU JR., Secretary of the Treasury, with Under Secretary and Communist (who committed suicide when exposed) and HAROLD GLASSER—all Jews in charge of our Treasury—gave to the Communists money plates complete with three plane-loads of secret ink and four plane-loads of secret paper for printing our money in East Germany to pay two years salary to Communist soldiers. Jewish refugees brought millions of this money to the U.S. to set up in business.

56. More Koreans are to come in the future to consume more American manpower which should be the seed of this nation. We now have our men scattered in 63 countries, according to U.S. News and World Report Dec. 25, 1953.

57. More letting down of the Immigration Laws is to come to let in more Jews to take the place of the consumed American Gentiles.

58. When the United States is worn down being a ROOSEVELT-TRUMAN favorite interpreter and advisor, who still contends the Yalta and Teheran decisions were right.

(n) He appointed the ROOSEVELT-TRUMAN favorite General WALTER BEDELL SMITH as Undersecretary of State, who is one of the five men who knew the Japs were on their way to attack us at Pearl Harbor and did not alert our forces there.

(o) He sponsored the legislation to admit 214,000 additional aliens in the next three years and secured its passage.

(p) He is against the WALTER-MCCARRAN Immigration Law.

(q) He is for raising the debt limit of the United States.

(r) He is for keeping up the foreign spending to finance socialistic governments in other countries while tearing down the United States.

(s) He is against bookburning but wants U.S. citizens taxed to supply Red slanted books to foreign libraries.

(t) He is for Universal Military Training, and and you and your posterity, will be wiped out or go into slavery forever. There is no time to delay.

In case you think we are prejudiced, history for more than 1,000 years indicates that where ever these people have settled, it was necessary to evict them eventually—Babylon, Spain, France, England, and as recent as 1933, Germany, AND it will happen in America.

What You Can Do

TO U.S. SENATORS and CONGRESSMEN

1. Organize into a group willing to save America by simultaneous action.
2. Outlaw Communism.
3. Make treason during peace time a crime punishable by death.
4. Outlaw the Anti-Defamation League, American Jewish Congress, and American Jewish Committee.

ties with Jewish immigrants from Europe and Asia.

(c) To consume the money of the American Gentile population by the direct and indirect taxes necessary to pay the interest to the Jewish international bankers on the national debt and to pay national budgets brought about by the cost of the wars and the preparation for wars.

(d) To enforce non-segregation in order that intermarriage of white and colored races (which always results in colored offspring) will be brought about and thus cause the passing of the white race, which race the Jews consider their only obstacle to the fulfillment of their protocols plot, as they feel their superior intelligence (as they call it) will enable them to easily rule over a world of colored races.

(e) To set aside our Constitution by means of of the country, would inform the people. Papers daily speak of the world crisis yet not one of the regular commercial dailies has the guts to come out with the truth of the Jew plot. They would lose some Jewish advertising dollars... so better to have wars and the dissolution of the United States and the passing of the white race than to lose those precious Jewish advertising dollars. The newspapers need to also arrange a simultaneous exposure of the plot.

49. Jews brought on World War 11, and its aftermath, had us fight it in order to remove the two barriers, Germany and Japan from Russian expansion in order to make the present World crisis.

50. The Jews caused the stooge TRUMAN-ACHESON gang to build up Russia to present a threat to the United States which they could then use to put the United States in a military enough and the Russian H-bomb stockpile is built up enough so that Russia can win then the Jews will bring about World War 111 to exhaust the white race so that the remnants left will submit to world government in desperation, which will be a "Jewish World Government".

53. They state they will then forbid the intermarriage of whites with whites. Whites will be allowed only to marry colored peoples in order to dissolve the white race.

60. After they get the United Nations "Human Rights Covenant" passed, which gives all member governments the right to impose martial law if they consider themselves threatened, they will have their Russian friends perpetrate an event which they will call a national threat enabling the government to put the United States under martial law, and then you will actually have in has appointed a committee to study it, which committee he has handpicked of those in favor of it, and appointed JULIUS ADLER, a Jew, as Chairman.

62. Eisenhower has moved the Jews into top position in our government, in readiness for the day when they will "snap the trap."

(a) He has appointed Jew LEWIS L. STRAUSS as Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission. STRAUSS is a member of KUHN, LOEB CO, investment bankers.

(b) He has appointed Jew ARTHUR F. BURNS his Economic Advisor.

(c) He has appointed Jew MEYER ROBERT GUGGENHEIM, Ambassador to Portugal.

(d) He has appointed Jew LOUIS ROTH-SCHILD, Chairman of the Maritime Board.

1. Form groups of fellow Legislators willing to save America by taking simultaneous action.

2. Outlaw the Anti-Defamation League, American Jewish Congress and American Jewish Committee.

3. They have trained "Military Government Units" and in a trial run in nine cities moved in and imposed Martial Law in the name of the United Nations. This was a dress rehearsal for what is to come.

4. Eisenhower's reorganization of the defense system is the BARUCH Plan which puts the final authority in one man, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

5. The State National Guard units everywhere have purposely been prevented from getting ammunition and equipment by the Federal Government. This is to prevent them from resisting the "take-over" when it comes.

treaty law with the United Nations and then set up World Government to the United Nations, which will be a Jewish world government.

(1) In any world government we will have 7 per cent of the vote, being 7 per cent of the world's population. They will outvote us and will ship millions of black and yellow people into the United States and with non-segregation laws, the white race will melt away which is the Jew plan.

(g) Fair Employment Practices Commission, FEPC, the Genocide treaty, the Human Rights Covenant, and Universal Military Training are all Jewish Communist measures pushed by the Jewish controlled United Nations.

(h) F.E.P.C. is to force employers to hire Communists and colored people with no freedom of choice, in order to break down white control of industry, and also to bring about intermarriage of whites and colored by non-segregation in industry, to further the wiping out of the white race.

(4) The Genocide treaty could force you to be dictatorship strait-jacket, which is fast on the way.

51. The Jews caused F.D. ROOSEVELT to give Manchuria and Poland to the Communists and to divide Germany... see the results. FRANKFURTER, directing the State Department, gave China to the Communists and sent General MARSHALL, their stooge, to spend 13 months breaking down enemies of Communism in China.

52. They caused the Korean war to follow by having the U.S. refuse to arm the South Koreans, although knowing Russia armed the North Koreans to the teeth; and by withdrawing our troops and announcing we would not defend Korea. Colonel ALFRED G. KATZIN was U.N. representative to Korea, now in charge of all U.N. personnel. Why worry about military secrets when Jews are in such key positions?

53. This caused the invasion they desired, then they threw our troops in there without consent of Congress, in violation of Public Law No. 264, but caused adoption of the policy whereby being the Jewish dictatorship which is now all ready in the seat of power but has not yet pulled the strings.

61. EISENHOWER is completely subservient to the Jewish Plotters and is carrying forward their Protocols Plot steadily. That is why:

(a) He wants the United Nations to be able to set aside our Constitution, which will bring the destruction of America, and the setting up of Jewish World Government under the United Nations.

(b) He proposed and secured passage of treaties making our soldier boys subject to foreign courts. Surely he cares naught about protecting our American boys.

(c) He refused to blockade Red China.

(d) He refused to cut off aid being given to our so-called allies, who were trading with Red China.

(e) He refused to enable CHIANG KAI-SHEK to invade the mainland.

(e) He appointed Jewess FREDA HENNOCK, Federal Communications Commissioner.

(f) He has appointed Jew SAMUEL B. GRONER, Assistant, Federal Communications Commissioner.

(g) He has appointed Jew MAX RABB, his White House Assistant.

(h) He has appointed Jew I. JACK MARTIN, liaison man between White House and Congress.

(i) He has appointed Jew CLARENCE D. DILLON (LAPOWSKI) Ambassador to France.

63. The Gentiles have been willing to share America with the Jews; but the Jews are not willing to share America with the Gentiles. The Jews want it all, and to make the Gentiles their slaves.

64. The Jews cry Anti-Semitism whenever accused, but the correct name of Anti-Semitism is "Jew conscious." If a group is guilty of a crime against others, then they should be decry'd as a group, just as you would decry the Capone gang, for the same reason.

WHAT IS THE REAL FORCE BEHIND COMMUNISM ?

D I D Y O U K N O W

1. Karl Marx, the founder and originator of Communism, was Jewish?
2. Nikolai Lenin, who led in the establishment of Communism in Russia, was half Jew and married to a Jewess. Only Yiddish was spoken in their home?
3. Leon Trotsky, whose real name was Bronstein, was the generalissimo of the Red Army which murdered the Czar, his family and 15,000,000 Christians?
4. Twenty-three additional leading founders of world Communism are: Weinstein, Rosenfeld, Furstenberg, Zederbaum, Zilberstein, Goldman, Afeldbaum, Ziwin, Goldenback, Helphand, Krochmann, Bleichmann, Nathansohn, Zibar, Lowensohn, Garfeld, Gimel, Solesohn, Schultze, Orothodox, Lurge, Padomilsky, Nakhanes?
5. In the first week of its existence, the leadership of the Communist State, to protect itself from attack, declared anti-Semitism a crime against the State, subject to the death penalty—a tacit admission that the Communist regime was Jewish?
6. The Russian Revolution was sponsored, financed and promoted by, among others, the following bankers: Jacob Schiff, Otto Kahn, Felix Warburg, S. H. Hannauer, with the able assistance of the International Banking House of Kuhn, Loeb and Company, all of whom invested over 48 million dollars?
7. Before a Senate Committee on February 12, 1919, it was stated in the Overman Report of the 388 members of the Revolutionary Government in 1918, only 16 were real Russians—one was a Negro from America, the other 371 were Jewish of whom 165 came from the Lower East Side of New York City?
8. As recently as 1935, the Major Yeats Brown Report states: "In the Central Committee of the Communist Party, consisting of 59 members, 56 were Jewish. The three others—Stalin, Lobov, and Ossinsky—were married to Jewesses?
9. One of the most prominent Jewish leaders, Rabbi Stephen Wise, said, "Some call it Communism, but we call it JUDAISM."
10. Let us not forget that Khrushchev on November 17, 1956, said: "We will bury you!"

ARE YOU AN INFORMED PATRIOTIC AMERICAN ?

Test yourself in this "unrigged" QUIZ. If you can answer 7 out of 10 correctly you are an informed person. If you know all the answers you'll be fighting mad.

1. NAACP—The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People is not a NEGRO outfit. No Negro has ever been president and is ever likely to be. Who directs it?
2. ARE YOU RELIGIOUS?—What organization has stolen the Holy Bible and all prayers from our Public Schools, and makes Almighty God of no importance to children as has been done in Soviet Union? How does this organization plan to destroy Christianity?
3. AMERICAN COMMUNISM—The Communists now have the equivalent of twenty fully armed Divisions in the United States, whose only loyalty is to Marxism. Who directs it?
4. CIVIL RIGHTS—They were yours once. Now you've lost them. Civil Rights in disguise is robbing your State of all its Constitutional powers to make an all-powerful Federal Government of Dictatorship. Who is financing and directing the whole thing?
5. FOREIGN AID GIVEAWAYS—Supposed to stop Communism, they are actually building Socialist Governments by spending the USA into bankruptcy with your taxes. It is illegal to tax you to support any foreign power. Who finances and directs this thing?
6. ILLEGAL ALIENS—How many people are illegally in this country? We tell you they total about 9,000,000 persons. Who shoved this one across with our gullible State Dept?
7. FORCED INTEGRATION—Is forced race mixing a program of equality for all citizens, or is it a plot to divide, confuse, and communize our country through little children by breaking down all social barriers? Who is directing this movement?
8. MENTAL HEALTH—Is this designed to help mentally sick people, of which there is but one in 25,000, or is it a plot to remove from circulation, without trial, all who politically oppose the Communist takeover of America, and which is almost ready?
9. METRO GOVERNMENT—Is this plan to beautify suburbs and shopping centers or is it a plan to confiscate private property under appointed managers over elected officials?
10. IS COMMUNISM STILL JEWISH?—Seventeen New York Jews organized and financed the Russian Revolution. They murdered the Czar, his family and 15 million Christians under Lenin and Trotsky (Bronstein). Thirty-five million Christians have died under Khrushchev and Stalin. It is still "death penalty" to be anti-Semitic or persecute a Jew in the Soviet Union, so, we repeat the question: IS COMMUNISM STILL JEWISH?

...TO FREEDOM...

HAS SOMEBODY IN OUR COUNTRY STARTED TO THINK?

U. S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORT, August 23, 1957 — Washington Whispers:

"A high official who deals with Russians said: 'We are in the dark about who is really shaping Soviet Policy. The Russians are running a big show, active in the Middle East, in Europe, all over the world, involving the most technical moves. This sort of show cannot be run by one or two men at the top or by a few bureau chiefs. It cannot be run by Krushchev or Bulganin who are traveling so much. WE DO NOT KNOW WHO IN MOSCOW HAS THE TIME AND THE SKILL TO DO THE JOB THAT IS SO WELL DONE AND VERY FAST.'"

THE WORLD'S PRESENT DEADLY PERIL ECONOMY

IN GOD'S NAME; FOR THE SAKE OF HUMANITY

FOR THE SAKE OF AMERICAN FREEDOM

PLEASE READ AND STUDY THIS DOCUMENT CAREFULLY!

IT SPEAKS IN BEHALF OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

It is prepared without anger. The times are too serious to indulge in a mere emotion of anger. It is prepared without prejudice to any individual Jew because of his race. It is simply true that DEADLY EVIL threatens humanity and that this EVIL is focused, planned and implemented by a group of Jews known as Zionists. Not all Zionists Are Jews. Many Gentile Americans have been drawn into this Plot by ignorance, through blackmail, through favors given in supposed good faith, through clever persuasion. This document is aimed at a Plot, not a race. The Plot is what is important to see and understand. The fact that this EVIL must needs come to humanity through this group is sad. But we cannot let maudlin sentimentality keep us from

COMMUNISM --- A ZIONIST TOOL

THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION

Who and How

Communism is an integral part of The Great Conspiracy of the Zionist reactionaries for the enslavement of the entire world.

in (Ulianov, a half Jew) in Switzerland entertained strange visitors in hideaway: Colonel House (tool for duping Woodrow Wilson, the pro or in an Ivory Tower) was one. House was Jacob Schiff's special messenger boy to assure the Marxists of ample funds for this project planned arranged by the Zionist "Invisible Government of the World". Other ors to Lenin were: Litvinoff (Finkelstein), Kaganovitch and Molotov—in (Dzugashvili) and his group.

Meanwhile

Trotsky's (Bronstein, a Jew) "headquarters" in New York gatherings of 3 faced characters collected. Trotsky made frequent furtive visits to Schiff's palatial mansion in New York as the financing of this Revolution was planned and arranged.

in all of a sudden Trotsky and 276 Zionist Jews from the East Side of New York were on the high seas in a ship

CHARTERED BY JACOB SCHIFF, of KUHN & LOEB

CARRYING $20,000,000 IN GOLD

PROVIDED BY SCHIFF AND HIS PARTNERS

FINANCE THE TAKE OVER OF MOSCOW!

A British War Ship intercepted this ship but Schiff appealed to Colonel House and President Wilson ordered the British to let it go.

Warburg, (brother of Felix Warburg) chief of the Secret Police in Germany, gave a sealed train safe conduct to Russia across Germany. This train carried the trained Zionist Revolutionists and the $20,000,000 in gold.

In 1918 - 1920

Jewish influence was especially powerful in the Central Council of Commissaries. In 1920, the Central Council consisted of 20 members, of which seventeen were Jews, and three gentiles. The Commissariat of War at the same time consisted of 43 members, of which no less than 34 were Jews. In the Commissariat of the Provinces, 21 out of 23 belonged to the same race, as did 45 out of the 55 members of the Commissariat of the Interior. The Commissariat for Foreign Affairs was comprised of 17 members; out of this number, 14 were Jews. Taken as a whole, the percentage of Jews in the Commissariats, the highest offices of Revolutionary Russia, was during the Lenin regime as follows:

In 1917-18, out of 316 Commissars, 300 were Jews.

In 1920, out of 457 Commissars, 322 were Jews.

In 1921, out of 550 Commissars, 447 were Jews.

In 1922, out of 525 Commissars, 445 were Jews.

To Bring Things Up To Date

"Ever since Lenin, every regime in Russia has invited me to come there. Lenin asked me to come and spend 6 months as an advisor, and he told his emissary: 'I know Mr. Baruch will not be interested in money, but if he could think up a goodly number of millions that would interest him, let him name them.'"—From New York Journal American, August 16, 1957—Article entitled "BARUCH AT 87", by Bill Corum.

The following is an excerpt of a report delivered by the Netherlands Minister at Petrograd on the 6th of September, 1918, on the situation in Russia. The Netherlands Minister was acting for the British Ambassador and the report was presented to Parliament in London....

"The foregoing report will indicate the extremely critical nature of the present situation. The danger is now so great that I feel it is my duty to call the attention of the British and all other Governments to the fact that if an end is not put to Bolshevism in Russia at once the civilization of the world will be threatened. This is not an exaggeration, but a sober matter of fact; and the most unusual action of German and Austrian consuls-general, before referred to, in joining in protest of neutral legations appears to indicate that the danger is also being realized in German and Austrian quarters. I consider that the immediate suppression of Bolshevism is the greatest issue now before the world, not even excluding the war which is still raging, and unless, as above stated, Bolshevism is nipped in the bud immediately, it is bound to spread in one form or another over Europe and the whole world, as it is organized and worked by Jews who have no nationality, and whose one object is to destroy for their own ends the existing order of things. The only manner in which this danger could be averted would be collective action on the part of all Powers.

"I am also of opinion that no support whatever should be given to any other Socialist party in Russia, least of all to social revolutionaries whose policy it is at the moment to overthrow the Bolsheviks, but whose aims in reality are the same, viz., to establish proletariat rule through the world. Social revolutionaries will never fight any foreign Power, and any profession which they may now make in this sense is merely a tactical move in their struggle with the Bolsheviks."

NOT THEOLOGICAL OR THEORETICAL, BUT PRACTICAL EVIL.

The Zionists have hoodwinked, blackmailed, brain-washed leaders of both Democratic and Republican Parties. Many otherwise loyal American leaders have been fooled and confused by methods so clever, so well planned that they cannot see or believe that there could be such monstrous EVIL.

FOREIGN AID

Foreign Aid, a way to bleed America and assist Communists in other Countries. We are paying out of the American Taxpayers' pocket for our own betrayal! Lipscomb's questions in Congress disclose that public opinion polls to show support of Foreign Aid were being financed by the State Department. (Chicago Tribune, January 1957) Felix Frankfurter again? Not openly of course.

DURING THE WAR 1942

Major George Racey Jordan had the job of expediting Lend-Lease to Russia shipped via Alaska. As he checked the shipping documents he gained detailed knowledge of what was going on. He kept a diary.

On one occasion the Russian General acted so suspicious that Major Jordan decided to make a careful check of "personal" diplomatic luggage to the amount of fifty suitcases weighing two tons.

He found detailed accounts of Engineering and scientific information marked "from Sayre", "from Hiss". (One NOTE ON WHITE HOUSE STATIONERY said "... had a hell of a time getting these away from Groves". (Major General Leslie R. Groves, Commander of the Manhattan Project—our atomic bomb!) Signature was H. H. (Harry Hopkins). There was also a map of the Oak Ridge Manhattan Project, so labeled.

Major Jordan's information received the cold shoulder at the White House. He was told that people who were too curious got sent to some remote Pacific Command.

NOTHING HAPPENED! Bohlen handled this. Bohlen, former Ambassador to Russia, Zionist tool, is now strangely envoy in the Far East at a time when that whole area threatens a third world war. (News Week August 26th, 1957—"We Go Down In Asia Again")

"The Nations cannot come to even an inconsiderable private agreement without our secretly having a hand in it."

THE SUPREME COURT, FRANKFURTER'S COURT

Civil Rights Bill not for the negro but to try to get "legal" ways to protect the Zionists while they take over our country. Nearly every constitutional right is being violated and these violations upheld by the SUPREME COURT—except the Fifth Amendment.

WHY is the Fifth Amendment inviolable? Is it a protection for the Zionists and their tools the Communists?

ARE THERE LAWYERS IN AMERICA BRAVE ENOUGH TO RISE UP AND CHALLENGE THE CONSTITUTIONALITY OF

1. PRESIDENTS MAKING TREATIES OPEN AND SECRET without consulting Congress?
2. The Supreme Court—appointed, not elected—running the country.

AND many other serious violations of the American Constitution? ARE THERE MEN WITH MONEY IN AMERICA WHO WILL FINANCE THESE CASES?

The Chief executive office has arrogated to itself the right to make treaties that involve over 170,000,000 people for generations to come without consulting our elected representatives.

ZIONISTS TEST THEIR POWER

Supreme Court arrogates to itself the right to turn an American Soldier over to a former enemy country to be tried for acts committed during the discharge of his duty as a soldier. On "technicalities" he loses his rights as a citizen while defending his country. (Decision of FRANKFURTER'S Court) WHOSE CIVIL RIGHTS? Don't forget FRANKFURTER'S Court will decide the "Civil Rights" cases. And Americans will end up with no "rights" to defend the country against the ENEMY WITHIN.

NUMEROUS DECISIONS IN FAVOR OF COMMUNISTS PROTECTED BY THE HIGHEST COURT IN THE LAND. UNCONSTITUTIONAL TREATIES UPHELD.

CORRUPT AND CONQUER

Our Textbooks are being "Brainwashed" of all patriotic idealism. . . our heroes are being debunked. Freudian psychoanalysis (grandfather of Psychopolitics) reduces man to an animal wracked by inordinate sex desires, by incest desires, and all kinds of perversion. By design and plan all scandal and immorality to be played up in the press. Note:

Confidential Magazine Case making headlines right across the country and keeping us diverted from the crisis building up like the pieces of a puzzle in the Middle East.

Parents for a generation "Brainwashed" into the easy method of child training—no child training—"Permissive Psychology" which has produced a nationwide problem of Juvenile Delinquency. People with no respect for themselves or for anything are easily conquered.

PSYCHOPOLITICS IN ACTION TODAY

Part of a hand book for instruction in the Communists Training Schools in the U. S. used at the Eugene Debs Labour School, 113 E. Wells St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

An Address by Beria to

Very Special Students at the Lenin University:

"American Students, at the Lenin University, I welcome your attention to these classes on Psychopolitics. . . .

"With the institutions for the insane, you have in your country prisons which can hold a million persons and can hold them without civil rights or any hope of freedom. And upon these people can be practiced shock and surgery so that never again will they draw a sane breath. . . You must make these treatments common and accepted. And you must sweep aside any treatment or any group of persons seeking to treat by effective means. . . .

Psychopolitics is a solemn charge. With it you can erase our enemies as insects. You can cripple the efficiency of leaders by striking insanity into their families through the use of Drugs. By our technologies you can even bring about insanity itself when they become too restive." Forrestal?

A TERRIBLE WEAPON

Stalin is supposed to have turned ten million people into slaves and zombies by the use of the Labotomy Operation. (American Mercury, August 1957)

Twenty two states in America have now passed legislation which makes it possible for a judge to pass a person as insane without even seeing him, to allow "any treatment the hospital deems necessary" the first week without the permission of relatives or friends.

The Trend in our country today is evident in the attempt to establish a "Mental Siberia" in Alaska, which was called for in the Alaskan Mental Health Bill.

"Vienna has been carefully maintained as the home of psychopolitics, since it was the home of psychoanalysis." (From the Russian Textbook on Psychopolitics).

It is the boast of the Communists that psychotherapy in America is already thoroughly duped and practically taken over by Psychopolitical Viennese-born foreigners in this country.

Glamorous Purim Formula: Exterminate Anti-Semitic Termites, by Rabbi Leon Stitz in "The American Hebrew", March 1, 1946.

Now in 1957

The Civil Rights Bill will give the legal opportunities to do this!

CIVIL RIGHTS BILL

The original Civil Rights Bill promoted by Zionists and Zionist money, and the ADL has conceded in it clever legislation to silence every voice raised against the Zionist Conspiracy. "Social and religious prejudice" would be the criminal label against any American who tried to tell the truth. De-segregation, the red herring, to keep us bamboozled, to divide North and South.

To complete the ruin of industry of the Goyim we shall bring to the assistance of speculation the luxury which we have developed among the Goyim, that greedy demand for luxury which is swallowing up everything. FEDERAL RESERVE BANK NOT "FEDERAL" AT ALL!
The formulation of the Federal Reserve System by Paul Warburg and his associates resulted in the Federal Reserve Act which has turned our economy over to private Zionist International Bankers.

WHY DO WE OWE A NATIONAL DEBT? AND TO WHOM?

The Federal Reserve Bank Act, the greatest financial rape of a nation in the history of the world, robs Congress of the Constitutional right to coin our money valued against our assets and services as a nation. We still print our money but we turn it over to the Private Zionist Bankers and then pay them interest to lend it to us for promoting the wars in which they have involved us. Taxpayers now pay approximately eight billion a year interest.

THE ONLY ENEMY AN AMERICAN SOLDIER HAS TO FEAR IS THE ENEMY AT HIS BACK.
Enemy at His Back, by Elizabeth Churchill Brown, Free Enterprise Pub. Foreword by Senator William F. Knowland.

OUR ARMY BETRAYED IN KOREA

Alger Hiss, architect of the United Nations, made a secret agreement with Molotov under which the post of Chief of the U. N. Military Staff Committee was permanently to be held by a Moscow Communist. When the Korean War began Sobelov, Moscow Communist, held this position. He promptly borrowed Lt. Gen. P. A. Vasiliev and made him Chairman of the U. N. Military Staff. Vasiliev planned the police action which we paid for and in which our forces fought. Then he was given a leave of absence and went to North Korea and conducted the North Korean Campaign as "advisor" in civilian dress. All this is to be found in a document in Washington marked TOP SECRET, May 15, 1954. Are we angry that we allow ourselves to be betrayed in this way? American casualties 140,000.

AND NOW OUR SOLDIERS LOSE THEIR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

A soldier loses his constitutional right to be tried by the military courts of the American Army. Our presidents have made open and secret treaties that turn him over to the tender mercies of a recent enemy nation or any nation in which he is stationed through no choice of his own but in defense of his country.

The Girard case has revealed a depth of treason which is unbelievable if it were not blatant and open. Our Supreme Court betrays our fighting men!

WHAT BETTER WAY FOR FRANKFURTER TO UNDERMINE OUR ARMED FORCES?

UTOPIA

The United States has only 7% of the vote in the United Nations — already the Afro-Asian block has more than 50% of the vote—small, backward nations, Russian Satellites Russia can dictate to and despoil our nation.

The good people of the world who cherish a dream of Brotherhood are being "sold down the river" by the Super World Slave State which the Zionists are cleverly, step by step, preparing through the United Nations.

"Our power in the present tottering conditions of all forms of power will be more invincible than any other, because it will remain invisible until the moment when it has gained such strength that no cunning can any longer undermine it."

HOW WOULD THE UNITED NATIONS TAKE OVER AMERICA

It has actually been rehearsed. Full details are given by John J. Daly in an article "U. N. Seizes, rules, American Cities," (National Republic, Sept. 1951.)

This recounts an actual trial run which took place in Culver City, Huntington Park, Inglewood, Hawthorne and Compton, California (part of Los Angeles County).

Troops, flying the blue rectangle flag of the United Nations (flag similar to the blue rectangle flag of Israel) took over these cities. They did this with a surprise move. . . Quote: "Throwing the mayor of the city in each case in jail, and locking up the Chief of Police and the Chief of the Fire Department. . . The citizens, were warned by a proclamation posted in front of the City Hall, that the area had been taken over by the armed forces of the United Nations."

So easy! The Experiment went through without a hitch! Let us remember that we have only 7% of the vote in the United Nations.

WHAT IS THE ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE?

(Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, Part XI, Section 10)

ADL is camouflaged as a mild pleasant organization to promote love between Jew and Gentile.

The ADL is the Gestapo or the MVD of Zionist Conspiracy. It is supported by the Lehmans, Warburgs, Morgenthau, et al. It has secret agents in every community in America.

1. By stealth, by craft, by blackmail, it rules our newspapers and magazines, our publishers, our radio stations, our TV Channels.

2. It creates and promotes "Minority Groups" and sows the seed of race, color, and creed dissensions. Anti-segregation agitation is an ADL job. It has broken us up into a nation of quarreling, wrangling, hating factions.

3. It sets up "Smear" and "Character Assassination" apparatus to destroy any individual who attempts to expose or fight the Zionist Conspiracy. (General MacArthur, Joe McCarthy, James Forrestal, Adm. John Crommelin, etc.)

The "Smear" assignment to ADL was of vast importance. "Smear" effectively silences or discredits those who would save us; they have no outlet through Press or Radio to defend themselves.

"Through the Press we have gained the power to influence while remaining ourselves in the shade." (Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, Part II, Section 5)

"Not a single announcement will reach the public without our control.
... inasmuch as all news items are received by a few agencies, in whose offices they are focused from all parts of the world. These agencies will then be already entirely ours and will give publicity only to what we dictate to them."

The Zionists caused F. D. ROOSEVELT to give Manchuria and Poland to the Communists and to divide Germany.... see the results.

FRANKFURTER, directing the State Department, gave China to the Communists and sent General MARSHALL, their stooge, to spend 13 months breaking down enemies of Communism in China.

BARUCH has spent his life carrying out the plot of the "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion" while representing himself to the public as "Elder Statesman" and "Advisor to Presidents". He pretends to be a patriot by advising America what it should do for protection against war crises which he and his gang has foisted on America in their plot. Never elected to public office but rules from behind the scenes.

By their control of gold, they control the means of propaganda, smearing all newspapers and publications who do not kowtow to their wishes, and also shutting off all foreign news they do not wish a nation's people to hear. Every regular newspaper in the land talks of the world crisis, but not one dares to inform the public of the Zionist plot behind the crisis.

EXCERPTS FROM

LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION

Translated from the Russian of NILUS by

VICTOR E. MARESDEN

(Formerly Russian Correspondent to "The Morning Post," London, England)

PRESS II

5. In the hands of the States of to-day there is a great force that creates the movement of thought in the people, and that is the Press. The part played by the Press is to keep pointing our requirements supposed to be indispensable, to give voice to the complaints of the people, to express and to create discontent. It is in the Press that the triumph of freedom of speech finds its incarnation. But the goyim States have not known how to make use of this force; and it has fallen into our hands. Through the Press we have gained the power to influence while remaining ourselves in the shade; thanks to the Press we have got the gold in our hands, notwithstanding that we have had to gather it out of the oceans of blood and tears. But it has paid us, though we have sacrificed many of our people. Each victim on our side is worth in the sight of God a thousand goyim.

III

1. To-day I may tell you that our goal is now only a few steps off. There remains a small space to cross and the whole long path we have trodden is ready now to close its cycle of the Symbolic Snake, by which we symbolise our people.

VII

4. The principal factor of success in the political is the secrecy

Mr. Henry Ford, in an interview published in the New York World, February 17th, 1921, put the case for Nilus tersely and convincingly thus:

The only statement I care to make about the PROTOCOLS is that they fit in with what is going on. They are sixteen years old, and they have fitted the world situation up to this time. THEY FIT IT NOW.

CORRUPT AND RULE

IX

9. In order not to annihilate the institutions of the goyim before it is time we have touched them with craft and delicacy, and have taken hold of the ends of the springs which move their mechanism. These springs lay in a strict but just sense of order; we have replaced them by the chaotic license of liberalism. We have got our hands into the administration of the law, into the conduct of elections, into the press, into liberty of the person, but principally into education and training as being the cornerstones of a free existence.

10. We have fooled, bemused and corrupted the youth of the goyim by rearing them in principles and theories which are known to us to be false although it is by us that they have been inculcated.

V

By all these means we shall so wear down the GOYIM that they will be compelled to offer us international power of a nature that by its position will enable us without any violence gradually to absorb all the State forces of the world and to form a Super-Government. In place of the rulers of to-day we shall set up a boogey which will be called the Super-Government Administration. Its hands will reach out in all directions like nippers and its organisation will be of such colossal dimensions that it cannot fail to subdue all the nations of the world.

Human Freedom Debased

III

20. The word "freedom" brings out the communities of men to fight against every kind of force, against every kind of authority even against God and the laws of nature. For this reason we, when we come into our kingdom, shall have to erase this word from the lexicon of life as implying a principle of brute force which turns mobs into bloodthirsty beasts.

Blackmail- A Vicious Weapon

X

13. In order that our scheme may produce this result we shall arrange elections in favor of such presidents as have in their past some dark, undiscovered stain, some "Panama" or other—then they will be trustworthy agents for the accomplishment of our plans out of fear of revelations and from the natural desire of everyone who has attained power, namely, the retention of the privileges, advantages and honour connected with the office of president

Plan Secrecy of the Plot

XIII

5. When we come into our kingdom our orators will expound great problems which have turned humanity upside down in order to bring it at the end under our beneficent rule.

6. Who will ever suspect then that ALL THESE PEOPLES WERE STAGE-MANAGED BY US ACCORDING TO A POLITICAL PLAN WHICH NO ONE HAS SO MUCH AS GUESSED AT IN THE COURSE OF MANY CENTURIES!

4. Moreover, the art of directing masses and individuals by means of cleverly manipulated theory and verbiage, by regulations of life in common and all sorts of other quirks, in all which the goyim understand nothing, belongs likewise to the specialists of our administrative brain. Based on analysis observation on

Control of our Economy Planned

VIII

2. We shall surround our government with a whole world of economists. That is the reason why economic sciences form the principal subject of the teaching given to the Jews. Around us again will be a whole constellation of bankers, industrialists, capitalists and—the main thing—millionaires, because in substance everything will be settled by the question of figures.

3. For a time, until there will no longer be any risk in entrusting responsible posts in our State to our brother-Jews, we shall put them in the hands of persons whose past and reputation are such that between them and the people lies an abyss, persons who, in case of disobedience to our instructions, must face criminal charges or disappear—this in order to make them defend our interests to their last gasp.

XX

1. To-day we shall touch upon the financial programme, which I put off to the end of my report as being the most difficult, the crowning and the decisive point of our plans. Before entering upon it I will remind you that I have already spoken before by way of a hint when I said that the sum total of our actions is settled by the question of figures.

XXII

2. In our hands is the greatest power of our day—gold: in two days we can procure from our storehouses any quantity we may please.

and it is happening today

1. The intensification of armaments, the increase of police of its undertakings: the word should not agree with the deeds of the diplomat.

5. We must compel the governments of the goyim to take action in the direction favored by our widely-conceived plan, already approaching the desired consummation, by what we shall represent as public opinion, secretly promoted by us through the means of that so-called "Great Power"—the Press, which, with a few exceptions that may be disregarded, is already entirely in our hands.

XII

8. Literature and journalism are two of the most important educative forces, and therefore our government will become proprietor of the majority of the journals. This will neutralise the injurious influence of the privately-owned press and will put us in possession of a tremendous influence upon the public mind

Liberalism = Communism = Zionism

X

9. When we introduced into the State organism the poison of Liberalism its whole political complexion underwent a change. States have been seized with a mortal illness—blood-poisoning. All that remains is to await the end of their death agony.

One Zionist World Via War

II

1. It is indispensable for our purpose that wars, so far as possible, should not result in territorial gains; war will thus be brought on to the economic ground, where the nations will not fail to perceive in the assistance we give the strength of our pre-eminence, and this state of things will put both sides at the mercy of our international agentur; which possesses millions of eyes ever on the watch and unhampered by any limitations whatsoever. Our international rights will then wipe out national rights, in the proper sense of right, and will rule the nations precisely as the civil law of States rules the relations of their subjects among themselves.

OUR PRESIDENT A VICTIM!

Since Ike was heard to mutter about the — blank — blank Jewish machine (in January 1957) he has had

1. A Growingly Bad Press
2. Been "manipulated" to "reverse" himself until the American people are dizzy.
3. Had his prestige with his fellow Americans subtly undermined in a number of devious ways.

WHO NEXT?

Dr. Albert Hoffman, a Swiss Chemist and an admirer of Freud, has discovered a new drug considered exceptionally useful for subversive purposes. It can be used to induce insanity with suicidal tendencies to such a degree that the victim of an over-dose cannot resist the urge to commit suicide.

This drug is called "Lysergic Acid Diethylamide". Accompanying the report was a statement that experimentation in its use, "in a country other than Switzerland", resulted in nine suicides in one hospital in a period of two months. The "Mental Health" crowd will welcome this discovery, (American Mercury, August 1957)

COMMUNISM ZIONISM Christianity

III

7. We appear on the scene as alleged saviours of the workers from this oppression when we propose to him to enter the ranks of our fighting forces—Socialists, Anarchists, Communists—to whom we always give support in accordance with an alleged brotherly rule (of the solidarity of all humanity) of our social masonry. The aristocracy, which enjoyed by law the labour of the workers, was interested in seeing that the workers were well fed, healthy and strong. We are interested in just the opposite—in the diminution, the killing out of the GOYIM. Our power is in the chronic shortness of food and physical weakness of the worker because by all that this implies he is made the slave of our will, and he will not find in his own authorities either strength or energy to set against our will. Hunger creates the right of capital to rule the worker more surely than it was given to the aristocracy by the legal authority of kings.

Fluoridation-Tranquilizers-etc.

X

19. But you yourselves perfectly well know that to produce the possibility of the expression of such wishes by all the nations it is indispensable to trouble in all countries the people's relations with their governments so as to utterly exhaust humanity with dissension, hatred, struggle, envy and even by the use of torture, by starvation, BY THE INOCULATION OF DISEASES, by want, so that the GOYIM see no other issue than to take refuge in our complete sovereignty in money and in all else.

Filthy Literature

XIV

5. In countries known as progressive and enlightened we have created a senseless, filthy, abominable literature. For some time after our entrance to power we shall continue to encourage its existence in order to provide a telling relief by contrast to the speeches, party programme, which will be distributed from exalted quarters of ours....

delicacies of fine calculation, in this species of skill we have no rivals, any more than we have either in the drawing up of plans of political actions and solidarity. In this respect the Jesuits alone might have compared with us, but we have contrived to discredit them in the eyes of the unthinking mob as an overt organisation, while we ourselves all the while have kept our secret organisation in the shade.

XI

7. For what purpose then have we invented this whole policy and insinuated it into the minds of the goy without giving them any chance to examine its underlying meaning? For what, indeed, if not in order to obtain in a roundabout way what is for our scattered tribe unattainable by the direct road? It is this which has served as the basis for our organisation of SECRET MASONRY WHICH IS NOT KNOWN TO, AND AIMS WHICH ARE NOT EVEN SO MUCH AS SUSPECTED BY, THESE GOY CATTLE, ATTRACTED BY US INTO THE "SHOW" ARMY OF MASONIC LODGES IN ORDER TO THROW DUST IN THE EYES OF THEIR FELLOWS.

Cripple the Nations by Loans

XX

37. But it is a proof of the genius of our chosen mind that we have contrived to present the matter of loans to them in such a light that they have even seen in them an advantage for themselves.

Planned Inflation or Depression

XX

20. Economic crises have been produced by us for the goyim by no other means than the withdrawal of money from circulation. Huge capitals have stagnated, withdrawing money from States, which were constantly obliged to apply to those same stagnant capitals for loans. These loans burdened the finances of the State with the payment of interest and made them the bond slaves of these capitals....

...was an essential for the completion of the aforementioned plans. What we have to get at is that there should be in all the States of the world, besides ourselves, only the masses of the proletariat, a few millionaires devoted to our interests, police and soldiers.

2. Throughout all Europe, and by means of relations with Europe, in other continents also, we must create ferment, disorders and hostility. Therein we gain a double advantage. The first place we keep in check all countries, for they will know that we have the power whenever we like to create disorders, to restore order. All these countries are accustomed to see in us an indispensable force of coercion. In the second place, by our intrigues we shall tangle up all the threads which we have stretched into the cabinets of all States by means of the politics by economic treaties, or loan obligations. In order to succeed in this we must use great cunning and penetration during negotiations and agreements, but, as regards what is called the "official language," we shall keep to the opposite tactics and assume the mask of honesty and complacency. In this way the peoples and governments of the goyim, whom we have taught to look only at the outside whatever we present to their notice, will still continue to accept us as the benefactors and saviours of the human race.

Divide and Rule

V

5. For a time perhaps we might be successfully dealt with in a coalition of the GOYIM of all the world: but from this danger we are secured by the discord existing among them whose roots are so deeply seated that they can never now be plucked up. We have set one against another the personal and national reckoning of the goyim, religious and race hatreds, which we have fostered into a huge growth in the course of the past twenty centuries. This is the reason why there is not one State which would anywhere receive support if it were to raise its arm, for every one of them must bear in mind that any agreement against us would be unprofitable to itself. We are too strong—there is no evading our power. The nations cannot come to even an inconsiderable private agreement without our secretly having a hand in it.

NEW FRONTIER MARCHES ON

Let us who have opposed Jack Kennedy so vigorously trust that later we will be justified in supporting him.

Our Country faces by far the worst crisis since Columbus landed in America. The periods of World War 1 and 2 were not the least threat or of any concern what ever to us. Anyone who dares look for the truth will learn that the Zionists pushed us into these terrible wars by their influence on all forms of expression, especially newspapers. We were lied into these wars.

Unfortunately the Zionist-Jews now have complete control of our thoughts, as they control T.V. and Radio, the greatest instruments for slanting propaganda.

As we face this crisis, Kennedy is our President. Let's help him all we can when he is right, and pray he is right more times than wrong. It is his appointments that have been forced upon him, that we fear the most, for Kennedy is by far the smartest President we have had for many terms. In a year he will have learned much and we believe change his opinion greatly.

It is difficult to believe Kennedy will go as far down the Marxist road as his team plans on going. God forbid it will be too late, when Kennedy changes his course and fires some of his Marxist team. To be elected it was necessary for Kennedy to accept the support of aggressive, ruthless pressure groups who now demand to be paid off. They want a liberal hand in directing our people down the Socialist road to Communism. Lets hope our Country will not end up like China when General George (no combat time) Marshall, forced Chiang Kai-shek to accept a few Communists into his government. Dean Rusk, remember, was with Marshall.

THREE KHAZARS IN CABINET

Abe Ribicoff, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare. Reliable reports are that this is the heaviest Communist-infected Government agency—70%.

Arthur Goldberg, Secretary of Labor. He is Walter Reuther's righthand man. John and Bob Kennedy when conducting the labor rackets committee, white-washed Reuther and Dave Dubinsky.

Douglas Dillon (Lapowski) Secretary of Treasury, listed as an Episcopalian—Bernard Baruch was married by an Episcopalian Bishop.

Several years ago, Common Sense in commenting on a career man with the State Department listed him as a Jew. Several people in Pennsylvania wrote us that we were in error, that he lived in a town in Pennsylvania named after his family, and he was an Episcopalian. About a year later this man died and the National Jewish Post of Indianapolis & New York in an article on the front page, praised him as a Jew for all his life. The Jews knew more than the Episcopalsians. Three Hundred Thousand Jews, (Morranos) joined the Church in Spain, some becoming Priests and Bishops. Later, when they were expelled and escaped to England and France, (1492), they boasted they were trying to wreck the Church from within.

Douglas Dillon's father, Sam Lapowski, was a Polish Jew. He changed his name to Dillon. He was a member of Dillon, Head Co. International Bankers of Wall Street, "controlled" by Bernard Baruch.

Douglas Dillon was also with Dillon, Read Co., which has been deeply involved in arranging loans with reference to wars in Europe. Kennedy has said several times he would take up where F.D.R. left off. F.D.R. also appointed a Jew, Henry Morgenthau, Jr., as Secretary of the Treasury. He in turn appointed Communist-Jews to run the treasury, Harry Dexter White who committed suicide when exposed as a Communist by the H.U.A.C. Harold Glasser and V. Frank Coe were also Communists. They gave our money plates to the communists who printed hundreds of millions of money we redeemed. Morgenthau has been hiding in France for years to prevent examination by Congress.

Ted Sorensen, Special Counsel, Contact man and Speech Writer for President Kennedy. His father was a Unitarian, his mother a Jew. Unitarians are close to Jews, neither have any use for Christ. Sorensen's Deputy, Myer Feldman, White House aide, is also a Jew.

Pierre Salinger, Kennedy's Press Representative, father Jewish engineer, mother French Catholic.

Adlai Stevenson, (See his Red Record in Common Sense, issue No. 348), a Unitarian, Ambassador to United Nations. Jacob Arvey, Jewish political boss of Chicago brought Stevenson into politics and made him governor of Illinois. Arvey is the power behind Adlai. Eleanor Roosevelt with 100 Communist Fronts to her credit and the organized political Jews are behind Adlai. Practically all the Reds and Communists backed him for nomination for President.

Newton N. Minow, a Jew, Chairman of Federal Communication Commission (FCC), is a Law partner of Adlai Stevenson.

George W. Ball, Under-Secretary of State for Economic Affairs, is also a Law partner

Looking Back At McCarthy

by Denis Grant and Paul Ross

This INTELLIGENCE Supplement

is taken from THE WORD, a pictorial magazine published at Donamon, Roscommon, Eire.

The word smear, like many other American words, is short and snappy, yet perfectly accurate in its connotation. It denotes a comprehensive method of abuse by every organ of publicity—press, radio, TV, etc.—which is unleashed by Communists against a selected anti-Communist and is then practised in parrot fashion by the many transmission belts that comprise numerous liberal and pseudo-intellectual publicists. This vilification is persistent and devastating in its effects on the victim. Nothing is too vile for the work of covering the anti-Communist in opprobrium! Har, hypocrite, foul-mouthed, biased, coward, brute, fascist, Hitler-like—the list of epithets used is almost unlimited.

No anti-Communist was ever smeared so much, so widely and so successfully in this way as the late Senator Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin. Even today, three years after his death, his calumniators are still at work. Richard Rovere, former editor of the American Communist periodical New Masses, recently published a book entitled Senator Joe McCarthy, which ranks as a classic in smear and character assassination. All the smear epithets listed here and many more are to be found in Rovere's book and in the many laudatory reviews of it which have appeared in various papers. Even some Catholic writers have been duped into accepting and spreading the Communist propaganda about McCarthy. Christopher Hollis, reviewing Rovere's book in the Observer, writes: "McCarthy was a foul-mouthed, brazen, brute, who lied without remorse of believing his own lies... I am tempted to compare him with Hitler." Donald McCartney denounced him in Hibernia as "insincere... the unscrupulous politician... His vulgar tongue... lied shamelessly... He bluffed and he bullied... the whole nation groaned under him." Lactitia Fairfield described him in the Catholic Herald as a "crooked Senator" with "an astounding facility in the technique of the multiple untruth... making his fortune by scruffy speculation and drinking himself to death; whose antics were blackening his country's good name."

In regards to smears like these it is well to recall what Bishop Lucey of Cork stated after his return from a visit to America during the height of the campaign while McCarthy was still alive. "We in Ireland were sadly misinformed about some things in the U.S.A.," said Bishop Lucey. "For instance Senator McCarthy and 'McCarthyism' which have been pilloried so unmercifully here. People I met in America were shocked at the way McCarthy has been condemned, without a hearing, in Ireland. To represent Senator McCarthy, as has been done in this country, as a disreputable and discredited witchhunter is just gross misrepresentation."

"Beyond mischief," says Rovere, in his smear book McCarthy, "never accomplished anything." Let us see.

Joe McCarthy, the fourth of the seven children of Tim and Bridget McCarthy, was born in Wisconsin in 1908. His parents were small farmers who had to struggle hard to make ends meet. After school the children helped on the farm and on Sundays they walked seven miles each way to Mass in Appleton, the nearest town. At fourteen Joe left school and worked at various jobs from poultry keeping to truck driving. He soon realised that his lack of education was a serious handicap, so he attended classes, paying his fees by doing all sorts of menial work. In due course he went to the Jesuit Marquette University and qualified as a lawyer; he was elected a Circuit Judge at thirty, the youngest in the history of Wisconsin.

When America entered the war McCarthy, being a judge, could have claimed exemption from active service; instead he volunteered for the Marines, the toughest U.S. fighting force. He was assigned to the Intelligence Department at home, but after some time he insisted on going to the Pacific, where he took part in many dive-bombing exploits. After the war he was elected Republican senator for Wisconsin beating his Democrat opponent by more than 300,000 votes.

The infiltration of Communists and their fellow-travellers into influential positions in the United States began in 1933 when Pres. Roosevelt gave diplomatic recognition to Soviet Russia. His reversal of American foreign policy opened the gates to swarms of Communist agents; and when he was warned of this in Congress as far back as 1938, Roosevelt replied: "There is nothing wrong with the Communists in this country; several of the best friends I have are Communists." During and after the war, in which Russia was America's ally, the situation was naturally much worse. The activities of Communist agents became more blatant until the whole nation was shocked by the disclosures in the Alger Hiss case.

Louis Budenz, the convert who was formerly editor of the Communist Daily Worker, summed up the position well when he wrote: "Communism has won victories in the United States, not in the countries it has conquered. Poland was betrayed in Washington through the counsels of Alger Hiss, Harry Hopkins and others of their ilk." So too was Central Europe sold to Stalin at Yalta and half of Korea was let fall to the Communists. In 1949 by the U.S. State Dept. on the advice of Owen Lattimore, who said, "Let Korea fall, but do not let it look as though we pushed it."

Among others who helped the spread of Communist terrorism were Harry Dexter White, the Communist spy who became Assistant Secretary of the U.S. Treasury, and Joseph P. Davies, U.S. Ambassador to Moscow, who stated: "The word of honour of the Soviet Government is as safe as the Bible. Communism is protecting the Christian world of free men." Fancy that now!

American Communists and their liberal fellow-travellers were being rewarded on a grand scale, while patriots like Gen. MacArthur, who was rated the greatest general of the war, were driven from public life by smear and calumny. People asked themselves how could these things happen, how could the most powerful nation on earth come to bow before Communism? "There was a man in Washington," wrote Father Richard Glinder, one of the editors of Our Sunday Visitor, America's largest Catholic paper, "who kept asking himself these same questions—Joseph McCarthy. Like the rest of us he was baffled, but, unlike the rest of us, he was in a position to do something about it. He was a United States Senator."

One of the stock-in-trade charges made against McCarthy by his detractors is, believe it or not, that he failed to uncover even a single Communist! For the unthinking the implication is, of course, that he was an irresponsible demagogue and "witch-hunter" who went about indicting innocent people. The charge, though clever, is untrue, for McCarthy did in fact, uncover card-carrying members of the Communist Party. Yet much more dangerous to the free world than actual Communists are liberals and fellow-travellers, scores of whom were uncovered by McCarthy. "We must always remember," said Dimitroff head of the Communist International, "that one sympathizer is worth more than a dozen Communists. A university professor or writer who defends or leads himself to the interests of the Soviet Union is worth more than a thousand party members." And J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the F.B.I. has warned that "our danger from actual Communist agents is far surpassed by the danger from vast numbers of American pseudo-liberals who carry the ball for the Communists in every play." For obvious reasons most Communist subversives in the U.S. Government departments and armed forces never wear red shirts or carry party cards in their pockets. Yet the truth is that when McCarthy was Chairman of the Senate Sub-Committee for investigating subversive activities, he did in fact uncover actual Communist Party members. One of them, Annie Lea Moss, was actually employed in carrying secret Government messages to and from the code room in the Pentagon itself. There was too the case of Edward Rothchild and 45 other Communist agents who worked in the most secret section of the Government Printing Office, where the secret codes and hydrogen-bomb documents were printed. McCarthy discovered that from 1944 they had delivered to Russia: currency, plates, ink and printing materials worth $238 million. Then there was William Remington, a Communist who was in charge of export licences in the Department of Commerce and who withheld export licences from shipments to Nationalist China at a critical time. Although his treachery was known to the authorities, he retained his key post until he was exposed by McCarthy.

Many attempts have likewise been made to discredit McCarthy's list of suspects in the State Department, but the fact remains that it was because of his investigations that most of these 81 State Department employees were dismissed for "cause to resign." He also uncovered Owen Lattimore, an adviser of State Department employees, who was later branded by both Democrats and Republicans as "a conscious, articulate instrument of the Communist conspiracy."

But the most important investigation McCarthy conducted was probably that at the U.S. Army's secret radar laboratories at Fort Monmouth, where at least 9 Communist agents were uncovered. Here too the notorious atom spy Julius Rosenberg worked for 5 years—he and his wife were later executed for giving the secrets of the atom bomb to Russia. Stevens, Defence Minister in the U.S. Government, and other military authorities stated that if McCarthy had only exposed even one potential spy at Fort Monmouth he would have performed a tremendous service to his country.

Before McCarthy began his investigation, Communists and their agents could not be removed from their key positions no matter how strong the evidence against them; for neither Military Intelligence nor FBI reports could be legally invoked against them. But McCarthy's Senate Sub-Committee changed all that, as witnesses had to testify before it under oath. Many, knowing their of Stevenson, served under Henry Morgenthau when he was Secretary of the Treasury.

Willard Wirtz, Under-Secretary of Labor—Stevenson Law partner.

William McCormick Blair, Stevenson Law partner, will be offered a Diplomatic Post unless he follows Adlai to the U.N. in some capacity.

J. Edward Day, Postmaster General, former administrative assistant to Adlai Stevenson. Believed to be a stooge of Jake Arvey.

Dean Rusk, Secretary of State, formerly President of Rockefeller Foundation. When Alger Hiss was exposed as a communist spy, he resigned as President of Carnegie Peace Foundation and recommended Dean Rusk for the job. Rusk was an active member of the Institute of Pacific Relations, (IPR) exposed by the late Senator Joseph McCarthy as a nest for communist spies and sympathizers.

This organization was saturated with communists. The Senate Internal Security Sub-Committee reported in 1952 that I.P.R. was used by communists and those who controlled it were all either communists or pro-communists. Rusk is also a Rhodes Scholar.

The following excerpts from the book THE CHINA STORY by Freda Utley, speak for themselves: Page 121.

It is important here to call attention to the manner in which the members of the "progressive" group in Washington and New York managed to replace each other in important positions inside the Administration. For instance after Alger Hiss resigned from the State Department to become Director of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, Dean Acheson recommended Dean Rusk to take Hiss's place as Director of the Office of Special Affairs. Rusk had formerly served under Jos. E. Johnson who, as Chief of the Division of International Security Affairs, under the Special Political Affairs Office, had been chief assistant to Alger Hiss. In 1949, Rusk stepped higher up the ladder of preferment, becoming First Assistant, and then Deputy Under Secretary of State. Today, Johnson, who resigned from the State Department in 1947, to return to teaching at Williams College, holds the position with the Carnegie Endowment held by Alger Hiss when he was indicted for perjury.

Dean Rusk may be wholly free of any communist sympathies, but he has proved that he must be classed among the dupes of the Chinese communists. Not even MaoTse-tung or Stalin ever ventured to give such a clean bill of health to the Chinese communists as he. On June 14, 1950, Dean Rusk told the World Affairs Council conference of the University of Pennsylvania, that the Chinese "Revolution" is "not Russian in essence" and "does not aim at dictatorship." He went further than almost any other State Department official in his desire to represent the Chinese communists as good liberals who follow the American ideal. For he said that "the Revolution in China" is comparable "to the American revolt against the British."

Page 122: Furthermore, in the Korean crisis Dean Rusk appealed strongly in support of an appeasement policy. In a speech on November 15, 1950, he made it quite clear that if only the communists would limit their demands, we would be happy to forget how many American soldiers they had killed and give them assurances they needed that the United States had no intention whatsoever of contesting communist rule over China. He said: "We do not know what Chinese intentions are. It is of the greatest importance to find out whether the Chinese have limited objectives which are negotiable in character, or unlimited objectives which by their very nature are not negotiable." Dismissing as of no consequence all the evidence that the Chinese communist Party acts on Moscow's instructions, Dean Rusk said that "we do not know" whether communist intervention in Korea is part of a pattern of "world-wide aggressiveness, we do not know the real explanation." Of course, no one can ever know anything if all evidence contrary to his hopes is dismissed as non-existent.

THE INAUGURATION

The inauguration apparently was carefully planned, careful enough to be sure Jesus Christ was not mentioned.

We were sure our Savior's name would not be mentioned, but we listened attentively. Cardinal Cushing made a long talk, the Episcopal Minister, the Rabbi, the President and others with well selected words meant to impress us. We were reminded of the crisis our country faces, but not a word about Christ, who we will certainly need if we are to survive. They dared not mention our Lord's name. Kennedy dares not mention Jesus Christ before any public gathering, not only as long as he is president, but as long as he wishes to hold any office. The Jews forbid this name being mentioned by any public speaker in states where they are powerful.

A number of Christian clergy have told us they have been warned before making a public address, "do NOT mention Jesus Christ."

God is OK with Jews, for their God is Lucifer they hold as a brother of Christ. And they propagate Brotherhood on us. We are not brothers in blood or under Jesus Christ. This was a Christian country now we dare not mention the father of Christianity. The spineless waterdowned Christians.

SUMMING UP THE APPOINTMENTS

Harvard, the Marxist incubator, stands out prominently—then Rhodes Scholars.

In the Daily Worker of April 25, 1956, writer Joseph Clark in referring to Harvard University described it as "that great center of international communism". They should know as the Worker is the official communist publication.

Jews say they are only 3% of the population. On this basis they do well in Washington. Not one of the appointees has distinguished himself as opposing or exposing communism.

Most of them have a record of being soft on communism and a Marxist educational background. A few we believe are communists.

Such is Kennedy's team, yet he tells us we face a serious threat. From whom?

Sizing up this administration in its efforts to stop communism and turn the tide, it appears we are sending the same crowd to put out the fire that started the fire in the first place. It was the New Deal gang that saved communism and gave it world strength. Kennedy says the New Frontier is a continuation of F.D.R.'s New Deal.

Read over these appointments again. Note the important key spots held by Jews, Harvard Socialist eggheads and Adlai Stevenson and his five associates.

Read and pass on!

evidence would incriminate them, had recourse to the expedient of invoking the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution, though, of course, they thereby established a prima facie case against themselves.

The term McCarthyism was used for the first time in the Daily Worker of May 4, 1950, by Gus Hall, Secretary of the American Communist Party. "I urge all Communist party members and all anti-fascists," he wrote, "to yield second place to none in the fight to rid our country of the fascist poison of McCarthyism." And Political Affairs, which lays down the party line for all U.S. Communists, stated: "This means the fight against all manifestations of McCarthyism." Louis Budenz, who explained "to the Communists McCarthyism means any attempt to curb this conspiracy," stated that "a considerable segment of American public opinion is being thought-controlled on McCarthyism." Many Catholic papers and their readers have also echoed the Communist cry of McCarthyism and joined in denouncing the Senator without realizing that they were thus serving the cause of Communism. In a sermon on this Communist conditioning in America, Bishop O'Gara, C.P., who was imprisoned by the Chinese Communists for two years, has stated: "Perhaps by far the most disquieting factor to me has been the miasma of pseudo-liberalism which seems to have gained acceptance even in Catholic quarters. It is reflected in print, in periodicals widely read by Catholics and enjoying an otherwise fine reputation for the defence of Catholic principles. It has muddled the well-springs of thought even in our Catholic classrooms." Communists everywhere spread slogans and lies through the non-Communist press and as a result their false labels are accepted as non-Communist in origin. This clever technique was never used more effectively than in the smearing of Joe McCarthy, when fuzzy-minded dupes and liberal intelligentsia vied with one another in condemning the "Fascist monster of McCarthyism."

Some liberals and their dupes say that it was what they call McCarthy's methods to which they mainly objected. Christopher Hollis wrote that he had "a virulent talent for abuse against which responsible people have not the courage to stand up." McCarthy himself stated: "I do not much mind the Communists screaming about my methods. They are under orders to do just that. But it makes me ill when I hear self-proclaimed liberals, too lazy to do their own thinking, parrot over and over this Communist Party line."

What is the truth about McCarthy's character and methods? Take the Communist view first. Here are some of the things Rovere writes about him in the book that has been the source of most of the recent newspaper smears: "McCarthy, though a demon himself, was not a man possessed by demons . . . He was a prince of hatred . . . a low mean fellow . . . foul-mouthed . . . this ogreish creature . . . He was a vulgarian . . . a man to whom anything presentable in skirts . . . a weakness for liquor . . . wenching . . . gambling . . . He invented a military record for himself, though that was a mere time of lies . . . There have been descriptions of him having spent his last years in an unbroken alcoholic stupor . . . But he was not always drunk . . . he did not devote his life to drinking . . . Did he . . . 'drink himself to death?' One way, or another, he probably did . . . He died, then, because he could not lay off liquor . . . He made little pretence to religion or to any species of moral rectitude." If some sort of Nobel Prize is ever given for slander and scurrility, Rovere's smear classic should surely qualify for it.

Let us now consider the testimony of some reliable non-Communists on McCarthy. Patrick F. Scanlon, editor of The Tablet, official New York Catholic newspaper, who was "a close friend of the late Senator for almost ten years," stated: "Senator McCarthy was a practical Catholic, he never missed Sunday Mass; he made a visit to the Blessed Sacrament nearly every afternoon; he was married to a charming girl whom he converted before he married her." And the famous American journalist Father James M. Gillis, C.S.P., formerly editor of The Catholic World, wrote: "I think the Senator did his duty and no more than his duty; that he acted not only legally, but conscientiously and that he conducted himself with great restraint in the face of outrageous abuse. I have read all that Senator McCarthy has written, I have had conversation with him at considerable length, but I have never heard him use such vicious language as that of the editor of the World-Telegram. A friend of mine, a publicist of distinction has made a point of hearing all of McCarthy's speeches in the Senate. He tells me that Joe always speaks moderately, is tolerant, patient and gentlemanly." Allstair Cooke, the well-known radio and press correspondent, stated that McCarthy was "patient with witnesses whose FBI files would give innocent citizens the creeps. He has consistently protected the anonymity of highly suspect witnesses." It was Cooke too who gave us this very accurate definition of the Communist term McCarthyism: "McCarthyism may be defined as putting the searchlight on a Red, who then turns around with the support of friends in the press and radio and hurls smear and witch-hunting charges at the man with the searchlight, demanding that he be arrested for disturbing the peace!"

Regarding the Communist smear that McCarthy terrorized America with his witch-hunting, Cardinal Spellman stated: "Judging from the hysterical tone of the criticism, one would imagine that it is no longer possible in America to keep one's good name. No American uncontaminated by Communism has lost his good name because of Congressional hearings . . . into Communist activities . . . There are strong reasons for these inquiries and we thank God that they have begun while there is still time to do something about it. The anguished cries and protests against McCarthyism are not going to dissuade Americans from their desire to see Communists exposed and removed from positions where they can carry out their nefarious plans." And when Cardinal Cushing was asked what he thought about McCarthy, he replied: "The whole thing depends on how you look at Communism. If you look upon it as one of the greatest evils that has ever attempted to undermine Western civilization, naturally you do everything you can to save our way of life from the inroads of this evil."

Like many other political figures the world over, McCarthy may have been flamboyant, fond of publicity and perhaps imprudent at times. But he was certainly not the "hideous magician," who "united in a terrible force, all the bestial rancours and dark passions which lurk . . . beneath the crust of society," that Hugh Trevor-Roper, the Oxford History Professor, made him out to be in his smear review of Rovere's book in The Sunday Times.

In spite of all the vicious smears he hurled at McCarthy, Rovere, does admit in his book that McCarthy was "incapable of true rancour, spite and animosity." There is an interesting instance of this in McCarthy's own book: "I 'exposed' Time for gross, deliberate lying," he wrote. "There is nothing personal about my exposing the depth to which this magazine will sink in using deliberate falsehoods to destroy anyone who is hurting the Communist cause." McCarthy also wisely remarked that it is more important to expose a liar who has a newspaper or magazine at his disposal to disseminate his poison than one who has not.

With a good measure of success, Joe McCarthy tried, almost single-handedly, to expose the infiltration of Communists into key positions in the most powerful non-Communist country in the world. He did not attack Communism, as so many are content to do, with mere pious cant; no, he sought to unmask its agents as they operated in specific places, and he tried to uncover their sponsors. That was his crime in the eyes of the Communists and for that they marked him down for destruction. In doing so, the Communists and their fellow-travellers did everything possible to ensure that a public figure, especially in America, would never again attempt to expose them. That was the real purpose behind their cry of McCarthyism. And with this aim they waged the most successful propaganda campaign the world has probably yet seen. The measure of their victory may be gauged by the recent statement of J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the FBI, that "beyond any doubt secret Communist agents have worked themselves into thousands of strategic positions" in American life today, "ready to step out and act for Russia when the time comes." For all really effective exposure of their espionage rings and agents has now been stopped, he says, "by smearing into death, defeat, retirement or despair those legislators who were most determined to expose them."

Following a short illness, Joe McCarthy died on May 2, 1957. Nation-wide sympathy was expressed to his widow, Mrs. Jean McCarthy, in the form of over 110,000 messages of condolence and more than 34,000 Mass cards. Solemn Pontifical Mass was offered for him in the Cathedral in Washington by Archbishop O'Boyle of Washington, and in his oration Mgr. Cartwright, Rector of the Cathedral, stated: "Senator McCarthy filled in the last few years a role which will be more and more honoured as history unfolds its record . . . this man saw Communism clearly and knew that it was an evil with which there can be no compromise . . . he had the fortitude to stand alone . . . We take leave in our humble way of the Senator and public man, of the friend . . . But we also take leave in our Christian way of a brother Christian who has gone to God . . . And we feel confident that in God's place under God's love there will be rest for the weary, reward for the faithful and honour for the brave."

The Communist party line on Joe McCarthy and McCarthyism, especially as presented by Richard Rovere and the duped reviewers of his smear classic, has been given much publicity everywhere. Here you have been able, probably for the first time, to hear the other side of the story. You can now judge which is the truth.

As described earlier in this report, this Delaware Corporation acquired the business and assets and assumed the liabilities related to the manufacture of fibre forming materials, advertising displays and envelopes from the predecessor Arvey Corporation which had operated successfully for fifty years. The management continues in the hands of the principals who have demonstrated ability to transact a substantial annual volume profitably while maintaining a well controlled debt position. The products manufactured have received excellent acceptance and while sales generally follow those of the industry as a whole, the diversified lines have resulted in a general upward trend of sales. Sales data are not made available but it is understood that an annual volume ranging into eight figures was transacted by the divisions which this corporation succeeded.

The balance sheet shown above revealed a highly liquid condition to be maintained. Cash balances were strong and together with accounts receivable covered the total current and only debt with ample margin. Inventories afforded additional protection for the creditors. An aging of the receivables is not supplied but based on an annual volume running well into eight figures the receivables appeared in good control. The management reports that it has experienced no unusual collection problem.

While complete operating data are not supplied by the management, it is reported that operations for the fiscal year ended August 31, 1956 were on a profitable basis. A reconciliation of the surplus account shows a loss of approximately $44,000. Management has explained that there were certain write-offs during that period plus which the company has regularly paid dividends. These two factors have caused the slight decrease in net worth. While operating data were not provided with the August 31, 1957 balance sheet, operations were reported profitable with the increase in tangible net worth attributed to a retention of net earnings.

At the statement dates Arvey Corporation was contingently liable as guarantor of the long term straight paper indebtedness of $3,085,000 of the affiliated Velsicol Chemical Corporation. This loan was negotiated prior to the division of the business into separate corporations. The loan bears interest of 4-1/4% with payments in graduated amounts until July 1, 1965. As indicated in an earlier paragraph Velsicol Chemical Corporation's December 31, 1957 balance sheet revealed a strong and liquid condition and a net worth of $10,153,070.

Current Investigation: On June 25, 1958 John Eggum, vice president and treasurer stated that despite prevailing economic conditions, the company through the diversification of its products and aggressive selling, have been able to maintain its volume on a relatively steady level over the past and current fiscal year. He also said that operations have been maintained on a profitable basis. Eggum stated that the company's financial condition continues as strong as that reflected in the fiscal year end balance sheet and that while bank accommodations is available the company has had no need for loans.

CHURCHILL SPEAKS - DEFINES COMMUNISM

Winston Churchill in a speech in the House of Commons, Nov. 5, 1919, just two years after communism was set up in Russia, said:

"There is no need to exaggerate the part played in the creation of Bolshevism and in the actual bringing about of the Russian Revolution by these international atheistic Jews. The majority of the leading figures are Jews. Moreover, the principal inspiration and driving power comes from the Jewish leaders. In the Soviet institutions the prominence of Jews is even more astonishing. And the principal part in the system of terrorism applied by the Extraordinary Commissions for Combating Counter Revolution has been taken by the Jews, and in some cases by Jewesses. The same evil prominence was obtained by Jews in the period of terror during which Bela Kun ruled in Hungary."

It is prepared without anger. The times are too serious to indulge in a mere emotion of anger. It is prepared without prejudice to any individual Jew because of his race. It is simply true that DEADLY EVIL threatens humanity and that this EVIL is focused, planned and implemented by a group of Jews known as Zionists. Not all Zionists are Jews. Many Gentile Americans have been drawn into this Plot by ignorance, through blackmail, through favors given in supposed good faith, through clever persuasion. This document is aimed at a Plot, not a race. The Plot is what is important to see and understand. The fact that the EVIL must needs come to humanity through Lenin (Ulianov, a half Jew) in Switzerland entertained strange visitors in his hideaway. Colonel House (look for duping Woodrow Wilson, the professor in an Ivory Tower) was one. House was Jacob Schiff's special messenger boy to assure the Marxists of ample funds for this project planned and arranged by the Zionist "Invisible Government of the World". Other visitors to Lenin were Litvinsky (Finkelstein), Koganovitch and Molotov Stalin (Dzugashevich) and his group.

Meanwhile

At Trotsky's (Bronstein, a Jew) "headquarters" in New York gatherings of hard faced characters collected. Trotsky made frequent furtive visits to Jacob Schiff's palatial mansion in New York as the financing of this Revolution was planned and arranged.

Then all of a sudden Trotsky and 276 Zionist Jews from the East Side of New York were on the high seas in a ship.

CHARTERED BY JACOB SCHIFF, of KUHN & LOEB

TO FINANCE THE TAKE OVER OF MOSCOW!

A British War Ship intercepted this ship but Schiff appealed to Colonel House and President Wilson ordered the British to let it go.

Warburg, (brother of Felix Warburg) chief of the Secret Police in Germany, gave a sealed train safe conduct to Russia across Germany. This train carried the trained Zionist Revolutionists and the $20,000,000 in gold.

In 1918 - 1920

Jewish influence was especially powerful in the Central Council of Commissaries. In 1920, the Central Council consisted of 20 members, of which seventeen were Jews, and three gentiles. The Commissariat of War at the same time consisted of 43 members, of which no less than 34 were Jews. In the Commissariat of the Provinces, 21 out of 23 belonged to the same race, as did 45 out of the 55 members of the Commissariat of the Interior. The Commissariat for Foreign Affairs was comprised of 17 members, out of this number, 14 were Jews. Taken as a whole, the percentage of Jews in the Commissariats, the highest offices of Revolutionary Russia, was during the Lenin regime as follows:

In 1917-18, out of 316 Commissars, 300 were Jews.

In 1920, out of 457 Commissars, 322 were Jews.

In 1921, out of 550 Commissars, 447 were Jews.

In 1922, out of 525 Commissars, 445 were Jews.

To Bring Things Up To Date

"Ever since Lenin, every regime in Russia has invited me to come there. Lenin asked me to come and spend 6 months as an advisor, and he told his emissary 'I know Mr. Baruch will not be interested in money, but if he could think up a goddly number of millions that would interest him, let him name them'". - From New York Journal American, August 16, 1957 - article entitled "BARUCH AT 87", by Bill Corum

The following is an excerpt of a report delivered by the Netherlands Minister at Petrograd on the 6th of September, 1918, on the situation in Russia. The Netherlands Minister was acting for the British Ambassador and the report was presented to Parliament in London.

"The foregoing report will indicate the extremely critical nature of the present situation. The danger is now so great that I feel it is my duty to call the attention of the British and all other Governments to the fact that if an end is not put to Bolshevism in Russia at once the civilization of the world will be threatened. This is not an exaggeration, but a sober matter of fact; and the most unusual action of German and Austrian consuls-general, before referred to, in joining in protest of neutral legations appears to indicate that the danger is also being realized in German and Austrian quarters. I consider that the immediate suppression of Bolshevism is the greatest issue now before the world, not even excluding the war which is still raging, and unless, as above stated, Bolshevism is nipped in the bud immediately, it is bound to spread in one form or another over Europe and the whole world, as it is organized and worked by Jews who have no nationality, and whose one object is to destroy for their own ends the existing order of things. The only manner in which this danger could be averted would be collective action on the part of all Powers.

"I am also of opinion that no support whatever should be given to any other Socialistic party in Russia, least of all to social revolutionaries whose policy it is at the moment to overthrow the Bolsheviks, but whose aims in reality are the same, viz., to establish proletariat rule through the world. Social revolutionaries will never fight any foreign Power, and any profession which they may now make in this sense is merely a tactical move in their struggle with the Bolsheviks."

EVIL

NOT THEOLOGICAL OR THEORETICAL, BUT PRACTICAL EVIL.

The Zionists have hoodwinked, blackmailed, brain-washed leaders of both Democratic and Republican Parties. Many otherwise loyal American leaders have been fooled and confused by methods so clever, so well planned that they cannot see or believe that there could be such monstrous EVIL.

Major George Racey Jordan had the job of expediting Lend-Lease to Russia shipped via Alaska. As he checked the shipping documents he gained detailed knowledge of what was going on. He kept a diary.

On one occasion the Russian General acted so suspicious that Major Jordan decided to make a careful check of "personal" diplomatic luggage to the amount of fifty suitcases weighing two tons.

He found detailed records of Engineering and scientific information marked "From Sayre", "From Hess". One NOTE ON WHITE HOUSING STATISTICS said "had a lot of time filling these away from Groves". (Major General Leslie R. Groves, Commander of the Manhattan Project—our atomic bomb) Signature was H. H. (Harry Hopkins). There was also a map of the Oak Ridge Manhattan Project, so labeled.

Major Jordan's information received the cold shoulder at the White House. He was told that people who were too curious got sent to some remote Pacific Command.

JUSTICE

THE SUPREME COURT, FRANK- FURTER'S COURT

Civil Rights Bill not for the negro but to try to get "legal" ways to protect the Zionists while they take over our country. Nearly every constitutional right is being violated and these violations upheld by the SUPREME COURT—except the Fifth Amendment.

Why is the Fifth Amendment inviolable? Is it a protection for the Zionists and their tools the Communists?

1. PRESIDENTS MAKING TREATIES OPEN AND SECRET without consulting Congress?
2. The Supreme Court—appointed, not elected—running the country.

AND many other serious violations of the American Constitution? ARE THERE MEN WITH MONEY IN AMERICA WHO WILL FINANCE THESE CASES?

The Chief executive office has arrogated to itself the right to make treaties that involve over 100,000,000 people for generations to come without consulting our elected representatives.

ZIONISTS TEST THEIR POWER

Supreme Court arrogates to itself the right to turn an American Soldier over to a foreign enemy country to be tried for acts committed during the discharge of his duty as a soldier. On "technicalities" he loses his rights as a citizen while defending his country. (Division of FRANKFURTER'S COURT WHOSE CIVIL RIGHTS? Don't forget FRANKFURTER'S COURT will decide the "Civil Rights" case. And Americans will end up with no "rights" to defend the country against the ENEMY WITHIN.)

CORRUPT AND CONQUER

Our Textbooks are being "Brainwashed" of all patriotic idealism. Our heroes are being debunked. Freudian psychoanalysis (grandfather of Psychopolitics) reduces man to an animal wrecked by inordinate sex desires, by incest desires, and all kinds of perversion. By design and plan all scandal and immorality to be played up in the press. Note

Confidential Magazine Case making headlines right across the country and keeping us diverted from the crisis building up like the pieces of a puzzle in the Middle East

Parents for a generation "Brainwashed" into the easy method of child training—no child training—"Permissive Psychology" which has produced a nationwide problem of Juvenile Delinquency. People with no respect for themselves or for anything are easily conquered.

PSYCHOPOLITICS IN ACTION TODAY

An Address by Beria to Very Special Students at the Lenin University.

"American Students, at the Lenin University, I welcome your attention to these classes on Psychopolitics. . . .

"With the institutions for the insane, you have in your country prisons which can hold a million persons and can hold them without civil rights or any hope of freedom. And upon these people can be practiced shock and surgery so that never again will they draw a sane breath. You must make these treatments common and accepted. And you must sweep aside any treatment or any group of persons seeking to treat by effective means.

Psychopolitics is a solemn charge. With it you can erase our enemies as insects. You can erode the efficiency of leaders by striking insanity into their families through the use of Drugs. By our technologies you can even bring about insanity itself when they become too restive." Forrester??

A TERRIBLE WEAPON

Stalin is supposed to have turned ten million people into slaves and zombies by the use of the Lobotomy Operation. (American Mercury, August 1957)

Twenty-two states in America have now passed legislation which makes it possible for a judge to pass a person as insane without even seeing him, to allow "any treatment the hospital deems necessary" the first week without the permission of relatives or friends.

The Trend in our country today is evident in the attempt to establish a "Mental Sibero" in Alaska, which was called for in the Alaskan Mental Health Bill.

"Vienna has been carefully maintained as the home of psychoanalysis, since it was the home of psychoanalysis." (From the Russian Textbook on Psychopolitics)

It is the boast of the Communists that psychotherapy in America is already thoroughly duped and practically taken over by Psychopolitical Viennese-born foreigners in this country.

"American Jews: must come to grips with our contemporary Anti-Semites. We must fill our jails with Anti-Semitic gangsters. We must fill our insane asylums with Anti-Semites."

Now in 1957

CIVIL RIGHTS BILL

The original Civil Rights Bill promoted by Zionists and Zionist money, and the ADL has concealed in it clever legislation to silence every voice raised against the Zionist Conspiracy. BARUCH has spent his life carrying out the plot of the "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion" while representing himself to the public as "Elder Statesman" and "Advisor to Presidents". He pretends to be a patriot by advising America what it should do for protection against war crises which he and his gang has foisted on America in their plot. Never elected to public office but rules from behind the scenes.

By their control of gold, they control the means of propaganda, smearing all newspapers and publications who do not kow tow to their wishes and also shutting off all foreign news they do not wish a nation's people to hear. Every regular newspaper in the land talks of the world crisis, but not one dares to inform the public of the Zionist plot behind the crisis.

EXCERPTS FROM

LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION

Translated from the Russian of NILUS by

VICTOR E. MARSDEN

(Formerly Russian Correspondent to "The Morning Post," London, England)

PRESS II

3. In the lands of the States of today there is a great force that controls the movement of thought in the people, and that is the Press. The part played by the Press is to keep pointing our eyes towards the things which are to be done, to give voice to the complaints of the people, to express and to create discontent. It is the Press that the tyrants of the land of speech feed its inspiration. But the good States have not known how to make use of this force, and it has fallen into our hands. Through the Press we have gained the power to influence while remaining out of the public eye, thanks to the Press we have got the gold in our hand, and with this gold we have had to rather it out of the eyes of the world. But it has paid us, though we have created a race of our people. Each of them on our side is worth a gold. At the end of a thousand years.

III

1. To us, I may tell you that our goal is now only a few steps off. There remains a small space to cross and the whole of the path we have tried on is made now to close its cycle of the Simsbury State, by which we subdivide our people.

VII

Mr. Henry Ford, in an interview published in the New York World, February 17th, 1921, put the case for Nilus tersely and convincingly thus:

The only statement I care to make about the PROTOCOLS is that they fit in with what is going on. They are sixteen years old, and they have fitted the world situation up to this time. THEY FIT IT NOW.

CORRUPT AND RULE

IX

9. In order not to annihilate the institutions of the people, it is time we have touched them with craft and delicacy, and have taken hold of the ends of the springs which move their mechanism. These springs lay in a strict but just sense of order: we have replaced them by the chaotic license of liberalism. We have got our hands into the administration of the law, into the conduct of elections, into the press, into the liberty of the person, but principally into education and training as being the corner-stone of a free citizen.

10. We have seduced, bewitched and corrupted the youth of the nation by pouring them in principles and theories which are known to us to be false although it is by us that they have been educated.

V

By all these means we shall so wear down the GOYIM that they will be compelled to offer us international power of a nature that by its position will enable us without a violence gradually to absorb all the State forces of the world and to form a Super-Government. In place of the rulers of today we shall set up a house which will be called the Super Government Administration. Its hands will reach out in all directions, the nippers and its organization will be of such colossal dimensions that it cannot fail to subdue all the nations of the world.

III

20. The word "freedom" brings out the communities of men to fight against every kind of force, against every kind of authority even against God and the laws of nature. For this reason we, when we come into our kingdom, shall have to erase this word from the lexicon of life as implying a principle of brute force which turns men into bloodthirsty beasts.

X

13. In order that our scheme may produce this result we shall arrange elections in favor of such presidents as have in their past some dark, undiscovered stain, some "Panama" or other - then they will be trustworthy agents for the accomplishment of our plans out of fear of revolutions and from the natural desire of everyone who has attained power, namely, the retention of the privileges, advantages and honour connected with the office of president.

XIII

5. When we come into our kingdom our orators will expound great problems which have turned humanity upside down in order to bring it at the end under our beneficent rule.

6. We will ever suspect then that ALL THESE PEOPLES WERE STAGE MANAGED BY US ACCORDING TO A POLITICAL PLAN WHICH NO ONE HAS SO MUCH AS GUESSED AT IN THE COURSE OF MANY CENTURIES!

V

4. Moreover, the art of directing masses and individuals by means of cleverly manipulated theory and verbiage, by regulations of life in common and all sorts of other tricks, in all which the again understand a thing, belongs likewise to the specialists

Control of our Economy Planned

VIII

2. We shall surround our government with a whole world of economists. That is the reason why - science sciences form the principal subject of the teaching given to the Jews. Around us again will be a whole constellation of bankers, industrialists, capitalists and - the main thing - multi-millionaires, because in substance everything will be settled by the question of figures.

3. For a time, until there will no longer be any risk in entrusting responsible posts in our State to our brother-Jews, we shall put them in the hands of persons whose past and reputation are such that between them and the people lies an abyss, persons who, in case of disobedience to our instructions, must face criminal charges or disappear - then in order to make them defend our interests to their last gasp.

XX

1. To day we shall begin upon the financial programme, which I put off to the end of my report as being the most difficult, the crowning and the decisive point of our plans. Before entering upon it I will remind you that I have already spoken before by way of a hint when I said that the sum total of our actions is settled by the question of figures.

XXII

2. In our hands is the greatest power of our day - and in two days we can procure from our stock-exchange any quantity we may please.

1. The intensification of arguments, the weaving of policy,

5. We must compel the governments of the goyim to take action in the direction favored by our widely-conceived plan, already approaching the desired consummation, by what we shall represent as public opinion, secretly promoted by us through the means of that so-called "Great Power" - the Press, which, with a few exceptions that may be disregarded, is already controlled in our hands.

8. Literature and journalism are two of the most important educative forces, and therefore our government will become proprietor of the majority of the journals. This will neutralize the injurious influence of the privately-owned press and will put us in possession of a tremendous influence upon the public mind.

X

III

1. It is indispensable for our purpose that wars, so far as possible, should not result in territorial gains: war will thus be brought on to the economic ground, where the nations will be able to perceive in the assistance we give the strength of our pre-dominance, and this state of things will put both sides at the mercy of our international agency: which possesses millions of eyes over the world and unimpeded by any limitations whatsoever. Our mutual rights will then wipe out national rights, in the proper sense of right, and will rule the nations precisely as the 4-11 law of States rule the relations of their subjects among themselves.

7. We appear on the scene as alienated slaves of the workers freed from this oppression when we propose to have to enter the ranks of our fighting forces - Socialists, Anarchists, Communists - among whom we always give support in accordance with an alienated, but briefly rule of the solidarity (of all humanity) of our social masani. The aristocracy, which enjoyed by law the labour of the workers, was interested in seeing that the workers were well fed, healthy and strong. We are interested in just the opposite - in the deterioration, the degradation of the OXYGEN. Our power is in the chronic sickness of food and life, in the devaluation of the worker because by all that this implies he knows the slave of our will, and he will not find in his own authorities either strength or energy to set against our will. This creates the right of capital to rule the worker more surely than it was given to this aristocracy by the legal authorities of law.

19. But you yourselves perfectly well know that to produce the possibility of the execution of such wishes by all the nations it is indispensable to trouble in all countries the people's relations with their governments so as to utterly exhaust humanity with division, hatred, struggle, even and even by the use of torture, by starvation, by the inoculation of DISEASES, by want, so that the GOYIM see no other issue than to take refuge in our complete non-resistance, weakness and in all dire colleagues of the calculation, in this species of skill we have no rivals, any more than we have either in the drawing up of plans of political actions and solidarity. In this respect the Jesuits alone might have compared with us, but we have contrived to discredit them in the eyes of the unthinking mob as an overt organisation, while we ourselves all the while have kept our secret organisation in the shade.

XI

7. For what purpose then have we invented this whole policy and insinuated it into the minds of our people without giving them any chance to examine its underlying meaning? For what, indeed, if not in order to obtain in a roundabout way what is for our scattered tribe unobtainable by the direct road? Is this policy which has served as the basis for our organization of SECRET MASONRY WHICH IS NOT KNOWN TO AND AIMS AT THOSE WHOSE WHICH ARE NOT EVEN SO MUCH AS SUSPECTED BY THESE GOY CATTLE, ATTRACTED BY ITS INTO THEIR "SHOW" ARMY OF MASONIC LODGES IN ORDER TO THROW DUST IN THE EYES OF THEIR FELLOWS.

XX

37. But it is a proof of the genius of our chosen mind that we have contrived to present the matter of loans to them in such a light that they have even seen in them an advantage for themselves.

XX

30. Economic crises have been produced by us for the goyim by no other means than the withdrawal of money from circulation. Huge capitals have stagnated, withdrawing money from the States, which were constantly obliged to apply to those same stagnant capitals for loans. These loans burdened the finances of the State with the payment of interest and made them the bond slaves of these capitals. . . .

" Throughout all Europe, and by means of relations in Europe, in other continents also, we have created ferment, discord and hostility. Therein we gain a double advantage: the first place we keep in check all our enemies, for they will find that we have the power whenever we like to create disorders to restore order. All these countries are now obliged to see in an indispensable force of coercion. In the second place, by our intrigues we shall tangle up all the threads which we have stretched into the cabinets of all States by means of the plot to buy complete treaties or loan obligations. In order to succeed in this we must use great evasiveness and justification during negotiations and agreements, but, as regards what is called the "soft language," we shall keep to the opposite to us and excite masses of honesty and complacency. In this way the peoples' governments of the paysans, whom we have a right to look outside the outline whatever we present to the nations, will turn out to accord us as the benefactors and saviors: the high reaction-

ADL is camouflaged as a mild pleasant organization to promote love between Jew and Gentile.

The ADL is the Gestapo or the MVD of Zionist Conspiracy. It is supported by the Lehmanns, Warburgs, Morgenthau, et al. It has secret agents in every community in America.

1. By stealth, by craft, by blackmail, it rules our newspapers and magazines, our publishers, our radio stations, our TV Channels.

2. It creates and promotes "Minority Groups" and sows the seed of race, color, and creed dissensions. Anti-segregation agitation is an ADL job. It has broken us up into a nation of quarreling, wrangling, hating factions.

3. It sets up "Smear" and "Character Assassination" apparatus to destroy any individual who attempts to expose or fight the Zionist Conspiracy. (General MacArthur, Joe McCarthy, James Forrestal, Adm. John C. Mammie, etc.)

The "Smear" assignment to ADL was of vast importance. "Smear" effectively silences or discredits those who would save us; they have no outlet through Press or Radio to defend themselves.

"Through the Press we have gained the power to influence while remaining ourselves in the shade." (Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, Part II, Section 5)

"Not a single announcement will reach the public without our control, inasmuch as all news items are received by a few agencies, in whose offices they are focused from all parts of the world. These agencies will then be already entirely ours and will give publicity only to what we dictate to them."

MYSTERY

Almost suddenly the world in general, and all countries in particular, have been thrown into a real hell.

Wars

Acute Crises

Waves of Unemployment

Terrible Upheavals

Gigantic Ruins

Political Turmoils

Social Strife

Fear and Anguish

Depressions without Precedent

Morals are changing and are debased, national and religious faiths are attacked, civilization is threatened.

Where from do such evils come?

From the English? The French? The Italians? The Americans? The Poles? The Arabs? The Eskimoes? No!

But there are people who plead their guilt of it all, who boast of it, who explain the reason of it, for what purposes, for what profit. They say where the great evils come from, where they lead to. Just read inside.

KEEP THIS TRACT . . .

Read it, read it again . . . meditate upon it. It will give you the key to the mystery, will explain you clearly what is happening in the world, will enlighten you on the great events that are happening today and will happen tomorrow. A blind which had been folded over your eyes by an interested propaganda will fall, you shall see clearly. And because you will be aware of the danger, you will be able to protect yourself from it.

A Jewish Plan of World Dominion

In the Paris eminent review, "Le Contemporain" of July 1st, 1920, was published an article under the heading of "An Account by Sir John Readcliffe of Political-Historical Events Regarded in the Last Ten Years." The article contained a document purporting to be a lecture given by a great Rabbi (Reichorn) at a secret meeting of the inner circle of Jewish leaders, in Prague in 1869, over the tomb of the Grand Rabbi Simeon-ben-Jehuda. The same document has been published by Kallot de Volsky in his book "La Russie Juive," by the London "Britons 55," by "La Vieille France of Paris," and numerous authors and newspapers.

Of course, as could be expected, the Jews have denied the authenticity of that document. The Canadian Jewish Congress, in a pamphlet, published that Reichorn (who spoke in 1869) did never exist because his name does not appear in the old Jewish cemetery of Prague . . . closed in 1871. And, as an opinion on the spuriousness of the document, they refer to the "Jewish Encyclopedia," which also states that the writings of Saint Paul are spurious!

But, as Lord Sydenham, Mgr. Joun, Mgr. Benign, Henry Ford and other eminent students of the Jewish question have said of the "Protocols of the Elders of Zion," we can say that "The Fatal Discourse of Rabbi Reichorn," here re-published, FITS events as we see them rolling along today.

"La Vieille France," No. 214, published that Readcliffe was killed shortly after the publication of the discourse, and that the Jew Lassalle, who had made it known to him, died in a duel. Hereafter is the text as edited by "The Britons," 40 Great Ormond St., London, England:

"Our fathers have delegated to the chosen leaders of Judah the duty of meeting, at least once in each century around the tomb of the grand master Caleb, the holy Rabbi Simeon-ben-Jehuda, whose learning passes on to the eldest of each generation, power over the whole world, and authority over all the descendants of Judah."

"Already now for eighteen centuries has lasted the war of the people of Judah against this Power, which had been promised to Abraham, but which has been snatched from him by the Cross. Trodden under foot, humiliated by our enemies, constantly under the fear of death, persecution, robbery, and of violence of all sorts, the people of Judah, however, has by no means succumbed. And if we are scattered over the whole world, it is because the whole world ought to belong to us."

"Since several centuries back our Learned Men have been fighting bravely and with perseverance, which nothing can defeat, against the Cross. Our people are gradually coming out on top, and every day our power increases. To us belongs this God of today, which Aaron has raised for us in the desert. This Call of God, which is now the universal God of the present day."

"From the moment when we shall have made ourselves sole possessors of all the Gold of the World, the real power will pass into our hands, and then shall be accomplished the promises made to Abraham."

"Gold is the greatest power in the World—Gold, which is force, reward, and the means of all pleasure, all that man fears and covets. There you have the great mystery, the deep knowledge of the spirit which rules the World. There you have the future!"

"Eighteen centuries have belonged to our enemies; but the present century and future centuries must belong to us, to us, people of Judah, and will surely belong to us."

"This is the tenth occasion, during the 1,000 years of the incessant and fierce struggle with our enemies, that have met in the cemetery, by the tomb of our grand master Caleb, the holy Rabbi Simeon-ben-Jehuda, the elected leaders of Judah, in order to devise means of turning to our advantage the serious mistakes and sins which our enemies, the Christians are always committing."

"On each occasion the new Sanhedrin has proclaimed and preached the fight without mercy against these enemies. But in none of the preceding centuries have our ancestors succeeded in concentrating in our hands so much Gold—and thus so much power—as in the 19th (18th?) century which has just passed. We can, therefore, flatter ourselves, without fear of deceiving ourselves, that we have attained our aim, and can look with confidence to the future."

"The times of persecution and humiliation—those dark and painful times which the people of Judah has borne with such heroic patience—are happily passed by us; thanks to the progress of civilization among the Christians. And this progress is the best shield behind which we can hide and work in order to clear, with firmest and safest step, the space which still separates us from our final goal."

"Let us just cast our eyes over the material state of Europe, and examine the resources which the Jews have managed to collect since the beginning of the present century, solely by the concentration in our hands of the vast capital which we now control at this very moment . . .

Thus, in Paris, London, Vienna, Berlin, Amsterdam, Hamburg, Rome, Naples, etc., and among the Rothschilds, everywhere the Jews are masters of the financial situation by the possession of several thousands of millions. This without counting that in each locality of secondary and third rate importance there are those who hold funds in close relation; and that everywhere, without the sons of Judah, without their direct influence, no financial transaction, no important work can be carried out."

"Today all the Emperors, Kings, and reigning Princes are crushed by debts, contracted for the maintenance of huge permanent armies to prop up their tottering throne. The money market tallies and regulates these debts, and we are to a great extent masters of the money market everywhere. We must study, therefore, to encourage these borrowings more and more, so that we may make ourselves sole controllers of all markets, and, as far as possible, seize for ourselves, as security for the capital which we have supplied to the countries the exploitation of their railways, their mines, their forests, their foundries and factories. Thus also other estates, and even the control of taxes."

"Agriculture will always remain the great source of wealth in all countries. The possession of large properties carries with it honour and influence to the owners. It follows then that our efforts should be directed towards making Jews large territorial magnates. We must therefore hasten the breaking up of these large properties so as to make our acquisition of them more quick and easy."

"Under the pretence of helping the working classes we must put all the taxes on the owners of large properties, and when these properties shall be fallen into our hands, all the work of the workers and Christian proletariat will become for us the source of immense gain."

"Poverty is slavery, has said a poet. The Proletariat is the very humble servant of speculation. But oppression and influence are the humble servants of the mind which inspires and prompts the cunning. Who, then, will refuse to the sons of Judah intelligence, prudence, and cunning?"

"Our people are ambitious, proud, and greedy for pleasure. Where there is light there is also shade. And it is not without reason that 'Our God' has given to his chosen people the vitality of the serpent, the cunning of the fox, the vision of the falcon, the memory of the dog, the solidarity and the congregational instinct of the beaver."

"We have groined in the slavery of Babylon, and we have become powerful. Our temples have been destroyed, and we have rebuilt thousands of temples in their place. During eighteen centuries we were slaves, and in the present century we have risen above all other peoples."

"It is said that numbers of our brothers in Judah have been converted and baptised Christians. What does it matter? . . . The Baptised one can be very useful to us; they can become our auxiliaries to march to new horizons, which still unknown to us; for these converted one still belong to us; and, despite the baptism of their bodies, their spirit and their soul always remain faithful to Judah. In a century's time it wouldn't be the children of Judah who will desire to become Christians, but rather the Christians who will flock to our faith. But then Judah will repulse them with scorn."

"The Christian Church being one of our most dangerous enemies, we must work perseveringly to weaken its influence. We must graft, as much as possible, on the intelligence of those who profess the Christian religion, ideas of free thought, of doubt, of schism, and provoke religious disputes, so naturally fruitful of divisions into sects of Christianity. Naturally we must commence by discrediting the ministry of the religion; those who dare open war on them; suggest suspicions as to their devotion, of their private life. And, by subtle and just means, we must get the better of the consideration, attaching to the State and to the cloth."

"The Church's natural enemy, is the Light, which comes from instruction and is the inevitable result of a multiplication of schools. Let us set ourselves to gain influence over the young people of less than in Christianity. Let us give them the equality of all religions; which, in its turn, leads to the suppression in the school of instruction, the religious spirit. The Jews, by subtlety and learning, will obtain without difficulty chairs and positions as professors in the Christian schools. These means, religious education will be left to the family circles, and, as in most families, there is no time to look after this branch of instruction, the religious spirit will weaken little by little and will completely disappear."

"Each war, each revolution, each political or religious shock which has come to pass in the Christian World, hinders nearer the goal towards which we are pressing."

"Commerce and speculation, two factors fruitful in vast gain, must never be out of the hands of the Jews and of all of us we must make a monopoly of alcohol, butter, bread and wine; for by that we shall make ourselves absolute masters of agriculture and of the whole rural economic position. We shall be the distributors of corn to all. But if a certain amount of speculation should come about, arising from the misery of the proletariat, it will be easy to throw the responsibility on to the government."

"All public offices must be open to Jews. And once installed, we shall know how to penetrate right to the fountain head of genuine influence and power, by means of the servility and astuteness of our toolies (factories). It is to be understood that all this only applies to positions of honour and power and privilege; for as regards those offices which require knowledge, work and trouble, these must be left to the Christian. The magistracy is for us an institution of the first importance. The career of barrister, more than any other, develops the faculty of civilization, and brings one in touch with the business of our natural enemies, the Christians. And it is by these means that we are able to get them at our mercy. Why should not Jews become ministers of 'public instruction' when they have so often held the office of finance? Jews must also aspire to the ranks of the legislators, so that they may work at destroying the laws made by the gentiles (faithless sinners) against the children of Judah, who are the only faithful by constant obedience to the laws of Abraham."

"For the rest, on this matter, our plan is on the point of complete success; for progress has almost everywhere recognized and accorded to us the same rights of citizenship as to the Christian. But what is important to obtain, and which must be the object of our constant endeavour, is a law less severe on Bankruptcy. We shall make of it a gold mine far richer than the mines of California were formerly."

"The people of Judah must direct its ambition towards that high people of Judah whence flow the streams of power, of influence, of refinement and honors. The most effective way of getting there is to have a firm and on all associations, including financial, and commercial. All the while carefully guarding against any trap or temptation which might expose us to legal process. We must conduct ourselves, therefore, in these kinds of speculation with that carefulness and tact which mark our special aptitude for business."

"We must be strangers to nothing which gains a position of distinction in society: philo-phony, medicine, law, music, political economy. In a word, all branches of science, art, and literature are a vast field where success must make us bulk big and display our aptitude. These vocations are inseparable from speculation. Thus a musical composition, no matter though very mediocre will give us a plausible excuse for setting a pedestal and surrounding with a halo the Jew who was the author. As for the sciences, business, and philosophy, they ought also to form part of our intellectual domain. A doctor is initiated into the most intimate of every secret, has, as such, access to his hands the health and the life of our mortal enemies, the Christians."

"We must encourage marriage between Jews and Christians. For the people of Judah without risking loss by the contact, cannot but gain by these alliances. The introduction of a small drop of impure blood into our race, chosen by God, could by no means corrupt it; and our sons and daughters will furnish, by these mixed alliances with Christian families in possession of some promotion and power. In exchange for the money which we shall give, it is just that we should obtain the equivalent influence over those around us. This parentage with Christians does not entail any deviation from the course which we have traced out. On the contrary, with a little diplomacy it will make us, in some sort, rulers of the world. It is desirable that Jews should abstain from having women of our holy religion as mistresses, and that they should choose for this role among Christian virgins. To replace the sacrament of marriage in a church by a simple contract before some civil authority would be a matter of great importance for us; for then Christian women would flock to our camp."

"If gold is the first power in this world, as undoubtedly is the Press. But what can the second be without the first? Since we cannot realize all that we desire alone, and planned without the help of the Press, therefore our people must direct all the daily newspapers in each country. The possession of the gold and the cleverness in using it to grease the palms of those open to bribery will make us arbiters of public opinion, and will give us dominion over the masses."

"Advancing thus, step by step in this path, and with the perseverance which is our great virtue, we shall push back the Christians and annihilate their influence. We shall dictate to the world in what they should have faith, what they ought to honour, and what to curse. Perhaps some individuals will set themselves up against us and condemn and curse us; but the masses, docile and ignorant, will listen to us and take our side."

"Once absolute masters of the Press we shall be able to alter to our taste all ideas of honour, virtue, uprightness of character, and make the first attack and strike the first blow at that institution, hitherto sacred, namely, family life; and thus bring about its destruction. We shall be able to stamp out the belief and faith in all that which our enemies, the Christians, have hitherto venerated. Then forging for ourselves as a weapon the cultivation of the passions, we shall declare upon war on all that which is still respected and venerated."

"Let all the foregoing be understood and duly noted. And let each child of Judah absorb these principles. Then our power will increase like a great tree whose branches will bear the fruit which is called riches, pleasure, happiness, power, as compensation for the hideous state which has been the lot of the people of Judah for long centuries."

"When one of our people makes a step forward, let another follow him closely. If a Jew is hailed before the courts of the country which he inhabits, let his brother Jews hasten to his assistance, but only when the former has acted in accordance with the laws which Judah has strictly observed for so many centuries."

"Our people is conservative, faithful to religious ceremonies and to the customs handed down by our ancestors. Our interests require that we shall at least pretend a zeal for social questions which are the order of the day; those, above all, which concern the improvement of the condition of the workers." But, in reality, our efforts must be directed to seizing possession of this movement of public opinion (i. e., the emancipation of working classes, the Labour movement), and to using it for manipulating public policy. The blindness of the masses, the ease with which they are swayed by eloquence, as empty as it is high sounding, and which is heard at the street corners, have made them an easy prey and the tame tools of clap trap and humbug. We shall be able to find among our people those able to counteract sentiment and to command as much eloquence as sincere Christians have in their enthusiasm."

"We must, as far as possible, divert the proletariat, and bring them under those who have the handling of money. By this means we shall make the masses what we want to. We push them into insurrections and revolutions, and each one of these catastrophes advances our secret interest a big step, and bring us rapidly nearer to our great goal, namely, that of reigning over the whole world, as has been promised to our father Abraham."

The Truth Behind the "Proletarian Struggle"

See Baruch Levy, an intimate friend of Karl Marx, Clemens and Reichardt, wrote to Karl Marx the following letter, after reading the "Protocols of the Elders of Zion" and other documents:

"In the new organization of mankind, the children of Israel will spread over the whole surface of the earth and will become everywhere, without any opposition, the leading element, especially if they can impose upon working classes the firm control of some of them. The governments of the nations forming the Universal Republic will pass without effort into the hands of the Jews UNDER THE COVERT OF THE VICTORY OF THE PROLETARIAT. PRIVATE PROPERTY WILL THEN BE SUPPRESSED BY THE RULERS OF Jewish race, who will everywhere control public funds. Thus will be realized the Talmudic promise that, when come the times of the Messiah, THE JEWS WILL POSSESS THE WORLD." (Reproduced from "La Revue de Paris," 1st June, 1922, page 574).

What "We" Pray For

In 1925 Samuel Roth wrote a book entitled "Now and Forever" giving an outline of the future of the nations. He writes: "Europe is in the process of decay. There will be rise once more the spirit . . . in the countries east of the Red Sea. Is it not this we Jews should pray for?"

"We Jews must wait a long time. When the period of our waiting is over, the whole face of the world will have changed. America will be as old as England is today. The bones of Europe will move with a faint shudder. America will expel the Jews. The yellow peoples will be on her back and at her throat."

"A terrible man will arise. This man will become leader of an enterprise of vengeance. The yellow cloud will slowly descend in their midst. The lives of the peoples of Europe will flow out of them. In Russia only sucklings and illiterates will be spared. Of Poland and the Ukraine he will make a garden wilderness. All the women in those countries will be put to shame before being killed."

THE GREAT CONSPIRACY

"WE STILL DOMINATE YOU"

MARCELS ELI RAVAGE, a Romanian Jew on the staff of the "New York Times," (quoted by Jews), has published three books in the U. S. A.: "An American in the Middle East," "The Jew Pays," "The Malady of Europe." He studied at the University of Missouri, Illinois, and Columbia. In 1938, he wrote for the "Century Magazine," two articles which appeared in the January and February issues of that publication and of which the following are excerpts:

"You resent us but you cannot clearly say why?"

"Not so many years ago I used to hear that we were money-grubbers and commercial materialists; now the complaint is being whispered around that no art and no profession is safe from Jewish invasion."

"We shrink our patriotic duty in wartime because we are pacifists by nature and tradition, and we are the arch-plotter of universal wars and the chief beneficiaries of those wars."

"You accuse us of stirring up revolution in Moscow. Suppose we admit the charge. What of it?"

"You make much noise and fury about the undue Jewish influence in your theatres and movie palaces. Very good; granted your complaint is well founded. But what is that compared to our staggering influence in your churches, schools, your laws and your government, and the very thoughts you think every day?"

"You have not begun to appreciate the real depth of our guilt. We are intruders. We are subverters. We have taken your natural world, your ideals, your destiny, and played havoc with them. We have been at the bottom not merely of the latest great war but of nearly all your wars, not only of the Russian but of every other major revolution in your history. We have brought discord and confusion and frustration into your personal and public life. We are still doing it. No one can tell how long we shall go on doing it."

"Who knows what great and glorious destiny might have been yours if we had left you alone."

"But we did not leave you alone. We took you in hand and pulled down the beautiful and generous structure you had reared, and changed the whole course of your history. We conquered you as no empire of yours ever subjugated Africa or Asia."

"We did it solely with the irresistible might of our spirit, with ideas, with propaganda."

"Take the three principal revolutions in modern times — the French, the American, and Russian. What are they but the triumph of the Jewish idea of social, political and economic justice."

"And the end is still a long way off. We still dominate you."

"It is any wonder you resent us? We have put a clog upon your progress."

"We have merely divided your soul, confused your impulses, paralyzed your desires."

"So why should you not resent us? If we were in your place we should probably dislike you more cordially than you do us. But we should make no bones about telling you why."

"You Christians worry and complain about the Jew's influence in your civilization. We are, you say, an international people, a compact minority in your midst with traditions, interests, aspirations and objectives distinct from your own. And you declare that this state of affairs is a menace to your orderly development; it muddles up your destiny. I do not altogether see the danger. Your world has always been ruled by minorities; and it seems to me a matter of indifference what the remote origin and professed creed of the governing clique is. The influence, on the other hand, is certainly there, and it is vastly greater and more insidious than you appear to realize."

"That is what puzzles and amuses and sometimes exasperates us about your game of Jew-baiting. It sounds so portentous. You go about whispering terrifiedly of the hand of the Jew in this and that and the other thing. It makes us quail."

"You call us subverters, agitators, revolution-mongers. It is the truth, and I cover at your discovery."

"We undoubtedly had a sizable finger in the Lutheran Rebellion, and it is simply a fact that we were the prime movers in the bourgeois democratic revolution of the century before last, both in France and America. If we were not, we did not know our own interests."

"The Republican revolutions of the 18th century freed us of our age-long political and social disabilities. They benefited us. You go on prattling of Jewish conspiracies and cite as instances the Great War and the Russian Revolution! Can you wonder that we Jews have always taken your antisemitism rather lightly, as long as they did resort to violence?"

The Great Ideal: Disappearance of All Save Israel

The "Jewish World," important Jewish organ of England, published in its issue of 5th February 1933:

"The dispersion of the Jews has rendered them a cosmopolitan people. They are the only cosmopolitan people, and in this capacity must act and are acting, as a solvent of national and racial differences. The great deal of Judaism is not that Jews shall be allowed to flock together one day in some hole-in-the-corner fashion, for, if not tribal, at any rate separatist objects but that the whole world shall be imbued with Jewish teachings, and that in a universal Brotherhood of Nations—a greater Judaism, in fact—all the separate races and religious shall disappear."

"As a cosmopolitan people, Jews have passed the stage that the national form of separatism represents in social life. They can never come back to it. They have made the whole world their home and they now extend their hands to other nations of the earth so that they follow their example. They do more. By their activities in literature and science, by their dominant position in all branches of public activity, they are gradually moulding gentile thinking and systems into Jewish moulds."

"JEWS WANT TO DESTROY CHRISTENDOM"—Disraeli

In his book, "Lord George Belfrage: A Political Biography," a new edition, 1930, Benjamin Disraeli, who became afterwards Prime Minister of England, wrote:

"An insurrection takes place against tradition and aristocracy, against religion and property. Destruction of the semitic principle, EXTERMINATION OF THE JEWISH RELIGION, whether in the Moslem or in the Christian (1) form, the NATURAL EQUALITY OF MAN, and the ABERGATION OF PROPERTY, are proclaimed by the secret societies who form provisional governments, AND MEN OF JEWISH RACE ARE FOUND AT THE HEAD OF EVERY ONE OF THEM. The people of God co-operate with atheists; the most skillful accumulators of property ally themselves with Communists; the peculiar and chosen race touch the hand of all the scum and low castes of Europe! And all this BECAUSE THEY WISH TO DESTROY THAT UNGRATEFUL CHRISTENDOM, which owes to them even its name, AND WHOSE TYRANNY THEY CAN NO LONGER ENDURE."—Page 357.

"When the secret societies in February, 1948, surprised Europe, they were themselves surprised by the unexpected opportunity, and so little capable were they of seizing the occasion, that HAD IT NOT BEEN FOR THE JEWS, who of late years unfortunately have been connecting themselves with these unhallowed associations, imbecile as were the governments, THE UNCALLED FOR OUTBREAK WOULD NOT HAVE RAVAGED EUROPE. For the Jews, the enemy, and the tempting resources of the Children of Israel MAINTAINED FOR A LONG TIME THE UNNECESSARY AND USELESS STRUGGLE. If the reader throw his eyes over the provisional governments of Germany and Italy, and even of France, formed in that period, he will recognize EVERYWHERE THE JEWISH ELEMENT."—Page 357.

By Whom the World Is Governed, According to Benjamin Disraeli...

Benjamin Disraeli, a Jew, wrote in his book, "Contaraby," 1844 (page 218 to 223):

"At this moment, in spite of centuries, or tens of centuries, of degradation, the Jewish mind exercises a vast influence on the affairs of Europe. I speak not of their laws, which you still obey; of their literature, with which your minds are saturated, but of the living Hebrew intellect."

"You never observe a great intellectual movement in Europe in which the Jews do not greatly participate. . . . That mysterious Russian diplomacy which so alarms Western Europe is organized and principally carried out by Jews; that mighty revolution (of 1848) which will be in fact a SECOND AND GREATER REFORMATION, and of which so little is as yet known in England, is ENTIRELY DEVELOPING UNDER THE AUSPICES OF JEWS, who almost monopolize the professional chairs of Germany. Meander, the founder of the Spiritual Christianity, and who is Regius Professor of Divinity in the University of Berlin, is a Jew. Benary, equally famous, and in the same University, is a Jew. Wehl, the Arabic professor of Heidelberg, is a Jew."

Years ago, when I was in Palestine, I met a German student who was accumulating materials for the history of Christianity and studying the genius of the place; a modest and learned man. It was with him, then, unknown, since become the first Arabic scholar of the day, and the author of the life of Mahomet. But for the German professors of this race, their name is legion. I think there are more than ten at Berlin alone."

"I told you just now that I was going up to town tomorrow, because I always made it a rule to interfere when affairs of state were on the carpet. Otherwise, I never interfere. I hear of peace and war in newspapers, but I am informed that the sovereigns sent treasurer; then I know that monarchs are serious."

"A few years back we were applied to by Russia. Now there has been no friendship between the Court of St. Petersburg and my family (Rothschild). However circumstances drew to an approximation between the Romanoffs and the Sidons, I resolved to go myself to St. Petersburg. I had on my arrival an interview with the Russian Minister of Finance, Count Cancrin; I beheld the son of a Lithuanian Jew. The loan was connected with the affairs of Spain; I resolved on replying to Spain from Russia, I travelled without intermission. I had an audience immediately on my arrival with the Spanish minister, Senor Mendizabal; I beheld one like myself, the son of a Nuevo Christiano, a Jew of Aragon. In consequence of what transpired at Madrid, I went straight to Paris to consult the President of the French Council; I beheld the son of a French Jew, a hero, an imperial marshal, and very properly so, for who should be military heroes if not those who worship the Lord of Hosts?"

"—And is Soudi a Hebrew?"

"—Yes, and others of the French marshall, and the most famous, Massena, for example; his real name was Mannassah; but to my anecdote. The consequence was the consensus was applied to in a friendly and mediative capacity. We fixed on Prussia and the President of the Council made an appointment the Prussian minister, who attended a few days after our conference. Count Arnim entered the cabinet, and I beheld a Prussian Jew. So you see, my dear Coningsby, that THE WORLD IS GOVERNED BY VERY DIFFERENT PERSONAGES FROM WHAT IS IMAGINED BY THOSE WHO ARE NOT BEHIND THE SCENES."

THE ALLIANCE ISRAELITE UNIVERSELLE AND ADOLPHE CREMIEUX

(Quoted in the "Morning Post," London, Sept. 6, 1929):

"The union which we desire to found will not be a French, English, Irish, or German Union, but a Jewish one, a Universal one."

"Other peoples and races are divided into nationalities; we alone have not co-citizens, but exclusively co-religionists. A Jew will under no circumstances become the friend of a Christian or a Moslem before the moment arrives when the light of a Jewish Faith, the only religion of reason, will shine all over the world."

"Scattered amongst other nations, who form time immemorial were hostile to our rights and interests, we desire primarily to be and to remain immutably Jewish."

"Our nationality is the religion of our fathers, and we recognize no other nationality."

"We are living in foreign lands, and cannot trouble about the mutable ambitions of countries entirely alien to us, while our own moral and material problems are endangered."

"The Jewish teaching must cover the whole earth, Israelites! No matter where fate should lead—wherever scattered all over the earth, you must always consider yourselves members of a Chosen Race."

"You realize that the Faith of your forefathers is your only patriotism."

"If you recognize that, notwithstanding the nationalities you have embraced, you always remain and everywhere form one and only nation."

"If you believe that Jewry only is the one and only religious and political truth."

"If you are convinced of this, you, Israelites of the Universe—convert!"

"Our cause is great and holy, and its success is guaranteed. We, Catholics, our immemorial enemy, is lying in the dust, mortally wounded."

"The net which Israel is throwing over the globe of the earth is made of gold, spreading daily, and the momentous prophecies of our holy books are at last to be realized."

"The time is near when Jerusalem will become the house of prayer for all nations and peoples, and the banner of Jewish unity will be unfurled and hoisted on the most distant shores."

(Manifestos attributed to Adolphe Cremieux, Jew, minister in the French cabinet, Grand Master of the Grand Orient of France, who became president of the Alliance Israelite Universelle.)

(The above manifesto corroborates perfectly the writings of Karl Marx, Friedrich Engels, Moses Hess, the "Jewish Chronicle," published around the same period. The Alliance Israelite Congress have tried to prove that this document is the work of the Alliance with the corrupting Turkish authorities, the bulk of their efforts, for the commutation of death sentences passed upon eight Jews in Istanbul in Damascus (1841). The Cremieux quotation in the first column proves overwhelmingly the identity of thought and style with the manifesto and the work of Cremieux.)

Against Nationalities and Religions

Adolphe Cremieux, Jew, Grand Master of the Alliance Israelite Universelle, president of the Alliance Israelite Universelle, in France, in "Les Archives Israelites," Paris, No. 45, 1921:

"A Mesianism of new times will emerge, the Jerusalem of a new order, holy foundation between the East and the West, will be substituted to the double empire of the East and Emperor."

"I did not that along the years I have applied my thoughts but to that work. The Alliance Israelite Universelle has scarcely begun its task, for its influence is felt abroad. It is not restricted only to our cult, it intends to penetrate all religions as it has penetrated all countries. Nationalities must disappear, religious must be suppressed."

"But Israel must not disappear, for this little people is the Chosen of God. In all countries we must bring isolated Jews in relation with the authorities so that at the first news of an attack, we can rise as one man. Our voices must be heard in the cabinets of ministers, even by the ears of princes and, happen what may, so much the worse if we have to make use of the laws of force, inconsistent with this day's progress, we then will join all opportunists. We are adjured to forgive for the past, but here is the time when an immortal alliance is built on immovable foundations."

(Edouard Drumont in his "Libre Parole" has reproduced several similar statements by Cremieux.)

THE CONSPIRACY IN THE MIDDLE AGES

"The 'Hermes des Etranges Juives,' of Paris, a publication founded by James de Rothschild, published in 1930 two documents, genuine that the learned of Jews were at work in the 13th century guiding the continent towards the Jewish religion, and authors throughout the world."

(Cremieux, Henry Ford, also Chastavert, Comte-Alphonse III, N. H. Weber, etc., etc., have quoted these documents.)

They read as follows:

"Letter from the Jews of Arles sent to the Jews of Constantinople:

"Honored Jews, — health and grace,

"You must know that the King of France who is once more master of the Province has obliged us to become Christians or to leave his dominions. And those of Arles, Aix and Marseilles desire to take our property, menace our lives, destroy our synagogues and cause us much harm, and all this renders us uncertain as to what we ought to do for the law of Moses. Therefore we beseech you to let us know what we ought to do."

Chamor, Rabbi of the Jews of Arles, the 13th day of sabbath, 1489."

Reply from the Jews of Constantinople to those of Arles and the Province:

"Beloved brethren in Moses, we have received your letter in which you tell us of the sorrows and misfortunes you are enduring, and we are deeply moved. The opinion is of the grand satraps and rabbis is as follows:

"Since the King of France forces you to become Christians, become Christians because you cannot do otherwise, but let the law of Moses be preserved in your hearts."

"Since you say that they threaten your lives, make your children physicians and apothecaries in order that they may deprive Christians of their lives. Since you say that you are being deprived of your property, make your children merchants that they may gradually deprive the Christians of theirs."

"Since you say that they destroy your synagogues, make your children cannons and clerics so that they may destroy their churches."

"Since you say that you suffer other wrongs, make your sons lawyers and notaries and let them always take part in affairs of State so that having placed the Christians under your yoke, you will dominate the world and have revenge on them."

"Do not depart from the order we give you and you will see by experience that low as you have been brought you will yet attain the zenith of power."

V. S. S. V. F. Prince of the Jews of Constantinople,

The 21st of Caslou, 1489."

(The Canadian Jewish Congress have tried to discredit these documents, with the hope of a new article (under the title "The Order," which had been carried by the Montreal "Patriote" in 1921, which the British Museum had in 1921, the "Patriote," 1921 edition as "as in 1708, under the index 3228 D-17, 17-18, is mentioned by Jews and Mohammedans, limited, editors of the first edition in English.)

THE GREAT CONSPIRACY

Secret Jewish Plot Unveiled by The "Catholic Gazette" of London, England

In The London "Catholic Gazette" of February, 1936 was published a sensational article under the heading: "The Jewish Peril and the Catholic Church." The monthly organ of the Catholic Missionary Society of England was quoting speeches delivered in a series of secret Jewish meetings in Paris. A few weeks later, the Parisian weekly "Le Revue du Peuple" published a similar account, adding that the statements had been made at a recent convention of the Grand Orient (secret masonic order in which no Gentile is admitted) held in Paris.

The article of the "Catholic Gazette" read as follows:

"The Jewish Peril and The Catholic Church"

That there has been and still is a Jewish problem, no one can deny. Since the rejection of Israel, 1,800 years ago, the Jews have scattered in every direction, and in spite of difficulties and even persecution, they have established themselves as a power in nearly every nation of Europe. Jacobs in his "Jewish Contributions to Civilization," glories in the fact that without detriment to their own racial unity and international character, the Jews have been able to spread their doctrines and increase their political, social and economic influence among the nations.

In view of this Jewish problem, which affects the Catholic Church in a special way, we publish the following amazing extracts from a number of speeches recently made under the auspices of a Jewish society in Paris. The name of our informant must remain concealed. He is personally known to us, but by reason of his peculiar relations with the Jews at the present time, we have agreed not to disclose his identity nor to give any further details of the Paris meeting beyond the following extracts which, though sometimes freely translated, nevertheless substantially convey the meaning of the original statements.—Editorial Note.)

"As long as there remains among the Gentiles any moral conception of the social order, and until all faith, patriotism, and dignity are uprooted, our reign over the world shall not come." "We have already fulfilled part of our work, but we cannot yet claim that the whole of our work is done. We have still a long way to go before we can overthrow our main opponent: the Catholic Church."

"We must always bear in mind that the Catholic Church is the only institution which has stood, and which will, as long as it remains in existence, stand in our way. The Catholic Church, with her methodical work and her edifying and moral teachings, will always keep her children in such a state of mind, as to make them too self-respecting to yield to our domination, and to bow before our future King of Israel."

"That is why we have been striving to discover the best way of shaking the Catholic Church to her very foundations. We have spread the spirit of revolt and false liberalism among the nations of the Gentiles so as to persuade them away from their faith and even to make them ashamed of professing the precepts of their Religion and obeying the Commandments of their Church. We have brought many of them to boast of being atheists, and more than that, to glory in being descendants of the ape! We have given them new theories, impossible of realization, such as Communism, Anarchism, and Socialism, which are now serving our purposes. The stupid Gentiles have accepted them with the greatest enthusiasm, without realizing that those theories are ours, and that they constitute our most powerful instrument against themselves."

"We have blackened the Catholic Church with the most ignominious calumnies, we have stained her history and disgraced even his noblest activities. We have imputed to her the wrongs of her enemies, and have thus brought these latter to stand more closely by our side. So much so, that we are now victorious, to our greatest satisfaction, rebellions against the Church in several countries. We have turned her Clergy into objects of hatred and ridicule, we have subjected them to the contempt of the crowd. We have caused the practice of the Catholic Religion to be considered out of date and a mere waste of time."

"And the Gentiles, in their stupidity, have proved easier dupes than we expected them to be. One would expect more intelligence and more practical common sense, but they are no better than a herd of sheep. Let them graze in our fields till they become fat enough to be worthy of being immolated to our future King of the World..."

"We have founded many secret associations, which all work for our purpose, under our orders and our direction. We have made it an honour, a great honour, for the Gentiles to join us in our organizations, which are, thank to our gold, flourishing now more than ever. Yet it remains our secret that those Gentiles who betray their own and most precious interests, by joining us in our plot, should never know that those associations are of our creation, and that they serve our purpose."

"One of the many triumphs of our Freemasonry is that those Gentiles who become members of our Lodges, should never suspect that we are using them to build their own jails, upon whose ter-aces we shall erect the throne of our Universal King of Israel; and should never know that we are commanding them to force the chains of their own servility to our future King of the World."

"So far, we have considered our strategy in our attacks upon the Catholic Church from the outside. But this is not all. Let us now explain how we have gone further in our work, to hasten the ruin of the Catholic Church, and how we have penetrated into her most intimate circles, and brought even some of her Clergy to become pioneers of our cause."

"Apart altogether from the influence of our philosophy, we have taken other steps to secure a breach in the Catholic Church. Let me explain how this has been done."

"We have induced some of our children to join the Catholic body, with the explicit intimation that they should work in a still more efficient way for the integration of the Catholic Church, by creating scandals within her. We have thus followed the advice of our Prince of the Jews, who so wisely said: 'Let some of your children become canons, so that they may destroy the Church.' Unfortunately, not all among the 'converted' Jews have proved faithful to their mission. Many of them have even betrayed us! But, on the other hand, others have kept their promise and honoured their word. Thus the counsel of our Elders has proved successful."

"We are the Fathers of all Revolutions—even of those which sometimes happen to turn against us. We are the supreme Masters of Peace and War. We can boast of being the Creators of the REFORMATION! Calvin was one of our Children: he was of Jewish descent, and was instructed by Jewish authority and encouraged with Jewish finance to draft his scheme in the Reformation."

"Martin Luther yielded to the influence of his Jewish friends, and again, by Jewish authority, and with Jewish finance, his plot against the Catholic Church met with success."

"Thanks to our propaganda to our theories of Liberalism and to our misrepresentations of Freedom, the minds of many among the Gentiles were ready to welcome the Reformation. They separated from the Church to fall into our snare. And thus the Catholic Church has been very sensibly weakened, and her authority over the Kings of the Gentiles, has been reduced almost to naught."

"We are grateful to Protestants for their loyalty to our wishes—although most of them are, in the sincerity of their faith, unaware of their loyalty to us. We are grateful to them for the wonderful help they are giving us in our fight against the stronghold of Christian Civilization, and in our preparations for the advent of our supremacy over the whole world and over the Kingdoms of the Gentiles."

"So far we have succeeded in overthrowing most of the Throne of Europe. The rest will follow in the near future. Russia has already worshipped our rule. France, with her Masonic Government, is under our thumb. England, in her dependence upon our finance, is under our heel; and in her Protestantism is our hope for the destruction of the Catholic Church. Spain and Mexico are but toys in our hands. And many other countries, including the U. S. A., have already fallen before our scheming."

"But the Catholic Church is still alive..."

"We must destroy her without the least delay and without the slightest mercy. Most of the Press in the world is under our control; let us therefore encourage in a still more violent way the hatred of the world against the Catholic Church. Let us intensify our activities in poisoning the morality of the Gentiles. Let us spread the spirit of revolt in the minds of the people. They must be made to despise Patriotism and the love of their family, to consider their faith as a humbug, their obedience to their King as a degrading servility, so that they may become deaf to the appeal of the Church and blind to her warnings against us. Let us, above all, make it impossible for Christians outside the Catholic Church to be reunited with that Church, or for non-Christians to join the Church; otherwise the greatest obstruction to our domination will be strengthened and all our work undone. Our plot will be unveiled, the Gentiles will turn against us, in the spirit of revenge, and our domination over them will never be realized."

"Let us remember that as long as there still remain active enemies of the Catholic Church, we may hope to become Masters of the World... And let us remember always that the future Jewish King will never reign in the world before the Pope in Rome is dethroned, as well as all the other reigning Monarchs of the Gentiles upon earth."

Loyalty... a Case for Dismissal

Rabbi Stephen Wise, Zionist Leader, is the Editor of the Monthly Magazine "Opinion."

The April (1937) number carried the cartoon of three pictures awarded to writers on the subject: "The Way To Communist Anti-Semitism." One prize-winner, Rabbi Victor Eppstein, proposed:

"The present program of palliative relief must give way to a program of fundamental reconstruction. American Democracy MUST BE SOCIALIZED by subjecting industrial production and distribution to the will of the people's Congress. The first step is to ABOLISH the Federal veto and to enlarge the express powers of the National Government through immediate constitutional amendment. A GRADUAL MARCH IN THE DIRECTION OF SOCIALIZATION WILL FOLLOW. At the same time, emergency measures must be adopted to prevent the inevitable reactionary attempt to overthrow democracy. In Spain the Government found it necessary TO ARM ITS WORKERS. In America, let it be beforehand by strengthening the organization of labor AND BY SYSTEMATICALLY REMOVING FROM KEY POSITIONS IN ARMY AND NATIONAL GUARD ALL OFFICERS WHOSE LOYALTY TO THE CONSTITUTION MAY BE QUALIFIED BY CLASS ALLEGIANCE."

The Two Faces

RENÉ ORGOS, Jew, in "Le Nouveau Mercur", Paris, May 1937:

"The two Internationalities of Finance and Revolution work with ardour, they are the two fronts of the Jewish Internationale... There is a Jewish conspiracy against all nations..."

Jew BEUMONTAL, editor of "Jadik Tidskrift" Sweden, in issue No. 57, 1929, of name:

"... Only recently our race has given the world a new prophet, but he has two faces and bears two names: on the one side, his name is Rothschild, leader of all capitalists, and on the other side, Karl Marx, the apostle of those who want to destroy the others."

The Symbol of Jew Conquest

The Star of Zion, made of two interlaced triangles, also called the "Seal of David," is the racial, national and religious emblem of International Jewry. It can be seen on all synagogues, in all Jewish civil organizations, on the Jewish flag. It is the only standard flown by Jews throughout the world.

The Star of Zion is an official emblem of all Kabbalistic organizations. It is an official symbol of Freemasonry.

It appears as an emblem for Communist and godless organizations.

It has been drawn in the heading of the Versailles Treaty. It is an official emblem of two republics and three districts of the USSR.

It has been drawn on French, Dutch and other post-stamps. It figures as an official emblem in the Great Seal (of masonic origin) of the United States; figures on the new American dollar bill.

It figures on the reverse of Roosevelt medals distributed by thousands by American Jewry. (There is also the five-pointed star, called the "Seal of Solomon," also an emblem used by Kabbalists, Freemasonry, the goddess, Communists, used on the coat of arms of the USSR, in the Red Army and in many countries where judaeo-masonic revolutions facilitated its imposition.)

"We Shall Command"

INDOR LOEB, Jew, as quoted by the "Midwest French Journal," Paris:

"Nations will gather together to bring their homage to the people of God; THE WHOLE FORTUNE OF NATIONS will pass into the hands of the Jewish people, they will march behind the Jewish people, in chains as captives, and will prostrate before it; kings will bring up its sons and princesses, and will suckle its children. Jews shall command nations; they will call to them people which they do not even know, and people which know them will run after them. The riches of the sea and the wealth of nations will come by themselves to the Jews. Peoples and realms that will not serve Israel will be destroyed. The Chosen People will drink the milk of nations and suck the breast of kings, EAT THE FORTUNES OF NATIONS and dress in their magnificence. Jews will live in plenty and joy, their happiness will be ceaseless, their hearts will rejoice, they will grow like grass. Jews will be a race blessed by God, the priests and servants of God and their whole people will be a nation of pious. The issue of Jews and their name will be eternal, the smallest among them will multiply by the thousands and the lowest will become a great nation, God will seal with them an eternal covenant. He will reign anew upon them, and THEIR POWERS OVER MEN will be such that, according to the accepted expression, they will walk by great strides on the heights of the earth. Nature itself will be transformed into a sort of paradise on earth, it will be the golden age of HUMANITY."

(Note—We can see here what "humanity" means for the Jews. Russia is today a paradise of that sort for "humanity," that is: the Jews, whilst other races are simply slaves in chains, excited in the most cruel Trotskyism (Stalinism system) for the profit of the Jews.)

COMMUNISM: a Weapon for Jew Conquest

What Jews Themselves Say About It

M. COHEN, Jew, in "The Communist,"
Barnes, April 12, 1919, No. 731

"Without exaggeration, it may be said that the great Russian social revolution was indeed accomplished by the hands of the Jews. Would the dark, oppressed masses of the Russian workmen and peasants have been able to throw off the yoke of the Bourgeois by themselves?

"No, it was precisely the Jews who led the Russian proletariat to the dawn of the Internationale and not only had led, but are also now leading the Soviet cause WHICH REMAINS IN THEIR SAFE HANDS. We may be quiet as long as the chief command of the Red Army is in the hands of Comrade Leon Trotsky. It is true that there are no Jews in the ranks of the Red Army as far as privates are concerned, BUT IN THE COMMITTEES AND SOVIET ORGANIZATIONS, as commissars, the Jews are gallantly LEADING the masses of the Russian proletariat to victory. It is not without reason that during the elections to all Soviet institutions the Jews are winning by an overwhelming majority. THE SYMBOL OF JEWRY, which for centuries has struggled against capitalism, has become also the symbol of the Russian proletariat, which can be seen EVEN IN THE ADOPTION OF THE FIVEPOINTED STAR, which in former times, as it is well known, was the symbol of Zionism and Jewry. With this sign comes victory, with this sign comes THE DEATH OF THE PARASITES OF BOURGEOISIE. Jewish tears will come out of them in sweat of drops of blood."

HARRY EVIS BROWNE, in his book, "HOW ODD OF GOD?"

"We intend to remake the Gentile . . . what the Communists are doing in Russia."

FRANZ REINHOLD NIEBUH, Jew, speaking before the French Institute of Religion, New York, Oct. 3, 1934:

"Markism is the modern form of Jewish Prophecy."

Y. HERMAN, Jew, Communist, speaking in New York, April 1935:

"The Russian Revolution was made by the Jews. We have created Secret societies, planned the Reign of Terror. The Revolution succeeded by our convincing propagandists and our mass assassinations in order to form a government truly ours."

"On to Moscow," Russian paper, September 1918:

"It should not be forgotten that the Jewish people, who for centuries were oppressed by kings and czars, are the real proletariat, the real Internationale which has no country."

ANGELO S. RAFFAPORT, "The Planners of the Russian Revolution" (London, 1918, published by Stanley, Paul & Co.), page 230:

"THE JEWS IN RUSSIA, IN THEIR TOTAL MASS, WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE REVOLUTION."

MONTE RAFFAPORT, on the 1918 revolution in Germany:

"The revolution reminds us anew of the importance of the Jewish question because the Jews are the driving element of Revolution."

"JEWISH TRIBUNE," July 6, 1931:

"The German revolution is the achievement of the Jews; the liberal democratic parties have a great number of Jews as their leaders, and the Jews play a predominant role in the high government offices."

MAURICE SANTEL, Jew, in his book, "You Gentile," page 181:

"We Jews, we, the destroyers, will remain destroyers forever. Nothing that you will do will meet our needs and demands. We will forever destroy because we need a world of our own."

A. S. RAFFAPORT, "The Planners of the Russian Revolution," 1918:

"All through history the spirit of the Jews has been revolutionary and subversive, but subversive with the idea of constructing over ruins."

"THE MACABEANS," Jewish Zionist organ, New York, Nov. 1903, p. 250, under the title "A Jewish Revolution":

"The revolution in Russia is a Jewish revolution, a crisis in Jewish history (note: at the expense of Russian lives and property). It is a Jewish revolution because Russia is the home of about half the Jews of the world, and an overturning of its despotic government must have a very important influence on the destinies of the millions living there and on the many thousands who have recently emigrated to the other countries. But the revolution in Russia is a Jewish revolution also because Jews are the most active revolutionists in the Tsar's empire."

(In 1905, when the first Jewish revolution in Russia occurred, the central committee was composed of the well-known revolutionaries: Lenin (Ulanov), Rykov, Brassin (Vinter), Bogdanov, and Postolavskii).

Jewish CHRONICLE, London, April 4, 1919:

"There is much in the fact of Bolshevism itself, in the fact that so many Jews are Bolshevists. The ideals of Bolshevism are consonant with many of the highest ideals of Judaism."

HARRY JUDAH I. MAGNES, speaking before the Russian National Conference of the U. S. April, 1918:

"I pretend to be a real Bolshevik. I can definitely say that the President of the United States, in a very short time, will make an appeal to the Allied Governments to conclude an immediate peace. He will ask for immediate peace upon the principles advanced by the Bolsheviks of Russia."

London Jewish Savant, Dr. Oscar Levy, in "The World Significance of the Russian Revolution," says: "We Jews have grievously erred. We who have posed as having given to the world 'The Saviour,' are today nothing else than its reducers, its destroyers, its incendiaries, its executioners. We who have promised you a New Heaven, have given you a New Hell."

"We have exterminated the capitalists and property owners in Russia. We are going to do the same to the intelligentsia of Europe and America. Zinoviev, Jew, Chairman of the Communist Third International. (See Congressional Record Dec. 10, 1923).

B. A. M. SHAPIRO, a New Yorker, terms himself "a Christian by Faith, a Jew by Race." In his booklet, "America's great Menace," says therein: "The time has come when patriotic Jews of America should feel the great responsibility for the evil deed (Communism) hatched and planned in the camp of Israel."

HARRY JUDAH I. MAGNES, in an address, New York, 1918:

"When the Jew gives his thought, his devotion to the cause of the workers and of the oppressed, of the disinherited of the world, the radical quality within him goes to the roots of things, and in Germany he becomes a Marx and a Lassalle, a Haas and an Edward Bernstein; in Austria he becomes a Victor Adler and a Friedrich Adler, in Russia, a Trotsky. Just take for a moment the present situation in Russia and in Germany. The revolution set creative forces free, and see what a large company of Jews was available for immediate service. Socialist Revolutionaries and Mensheviks, and Bolsheviks, Majority and Minority Socialists—whatever they be called—Jews are to be found among the trusted leaders and the routine workers of all these revolutionary parties."

"NEW YORK TIMES," March 24, 1917:

"KENNAN RETELLS HISTORY.—Tells how Jacob H. Schiff financed revolutionary propaganda in Czar's Army." "Mr. Kennan told of the work of the Friends of Russian Freedom in the revolution."

"He said that during the Japanese-Russian war he was in Tokio, and that he was permitted to make visits among the 12,000 Russian prisoners in Japanese hands at the end of the first year of the war. He had conceived the idea of putting revolutionary propaganda into the Russian army."

"The Japanese authorities favored it and gave him permission. After which he sent to America for all the Russian revolutionary literature to be had. He said that one day Dr. Nicolas Russell came to him in Tokio, and announced to him that he had been sent to help the work."

"The movement was financed by a New York banker you all know and love," he said, referring to Mr. Schiff, "and soon we received a ton and a half of Russian revolutionary propaganda. At the end of the war 50,000 Russian officers and men went back to their country ardent revolutionists. The Friends of Russian Freedom saved 50,000 seeds of liberty in 100 Russian regiments. I do not know how many of these officers and men were in the Petrograd fortress last week, but we do know what part the army took in the revolution."

"Then was read a telegram from Jacob H. Schiff, dated which is as follows: 'Will you say for me to those present at tonight's meeting how deeply I regret my inability to celebrate with the Friends of Russian Freedom the actual reward of what we had hoped and striven for these long years.'"

"THE AMERICAN HEBREW," Sept. 19, 1920:

"Out of the economic chaos, the discontent of the Jew evolved organized capital and its working instrumentality, the banking system."

"One of the impressive phenomena of the Jewish evolution is the revolt of the Jew against the Frankenstein which his own mind conceived and his own hand fashioned."

"The achievement (Russian bolshevik revolution), destined to figure in history as the overshadowing result of the World War, was the outcome of Jewish thinking, of Jewish discontent, of Jewish efforts to reconstruct."

"What Jewish idealism and Jewish discontent has so powerfully contributed to accomplish in Russia, the same historic qualities of the Jewish mind and heart are tending to promote in other countries."

"Shall America, like the Russia of the Czars, overlook the Jew of the Americas and his contribution to being a destroyer, and thus put him in the position of an irreconcilable enemy?"

"Or shall Jewry avail itself of Jewish genius as it avails itself of the peculiar genius of every other race?"

"That is the question for the American people to answer."

JAMES WATERMAN WIRE, Gen. of Rabbi S. S. Wise, 3, Ave. of the Free Synagogue, New York, 25, 1934, on "The Racial Factor in the Jewish Question":

"What we Jews must do is to set our faces as flint against Fascism, against any form of it whatsoever. Our next step to be taken as soon as ever it is possible, must be to take, in the name of the workers, ALL THE NATION'S INDUSTRIES, AND LET NOTHING WHATSOEVER STAND IN OUR WAY. EVEN SHOULD WE HAVE TO USE VIOLENCE."

ALFRED NOSSIG, Jew, in his book, "Integrated Judaism," Berlin, 1922:

"Socialism and the Mosaic code are not at all in opposition. . . all Jewish groups . . . have a vital interest in the victory of Socialism; they must exact it not only in principle, not only because of its identity with the Mosaic doctrine, but also on tactical grounds. . . The Jewish socialist is reproached with playing a leading part in the Communist terrorist party."

Herman Bernstein: "The Jewish Question is intimately interwoven with all phases of the political, social, and industrial life of the Russian people, and without the emancipation of the Jews the rejuvenation of Russia is inconceivable."

"Jewish elements form the driving power for both Capitalism and Communism," said Dr. Oscar Levy, London Jewish Savant.

"The most skillful accumulators of property ally themselves with Communists," said Disraeli, Jewish Premier of England, in his book, "Lord George Bentinck."

From "The Jewish State," by Theodor Herzl, Zionist Leader, we read: "When we Jews sink we become a revolutionary proletariat (Communists); when we rise there are again our terrible power of the purse" Capitalists).

Jewish Writer ALTER BRODY, in "The New Masses" of May 12, 1936, page 14, says: "The undeniable problem of the Jew can only be solved in a socialist society."

"No agitators did more to bring in the revolution (French) of 1848 than the two Jews, Heinrich Heine and Ludwig Borne. It was a Jew, Leon Trotsky, who led the Red Army which saved the Communist Cause in Russia. It was a Jew, Karl Liebknecht, aided by Jewess, Rosa Luxemburg, who led the Spartacist Insurrection in Germany. It was a Jew Bela Buhn, who set up the Red Regime in Hungary. It was a Jew, Kurt Eisner, who led the Socialist Putsch in Bavaria. To the Jew, revolutionary activity seems to be the one road to ultimate freedom."—Quotations from the book, "How Odd of God," by Rabbi Lewis Browne.

RABBI ABRAHAM HILLEL SILVER, in his 1928 book, "The Democratic Impulse in Jewish History," emphasizes how "persistent and dominant has been the democratic impulse in Jewish history, alike in the political and religious life." He admits that in the nomadic desert life of his forefathers many tribes were "Communist in structure."

"Jews are not Communists, is the burden of the anti-Semitic statements issued jointly by Dr. Cyrus Adler, President of the American Jewish Committee; Alfred M. Cohen, President of the B'nai B'rith; and Dr. E. C. Vandeck, Chairman of the Jewish Labor Committee."

"These gentlemen hysterically deny that Communism is Jewish, and frenziedly repudiate Jews who are Communists. Their statements are uttered out of fear for themselves, labels Soviet Russia and lies about the Jewish people. Behind high-fown phrases lies a poorly veiled invitation to potential Nazis of America to pogromize Jews."

"Let us analyze their statement. The first attempts to show that the Jews of Germany and of other lands were not and are not Communists. The second, that Communism and the Soviet Union are themselves Jews of Jews and Judaism. Of Soviet Russia, it says: 'Among the 36 Commissioners who constitute Soviet Russia, only two are Jews:'"

"It is possible that the hands of the American Jewish committee, the B'nai B'rith and the Jewish Labor Committee, have never been so busy as they are now, in the agitation of Litvinoff, of Yaroslavsky, Kagandowitch, Rade, Bula Kun? Jews who deny that many Jews are communists are jockeying themselves into the position of citizens on toleration."

"Will not the gentlemen who today disclaim Jewish communism, tomorrow disclaim Jewish Socialism? Until ultimately, these super-patriots will deem worthy Americans, only such Jews as have wormed their way into fascist organizations and vigilante groups."

"That the authors of this piece of perfidy do not represent THE MASSES of American Jews will be made abundantly clear. No counteract its poison and to preclude its repetition, Jews must take active and positive measures. There must be a widening and strengthening of the united front against Fascism (patriotism). And, if by taking full part in the forging of this united front, the Jews of America write themselves down as Communists—SO BE IT."

RAFFES, well known Jewish bolshevik leader:

"The hatred of Czarism against the Jews was justified; because, the Jews were the most active in all the revolutionary parties the Government had to deal with the Jews as the most active members."

M. J. OLGIN, Jewish editor, in his 1918 book, "Jewish Revolution," New York, Aug. 2, 1931:

"The Jewish Trends of the People's Front declare that, is the greatest bulwark against anti-Semitism and for the defense of the Jewish People's Rights." "Collections are now made in the shops for the support of the People's Front in Spain. The collection is important for the fighters in Spain as for the masses in the U. S. A. The fighters in Spain get the assurance that great numbers of toilers on this side of the ocean are with them. The masses in America partake of an action of international solidarity in a tangible form."

"It is a necessary undertaking which should be developed on the basis of a People's Front organization. But this is what I was told about the attitude of some Jews to the collection. When the question of funds for the Spanish revolution was raised in one dress shop in New York, some of the workers, a minority, protested that they could not contribute because they have not forgotten the Spanish Inquisition and what it did to the Jews."

"It is not necessary to remind the Jews that the 'rebels,' as they are called by the press, have placed all the Jews of Spanish Morocco which is under their control, in concentration camps."

"The question, however, is broader than that. The war that is fought in Spain today is wider than the Spanish territory. It is of life-and-death significance for the Jews of the world."

"When the People's Front wins, definitely in Spain, that will strengthen the People's Front in France and will give an impetus to the formation of People's Fronts throughout the world."

"It will make the position of the Jews more secure in the capitalist countries where bourgeois democracies will exist, and it will hasten the end of fascism in those countries where the capitalist and the black skin now reign supreme."

"THIS IS WHY EVERY JEW MUST SUPPORT THE STRUGGLE OF THE PEOPLE'S FRONT GOVERNMENT IN SPAIN."

The N. Y. American of April 4, 1936, quoting a Jewish Telegraph Agency cable from Paris: "International Jewry is definitely siding with the Spanish Government."

From the N. Y. American of Aug. 5, 1936, quoting David Dubinsky, Jew, President of the radical International Garment Workers Union: "I heard of the need of assistance for the People's Front in Spain and ordered that our headquarters send $5,000. This was done." The same paper published on Oct. 10, 1936, a photograph of the cheque drawn by Jewish Scientist Einstein, announced his support of the Spanish Red Government on February, 1937. Also Jew Charlie Chaplin headlined "Jewinsky."

OTTO WEININGER, Jew, in his book, "Sex and Character," Vienna, 1911:

"The idea of property is indissolubly linked with individuality. It is one of the reason why Jews flock in numbers to Communism." P. 406.

"The Jew is a Communist." P. 413.

"The Jew is totally incapable of grasping the idea of State." P. 407.

MAURICE COHEN, Jew, in his book, "Monarchy," 1921:

"The instinct of property, resulting from the attachment to the soil, does not exist for the Jew. . . those nomads—who never possessed and would never possess the land. Therefore their indubitably Communist tendencies are the farthest antiquity." P. 85.

"One has only to mention the names of the great Jewish revolutionaries of the 19th and 20th centuries, the Karl Marx, the Lassalle, the Eisner, the Bela Kun, the Trotsky, the Leon Blum, to thus enumerate the names of the theoreticians of modern socialism. . . The Jews have given many leaders to the maximalist movement and have played a considerable part in it."

"The Jewish tendencies towards Communism, apart from all material co-operation to party organizations, what a striking confirmation they find in the aversion that a great Jew, a great poet, Heinrich Heine, felt for the Roman Law! The subjective cause, the passionate causes of the revolt of Rabbi Akiba and Bar Kochba in the year 70 A. D., against the Pax Romana and the Pax Romana, understood and felt, passionately, subjectively, by a Jew of the 19th century who, apparently, had kept no link with his race. (Continued on Page Six)

"And the Jewish revolutionaries and Jewish Communists who fight against the principle of private property, the staunchest monument of the Czarist Juris Civilis of Justinian and Vulcan, are they doing anything else, than their ancestors who resisted Vespasian and Titus. In fact, they are the speaking dead." P. 86.

"UNIVERS ISRAELITE," Sept. 2, 1932, Paris.

"Revolution, with its Equality and Fraternity, is the star of Israel." "ARCHIVES ISRAELITES," Paris, July 8, 1932.

"The year 1789 is a new Passover; the French Revolution has a strikingly Hebraic character." ELIE KAZAN, Jew, in his book, "Jews of Today," Paris, 1932.

"Zionism goes on with its task in Russia, in Palestine and elsewhere. In this very hour it appears as the UNIQUE INTERNATIONAL PROLETARIAN PARTY. One of its fractions joins the Communist International, the other joins the Socialist International." P. 24.

"Throughout its autonomous existence, the Jewish people has experienced many forms of government. But neither the fatherly dictatorship of the great Moses, nor the monarchy ruled by a religious constitution, nor the republic of the faithful under the presidency of High Priests, nor the despotism of the last kings, learning on Rome could suit that people of dreamers. Jews always had a government, but they always but endured it." P. 131.

"In fact, Jews could not maintain their State among the States of antiquity and fatally had to become the revolutionary ferment of the world." P. 143.

"That WHICH IS ALSO JEWISH IN BOLSHIEVISM is the renunciation to rewards in a world beyond, and the hunt for happiness in this world. But this idea which marks the triumph of Jewish values over 'mystico-Christian' values is now common to all peoples." P. 155.

BERNARD LARBA, Jew, in his book, "Anti-Semitism and Its Causes," Paris, 1934.

"The Jew plays a part in revolutions, and he plays it inasmuch as he is a Jew, or rather inasmuch as he remains a Jew... The spirit of the Jew is essentially a revolutionary spirit and, consequently, or otherwise, THE JEW IS A REVOLUTIONARY."

Who Profits by Communism?

Those Who Invest Their Money in It: The Jews

Every year for the last seventeen years the Jewish Telegraphic Agency has cabled to Jewish newspapers news to the effect that the USSR Government had decreed that the importation from America of Matzoh bread for the Jewish Passover celebration in Russia would be duty-free.

Yiddish is acknowledged by the USSR Government as an official language in Soviet Russia.

"JEWISH CHRONICLE," London, Jan. 8, 1932, London.

"More than one third of all Jews in Russia have become Soviet officials."

(Note: There are 12 million Jews in Russia and 4 million members in the USSR Communist party.)

"NEW YORK JEWISH TRIBUNE," by the Jew Louis Fisher, Russian correspondent for "Nation," 12-1-34.

"If bolshievism is to be judged from what the Jews have gained with them in the realm of instruction, the verdict is certainly in their favor."

"Jewish children by tens of thousands attend official public schools where Yiddish is now the language of teaching."

"The Government has established special Jewish pedagogic seminars where school-teachers are trained to give instruction in Yiddish in the Jewish schools."

"There are even in Universities sections where Yiddish is the language of teaching."

"Before the revolution, under the czar, the percentage of Jewish students was limited 4 per cent of the total attendance. Now there is no more limit. In some Universities, 50 per cent of the students are Jews; in Minsk (white Russia) the percentage is still larger."

MANIFESTO signed by Chaim Rabin, MEHACHEM GLUSKIN of Minsk, Rabbi Owest L. Zimballist, Rabbi Herz Mazel, Rabbi Gabriel Gabrielow, Rabbi Osher Kerachin, and Rabbi Mendel Jarcho, on Feb. 25, 1930. This Manifesto was produced by the bolshewik Jew Michael Scheinmann, leader of the Communist anti-God International, in his brochure, "The Crusade Against the USSR," (Krestovnik: polkovnik USSR, Ezerjank-Press, Moscow, 1930, pp. 103 et 104).

"It is not possible for us to out our destiny adrift from the destiny of the Jewish people, in regard to whom the Government of the USSR may be said to be the only one who openly fights against any manifestation of anti-Semitism."

"From a world standpoint, it is a fact of the greatest importance that the head of the Communist Party, the head of the Soviet Government, Lenin, issued a decree in which the anti-Semites are denounced as the enemies of the different peoples. And whereas under British rule in Palestine sanguinary conflicts between Arabs and Jews are stillable to occur, and in Rumania and certain other countries agitation are still possible, in the USSR all the means of publicity are mobilized against any manifestation of anti-Semitism, the machinery of the law even being brought into play."

"UNDER THE SOVIET REGIME, WE HAVE NEVER BEEN SUBJECTED TO ANY PERSECUTION OR RELIGIOUS CONVICTIONS."

"We consider it our duty categorically to DECLARE THAT IN THE USSR NO JEW HAS EVER BEEN THREATENED WITH THE SENTENCE OF DEATH OR ANY OTHER SEVERE PUNISHMENT, nor is any at the moment so threatened."

"During the whole period of the soldiers and the workmen's councils in the USSR, not one single rabbi was shot."

(Note — In the last 17 years, 42,800 Christian pastors of all denominations have been exterminated as the Jews-controlled "pariahs" of Soviet Russia.)

In a council meeting of the French Jewry, meeting on de Launet Street, Paris, the Jew STOLOPOVSKY, chairman of the Theatrical, stated:

"In Russia, as soon as the Revolution brought to the Jews a means of expanding their activity, they began building hundreds of Jewish schools and lycums where all teaching is done in Hebrew."

"JEWISH CHRONICLE," London, Feb. 18, 1931.

"The Bolshevik commissariat for Arts has restored the MOST BEAUTIFUL THEATRE in Moscow to make it suitable to Jewish dramatic art. The expense amounts to several million rubles. A company of Jewish players, graduated at the Jewish Drama School, are presented in the modern repertory."

"JEWISH WORLD," London, Aug. 18, 1931.

"Business is gaining, in Russia, and with the new regime Jews are promptly becoming the capitalists of industry. There are now 100,000 Jews in Moscow and Koshov butcher signs are seen in all streets. . . . However, anti-Semitism is growing in the city parallelly with the increase of the Jewish population."

"CANADIAN JEWISH CHRONICLE," Montreal, page 24, Sept. 27, 1935 (A chronological survey of the Jewish year 5695—A. D. 1934):

(Note. — Biro Bidjan is officially an Autonomous Jewish Soviet Socialist Republic of the Soviet Union. There are also in the USSR four official Jewish Autonomous Districts. All stolen from defunct Russian pogroms.)

"NOVY MIK," official bolshewist organ, Jew-controlled editorial, on March 14, 1931, published an "Appeal to Jewish Workers of the USSR, Europe and All Countries," where it was said:

"Our Soviet Government HAS SENT BILLIONS FOR THE JEWS who have suffered pogroms. But today our republic is resourceless, you must exert pressure upon your governments so that they pay the costs of repairing devastated Jewish districts and that they compensate Jews who have suffered in Russia."

"All Jewish organizations of the world are invited to present that petition to the Geneva Conference THROUGH THE SOVIET DELEGATION."

"It is your sacred duty to BEAR PRESSURE ON YOUR GOVERNMENTS, be they represented at Geneva, SO AS TO FORCE THEM TO SUPPORT THE DEMANDS OF RUSSIAN JEWS."

"You must insist so that the representatives of your respective countries support the demands that the Jews will bring forth for their REPRESENTATIVES, the Soviet delegates."

"CANADIAN JEWISH CHRONICLE," 12-2-31, quoting the Jewish Correspondent Bureau.

"The numbers of Jewish bandits in Moscow have been increasing alarmingly. There scarcely pass a day without hundreds on the highway or robberies with violence being committed by gangs in which the members are Jews of greater part."

"ARL," well known magazine, Feb. March issue of 1931, page 232:

"In all Bolshevik institutions the head are Jews. They are contemptuous of everyone, which excites the people against them. They look upon Bolshevism as a Jewish affair. . . . There is a great national religious fervor among the Jews. They believe that the promised time of the rule of 'God's elect' on earth is come."

"JEWISH CHRONICLE," London, Feb. 18, 1931.

In 1920 the English author George Pitt-Rivers, of Worcester College, Oxford, wrote a booklet entitled "The World Significance of the Russian Revolution," published by Basil Blackwell, Oxford, 2s. Dr. Oscar Levy, a Jew of high standing in English literary circles, wrote for the booklet a preface from which the following are quotations:

"Bolshevism is a religion and a faith. How could these half-converted believers dream to renounce the 'Truthful' and the 'Faithful' of their own creed: these holy crusaders, who had gathered round the Red Standard of the Prophet Karl Marx, and who fought under the daring guidance of these experienced officers of all latter-day revolutions—the Jews?"

"There is no race in the world more enigmatic, more fatal, and therefore more interesting than the Jews."

"Every writer who, like yourself, is oppressed by the aspect of the present and embarrassed by his anxiety for the future, MUST try to elucidate the Jewish Question and its bearing upon our Age."

"For the question of the Jews is the question on the world past and present, the root of all things, and should be discussed by every honest thinker, however bristling with difficulties it is, for it is the subject as well as the individuals of this Race may be."

IT. WICKHAM STERED, half Jew, in "Through Thirty Years":

"The joy of Jewry at these events (Bolshevik revolution) was not merely the joy of triumph over an oppressor; but was also gladness at the downfall of hostile religious and semi-religious institutions."

"JEWISH CHRONICLE," London, Jan. 8, 1932.

"LEVIN ON THE JEWISH QUESTION," book dated Aug. 9, 1918, by Jameson, Jew.

"The Council of People's Commissars has instructed all Soviet Deputies to take uncompromising measures to tear out the anti-semitic movement by its roots; pogromists are to be placed outside the law."

"OFFICIAL JEWISH YEAR BOOK," U. S. S. R., recently published the following list of Jews in power in the Jewish year 5695 (1934):

SCHOLEM ASCHI, in "Golem Besset":

"The slightest shaking of the Soviet regime would mean death for the Jews."

SCHOLEM ASCHI, quoted by the "Jewish World," London, 29-4-31:

"In Russia peasants, soldiers, women, city-dwellers, everybody hates Jews. . . . Jews of Russia are unanimous in believing that the fall of the Soviets and the grasping of power by OTHER HANDS, could be the greatest calamity for Jews that can be imagined."

NATHAN SOKOLOV, "The History of Zionism," p. 281:

"The downfall of the stardom of Russia was undoubtedly one of the greatest events in the world's history. Russia, entered into a period of revolution which seemed to bring with it all the blessings of right and liberty. . . . The restrictions affecting nationalities and creed were removed. But far from destroying Zionism, the new liberty gave it an immense stimulus."

"To this question I have only one answer to give, and it is this: 'You are right.' This reproach of yours, which I feel it for certain—is at the bottom of our anti-Semitism, is only too well justified."

Indignation, the great danger that springs from the prevalence of Jews in finance and industry, and from the preponderance of Jews in rebellion and revolution. You reveal, and with great fervor, the connection between the Collectivism of the immensely rich international finance — the democracy of cash values, as you call it — and the international Collectivism of Karl Marx and Trotsky — the Democracy of and by decoy-cries. . . . And all this evil and misery, the economic as well as the political, you trace back to one source, to one "fons et origo malorum" — the Jews.

"Now other Jews may vilify and crucify you for these outspoken views of yours; I myself shall obtain from joining the chorus of condemnation!"

"But first of all, I have to say this:

"There is scarcely an event in modern Europe that cannot be traced back to the Jews."

"The German Reformation was BASED UPON A RUDE CHRISTIANITY; this kind of Christianity was INVENTED, PREACHED AND PROPAGATED by the Jews; therefore the Jews have made this war! Please do not think this is a joke; it only seems a joke, and behind it there lurks a gigantic truth, and it is this, and all the latter-day ideas and movements have originally sprung from a Jewish source, for the simple reason that the Semitic idea has finally conquered and entirely subdued this only apparently irreligious universe of ours. "There is no doubt that the Jews regularly go one better or worse than the Gentile in whatever they do, there is no further doubt that their influence today JUSTIFIES A VERY CAREFUL SCRUTINY, and cannot possibly be viewed without SERIOUS ALARM."

"To this question I have only one answer to give, and it is this: 'You are right.' This reproach of yours, which I feel it for certain—is at the bottom of our anti-Semitism, is only too well justified."

An American Secret Service Document:

Jewish Communism Supported and Financed By the Jewish High Bank

The money which permitted the establishment of Communism in Soviet Russia was supplied by big Jewish bankers of New York. The proof of it was given to the world by the United States Secret Service (2nd Army Bureau) in a communication addressed to all ambassadors of the Allied Powers.

That sensational document has been reprinted since 1920 in many patriotic publications in several countries. It has also been printed in "The Mystical Body of Christ in the Modern World," by the Rev. Denis Fahey, professor of theology at the Blackrock College, Dublin, Ireland.

The communications of the Rev. Fahey and the text of the document read as follows:

"The chief document treating of the financing of the Russian Revolution, is the one drawn up by the American Secret Service and transmitted by the French High Commissioner to his Government. It was published by the Documentation Catholique de Paris on March 6, 1920, and preceded by the following remarks:

"The authenticity of this document is guaranteed to us. With regard to the exactness of the information which it contains, the American Secret Service takes responsibility."

"This document was quoted in 1920 in a supplement to the paper La Vieille France, which added: 'All the governments of the Entente were aware of this memorandum, drawn up from the data of the American Secret Service and sent at the time to the French High Commissioner and his colleagues.'"

"The memorandum is also to be found in Mgr. Jouin's work, Le Peril Judeo-Macannique, Part III, pp. 249-251, with the added remark that the Jews have placed obstacles in the way of its publication, so that the great majority of people are unaware of its existence."

"Though the Jewish origin of Kerensky, who brought about the first Russian Revolution of 1917, has been contradicted, it seems pretty certain that he was the son of the Jew Aaron (Aaron) Kerensky and the Jewish Adler."

"The document is divided into eight sections. Sections I to IV as well as VI to VIII, will be here reproduced for the benefit of readers:

American Secret Service Report

"Section I: In February, 1916, it was first discovered that a

We, Jews, Have Landed You Into a New Hell"
...Dr. Oscar Levy says

NOTHING ELSE BUT THE WORLD'S SEDUCERS, ITS DESTROYERS, ITS INCENDIARIES, ITS EXECUTIONERS... We who have promised to lead you to a new Heaven, WE HAVE FINALLY SUCCEEDED IN LANDING YOU INTO A NEW HELL... There has been no progress, least of all moral progress... And it is just our morality, which has prohibited all real progress, and what is worse—which even stands in the way of all future and natural reconstruction in this ruined world of ours... I look at this world, and I shudder at its ghastliness; I shudder all the more as I know the spiritual authors of all this ghastliness...

"But its authors themselves, unconscious in this as in all they are doing, know nothing yet of this startling revelation. While Europe is aflame, while its victims scream, while its dogs howl in the configuration, and while its very smokes descend in darker and even darker shades upon our Continent, the Jews, or at least a part of them and by no means the most unworthy ones, endeavor to escape from the burning building, and wish to retire from Europe into Asia, from the scene of our disaster, into the sunny corner of their Palestine. Their eyes are closed to the miseries, their ears are deaf to the moanings, their hearts are hardened to the anarchy of Europe; they only feel their own sorrows, they only bewail their own fate, they only sigh under their own burdens."

revolution was being fomented in Russia. It was found out that the following persons, as well as the banking-house mentioned, were engaged in this work of destruction: Jacob Schiff, Jew; Guggenheim, Jew; Max Brilling, Jew; Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Jewish banking house, of which the following are the directors—Jacob Schiff, Felix Warburg, Otto Kahn, Mortimer Schiff, S. H. Hanauer (All Jews).

"There can be no doubt that the Russian Revolution, which broke out a year after the information given above had been received, was launched and fomented by distinctly Jewish influences. As a matter of fact, in April, 1917, Jacob Schiff made a public declaration that it was thanks to his financial help, that the Russian Revolution had succeeded."

"Section II: In the spring of 1917 Jacob Schiff began to supply funds to Trotsky (Jew) to bring about the social revolution in Russia. The N. Y. Daily 'Forward,' which is a Judeo-Bolshevik organ, gave a subscription for the same purpose."

"Through Stockholm the Jew Max Warburg was likewise furnishing funds to Trotsky & Co. They were also in receipt of funds from the Westphalian-Rhineland Syndicate, which is an important Jewish enterprise; as well as from another Jew, Olaf Aghchong of the 'Nava Bank' of Stockholm; and from Glivotovsky, a Jew, whose daughter is married to Trotsky."

Jew Capitalists Join Communists

"Thus the communications were set up BETWEEN THE JEWISH MULTI-MILLIONAIRES AND THE JEWISH PROLETARIANS."

The Connection Between the Jewish Bank and Communism

Sensational Admission from A Jewish Banker!

In the last months of 1936, the Comte de Saint-Aulaire, who had been French ambassador in London after the Great War, published a book entitled "Geneve contre la Paix" (Geneva Against Peace), edited by Librairie Plon, Paris, 15 francs.

In that book, he wrote the statements made before him by a great New York Jewish banker in a Judea-Pest Cafe, just after the Jew Bela-Kuhn had drenched Hungary in Christian blood. The Jewish Bank mentioned hereafter is most probably the Kuhn, Loeb & Co. of New York, the directors of which were then Jacob H. Schiff, Otto H. Kahn, Paul and Felix Warburg. (See also page 9.)

The following is extracted from the book of Comte de Saint-Aulaire, page 85:

"This situation explains how Bela Kuhn's secret allies had remained in Budapest after his defeat, and how it was that they were to be found at the tables of international missions. Some of them were members of these missions, which they no doubt found very handy for the fulfillment of their other mission. They met, and with Bela Kuhn too, and when they had drunk more than little children can take, they loosened their tongues. After the armistice a number of Jewish revolutionaries who had been expelled from Hungary returned there in American uniforms. It was their reports to Wilson which inspired the Council Supreme regarding the policy in Central Europe. I took note of the proposals, made by one of these. He was my neighbour at the table of one of those international dinners, which are the best school for diplomats, but can also be very dangerous."

"Section III: In October, 1917, the social revolution took place in Russia, thanks to which certain Soviet organizations took over the direction of the Russian people."

In three Soviets the following individuals (all Jewish) made themselves remarkable: Lenin (real name Ulianoff); Trotsky (Bronstein); Stekloff (Nakhmanoff); Martoff (Zederbaum); Zinovietz (Apfelbaum); Kameneff (Rosensfeld); Dan (Gourevitch); Ganetsky (Furstenberg); Parvus (Helfand); Uritsky (Padomilsky); L. L. Lurge; Bohnin (Nathansohn); Martoff (Zibar); Bognotz (Gimel); Kamelitz (Goldmann); Sagersteyn (Krochmann); Riazanoff (Goldendach); Solutzoff (Bleichmann); Piatnitsky (Zilwin); Aschrod (Orthodox); Glasnostoff (Schultze); Zursanin (Weinstein); Lapinsky (Loewendahn). The writer wishes to add that some authors are convinced that Lenin's mother was a Jewess."

(Note by reprint: Lenin studied with Jewish Zionist students in Switzerland. English Correspondent in Russia, Victor Marsden, referred to Lenin as a "Galym Jew married to a Jewish woman, whose children spoke Yiddish, Herbert Fitch, a Scotland Yard Detective who spied upon Lenin as a waiter, said he was "a typical Jew.")

"Section IV: At the same time the Jew Paul Warburg (who had been with the Federal Reserve Board) was remarked to be in contact with certain Bolshevik notable in the U. S. This circumstance, together with other points about which information had been obtained, was the cause of his not being re-elected to the above-mentioned committee (Federal Reserve)."

Jew Labor and Jew Capital.

"Section V: On the other hand, Judas Magnes, subsidized by Jacob Schiff, is in close contact with the world-wide Zionist Organization, Poale Zion, which he is in fact the director. The final end of this organization is to establish the International supremacy of the Jewish Labor Movement."

"HERE AGAIN WE SEE THE CONNECTION BETWEEN THE JEWISH MULTI-MILLIONAIRES AND THE JEWISH PROLETARIANS."

"Section VII: Scarcely had the social revolution broken out in Germany when the Jewess Rosa Luxemburg automatically assumed the political direction of it. One of the chief leaders of the International Bolshevik Movement was the Jew Hase. At that time the social revolution in Germany developed along the same lines as the social revolution in Russia."

"Section VIII: If we bear in mind the fact that the Jewish Banking-House of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. is in touch with the Westphalian-Rhineland Syndicate, German-Jewish House; and with the Brothers Lazare, Jewish House in Paris; and also with the Jewish House of Gumbourg of Petrograd, Folko and Paris; if, in addition, we remark that all the above-mentioned Jewish Houses are in close correspondence with the Jewish House of Speyer & Co. of London, New York and Frankfurt-on-the-Main, as well as with the N.Y. Bankers, Judeo-Bolshevik establishment at Stockholm—it will be manifest that the Bolshevik movement is in a certain measure the expression of a general Jewish movement, and that certain Jewish banking-houses are interested in the organization of this movement."

Jew Capitalists Described

A few additional remarks about some of the personages above-mentioned may be of interest. According to the Echo de Paris of 28th April, 1920, Max Warburg is the head of the Bank Max Warburg & Co. of Hamburg. He is the chief shareholder in the Hamburg-Amerikanische Linie and the Deutscher Lloyd. His two brothers, Paul and Felix, one of whom is married to the sister-in-law, the other to the daughter of Jacob Schiff (born at Frankfurt) are with Schiff at the head of the bank Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

From the "German-Bolshevik Conspiracy," p. 27, issued by the "Committee of Public Information," Washington, D. C., October, 1918, we learn that Max Warburg was advancing money to the Bolsheviks. The following telegram appears therefrom: "Stockholm, 21st S.-L., 1917: Mr. Raphael Scholin, Haparand: Dear Comrade — In conformity with a telegram from the Westphalian Syndicate, Max Warburg & Co. Bank informs you that an account is open for Comrade Trotsky's interference. (Signed) J. Furstenberg"

From information furnished by French sources Jacob Schiff appears to have given $12,000,000 for the Russian Revolution of 1917.

If we now turn to Mrs. Nesta H. Webster's "The Surrender of an Empire," pp. 74-75, we get some additional information about the rise of Bolshevism.

A Jew Investment in Revolution

It seems that the real name of the individual mentioned above in Section III under the designation of Parvus, is Israel Lazarevitch Helfand, and that he is a Jew of the Province of Minsk in White Russia. In the second half of the eighties he took part in revolutionary work in Odessa. In 1888 he went abroad, and finally, after many wanderings, went to Copenhagen, where he amassed a large fortune as the chief agent for the supply of German coal to Denmark through the Danish Social Democratic Party of this movement."

Dr. Ziv, in his "Life of Trotsky," relates that when he was, in America in 1916 he said to Trotsky: "How is Parvus?" to which Trotsky replied inconspicuously: "Completing his twelfth million."

It is this Jewish multi-millionaire who, after Karl Marx, was the greatest inspirer of Lenin. It was through the intervention of Parvus that Lenin was sent to Russia.

Russia is not a triumph for the workers; but seems to be a GLORIOUS INVESTMENT OF JEWISH CAPITALISTS FOR THEIR OWN ENDS."

because it is the instrument of our nation, and a weapon of attack, now of defense, both the shield and the sword.

"Marxism, you say, is the bitterest opponent of Capitalism, which is sacred to us. For the simple reason that they are opposites, they deliver over to us the two poles of the earth and permit us to be its axis. These two opposites, Bolshevism and ourselves, find ourselves identified in the Internationale. And these two opposites, the doctrines of the two poles of society, meet in their unity of purpose, the renewal of the world from above by the control of wealth and from below by means of revolution."

"For centuries Israel lived apart from the Christians, crowded into ghettos. This was supposed to show the witness of the old faith in deepest humiliation to those who believed in the new, and was said to be a penance for the murder of Christ. It was that, however, which saved us, and which will be the salvation of humanity, through us. In the manner we have preserved our genius and our own special mission. Now we are the true believers. Our mission consists of disseminating the new law and in creating a God that is, to clarify the conception of God, and making him a reality, when the times arrive. To do this we make the God and Israel synonymous, for Israel has become its own Messiah. Our final triumph will thus facilitate his appearance. That (Continued on Page Eight)

A Rabbi Pleads Guilty and Justifies Anti-Jews!

(The following is a translation of an article by Rabbi Manfred Reiter, that appeared in the "Jahrbuch der Agudat Zion" of September 2, 1933. Czernowitz is the capital of Bukovina, part of the old Austria-Hungary, and given in the peace treaty to Rumania. Naturally the pragmatic-historic treatment of the subject by one of their own was very displeasing to the Jewry; they have tried to suppress the voice of the "traitor of his people," and the whole edition of the paper in which the article appeared as far as it could be gotten hold of, was bought up by the Jewish community of Czernowitz.)

"THE STATE OF THE GERMAN JEW,"
by Dr. Manfred Reiter
"1—THE HISTORICAL PRO-CESS"

"The present situation of the German Jew is the conclusion of an historical process. It is a development, the beginning of which can be traced back to the time of Bismarck. It had to come this way, if one understands the deep historical import of this anti-Semitic movement of which Adolf Hitler is the strongest exponent. Anyone who did not foresee that was afflicted with blindness. One tried to close one's eyes to the events and acted according to the vulgar principle 'What one does not want, one does not believe.' That was a convenient way to avoid fundamental questions, to look at the world through rose-colored glasses. The advocates of assimilation attempted to throw a veil over things and to play liberalism—long dead—as their last card. They did not understand the course of history, and believed they could evade it by declaring themselves Germans of the Mosaic faith, by denying the existence of a Jewish nation, by severing all threads that bound them to Jewry, by striking out the word 'Zion' in their prayer books and introducing Sunday Service. They looked upon anti-Semitism as a passing phenomenon which would be eliminated through intensive propaganda, through organization of a society for fighting it. Such were the thoughts of the great majority of German Jews. And hence the disappointment, the deep resignation in connection with Hitler's victory, hence the nameless despair, the spreading psychosis that culminated in suicide, the complete loss of morale.

"But he who judges the events in Germany according to the principle of causality will have to judge the Nazi movement as the culmination of a natural development; he will also understand that history knows no accidents, that every epoch is the result of the preceding one. And here lies the way to the understanding of the present situation. The fight against Jewdom has been conducted in Germany for half a century intensively and with German thoroughness. Scientific anti-Semitism has taken root in German soil. 'All this the German Jews refused to see. They felt themselves on false hope, overlooked reality and dreamed of cosmopolitanism, of the time of Dohm, Lessing, and Mendelssohn. The uprooted Jews gave themselves to fantastic ideas and a nourished cosmopolitan dreams. And this expressed itself in twofold manner. Either they acclaimed the general liberalism or they became banner carriers of socialism. Both fields of activity furnished new food to anti-Semitism.

"2—THE FATE.
"In all good faith, to serve themselves and humanity the Jews began to reach actively into the life of German people. With characteristic Jewish passion they threw themselves upon all fields of knowledge, they took hold of the press, organized the working masses, and strove to influence the whole spiritual life in the direction of liberalism and democracy. This of course would necessarily cause a deep reaction on the part of their host people. When the Jews, for instance, took hold of the so-called international disciplines, whenever they achieved distinction in the fields of Physics, Chemistry, Medicine, Astronomy and to a certain extent in the field of Philosophy, they might at most cause envy among their Aryan colleagues, but not general hatred of the whole nation. One did not like to see Jews become bearers of Nobel prizes, but accepted it silently. But in the fields of national disciplines things are quite different. Every nation strives to develop its own original powers and to transmit to the present and coming generations the fruits of the spiritual labors of the race. It is not a matter of indifference to the people who writes its Christmas carols, who celebrates mass, who urges going to church. The people of every nation wish, that their young be educated in their own spirit. The while great parts of the German people fought for the maintenance of their kind, we Jews filled with our clamor the streets of Germany. We posed as world reformers and thought to influence public life through our ideas. We rang the bells and called to silent prayer, we prepared the 'Lord's supper' and celebrated resurrection.

"We played with the most holy possessions of the people and at times made fun of all that was sacred to the nation. We trusted to the imperishable rights of democracy and felt ourselves as equal citizens of the German Reich. The German community. We posed as censors of the morals of the people, and poured out full cups of satire upon the German people. We wanted to be prophets in the 'pagan fields of Germania,' and forget ourselves so far that all this had to draw destruction upon us.

"We made revolutions, and ran as eternal God seekers, ahead of the masses of the people. We gave to the international proletariat a false picture, but we obtained adequate at the times and we aroused the passions of the third estate. The Jew Marx from Germany, during the years of his exile in London, organized the masses of the people in Germany itself. The Jew Edward Bernstein popularized the ideology, (the Jews) Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg called the Spartacist movement to life. The Jew Kurt Eisner created the Bavarian Soviet Republic and was her first, and last, president. And again that the German nation rose up, rebelled. She wanted to forge her own destiny, determine the future of her children—and she should not have been blamed for it.

"What we (Whom does the Rabbi mean here, the Zionists perhaps? He must mean a section of Jewry, it can not relate to the German people, with whom he does not identify himself—Translator) objected to first of all was the world citizenship, the cosmopolitanism, which had Jews as its front fighters. These uprooted persons imagined they possessed the power to transplant the ideas of Isaiah into the alleys of Germania, and to stomp Valhalla with Amos. At times they succeeded in that, but they bury themselves and the Jewish people under the ruins of a world that has collapsed.

"3—THE GOD SEEKERS
WITHIN THE SOVIETS.
"One must look at the struggle of the Hitler regime from a different viewpoint, and learn to understand it. Have we Jews not rebelled, and conducted bloody wars against everything foreign? What else then were the wars of the Maccabees but protests against a foreign, non-Jewish way of life? And of what consisted the eternal fight of the prophets? Surely of nothing else than eliminating foreign elements, the foreign gods, and of the keeping sacred the original nature of Jewdom. Have we not rebelled against the radically related kings of the house of the Idumeans? And have we not excluded the Samaritans from our community because they practiced mixed marriages? Why should not the German nationalists do the same, when a Kurt Eisner appropriates to himself the prerogatives of the Whitechapel era? We must learn to look truth in the face and to draw last consequences.

"We should not want to be false prophets, but to do so does not mean solving the problem. What is occurring today in Germany will come tomorrow in Russia. For all crimes which have the consequences of the Communist system, the Jews in Soviet Russia will have to suffer some day. We shall have to pay for the fact that we, Trotsky, Zetkin, Sinowiew, had leading posts in Soviet Russia.

"Was there not more sin against the democratic form in Soviet Russia than in Germany? What in Germany the Hitler obtained in the election campaign a majority, in Russia there was no such thing. There a small minority—today after 15 years of revolution barely four millions—proclaimed the dictatorship of the proletariat. The Jews attempt in Soviet Russia also to be announcers and pronouncers of new absolute truth, they strive to interpret the Bolshevik Bible and to influence the way of thinking of the Russian people. A process that calls forth sharpest resistance and even today leads to anti-Semitic disruption. What will happen when the Soviet government will have fallen and democracy in Russia will celebrate its solemn entrance? Will the Jews fare better than today in Germany? Will not the Russian people behind the Trotskyists, the Kamenews, Sinowiews, etc., discover their old Jewish nature and let the children suffer for the sins of their fathers? Or will it not even last that long, so that even the fathers will come to regret? Are there not examples for that? Did not thousands of Jews lose their lives in Hungary because (the Jew) Bela Kun erected a Soviet republic on the soil of Stephan the Holy? (It is somewhat strange the Rabbi does not mention the thousands of Hungarians slaughtered by Bela Kun and his hordes—Translator). — The Hungarian Jews have paid very dearly for their prophetism...

"They and in the same measure the advocates of liberalism, all those poets, authors, artists, journalists, prepared the present time, nourished Jew-hatred, furnished the grounds, the material for the best of National Socialism. They all surely desired the best, but attained the opposite. They were cursed with blindness, they saw not the approach of catastrophe, they heard not the football of time, the heavy footfalls of the Nemesis."

(1) These four Jewish revolutionaries were killed in revolutionary attempts which they had organized.

Within the International the Jew appeared as the most radical element. Germans, French, Poles, Czechs, have a home and their internationalism lives itself out in Germany, France, Poland, Czechia; They are autochthonous, under home right. That shows itself in practical life. The Germans in 1918 burned their red flags in the Tiergarten at Berlin and went with the Deutschland lied on their lips, forth to war. The Polish socialist Dazinski stood in the forefront of the fight for the reconstruction of Poland, and the Czech socialists sang with enthusiasm their "Hail to the Nation." "Kde domov mój, tam i moje srdce." "Kde domov mój, tam i moje srdce." "No Kaddosh will be spoken no mass be read..." (1)

British White Paper Denouncing Jews

In April, 1919, a White Paper was published in London by order of His Majesty, under the title of "Russia, No. 1 (1919). A collection of Reports on Bolshevism in Russia." The document was tabled in the House of Commons.

On Page 6 of the White Paper was a report from His Exce. Mr. Oudendyk, minister for the Netherlands, who had been looking after British subjects and interests in official capacity, the report of the British representative (Captain Cromie) who had been murdered by the Bolsheviks. The Oudendyk report, dated Sept. 6, 1918, and received by the British Government on Sept. 18, 1918, from Sir M. Findlay, British representative at Christiania, read in part as follows:

"The foregoing report will indicate the extremely critical nature of the present situation. The danger is now so great that I feel it my duty to call the attention of the British and all other Governments to the fact that if an end is not put to Bolshevism in Russia at once the civilization of the whole world will be threatened. This is not an exaggeration, but a sober matter of fact; and the most unusual action of German and Austrian consuls-general, before referred to, in joining in protest of neutral legations appears to indicate that the danger is also being realized in German and Austrian quarters. I consider that the immediate suppression of Bolshevism is the greatest issue now before the world, not even excluding the war which still rages, and unless, as above stated, Bolshevism is nipped in the bud immediately, it is bound to spread in one form or another over Europe and the whole world. 'AS IT IS ORGANIZED AND WORKED BY JEWS WHO HAVE NO NATIONALITY, WHO HAVE NO NATIONAL OBJECT IS TO DESTROY FOR THEIR OWN ENDS THE EXISTING ORDER OF THINGS.' I would beg that this report may be telegraphed as soon as possible in cipher in full to the British Foreign Office in view of its importance."

(Note: When a second edition of that White Paper was reprinted, the part concerning the Jews had been suppressed after a strenuous pressure from organized Jewry upon the British Foreign Office. George P. Mudge, supported by a great many patriotic Britons, tried to get an official explanation for the suppression but no official would answer.)

Sensational Admission from a Jewish Banker!

is our New Testament. We shall bring reconciliation between kings and prophets, as did David the King-Prophet, who united both in his own person. We are Kings in order that the prophecies may be fulfilled, and we are Prophets, lest we should cease to be Kings."

"Here this King and Prophet paused to drink another glass of Tokay.

"A sceptical listener here interrupted:

"Are you not running a risk of becoming yourselves martyrs to this same Messianism, whose apostles and prophets you claim to be. Though your nationalism be deprived of all exterior forms, it frequently robs other nations of theirs. And even if you do despise riches as means of enjoyment, you do not reject them as a means to power. So how could the triumph of World Revolution, the opponent of Capitalism, prepare the way for the triumph of Israel?"

The banker who had prepared the Bolshevik Revolution answered:

"I am fully aware that Jerobeam introduced the worship of the Golden Calf to Dan and Bethel. And I know also that in modern times Revolution is the greatest pretense of this cult, and the most skillful procurers for its tabernacles. If the Golden Calf still stands erect, its safest pedestal is the gravestone of the Emperors and for two reasons. Firstly because revolution is only a displacement, or transference to other hands, of privileges and wealth. Our Golden Calf is nourished, then, not by the creation of wealth, nor even by its exploitation, but by its mobilization, the essence of speculation. The more often it changes hands, the more is left behind in ours. We are brokers who accept orders on all exchange businesses, or if you prefer it, publicans who watch every street corner on the globe, taking a percentage on every deal made in 'anonymous and wandering wealth,' whether it be a match, a remittance from a country to another or fluctuations on the exchange. To the calm and monotonous sing-song of prosperity we prefer the exciting sound of 'haussse' and 'baisse,' and there is nothing like revolution for producing this, except it be a war, which is also a kind of revolution. Secondly, revolution weakens the nations, and reduces their powers of resistance to outside enterprises.

"The health of our Golden Calf demands that certain nations should be sick, namely those which are not able of themselves to develop. On the other hand, we feel as one with those great modern states such as France, England, U. S. A., and Italy. These have shown us a noble hospitality and we co-operate with them for the development of civilization. But take as an example pre-war Turkey, the 'sick man' as it was called by diplomats, which helped to keep us healthy. From it we received concessions of every description, banks, mines, harbours, railways, etc., in short, its whole economic life was in our hands. And we could so well for it that it died, in Europe, at least.

"Now that the accumulation of wealth has become common, and that we have the fulfillment of our mission in view, we need another sick man. This alone would have been a sufficient reason, for granting Bolshevism on to 'Soviet Russia. Russia is now the sick man of the post war days, and is much more nourishing than the Ottoman Empire. It is now ready for another feast; soon it will be a corpse, and we shall have nothing left to do but to cut it up..."

At the other end of the table an infant terrible of the synagogue had been waiting for the moment to put in a word. He called out: "We are looked upon as birds of prey, but in reality we are rather scavengers."

"Yes, but you must not forget to add that we are such for the good of humanity only," replied the one professing the new belief. "The dynamic force of our nature employs both destruction and construction, the former however only as a means to further the latter. What were countries such as Turkey of the old days and Russia with their feudal systems? They were like paralyzed limbs that hindered the movement of the whole world, or clots of blood that stopped up important blood vessels. By their dissolution we have once more brought them into the circulation of the whole body. Even if a few drops of blood were spilled in the process, we have no cause to get excited. It is the small price that must be paid for a great act of benevolence.

"Others call us revolutionaries because we wish to preserve ourselves. We put our organization for revolution and our own preservation to the test through the work of destruction of Bolshevism and through the setting up of the League of Nations, which is also our work. Thus the first is the accelerator and the second the brake of the mechanism of which we are the driving power and the direction.

"And the goal? It is typified by our mission. Israel is a homogeneous and synthetic nation, composed of elements which, though living scattered across the world, are welded into one block by the flame of our religion.

"We are a league of nations, which contains in itself all others. That gives us the right to unite the others around us.

"We are accused of being the element of disintegration of those others. This is so only during the melting point of the synthesis, of which ours is the best example. We disintegrate only on the surface, awakening in the interior chemical affinities which were hitherto obscured. We are the smallest common factor of the nations in order to become their greatest common 'federator.' (1. e. to unite all nations under one rule), create the Microcosm, and the germ of the city of the future."

As Samuel Roth says (p. 16) and as they appear in history Jews are a tribe of deadly persecutors, not a persecuted minority as they pretend. Through propaganda, they have tried to convince public opinion of the contrary, but facts and history stand as their accusers, even their own authors and publications.

Remember that only one half a Jew is allowed but in all I have power to show that I am not

A RACE OF VULTURES... which PERSECUTES ALL OTHERS!

In 1931, the New York Jew Samuel Roth, a well-known author and publisher, had a 320-page book edited by the Golden Hind Press, Inc., illustrated by John Conrad. Previously Roth had published two books in defense of his race against anti-Semites: "Ethiopia" (Liveright, 1919) and "Now and Forever" (McBride, 1925). Israel Zangwill used to quote these books. By studying why Jews had been impugned in all centuries and all countries, after having examined them more carefully and having "tasted" more of them, Roth changed his opinion completely and fully approved the arguments of those who defend their countries against the silent Jewish conquest. As soon as the book was published, Roth was assailed from all quarters with ferocity and Jews tried, but vainly, to have him declared insane. The following are some excerpts of his books, "Jews Must Live."

Hypocrisy and Cruelty

"Dizrael set the Jewish fashion of saying that every country has the sort of Jews it deserves. It may also be true that the Jews have only the sorts of enemies they deserve, too."

"Jewish history has been tragic to the Jews and no less tragic to the neighboring nations who have suffered them. OUR MAJOR VICE of old, as of today, is PARASITISM. We are A PEOPLE OF VULTURES living on the labor and the good nature of the rest of the world."

"But, despite our faults, we would never have done so much damage to the world if it had not been for our genius for evil leadership.... Granted our parasitism. Certain perm-parasites are essential to the steady flow of blood through the arteries of an organic body. The chams of Israel comes not of our being the BANKERS and the old clothmen of the world. It comes, rather, of the stupendous hypocrisy and cruelty imposed on us by our fatal leadership, and by us on the rest of the world."

"For the first of all Jewish creeds is that Jews must live. It does not matter how, by what, or to what end, Jews must live. And so a return was made to the ancient policy of conquest by the more peaceful and delicate methods of cheating, lying and pumping."

Anti-Semitism

"Here I merely wish to reaffirm the fact that anti-semitism is so instinctive that it may quite simply be called one of the primal instincts of mankind, one of the important instincts by which the race helps to PRESERVE ITSELF AGAINST TOTAL DESTRUCTION. I cannot emphasize this matter too strongly. Anti-semitism is not, as Jews have tried to make the world believe, an active prejudice. It is a deeply hidden instinct with which every man is born. He remains unconscious of it, as of all other instincts of self-preservation, until something happens to awaken it. Just as when something flies in the direction of your eyes, the eye lids close instantly and of their own accord. So swiftly and surely is the instinct of anti-semitism awakened in man."

Persecutors

"Have not Jews been admitted from time immemorial, freely, kindly, almost happily by every nation at whose gate they have knocked for admittance? The story of the Jews, as they have themselves written it out, has always gone out ahead of them, to spread through the foreign peoples and evoke in their minds curiosity and pity. Have the Jews ever had to petition a country for admittance—the first time?"

"Read for yourself the story of the progress of Jewry through Europe and America. Whenever they come they are welcomed, permitted to settle down, and join in the general business of the community. But one by one the industries of the country close to them because of unfair practices—until it being impossible to longer hold in check the wrath of a betrayed people, there is violence and, inevitably, an ignominious ejection of the whole race from the land. There is not a single instance when the Jews have not fully deserved the bitter fruit of the fury of their persecutors."

"We come to the nations pretending to escape persecution, we the most deadly persecutors in all the wretched annals of man."

"The disease is a sort of moral gonorrhea known as Judaism, and seems to be, alas, incurable. The result as any good doctor will tell you, are invariably treacherous and unhealthy. If you are in doubt take a look at any Jew-ridden country in Europe. If you need to be further convinced, take a look at what's happening in America."

Good Business

"I knew even in Nustcha that the Gentiles regarded us with a terrible loathing. But how was it possible for them to love us? Lippe Coy sold them sick pigs at prices which would have been too much to pay for healthy ones. The tavalis made them drink at the well every Saturday night, and robbed them of their week's wages (just as they had robbed my grandfather of the Inn); and Reb Shomron every Saturday morning, including Christmas, sent his wife with the church-key to collect the toll or refuse to open the iron door to the worshippers."

"My earliest knowledge of the Jewish attitude towards their Gentile neighbors came from listening at our Inn to the stories of Jewish travellers (who stopped with us for a drink or a night's lodging) about their business dealings with the goyim. When the goyim had been bamboozled, business was good. For the greater the harm he had done in a business transaction with a goy, the deeper appeared the narrative delight of the Jew to whom I was listening."

Heritage

"Concerning their superiority over the rest of the population of the town, there could be no question in their minds. It was all very simple. They were Jews. And the goyim were only goyim. So, naturally, come to think of it, is not exactly the word which to explain the precedence which the Jews of Zborow felt over their neighbors. Their superiority in legal possessions—this was the real rub! What the goyim had was only a temporary possession, which the stupid law of the gentiles was attempting to make permanent. Were not they, the Jews, God's chosen? Did not God mean in the very beginning that all the good things of the world should belong to his favorites? It was a Jew's business to remember this at all times, especially in his dealing with goyim. It was practically a moral obligation on the part of every conscientious Jew to fool and cheat the goy wherever and whenever possible."

"We despised the goyim and hated his religion. The goy, according to the stories crooned into the ears of the children, faintly worshipped an ungodly creature he called the yotse—and a dozen names too foul for repetition. The yotse had once been a human being and a Jew. But one day he had gone out of his mind, and in that pitifully bewildered state announced that he was the Lord God himself. This extraordinary caricature of the founder of the opposing religion made possible one of the queerest adventures of my life."

"Being a Jew is a disadvantage only if you are a Jew doing business within the Jewish tradition. But you can be a Jew who conducts his business honestly and decently. I have met one or two such Jews in my life."

A War To Be Continued

"The preservation of Jewish religion and culture are merely excuses for something else, a mole-screen. What the Jew really wants and expects to achieve through the instrumentality of the Jewry school is to cultivate in his own sharp awareness that he is waging an old war against his neighbors. The young Jew must learn to remember that there is nothing else he is a Jew, that, before any other allegiance, comes his allegiance to the Jewish people. It may be a good American. If it is good business to be a good American. He may even pose as a good Chinaman. But no obligation is contra. Is with a non-Jew is to be considered valid if it violates the interests of this most important obligation of his."

"Most desirable for the young Jew, he is told implicitly, it is, for him to become a member of the professions—to become a doctor, a lawyer, an engineer, even a salesman or an agent. To be compelled to go to work, to do annual labor for one's livelihood, is a very worse state the young Jew can fall to, something to make him feel really ashamed and humiliated. This attitude of the Jew towards manual labor is historic."

The Cardinal Professions

"There would not be so much harm in the Jews taking in such immense droves to the practice of the cardinal professions if they accepted them in the proper spirit. But the Jew does not, cannot, turn to the law with anything like reverence for the profession or for its splendid traditions."

"The attitude of a young Jew towards his profession is really like that of a gangster towards a racket. The real end is the amount of money it is likely to yield him in exchange for the smallest investment of labor and enthusiasm."

"What becomes of the young Jew who cannot attain to one of the professions? He has to make money with which to buy a news stand or the mental resourcefulness to create a selling line? Most of them remain on the street, yield him his splendid neighborhood and become the petty thieves, hold-up-men, crackpots, street-corner mashers and petty racketeers of every peaceful community in America."

"The Irishman, the Italian, and the Greek become criminals out of sheer necessity, and remain so only as long as the necessity lasts. As in every other thing the Jew does not immediately conceive of it as a career."

"It is my honest belief that nothing the Jew does in America is essential to his welfare. On the contrary, a great deal of what the American Jew does is subversive of America's best interests."

"The Jew in America is forever engaged in the fascinating pursuit of creating everything he needs out of nothing—his modest opinion of the gentile world about him."

"What is this Jewish business of creating everything out of nothing? It is very fascinating, I assure you. The whole thing may perhaps be expressed in one magical word. But you have in the course of your life attributed other meanings. I had better warn you not to jump at conclusions too quickly. The word is MERCHANDISING."

The Jew in Business

"America is full of businesses bearing old Christian names, but which are really owned and run by Jews. Most of them have been acquired in the manner I have just described, the way the Jew creates something out of nothing (slow strangling)."

"The Jew better than anyone else in the world knows how to dispossess the poor and the members of the middle classes. To fit this case, the old P. E. Barum pedagogy needs only a little changing. A gentile enters business every minute, with two Jews waiting to take him out of it."

"We see the Jew, in business, as promoters, money-lender, salesman par excellence, the author and chief instigator of a system of credit by which nation-wide usury rises like a golden wall, to choke the honor and the freedom-of-movement of hard-working people."

Kol Nidre

"Certainly no other religion in the world has offered the world a spectacle as contradictory as malicious, as full of the spirit of unreasonableness as the Jewish re-laxity of the prayer KOL NIDRE during YOM KIPPUR."

"No matter what business he may undertake to promote with his neighbor, be it material or moral, he wants the Lord God to understand in advance that there will be one implicit condition (a condition, however, he does not undertake to explain before entering into an argument): the execution of it must be favorable to him, the Lord God, or it will be considered by the Jew void, of no account, utterly useless, as if it had never been mentioned, as if nothing relating to it had ever been negotiated."

"The Jew denies, by his recital of Kol Nidre, even before he undertakes it, any possible responsibility in crime. Can it be doubted that a fearful influence for evil this must exert on his character as a citizen and as a human being?"

Jewish Civilization

"We live on this continent in a Jew-made civilization. So deeply have our institutions been impressed with the stamp of the Jewish spirit, the Jewish temperament, that I find it necessary (if I am to meet my reader on something like a common ground of understanding) to establish definitions of the most elementary institutions."

"The Jew is a gypsy with a weakness for real estate. The very first promise the Lord made to Abraham was a promise of land; land already occupied and the lawful property of the peoples who had fertilized it."

LOYALTY: a Thing Unknown

Quotations from "You Gentiles," 1924, a book by the Zionist leader Maurice SAMUELS:

"Between Gentiles and Jews there lies an unbridgeable gulf. Ours is one life—yours another. The prime difference is not recognizable. It is abyssal."

"Whenever the Jew is found, he is a problem, a source of unhappiness to himself and those around him. Jew is everywhere, to large extent, ALIENS—unquestionably an alien spirit in your colleges. He will not accept your rules of right or wrong because he does not understand them. In his system of life Gentiles are essentially without morality. These two ways of life are utterly ALIEN TO THE OTHER. THEY ARE ENEMIES."

"Our Jewishness is not a creed; it is our totality. A Jew is a Jew in everything. We cannot conceive of a dual—civil and life, the sacred and the secular. I might say, 'We and God grew up together.' In the heart of any pious Jew, God is and Jews alone understand the universality of God."

"There does not seem to be a single country with a history which has not been ANTI-SEMITIC at one time or another."

"You might say, 'Well, let us exist side by side and tolerate each other.' But the two are not merely different; THEY ARE OPPOSED IN MORTAL ENMITY."

"In your world a man should be loyal to his country, to his province, to his city. TO THE JEW, NAKED LOYALTY IS AN INCOMPREHENSIBLE THING."

"Jews are the most CLANNISH of peoples. The fact that they have persisted for 80 generations in maintaining a racial and spiritual identity bespeaks an essential discipline of amazing rigor and power. The discipline of our Jewishness is subjection of the individual to the mass."

"We Jews pay little attention to the Jewish religion. We thank God FOR HAVING MADE US DIFFERENT FROM YOU."

"The instinct of the Gentile is to distrust the Jew, of the Jew, to distrust the Gentile. Set aside by side with us, you are bulwarks and mobs."

"We are not in your midst by our own will, but through YOUR action. We are unwelcome to you because we are what we are. We have more cogent reasons of hating you (than you for hating us). Radical Jewry, Modernized Jewry, Agnostic Jewry, ARE BECOMING THE DOMINANT ELEMENT IN JEWRY. We have produced an overwhelming number of revolutionaries—ban-

"Jews know only one use for the ownership of land or of anything SPECULATIVE. And there you have the real reason why the Christian world is so reluctant to permit the Jews to buy land."

"I have no doubt that the presence of a Jew in the theatre is one great impediment to the development of the drama on its more spiritual side. You have only to glance at the history of the theatre to realize that the art of playwriting and the arts allied with it flourished only where the Jews were not in a position to interfere with them. In America, the Jew is in the theatre and on top of it. For the Jew, the theatre means only two things, an easy way to make money, and a woman-market. The house-of-call gets its recruits from the theatrical agent who, nineteen out of twenty instances, is a Jew. The surplus of these delightful things is shipped out with our over-production of cotton, potatoes and copper, to China, Japan, Panama, South America and every port-of-call in the obscure regions of the Pacific Ocean. In spite of the talents of artists, the gigantic monument to a stupid obscene industry (cinema) reared on one of the basest corners of the world's assembly, seen from afar, the figure of humped Jew."

"The Jew is unclean and he means to stay. He has no place in the world. He learns to call home even temporarily. It is a conclusion that comes to me out of the limited experience of my own life among the Jews."

"The Jew is unclean and he means to stay. He has no place in the world. He learns to call home even temporarily. It is a conclusion that comes to me out of the limited experience of my own life among the Jews."

LOYALTY: a Thing Unknown

ner bearers of the world's armies of "liberation."

"Repudiation of the Jewish Religion DOES NOT ALTER THE JEW."

"The modernized Jew, as long as he inherits predominantly Jewish characteristics, is as objectionable to us as the orthodox Jew was to our fathers and for the same reason."

"You must learn to dislike and fear the modern and 'unassimilated' Jew more than you did the old Jew. He is more dangerous to us. His enmity to your way of life was tacit before. Today it is active. He cannot help himself. He cannot be different. While we live we must give utterance to our spirit."

"We Jews are accused of being destroyers. We are a homeless mass seeking satisfaction. We cannot find it. Because your chief institution is the social structure known as the STATE, WHICH WE ARE MOST MANIFESTLY DESTROYERS. WE ARE DESTROYERS—EVEN IN THE INSTRUMENTS OF DESTRUCTION TO WHICH WE TURN FOR RELIEF. Jews will remain destroyers FOREVER. NOTHING that you will do will meet our demands. We will forever destroy because we need a world of our own."

"The Jew is a citizen of the world; the progress of all mankind is IN HIS PARTICULAR CARE."

"We do not have to uproot something in ourselves to become radicals—we are this by instinct."

"Our middle classes, even when thoroughly modernized, retain a certain individuality repugnant to you. We are lacking in manners because they are a reflex of your play-world. Manners cannot be copied. A single note of insistence spoils it all. And Jews INSIST TOO MUCH."

"We lack inventiveness; we also lack sympathy for it. You call it conquest of nature; but the boast is to us foolish."

"One thing is quite certain: A Jew is never baptized for the purpose of becoming a Christian. He aims to become a Gentile."

"You may ask: What difference is there between a Jew claiming to be an American and an Italian claiming to be one? It is more humiliating for one than the other? The cleft between you, Americans and Italians, Frenchmen and Germans, is but a wide jump compared with the CHASM BETWEEN US AND ANY ONE OF YOU. We cannot assimilate; it is so humiliating to us that we become contemptible in submitting to the process."

League of Nations, a Judaeo-Masonic Invention

Through the League of Nations, our country has been bound to "collective security," that is: all world wars that Geneva would find fit to declare. In 1936, it came near decreeing "military sanctions" and plunging a completely unprepared England into a fatal conflict. What is the League of Nations and where did it surge from? From Judaeo-masonry, as admitted hereafter. Any observer will quickly notice that the ideas preached by Jewry and Freemasonry are similar to those spread by the League of Nations, and that the three powers always work hand in hand.

The Jew Advocate Dr. KLEB of New York in a speech delivered on 10th January 1936:

"The League of Nations was in no sense the work of President Wilson. It is essentially a Jewish creation of which we Jews may be proud. The idea thereof goes back to the Wise Men of Israel. It is a product of pure Jewish culture."

(See also the quotation of ST. Aulaire, page 11.)

GERALD BARRY, "Sunday Times," Nov. 29, 1927:

"Between the man Wilson and the League of Nations there is a similarity is discoverable. Both were idealists; both had the same dream. That dream was the United States of Europe."

LENNIN (Karl Marx Jew), in the "Social Democrat" (Russian), No. 10, 1915:

"The United States of the world (and not only of Europe), that is the state formula of the union, and the liberty of nations which we attach to Socialism, until the day when the complete victory of Communism will bring about the definite disappearance of every State, even purely democratic."

JESSE E. SAMPTER, Jew, in "Guide to Zionism," pp. 21, 87:

"The League of Nations is an old Jewish ideal."

LENNHOFF, Jew, Mason, in the "Wiener Freimaurerzeitung," No. 6, 1927:

"Certainly, up to a point, the people are correct who assume a connection between Freemasonry and the League of Nations. The League of Nations as such is derived from Masonic ideas."

"DER FREIMAUERER," by Platon, quoting the Swiss Masonic journal "Alpina," as stating:

"Go to the Hall of Mirrors at Versailles. There you may read the immortal Declaration of Human Rights (Treaty of Versailles). That is our work, Masonic symbols decorate the heading of the document."

SIR MAX WAICHTER, Jew, Mason, lecturing before the London Institute, 1929:

"All the States should meet and draw up the Constitution of the Federation (European) on the basis of one tariff, one coinage and one language. The choice of this language to be adopted would be decided by the first European Parliament... the abolition of frontiers and the free intercourse between the States... The Presidency of the Federation to be held by the Great Powers in rotation, whether monarchies or republics."

EMIL LUDWIG, in his "Genius and Character":

"In the future, when the United States of Europe become a reality, people will call Woodrow Wilson its founder."

"JEWISH CHRONICLE," Jan. 3rd, 1936:

"Jews can be in no two minds about it. They have nothing to lose but all to gain from an institution which is not only the protagonist of their noblest teaching, but their sole protection against imminent dangers (racism, capitalism) which, left triumphant, must bring them utterable woe and make the earth, for them, a vale of tears... Not without or against the League but with it must be our stern resolve. Every one of us in the fight for its victory!"

"JUDISCHE RUNDSCHAU," No. 83, 1921:

"The right place for the League of Nations is not Geneva or the Hague... Ascher Ginsberg has dreamed of a temple on Mount Zion where the representatives of all nations should dedicate a temple to eternal peace. ONLY where all peoples of the earth shall go to this temple as pilgrims, is eternal peace to become a fact."

Brother LENNHOFF (Jew) a well-known masonic writer whose books have been translated into English, in the "Wiener Freimaurerzeitung" No. 6, 1927, he says:

"Certainly, up to a point the people are correct who assume a connection between Freemasonry and the League of Nations. The League of Nations as such is derived from Masonic ideas." It should first be noted that President Wilson was a Mason (there is ample evidence on page 268 of Wicht's "Weltfreimaurerei"), and that the leading statesmen (politicians) who were concerned were also Brothers — Lloyd George, Clemenceau, Briand, Stresemann. It is not irrelevant to mention that Lloyd George's secretary was the Jew, Sassoon; President Wilson's chief advisor, the Jew, House; Clemenceau's secretary, the Jew, Mandel-Rothschild; also that the first act of the League of Nations was that Sir Eric Drummond sent a letter to Chaim Weizmann (the leading German Jew) in its issue of 3rd June, 1927, admitted that, at the admission of Germany to the League of Nations, Stresemann employed Masonic phraseology in his first speech, and actually gave certain signs which were repudiated by Berlin.

The Swiss Masonic journal "Alpina" (19, 1929) reports that the Grand Master of the Berne Lodge "Zur Hoffnung," made a speech at the time of the funeral of Herr Stresemann, in which he said: "The aims of Freemasonry may be fulfilled when it produces in one century three such men as Stresemann, Briand, and MacDonnell (Champions of the World Republic)."

NAHUM SOKOLOV, Zionist Leader, Aug. 27, 1922, at Carlsbad Congress, per N. Y. Times of Aug. 28, 1922:

"The League of Nations is a Jewish idea. We created it after a fight of 25 years. Jerusalem will some day become the capital of world peace. What we, Jews, have accomplished after 25 years of struggle, we owe it to the genius of the immortal leader Theodor Herzl."

"The minority treaties were the touchstone of the League of Nations. THAT ESSENTIALLY JEWISH ASPIRATION," wrote ISRAEL ZANGWILL, famous Jewish author, poet and dramatist, in "The Jewish Garden," London, June 11, 1920, in an analysis of the Versailles Peace Pact that ended the Great War.

ER. NATHAN-LARRIER, Jew, quoted by the "Bulletin Officiel de la Grande Loge de France," 1920, pp. 34-35:

"Brother Nathan-Larrier, Grand Speaker, showed how he conceived Freemasonry for the definite formation of the League of Nations."

LUCIEN WOLFF, Jew, in his official report to the American Jewish Congress, as a plenipotentiary to the Peace Conference: "If the League of Nations would collapse, the structure so laboriously built by the Jewish delegation of England and the United States in 1919 would also collapse."

MAX NORDAU, Jew, speaking in 1903 at the 6th Zionist Congress, as quoted in "When Prophets Speak," by Litman Rosenthal, Jew:

"Soon perhaps a sort of World Conference will be called... Let me tell you the following words as if I were showing you the rings of a ladder leading upward and upward: Herzl, the Zionist Congress, the English Uganda proposition, the future world war, the peace conference where, with the help of England, a free and Jewish Palestine will be created."

"Was it not from the Lodges that came the spark which produced the League of Nations, the International Bureau of Labor and all international organs which constitute the frame of the future United States of Europe, and perhaps the world?"

DR. DILLON, in his book on the Paris Peace Conference, said: "Of all the collectivities whose interests were furthered at the Conference the Jews had perhaps the most influence and certainly the most influential exponents. There were Jews from Palestine, from Poland, Russia, the Ukraine, Rumania, Greece, Britain, Holland, and Belgium; but the largest and most brilliant contingent was sent by the United States. It may seem amazing to some readers, but it is none the less a fact that a considerable number of Delegates believed that the real influences behind the Anglo-Saxon peoples were Semitic."

"Proceedings of the International Grand Convent of Freemasonry," held on June 28, 29, and 30th, 1917 before the League of Nations was thought of:

"It is important that we build the happy city of tomorrow. It is for that truly masonic task that you have been invited... This war has been transformed into a formidable quarrel between organized democracies and military and despotic powers. In this hurricane the century-old power of the Czars has crumbled. Other governments will also be swept by the wind of liberty. Consequently, it is indispensable to create a super-national authority. Freemasonry, the artisan of peace, proposes to study this new organ: the League of Nations."

"Bulletin du Convent de la Grande Loge de France," 1922, pp. 235-236:

"The Grande Loge numbers, among its tasks to be completed: the abolition of secret diplomacy, commercial relations based on free trade, a pacific education based on the expansion of a universal language (esperanto), invented by the Jew Zamenhoff, the creation of a European spirit, the formation of the United States of Europe, or rather a Federation of the world."

EUROPEAN FREEMASONRY: Dangerous Instrument of Judaization

If Jewry controls world economic affairs through its control of gold, if it controls the proletariat through its control of the three Internationales, if it also controls great numbers of politicians and businessmen through European Freemasonry, any mason will notice that order and modus operandi from the lodges are always consonant with those publicly broadcast by Jewish organizations.

Papacy has always called European Freemasonry "the SYNGOGUE of Satan." The word "synagogue" was used purposely. When Bernard Lazare said "The Jew is not satisfied with de-Christianizing the Catholics and Protestants whose faith he ruins, he Judaizes them; he was right. In the Lodges, Christians are taught the belief in the 'Grand Architect,' a unipersonal God as that of the Jews, a contradiction to the tripersonal God of Christianity."

The avowed goal of European Freemasonry is "the reconstruction of the temple of Solomon which is more than a symbol, but a very fact which will materialize when these are despoiled of Palestine. Jews dream of restoring their religion as the only one in this world if, as Disraeli said, 'they destroy Christendom.' And if they succeed, they will have done it with the help of Christians blinded by the Judaic masonry, the Judaic League of Nations, etc."

BENJAMIN DISRAELI, Jew, Prime Minister of England, in "The Life of Lord George Bentinck":

"At the head of all those secret societies, which form provisional governments, men of the Jewish race are to be found."

"LA VERITE ISRAELITE," Jewish paper, 1861, IV, page 74:

"The spirit of European Freemasonry is the spirit of Judaism in its most fundamental beliefs; it is its ideals, its language, it is mostly its organization. The hopes which enlightens and supports European Freemasonry is the hope which enlightens and supports Israel. Its crowning will be that wonderful prayer-house of which Jerusalem will be the triumphal centre and symbol."

"LATOMIA," 7-8, 1923, quoting Br. Randolph Klein:

"Our rite is Jewish from beginning to end; the public should conclude from this that WE HAVE ACTUAL CONNECTIONS WITH JEWRY."

RABBI DR. ISAAC WISE, in "The Israelite of America," 3-8, 1868:

"Masonry is a Jewish institution whose history, degrees, charges, passwords, and explanations are Jewish from beginning to end." BERNARD LAZARE, "L'Antisemitisme":

"It is certain that there were Jews around the cradle of European Freemasonry; certainly they prove that they were cabalistic Jews."

"TRANSACTIONS OF THE JEWISH HISTORICAL SOCIETY," Vol. 2, page 166:

"The Coat of Arms used by the Grand Lodge of England is entirely composed of Jewish symbols."

"EUROPEAN FREEMASON'S GUIDE," New York, 1901:

"The European Freemasons erect a building to which the God of Israel will live for ever."

"AN ENCYCLOPEDIA OF EUROPEAN FREEMASONRY," Philadelphia, 1909:

"Each Lodge is and must be a symbol of the Jewish temple; each of the Jewish race, a representative of the Jewish God and every Mason a personification of the Jewish workman."

"MANUAL OF EUROPEAN FREEMASONRY," by Richard Carlier:

"The Grand Lodge Masonry of the present day is wholly Jewish."

"THE EUROPEAN FREEMASON," 2nd and 4th, 1920, quoting Br. Rev. S. McGowan:

"European Freemasonry is founded on the ancient law of Israel... Israel has given birth to the moral beauty which forms the basis of European Freemasonry."

"LE SYMBOLISME," July 1928:

"The most important duty of the European Freemason must be to glorify the Jewish race, which has preserved the unchanging divine standard of wisdom. You must rely upon the Jewish race to dissolve all frontiers."

"The initiate of the Master rite is referred to as 'a humble representative of King Solomon.'"

"THE JEWISH TRUTH," New York, Oct. 28, 1927, Cheesman 2, 568, Vol. 91, No. 18:

"Masonry is based on Judaism. Eliminating the teachings of Judaism from the masonic ritual and what is left?"

"THAT WHICH WAS LOST: A TRIBUTE ON EUROPEAN FREEMASONRY AND THE ENGLISH MYSTERY," by Br. W. Sanderson, 1723, page 55:

"It is very easy now, but quite unfair to criticize the founders for introducing Judaism into the lodge had gone a VERY LONG WAY BY SUPPRESSING THE NEW TESTAMENT for the sake of harmony between the Jew and Jew." The volume of the Sacred Law is not in the Bible, or any particular book, but the sacred book of any of the religions included in the craft. Any religion may be satisfactory if it fulfills Masonic requirements."

BERNARD LAZARE, in "The World Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi Council to Champion Human Rights," at a meeting in London under the presidency of the American Jew Samuel Untermyer, as reported in the "JEWISH CHRONICLE" of Dec. 14, 1934, to the effect that, inter alia:

"... Jewish boycott of Germany Government SHALL HAVE RESULTS. THE MASONIC LODGES, the status and propriety of which they have been deprived."

DISRAELI, speaking at Aylesbury, 20th September, 1873, said:

"I can assure you, Gentlemen, that those who govern must count the Jewish vote. We have to deal not with Emperors and Cabinets only. We must take into consideration secret societies, who at the last moment, who have agents everywhere, determined men, encouraging assassinations, and capable of bringing about a massacre."

REV. JAMES ANDERSON, "Book of Constitutions," 1738:

"A brother who has taken part in a sedition against the State without being guilty of any other crime, need not on that account be expelled from his Lodge."

"LATOMIA," a German Masonic journal, Vol. 12, July 1949, page 237:

"We cannot help but greet socialism (Marxism) as an excellent comrade of European Freemasonry for exalting mankind, for helping to further human welfare, Socialism and European Freemasonry, together with Communism are sprung from the same source."

I. WARD in "European Freemasonry, its aims and its ideals," page 98:

"European Freemasonry is an organized world-wide Brotherhood... mysterious and secret from the outside world, yet binds together all true Masons throughout the world."

2. RAGON in "Orthodox Masonry," page 333:

"European Freemasonry has the fundamental character of being universal which character is indispensable to its being. It is one and the same for any nation that deviates from this principle is in error, and strays from the path of European Freemasonry... Is there magic, mathematics, Scotch mathematics, French mathematics? No! There is mathematics, just as there is European Freemasonry, and that is the end."

BERNARD STILLMAN, Jew, in "Hebraic Influences on Masonic Symbolism," 1928 quoted by "The Masonic Review" London:

"I think I have proved sufficiently that European Freemasonry, as what concerns symbolism, is an ancient and a formation which is essentially Jewish."

BERNARD LAZARE, Jew, in "L'Antisemitisme," p. 340:

"The Marxists' lodges were mystical whilst the other orders of European Freemasonry were rationalist; this may permit to say that the secret societies presented the two aspects of the Jewish spirit: practical rationalism and pantheism. Those two tendencies led to the same result: the weakening of Catholicism."

"DIE JUDEN ALS FREIMAUERER," by the Jew and Mason FINDLER:

"It concerns less a struggle for the interest of humanity than a struggle for the intrigues and domination of Judaism. And, in that struggle, Judaism reveals itself as the dominant power to which European Freemasonry must yield. There is in this nothing to surprise anyone, for in a hidden and carefully directed way, Judaism is already the dominating force in many a European Grand Lodge. As to Germany, one must not forget that Judaism is already the master of its financial markets, its trade, master of its political and masonic press, and that millions of Germans are its financial debtors."

O. E. GOOD, M. A., in "The Hidden Hand of Judah," 1936:

"The influence of the Jewish Sanhedrin is today more powerful than ever in European Freemasonry."

H. SADDLER, in "Masonic Facts," London, 1887:

"During the period of 1720 to 1760, under review, there was nothing worth noting about English Freemasonry except that the Jews were prominent in it."

PICCOLO-TIGRE, Jew, a leader of the Haute Vente Romaine, a secret society connected with European Freemasonry, in a letter of instructions, 18th January, 1822:

"The Haute Vente wishes that, under one pretext or another, as many princes and rich men as possible be introduced into the Masonic Lodges. Princes of Royal Blood utter their ambitions for popularity... prepare them for European Freemasonry... the Haute Vente will then be able to do what it can be useful in the cause of progress. In the meantime they will serve as an attraction."

Why Jews Cannot Be "Like Other People"

(Contributed by "The Editors," London, Eng.)

The Code of the Jew THE TALMUD

The Jewish "religion" is based partly on some looks of the Old Testament, and partly on equally ancient commentaries upon them, preserved for ages as oral traditions, and known, after being put into writing, under the general name of the Talmud.

According to the Talmud, the Jewish God is not the father of all men and the ideal of love, justice and mercy, like the Christian God; on the contrary, he is a God of vengeance down to the tenth generation, just and merciful only to his own people, but a foe to all other nations, denying them human rights and commanding their defeat that Israel may appropriate their riches and rule over them.

"You are human beings, but the nations of the world are not human beings, but beasts."—Baba Mezia 114, 6. "On the house of the Goy (non-Jew) one looks as on the tail of a cat."—Tosefta, Erubin VII, 1.

A prayer found in the Talmud and said on the eve of the Passover at the present day, runs: "We beg Thee, O Lord, inflict Thy wrath on the nations not believing in Thee, and not calling on Thy name. Let down Thy wrath on them. Drive them away in Thy wrath and crush them to pieces. Take away, O Lord, all hope from them. In a moment overwhelm all disbelievers. Destroy in a moment all foes of Thy nation."—Pirkei: Christianus in Talmudae Judeorum, quotations from: Synagoga Judaica, p. 213. Minhagen, p. 23, Crach Chaim 480 Hagah.

From the Talmud: "When one sees inhabited houses of the Goy's one says, The Lord will destroy the house of the proud. And one sees them destroyed he says, The Lord God of vengeance has revealed himself."—The Babylonian Talmud, Berachot 55, 6.

"Those who do not own Torah and the prophets must all be killed. Who has power to kill them, let him kill them openly with the sword, if not, let him use artifice till they are done away with."—Schulchan Aruch: Choschen Hamispat, 425, 50.

The Talmud is Anti-Christ

The Jewish Sages soon understood that Christ's way of commenting on the Old Law incited, instead of hatred towards foreign nations, brotherly feelings and equality of all men in the sight of God, thus denying the Jews their privileged position as masters of the world. At the same time, Christ's reforming the primitive, tribal-moral ideas of the Old Testament, deprived the Jews of their very convenient, double morality. Thence the Jews turned for the Christian faith took its growth; it is not so great towards any others, even heathen ones, as they do not present by their ideas such danger for the Jews.

Depreciation of the Old Testament, Exaltation of the Talmud, and the Rabbin.

"In the law (the Bible) are things more or less important, but the words of the learned in the Scripture are always important."

"It is more wicked to question the words of the rabbis than of Torah (the Bible)."—Mishna Sanhedrin d., 3. "Who changes the words of the rabbis ought to die."—Erubin, 21, 8. "The decisions of the Talmud are words of the living God. Jehovah himself asks the opinion of earthly rabbis when there are difficult affairs in heaven."—Rabbi Menschum, Comments on the Fifth Book. "Jehovah himself in heaven studies the Talmud standing, he has such respect for that book."—Tr. Mechilla.

Extolling Robbery of Gentiles to the Dignity of a Religious Dogma

The Talmud claims:
(a) That the Jewish nation is the only nation selected by God, while all the remaining ones are contemptible and hateful.

(b) That all property of other nations belongs to the Jewish nation which consequently is entitled to seize upon it without any scruples.

(c) That an orthodox Jew is not bound to observe principles of morality towards peoples of other tribes, and on certain occasions, on the contrary, he even ought to act against morality, if it were profitable for himself or for the interest of Jews in general. "A

How Are Explained All the Horrors Exposed in Preceding Pages—A Fatal Education Which Perpetuates a Unique and Dangerous Mentality in the Midst of All Nations

Jew may rob a Goy, that is, he may cheat him in a bill, if unlikely to be perceived by him; otherwise the name of God would become dishonoured."—Sulchan Aruch, Choschen Hamispat, 348. "The son of Noah, who would steal a farthing, ought to be put to death, but an Israelite is allowed to do injury to a Goy, because what is written, Thou shalt not do injury to thy neighbor, it is not said, Thou shalt not do injury to a Goy."—Mishna, Sanhedrin, 57.

"A thing lost by a Goy may not only be kept by the man who found it, but it is even forbidden to give it back to him."—Sulchan Aruch, Choschen Hamispat, 266, 1.

"One who has taken an oath in the presence of Goy's, robbers and customhouse officers, is not responsible."—Tosefta, Shabbat, 11. Talmud "Law" Killing Goy's No Murder

"If a Goy wants a Jew to stand witness against a Jew in a Court case, the Jew could give fair evidence, he is forbidden to do it, but if a Jew wants a Jew to be a witness in a similar case against a Goy, he may do it."—Sulchan Aruch, Choschen Hamispat, 23 art., 3 and 4.

"Should a Jew inform the Goyish authorities that another Jew has much money, and the other will suffer a loss through it, he must give him remuneration."—Sz. Ar., Ch. Ha, 388.

"There is no doubt that someone has thrice betrayed the Jews, or caused their money to pass to the Goy's, a means and wise council must be found to do away with him."—The same.

"It is permitted to kill a Jewish denouncer everywhere... it is permitted to kill him before he has denounced, though it is necessary to warn him and say, 'Do not denounce!' But should he say, 'I will denounce, he must be killed, and he who accomplishes it will acquire merit.'—The same, 388, 10.

"How to interpret the word 'robbery.' A Goy is forbidden to steal, rob, or take women slaves, etc., from a Goy or from a Jew, but he (a Jew) is not forbidden to do all this to a Goy."—Tosefta, Abot Zara viii., 5.

"To communicate anything to a Goy about our religious relations would be equal to the killing of all the Jews, for if the Goy knew what we teach about them, they would kill us openly."—owna the Book of Libbre David, 37.

"It is forbidden to disclose the secrets of the Law. He who would do it would be as guilty as if he destroyed the whole world."—Jaktut Chandez, 171, 2. The regulations and commandments bearing this in view were raised to the dignity of dogmas of faith. It is not astonishing that the facts of prohibition the secret of the Talmud have been so little known to other nations, especially to the Western ones and up to the present day, even the most progressive and citizen-like Jews think the disclosure of the principles of the Talmud a proof of the most outrageous intolerance, and an attack on the Jewish religion.

"If a Jew be called to explain any part of the rabbinic books, he ought to give a false explanation, that he might not, by behaving differently, become an accomplice in betraying these informations. Who will violate this order shall be put to death."—Libbre David, 37.

"One should and must take a false oath when the Goy's ask if our books contain anything against them. Then we are bound to state on oath that there is nothing like that."—Szaaloth-Utsabot. The book of Jora d's, 17.

"Every Goy who studies Talmud, and every Jew who helps him in it, ought to die."—Sanhedrin 59a. Abot's Zora 8-6, Szagiga 13.

Schulchan Arunk

The Schulchan Arunk is a manual of Jewish laws, drawn from the Talmud, and compiled by Rabbi Joseph Caro (1488-1575). In his reply to Rabbi Lohi, in 1597, Asher Ginsberg (Achad-Ham) wrote:

"The Schulchan Arunk is not the book that we have chosen for our guide, but the book that has been made our guide, whether we would or not, by force of historical development; because this book, just as it is in its present form, with all its most uncouth sections, was the book that best served the spirit of our people, their condition and their needs, in those generations in which they accepted it as binding on themselves and their descendants. If we proclaim that this is not OUR LAW, we shall be proclaiming a falsehood; this is our law, couching in the only form which was possible in the middle ages, just as the TALMUD is our law in the form which it took in the last days of the ancient world, just as the Bible is our law in the form which it took while the Jews still lived as a nation on their own land. The three books are but three milestones on the road of a single development, that of the spirit of the Jewish nation."

Excerpts from the Schulchan Arunk

"When a Jew has a Gentile in his clutches, another Jew may go to the same Gentile, lend him money and deceive him, and make him ruined. For the property of a Gentile (according to our law) belongs to no one, and the first Jew that passes has the full right to seize it" (Law 24).

"When a Jew makes a deal with a Gentile, and another Jew comes up and deceives the Gentile in what manner, whether he give him false measure or overcharge him, then both Jews must sue between them the profits thus sent to the Gentile" (Law 27).

"Although it is not a direct obligation for a Jew to kill a Gentile with whom he lives in peace, yet in no case is he allowed to save a Gentile's life" (Law 50).

"It is always a meritorious deed to get hold of a Gentile's possessions."

"Marriages taking place among Gentiles have no binding strength, i. e., their cohabitation is just as if they were not married, therefore their children do not stand as his legally related to their parents" (Law 83).

"TALMUD. A new translation into German: 'Der Talmud in nicht-judische Beleuchtung.' Budapest, 1931, by A. Luzzansky.

"Rabbi If you go to war, then don't march in the front ranks, but rather in the rear ranks, that you may be the first to retreat."—Leviticus, 19:28. (This explains much Jewish behavior; in The World War).

"There is no manner calling that of agriculture." (Jabmuth 63).

"The robbery of a Gentile is allowed as they are not our brothers" (Baba mezia 61).

"If a Goy comes before the Courts with a Gentile, then you are to give the judgment for the Jew if possible and say to the Gentile, 'According to our law, or, if possible, 'Is so according to your law'; but when this won't work, then you are to go round the Jew by trickery." (Baba Kamia 113).

Beth-Din (Jewish Tribunal Court)

"No Jew may appeal for justice to any court of judiciary other than the Jewish tribunal. This holds even when the laws of the country bear in the question, as issue agree with the Jewish laws, and when the two parties are willing to submit their differences to the former. Whoever breaks this injunction shall be outlawed; his offence is equivalent to contempt and violation of the law of Moses."—The Beth-din judges cases involving loans, debts, marriages, legacies, gifts, damages, interests, etc.

"Although the Beth-din has no right to fine a thief a loot, it may inflict the infamous excommunication on him until he makes full restitution. It may inflict fines for the infraction of rules as prescribed in the Talmud."

"When the Beth-din notices that the nation is given to disorders, it may, with out confirmation by the Jewish authorities, impose fines, death-sentences, and other penalties; and in this connection it may waive the production of testimony to prove the guilt of the accused. Where the law is a person of influence, the Beth-din may use the legal machinery of the country to punish him. His property may be seized, and the production of the law (guilt) and he himself may be done away with as circumstances require."—(A Jew operates in Montreal and in other Canadian cities.)

"Kol Nidre"

In the Talmud (Sulchan Aruch, Edit 1), in the "Jewish Encyclopedia" (Vol. 7) and in Jewish prayerbooks one can read the following prayer which is recited three times by all Jews in the synagogues on the day of Yom Kippur:

"All vows, obligations, oaths or anathemas, pledges of all names, which we have vowed, sworn, decreed, or bound ourselves to, from this day of atonement, until the next day of atonement (whose arrival we hope for in happiness) we repeat, APOKEHAND, of them all, they shall all be deemed absolved, FORGIVEN, annulled, void and made of no effect they shall not be binding, nor have any power the vows shall not be reckoned vows, the obligations shall not be obligatory, nor the oaths considered as oaths."

PRAYER ESCAPE: Commenting upon the recital of the Jewish Encyclopedia, Vol. 1, page 541, makes the following statement: "It cannot be denied that, according to the usual wording of the formula, an unscrupulous man might think that it offers a means of escape from the obligations and promises which he had assumed and made himself bound to others. Many judges refused to allow them (Jews) to take a supplementary oath, basing their objections chiefly on this prayer."

(See also Roth's comments on Kol Nidre, page 16).

Klatzkin, Jew, Zionist leader, in "Der Jude," 1916:

"Only the Jewish Code rules our life. Whenever other laws are forced upon us, we regard them as dire oppression and constantly dig our heels. We form in ourselves a closed juridical and business corporation, standing strong built by us separately us from the peoples of the land in which we live—and behind that wall is a Jewish State."

The learned and famed Jew Frank said: "Without the Kabbala it is impossible to explain the numerous texts of the Mishna, and of the Talmud. In the Kabbala we read: 'The Jew is the living God, God incarnate; he is the heavenly man, Adam Kadmon. The other men are earthly or inferior races. They exist only to serve the Jew. They are cattle seed.'"

THEODOR HERZL, most eminent Jew of modern times, in his diary, 1, page 108, wrote: "If Jews take possession of a country, infested with serpents and wild animals, then the native population might perform the dangerous task of exterminating them so as to make the country safe for the Jews."

JACOB BRAHMAN, ex-rabbi, in his two books "Jewish Exterminities" (Vilna, 1888) and "The Book of the Kehilla" (Vilna, 1890) wrote: "Jews must obey the orders of the Kehilla and of the Beth-din in contradistinction to the law of the land."

KARL MARX, in "Deutsch-Französische Jahrbücher" 1844:

"It is in vain that we look for a key to the labyrinth of the Jewish soul in his religion; on the contrary, we must look for the mystery of his religion in the mystery of his nature. What is the basis of Judaism?—a practical passion and greed of profit. To what can we reduce their religious worship?—to extortion. Who is their real God?—CASH."

MORE OF IT: Rabbi H. S. Goldstein of N. Y. City, in his sermon Sept. 17, 1930, at Carnegie Hall, said: "History has told us that there is only one way to overcome anti-Semitism—that is by MORE JUDAISM."

"JUDAISM," by Rabbi ISRAEL G. LEVINTHAL, 1935, U. S. A.—It insists that Judaism is not a pure religion, but the sum-total of the Jewish mind, the essence of the Jewish tradition. To the Jew, the Bible is not by itself a sacred book; it has to be interpreted in the light of Jewish progressive genius.

The Bible only represents the first stages of dynamic tradition, just as the butterfly develops out of the chrysalis or the man out of the anthropoid ape.

"THE JEWISH DAILY POST," 10th April, 1935, published that "this splendid work by Rabbi Levinthal is the best modern exposition of Judaism."

MORDECAI, Jew, writing in 1814: "What can the wisest measures of the authorities of all countries against the vast and permanent conspiracy of a people which ilk, a network as vast as it is strong, stretched over the whole globe, brings its force to bear whenever an event occurs that interests the name of Israel?"

BERNARD LAZARE, "L'Anti-Semite," p. 350: "The Jew is not satisfied with de-Christianising, he Judaizes, he destroys Catholic or Protestant faith, he provokes indifference, but he imposes his idea of the world, of morals and of life upon those whose faith he ruins; he works at his age-old task, the annihilation of the religion of Christ." JUDAISM, PROP. LOEWIE, the University Lecturer in Rabbinic Hebrew, Oxford, England, is quoted in the Encyclopedia Britannica, XIV Edition, Page 165, as follows: "Judaism is the religion of a minority... but it aims at being THE ONLY RELIGION OF THE MAJORITY."

"CHOSEN" MYTH: The English Jew, Dr. Oscar Levy, in July, 1920, wrote in the "World Significance of the Russian Revolution": "Are not the Jews the inventors of the Chosen People myth, and is not this obvious in part and parcel of the political credo of every modern nation?"

"MEDINA IVNITE" (The Jewish State), Prague, No. 33, Sept. 27, 1935:

"In our hearts reigns but one sentiment. We command our hearts to banish all other emotions and to let themselves be led by that unique sentiment: that of revenge. Our people have now but one desire: TO DESTROY, RANSACK, BURN OUT."

M. J. OLGIN, Jew, in The Morning Freiheit, N. Y. daily, Jan. 10, 1937:

"The Jewish religion is hostile to Christianity in general and to the Catholic Church in particular."

OTTO WEININGER, Jew, in his book, "Sex and Character":

"The Jewish distinguished the Jew in the French Revolution was the fact that he was an element of decomposition."

"LA REVOLUTION SURREALISTE" (Super-realistic Revolution), a Jewish magazine, published in its issue of Dec. 15, 1929, an article by Victor Kopp, saying:

"Every time you meet in the street a servant of the... (vile term for the Virgin Mary), you must insult him on a tone which will permit no one to doubt the quality of your disgust. But this insulting priests, apart from the moral satisfaction you get out of it on the moment, has no other result than to put you in that state of mind which will permit you, when you are free to do it, to bring down every day, for your amusement, two or three tons of dynamite on the heads of the Jews."—42,000 Christian clergymen in 14 denominations and ranks killed in Russia, 17,000 murdered in Spain, prove that the teachings of certain Jews have been followed to the letter).

"THE JEWISH DAILY POST," 21st June, 1935:

"Wars." Over a thousand young Jewish have been converted to Christianity during the last few months in Poland... The converts are mostly of the professional class, who, as Jews, were unable to secure any post, not even as manual laborers. Their conversion ALMOST INVARIABLY ENTAILS THEM A SUITABLE POSITION, and this, it is explained, IS THE REASON FOR THE SUDDEN RUSH TO BE CONVERTED."

ANTI-CHRISTIAN: From the London Jewish World of March 1, 1922: "Fundamentally, Judaism is anti-Christian."

A COMMON ENEMY: Before a British Royal Immigration Commission in 1902, Zionist Leader Herzl said that Jews regard Gentiles as "A Common Enemy." (See page 67 of the 1929 book, "The International Jew," for reference quotation.)

KILL: In a 1931 booklet by Abraham L. Reissland of New York, entitled "My Conception of God," the Jewish author admits: "There is a passage in the Talmud which is exceedingly bitter against the Gentiles, namely: 'THE BEST OF THE GENTILES—KILL'."

DESTROYERS: This appears in "You Gentiles," a 1924 book by Zionist Leader Maurice Samuels: "We Jews are destroyers—even (Continued on Page Fourteen)

Should the World Be Ruled By LUNATICS?

We know from their own statements, what tremendous power or influence Jews exert in vital affairs of mankind, especially in world propaganda, in world education, (theatre, cinema, magazines), in international politics which decide wars and gamble with whole nations' lives, in the woman labor market (show business, fashion and clothing, etc.), in arts and their publicizing (music, jazz, sculpture and painting; modernism, futurism, dadaism, savagism), etc.

For the good of mankind, no such power should be left within any international group unless it be worthy of it by its superior intellect, mental capacity, high standards of morality. Civilization is uplifted or debased according to the qualities of those who influence it most. In order to know the worthiness of the Jews, let us look at their image and statements in their most important books on those subjects.

"JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA," at the word "nervous diseases," Vol. IX:

"The Jews are more subject to the diseases of the nervous system than the other races and peoples among which they dwell. HYSTERIA and NEURASTHENIA appear to be most frequent. Some physicians of large experience among Jews have gone so far as to state that most of them are neurasthenic and hysterical. Toller claims that ALL Jewish women in Palestine are hysterical; and Raymond says that in Warsaw, Poland, hysteria is frequent. LX met with among both Jewish men and Jewish women. The Jewish population of that city alone is almost exclusively the inexhaustible source for the supply of hysterical males for the clinics of the whole Continent ('L'Etude des maladies du système nerveux en Russie,' p. 71, Paris, 1889). As regards Austria and Germany, the same neurotic talent of the Jews has been emphasized by Krafft-Ebing, who states that nervous diseases, and especially neurasthenia, affect the Jews with exceptional severity. Nervosität and Neurasthenische Zustände," p. 54, Vienna, 1895). Biswanger, Erb, Jolly, Mobius, Lowenfeld, Oppenheim, Fere, Charcot, Bouveret, and most of the other specialists in the nervous diseases, speak of this in their monographs on neurasthenia and hysteria, and point out that hysteria affects the male, which is so rare in other races, is quite frequent among the Jews." The Encyclopedia adds that it is frequently met with the poorer classes of Jews as with the richer ones; and that the education of the Jews must not be forgotten when studying their neuroses: "The latter, in which he begins at a quite early age to spend the greater part of the day in studying Bible and Talmud (see page 22 of this tract), is also an important factor in the production of nervousness among the Jews."

DR. HUGO GANZ, Rumanian Jew, in "Reise-skizzen, aus Rumanien," Berlin, 1903, p. 138:

"It is to the too exclusive study of theology that those unfortunate people owe their narrow chest-and their slim and weak members; to their hunting of semptirical "business" that they owe their characteristics cunning which give anti-semitism its principal reason of being. It is also possible that they all with an excess of the head."

DR. RUDOLF WASSERMAN, Jew, in "Zeitschrift fuer Sozialwissenschaft," 12th year, 1909, p. 663:

"We have in figures an abundant material which shows that Jews, in particular, are subject to cerebral maladies (figure quotations) and, in specialized doctrine, there is unanimity to acknowledge it (figure quotations)."

DR. RUDOLF WASSERMAN, Jew, quoting Dr. Kretzmer:

"With the Jew, the nervous system is the center of lesser resistance."

DR. M. J. GUTTMAN, Jew, in "Zeitschrift fuer Demographie" 3rd year, II, 4-5, p. 112:

"Dementia is a mental trouble which is extraordinarily frequent with the Jews."

DR. JOSEPH JACOBS, Jew, in "The Journal of the Anthropological Institute of Great Britain," 1886, XV, p. 360, shows the relations existing between the Jewish intellectual development and the high percentage of Jews in mental diseases:

"The Jewish Councilor KREPPPEL in his great work on 'Judaism and To-Day,' 1925, edit. Amalthea, wrote, page 387: 'As to dementia, it has been established that in public and private clinics, the percentage of Jews is three times greater than that of Christians' (Figures quoted)."

DR. RUDOLF WASSERMAN, in his study on Jewish criminality:

"The instrument of lawlessness is in the mind, with the Jew; the hand, with the Christians."

BERNARD LAZARE, in his book, "Anti-Semitism and Its Causes," Paris, 1894:

"The Jew is a confessional type; as he is, he was made such by the Talmud and the Law; stronger than blood or climatic variations, they developed in him characters that imitation and heredity have perpetuated."—P. 283. "No religion more than the Jewish religion was a better moulder of soul and mind."—P. 283. "An animated by that old Hebrew materialism that dreamt perpetually of a paradise realized on earth and repelling always the far and problematic hope of an Eden after death."—P. 346.

"The philosophy of the Jew was simple... Having to live but a restricted number of years, he wanted to enjoy them, and he did not ask for moral pleasures, but for material pleasures capable of beautifying and softening his existence. Since Paradise did not exist, he could expect from God, as a reward for his faithfulness

Why Jews Cannot Be "Like Other People"

RENE GROOS, Jew, in "Le Nouveau Monde," Paris, May, 1927:

"There is a Jewish conspiracy against all nations."

MARCUS ELI RAVAGE, in the "Century Magazine," Jan. 1928:

"We are intruders. We are trouble-makers. We are subversive... We have brought discord and confusion in your private and public life."

JAMES DARMESTETER, the great Jewish hisorian, "Coup d'oeil sur l'histoire du peuple juif," Paris, 1881, page 16:

"The Jew is the doctor of the faithless. All revolt-minded people come to him in the dark or in open day. He is not work in the immense blasphemous shop of the emperor Frederick and of the princes of Spain and Aragon; he is the one who hammers all that badly resists of religion and irony, which he will bequest to the sceptics of the Renaissance to the libertines of the grand century, and the carca of Voltaire is but the last echo of a word uttered ten centuries before, in the shadow of the Chetto, and, still longer before, in the time of Celsus and Origenes, at the very cradle of the religion of Christ, in the instruments of destruction to which we turn for relief. Jews will remain destroyers forever. Nothing that you will do will meet our demands."

OPPOSE EASTER: In the 1918 Jewish Communal Register of the U. S. is this: The N. Y. Board of Jewish Ministers has opposed Easter and Christmas celebrations.

ousting CHRISTMAS: The following quotation is from the New York Jewish newspaper "The Day," Dec. 14, 1930: "WE WANT ALL THIS CHRISTMAS PROPAGANDA STOPPED. The masses of Jewish people in America HAVE A RIGHT TO DEMAND from the educational system in the United States that IT KEEP CHRISTMAS OUT OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS."

KURT HILFERT, in his book, "The Way to Zion," 1910:

"Whether people hit us, chase us, whether our enemies triumph over our corporeal weakness, it is impossible to get rid of us. We have spoiled the blood of the races. We have tarnished

Statements That Explain the Aberration, the Monstrosities and the Savagery of What Has Been Witnessed in Russia, Spain, and in the Rest of the World

DR. ALEXANDER PILNA, world famed psychiatrist, Vienna, in his "Wiener Klinische Rundschau" 15th year, 1910, page 888:

"Cases where acute psychoses lead to idocy and lunacy are of a particular frequency with the Jews."

"The disposition of Jews for psychoses based on hereditary degenerance is so great that it is completely out of proportion."

"It seems that as what concerns the kinds of psychoses I have mentioned, the higher classes of Jews are more considerably tainted than the lower ones."

"My figures would be much higher if I could add to them the numerous cases where a psychic avulsion does not require the asylum; those are the lighter cases of circular insanity, neurasthenic touches, phobias, hallucinations, sexual perversions. The psychiatrist usually finds these cases in his private clientele. Among all others, those forms are results of heredity and degenerance. One is dazzled at the greatness of the Jewish percentage."

"OFFICIAL STATISTICS FOR THE GERMAN REICH," Vol. 419, page 88, commenting the census figures of the 1925-26 census and giving a comparison between Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish mental patients:

"A most striking fact is the high percentage of Jewish inmates. Our statistics confirm what careful research has brought, it is said, in statistical doctrine, viz: that it is a special disposition which afflicts the Jewish population with an excessive number of insane. Most of our authors find causes for it in a hereditary tendency acquired by frequent consanguine marriages and in the fact that, for centuries, Jews have kept away from the rest of the population. It is also said that the accumulation of Jews in great cities increases the danger of syphilitic infection and of the progressive paralysis which it produces... And one must take into account that Jews do not suffer from the particular imbecility engendered by alcoholism."

And identical statements of universally famed savants on the extraordinary degenerance of Jews, their natural propension to insanity, idocy, imbecility, lunacy, megalomania, neurasthenia, excessive ambition, can be found in:

CONCLUSION: From what we are told by statisticians and Jewish savants, the Jewish race is unfit to rule the world, unless we admit that the world is to be turned into a vast asylum. And the above gives us an explanation of the waves of hysteria and neurasthenia unrolled upon the world today by the means of Jewish controls, propaganda, proletarian agitation, cinema and perverted arts, debased sciences (sexology, evolution, Freudism), international socialism, international communism, international trade-unionism, fashion, white slavery, drug traffic, high class smuggling, news distorting agencies, League of Nations' machinery, secret societies, international racketeering on gold and commodity exchanges, international boycott organizations, subterranean world diplomacy and politics, etc., etc. Medically, Jews, as a whole are unfit to rule any nation, the very leadership is a deadly peril. THEY say so!

Revolutions "Messianic Age" and piety, only tenuous favors; not vague promises, good for believers in a wild, bound, but formal realizations summing up in an increase of wealth and well-being.

"Keeping no hope of future compensation, the Jew could not give to the misfortunes of life; it is only very late that he could get a consolation for his misfortunes in dreaming of celestial beatitudes. To the plagues that struck him he did not submit with the fatality of Moslems nor the resignation of the Christian. HE ANSWERED BY REVOLT."—P. 307.

"Thus the idea that Jews got of life and death supplied the first element for their revolutionary spirit. Starting from this idea that 'good, that is Justice, could not be realized in the world beyond, since that world did not exist, there is beyond only the long sleep lasting until the day of resurrection, but during their life time, they looked for justice, and never finding it, being always dissatisfied, they agitated themselves to obtain it.'—Page 314.

"Without the Law, without Israel to put it into practice, the world would not be. God would bring it back into nothingness; and the world will know what happiness is only when it has been brought under the universal empire of that Law, that is the Jewish empire."—Page 8. (Note: Written in 1891; the "Protocols" came out in 1897!)

"Happiness will be realized by Liberty, Equality, Justice. However, if among nations Israel was 'the first to conceive those ideas, other peoples, at some turn of their history, supported them and were not more revolted people than the Jewish people for that. Why? Because if those people were criminals, the excellency of Liberty, Equality and Justice, they'd need not their total realization as possible, at least in this world, and consequently they'd not work exclusively for their accomplishment."

"The Jews, on the contrary not only believed that Justice, Liberty, Equality could be sovereign over the world, but they believed themselves specially destined to work for the achievement of that regime. All the d'rices, all the hopes that those three words were capable of inspiring in the human mind found one central idea: that of the Messianic Age, the coming of the Messiah who was to be sent by Jehovah to set the power of the earthly queens."

"As he was, with his dispositions, with his tendencies, it was inevitable that the Jew play a major part in revolution; he played it."—Page 328.

"Jews were always dissatisfied. I do not want to carry the idea that they were always grumblers or systematic opponents to all governments, but the state of things did not satisfy them; they were perpetually worried by the expectation of a better state which they could never meet... The century which brought forth that agitation, which kept it and perpetuated it in the souls of some modern Jews, were not exterior causes as that of the effective tyranny of a prince, of a people or a ruthless class; they were interior causes, relating to the very essence of the Hebrew spirit. To that idea, that Jews had imagined, to that conception of life and death, one must ask for the reasons of the rebellious sentiments which ever animated them."—Page 305.

"During the second revolutionary period, the one that starts in 1830, the Jews showed still more fervor than during the first one. Moreover, they were more directly interested in it, for in most of European States they did not yet enjoy fully their rights. Those among them who were not revolutionaries by reason or temper were as out of interest. WHILE THEY WORKED FOR THE TRIUMPH OF LIBERALISM THEY WORKED FOR THEMSELVES. It cannot be doubted that, by their gold, their energy, their talent, they supported and seconded the European revolution... During those years, their bankers, their writers, their orators, moved by ideas very different, contributed to the 'great revolt.'... They are seen mixed with the movement of 'great Germany, they were IN NUMBERS IN SECRET SOCIETIES which formed the militant army of revolution, in many lodges in the groups of Carbonaria, in the Alta Vendita Romana, everywhere, in France, Germany, Switzerland, Austria, Italy."—Page 341.

actively co-operated towards that extreme centralization of capital, while, on the other hand, they were among the most vehement opponents of capital. How a Country Is Lassoed

"The Father of the Federal Reserve is Paul M. Warburg," wrote Edwin R. A. Seligman, Columbia University Jewish Professor, on Jan. 20, 1927, to the New Evening Post.

"More than any other person," Prof. Frankfurter is the legal maverick of the New Deal." — Simon Schuster in the 1934 "New Dealers."

"Bernard M. Baruch is called into frequent conferences with the President. He has financed many a Congressional campaign; and is surrounded by a praetorian guard of Senators, who hang on his every word. The figure of Baruch is swelling into enormous dimensions on the horizon of public life. He has been given credit for Hoover's appointment of Eugene Meyer, Jr., as Governor of the Federal Reserve Board. He is the Mystery Man of Washington and Wall Street." — From 1933 October "Fortune," the "Tycoon" monthly magazine.

"One of the key Roosevelt advisors is Bernard M. Baruch, a power in the Wilson Administration. In the absence of Secretary of State Hull and the President from Washington, Mr. Baruch is regarded as 'Unofficial President'." — Brooklyn Jewish Examiner of Oct. 20, 1933.

"When President Wilson went to Paris to draw up the Peace Treaty, Bernard M. Baruch went with him and served as the wartime President's Economic Advisor." — Boston Daily Globe of June 20, 1933.

On Page 23 of the 1934 sensational new book, "Are These Things So?" appears this: "Wilson's best friend was Bernard M. Baruch, who, heading a batch of 117 Jews, accompanied Wilson on his trip to the Peace conference. He is listed in 'Who's Who in America' as 'Economic Advisor to the American Peace Commission'."

Max Bedacht, of N. Y. City, representing the Communist Party at the House Ways and Means Committee hearing April 2, 1936, strongly approved the Roosevelt Administration plan to tax undivided surpluses, saying that "this type of levy has been contained in the platform of the Communist Party for many years" — reports a Washington dispatch to the N. Y. Herald-Tribune.

The following is from the N. Y. Jewish National Day of May 11, 1937, approvingly quoting "The Social Justice Committee of the Rabbinical Assembly, favors the general tendency of the recently adopted social legislation and in particular approves the scope of the TVA. It endorses the president's plan for the reorganization (packing) of the Supreme Court. It sends its heartiest best wishes to the Spanish Loyalist Government (Communist-directed) by Moscow."

"An appeal that Jews co-operate with President Roosevelt because his ideals are identical with those of the ancient Hebrew prophets, was made by Rabbi S. H. Goldenson in his sermon yesterday," said the Jewish Daily

Asiatic Blood

"See, I strike no roots on earth,
Ties of country have I none
For me no druging homesick dreams
Cause my heart to flag and sing,
For I am steeled by suffering."

"Yet drive me from your thresholds,
Yet of all am I the most desired
Loud resound your cries of envy,
For I drink from your wells
And I weigh your values."

"The sleek covering of my soul Conceals what I suffered as a beggar,
And my booty grows and grows,
And your maidens all acclaim me,
The scum of the distant desert."

"Yet yawn over your pipes of coarse clay
While stolidly digesting your meals.
Yet I have a clever touch,
And pander to your vices,
While looking on in exultation."

"And so I play my game,
With the exuberance of experience
The strange and terribly subtle
Final aims of my Asiatic blood
That remain a mystery to you."

— PAUL MEYER, Jew.
(In "Aktion," Jan., 1933).

Bulletin of March 12, 1934.

"Many of the New Deal principles of government and economics were established thousands of years ago in Moslem and Talmudic Law, Mayor F. H. La Guardia told 1500 delegates at the National Convention of the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith yesterday at Moses Temple, N. Y. City." — From N. Y. American, June 8, 1937.

"President Roosevelt will receive the Gethell Medal for DISTINGUISHED SERVICE TO JEWRY, Harold Riegelman, past President of Zeta Beta Fraternity, announced Saturday night." — Associated Press, New York City Dispatch, May 8, 1937.

"It is evident that Roosevelt is not the leader of the forces behind him. He is being used by them." — Walter Lippman, Jew, in N. Y. Herald-Tribune of June 27, 1932.

"The tremendous demonstration given Gov. Lehman at the 1936 Democratic Convention . . . proved beyond a shadow of a doubt that NEXT TO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT HIMSELF GOVERNOR LEHMAN IS THE MOST POPULAR FIGURE IN THE UNITED STATES TODAY," says Editor Margroths of "The Jewish Day." "The office of the Governor of the Empire State is second only to that of the President of the United States."

In 1930 there appeared on the market a book entitled "The Social and Economic Views of Mr. Justice Brandeis." The publishers later printed a pamphlet in which this appears: "Brandeis' ideas have been slowly changing social thought . . . For the past fifty years he has gone quietly about his business . . . to give his country a new social order — a plan now being enlarged by our New Dealers to embrace the whole country. . . . the new plan of 'social and economic CONTROL. Today America IS BEING GOVERNED by the enlightened thought of Justice Brandeis."

From the N. Y. Times, Jewish-owned, of June 28, 1934: "The underlying philosophy of the New Deal is the philosophy of Justice Brandeis of the U. S. Supreme Court. The NRA (later declared unconstitutional) is almost a composite of the dissenting opinions." General Hugh S. Johnson in the Saturday Evening Post of Oct. 26, 1935, said: "Felix Frankfurter is the most influential single individual in the U. S."

The Brooklyn Jewish Examiner of Oct. 20, 1933, edited by Rabbi Louis D. Gross, said: "THE ROOSEVELT ADMINISTRATION HAS SELECTED MORE JEWS TO FILL INFLUENTIAL POSITIONS THAN ANY PREVIOUS ADMINISTRATION IN AMERICAN HISTORY."

"One of the key Roosevelt advisors is Bernard M. Baruch, a power in the Wilson administration. In the absence of Secretary of State Hull and the President from Washington, Mr. Baruch is regarded as the unofficial President. Professor Felix Frankfurter, who has declined a number of important positions in the Roosevelt administration, has nevertheless had his recommendations accepted in filling nearly half a dozen of the most important legal posts in the Government and continues to function as one of the President's most trustworthy advisors."

"Dave" Stern's N. Y. Post of June 1, 1936, carried this illumination under a Washington date line: "The Senate Finance Committee's manhandling of the tax bill can be understood only in terms of that adroit Wall Street genius, Bernard M. Baruch, 'Fat' Harrison of Mississippi has always been regarded as B. M.'s Senatorial Man Friday; while it could be a fair guess that every other Senator from the South-eastern States feels under some obligation to this amazing man. A visit of the old wizard to the White House is clearly indicated."

"JEWISH EXAMINER," article by P. Steal (quoted in "The Hidden Empire").

"Attention was first drawn to Roosevelt's close association with Jews long before he became President. During Mr. Roosevelt's first gubernatorial campaign in New York in 1920, he became acquainted with Samuel I. Rosenthal, then a member of the State Bill Drafting Commission. Mr. Roosevelt appointed Mr. Rosenthal his personal counsel. It was in the course of these relationships that Mr. Roosevelt came to appreciate Rosenthal's judgment and he soon charged him with a multiplicity of confidential and responsible tasks. When Roosevelt elevated Rosenthal to the Supreme Court he admitted he was cutting off his right arm; that this was not idle flattery was evidenced by the fact that Judge Rosenthal owns a photograph of Assistant Secretary Mokey which is inscribed 'To Sam Rosenthal, founder and head of the Brain Trust.' The inscription aptly summarizes Rosenthal's service to Roosevelt because the new famous 'Brain Trust' came into being during Roosevelt's years as governor. Even now, Judge Rosenthal is frequently called to Washington to consult with the President."

Prof. TUGWELL, of the "Brain Trust," speaking in Los Angeles, Oct. 28, 1935:

"We are assisting OUR PEOPLE to place themselves in the most advantageous and permanent situation." Under the heading "Jews Have Jitters," the Jewish monthly, "Opinion," of Nov., 1935, printed the following from Philip S. Bernstein: "I know of men who are predicting their plans for the coming years on the definite assumption of violent anti-Semitism in the United States."

"If too many Jews settle in countries like Brazil and Argentina there would be an outbreak of anti-Semitic violence equal to anything Europe has seen," says Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, in a circular appeal mailed April 6, 1936, asking for funds for Palestine immigration, referring to an agent's report from South America.

Prof. H. J. Laski, Jewish Director of the Socialistic Fabian (Socialist) Society of England, is reported in the London "Evening Standard," 1935, as prophesying: "If the experiment for which Roosevelt is responsible, were in any serious degree to break down, the first result, because of the association of a number of eminent American Jews with it, WOULD BE THE SUBSTANTIAL DEFEAT OF THE U. S. OF ANTI-SEMITISM."

"MORE POWERFUL THAN ANYTHING ANGLICAN, CATHOLIC, OR PROTESTANT," says the "Canadian Jewish Chronicle" of Montreal, in May 1, 1936, issue, says: "Jews must hunt for a new technique of fighting anti-Semitism because AMERICA TODAY IS PROGRAM-CONSCIOUS. The course of anti-Semitism is ALREADY TOO SWIFT IN ITS FLOW TO BE DEFEATED FROM ITS COURSE BY WHAT JEWS MAY DO AT THIS TIME."

"If the American nation ever gets the idea that the Jew is a Communist and Communism are synonymous, there is the possibility of a pogrom in the U. S. that will make those of the Czars look like a small parade." — James V. Gard, former U. S. Ambassador to Germany, in N. Y. Times of Oct. 5, 1934. Further: "Anti-Semitism has reached such proportions in the U. S. that pogroms are now being plotted. Beware of movements which label themselves PATRIOTIC." — Rabbi Israel Goldstein in his Congregation, reported in N. Y. Times of Nov. 10, 1934.

"This is our great danger in America: . . . Anti-Semites who find a common ground for unified . . . will find only a tissue paper action . . . such as Communism, opposition resisting them." — Jewish analyst in N. Y. Jewish Daily Bulletin of Nov. 28, 1934.

"It is clear that the very existence of British Jewry is threatened," says an article in London World Jewry of July 24, 1936. "Unless immediate action is taken, the fate of German Jewry may easily be ours."

Why Nationalism Is So Fiercely Denounced

"The SENTINEL," Chicago, Sept. 24, 1938, reporting a fling of the Central Conference of American Rabbis:

"The most remarkable and also the most injurious consequence of the Great War has been the creation of new nationalisms and the exalting of those already existing. Nationalism is a danger for the Jewish people. Today, as in all epochs of history, it is proved that JEWS CANNOT LIVE IN POWERFUL STATES WHERE A HIGH NATIONAL CULTURE HAS DEVELOPED."

(Note: So, let us all sink and degenerate so that Jews can live out of something different than a high culture.)

only SECURE situations."

"The nation is witnessing the death-struggle of industrial autocracy and the birth of democratic discipline," declared Tugwell. "These historic changes are NEVERTHELESS PLEASANT."

"We are establishing a farmer-worker alliance which will carry all before it. Our best strategy is to surge forward with the workers and the farmers, trusting to the genius of OUR LEADER for the disposition of our forces and the timing of our attacks."

"The movement will go in any case. IT LIES IN THE BRAINS AND BLOOD OF A PEOPLE BRINGING INTO SUBSTANCE THE STUFF OF OLD RACIAL DREAMS."

(Note: — The Washington, D. C. Carnegie Institute has published a genealogy of F. D. Roosevelt showing the complete Jewishness of the Roosevelts until quite recently. Would it not explain it all? Diarrhi has said: "All is race in politics.")

Control Over All Groups

ANGELO S. RAPPOPORT, in his book "Plot of the Russian Revolution," 1918:

"There was not one political organization of that vast Russian empire which was not influenced by Jews or directed by them. The Social-democratic party, the revolutionary socialist party, the Polish socialist party, all numbered Jews among their leaders. Piebke was probably right when he said that the struggle for political emancipation in Russia and the Jewish Question were practically the same. The Bund, or general union of Jewish workers, was founded in 1897. It was a political and economic association of the Jewish proletariat, at first opposed to any national distinction, but then gradually imbued with Jewish nationalist sentiments."

"More than the Poles, the Letts, the Finns or any other ethnic group of the vast empire of the Romanovs, the Jews were the makers of the 1917 revolution."

THE HIDDEN HAND — WALTER RATHENAU, Jew, late Financial director of Germany, in "The Wiener Free Press," Dec. 25, 1909:

"Only 300 men, each of whom knows all the others, govern the fate of Europe. They elect their successors from their entourage. These Jews have the means in their hands of putting an end to the form of any State which they find unreasonable."

We have republished the KEY TO THE MYSTERY because it is the most irrefutable indictment of the Jews ever presented. The statements contained therein are drawn entirely from Jewish sources. A reading of this booklet will completely unmask the hidden power directing Satan's hordes on this earth. You will recognize clearly the agents of Satan who wreak such havoc on this earth, and understand the reason we have endless wars, revolutions, political turmoil and social strife.

We earnestly hope that after you have read (and re-read!) the shocking truth contained in this booklet, you will be inspired to become a Paul Revere and spread the alarm as he did in 1776 about our present danger.

The late ADRIEN ARMAND, the famous Canadian patriot who edited the KEY TO THE MYSTERY, made the following statement in a speech in New York, on Oct. 30, 1937:

"It is because Communism has not been fought for what it really is . . . a Jewish scheme invented by Jews, propagated by Jews, financed by Jews, led by Jews, profitable only to Jews . . . that it has progressed against all opposition to it."

CONCLUSIONS

Jewish leaders, books and newspapers state that:-

Jews dream of a world domination and work for the realization of that dream;

Jews control the financial and economic life of the world; they have the power to instigate crises and unemployment, in order to ruin individuals and States, and prepare revolution; Jews are born revolutionists and supply the leadership and execution of all great revolutions;

Jews are the creators, leaders, propagandists, and money-purveyors of Marxism (socialism, Communism, Bolshevism);

Jews want all nationalities and religions to disappear, in order to bring forth the "world republic" which would deliver world domination unto them;

Jews, through their powerful means of propaganda (cinema, publishing houses, news agencies, organizations of all sorts), work for the choking of national, racial and religious sentiment, so as to bring down the civilization built by White peoples;

Jews control secret societies, which form provisional governments and turn all political and social upheavals to the profit of Jewry;

Jews are not nationals, in whatever country they may be, but are essentially Jews and cannot think like other citizens;

Jews are at the very root of all troubles, all perturbations, all conflicts, all revolts of the Modern World; they gradually judaize other peoples by the influence of their organizations, and work towards bringing them to believe, think and live as Jews;

Jews want to immolate all peoples as victims for the health and survival of their Golden Calf;

Jews spoil, corrupt, decay, corrode, vilify, and debase all of what they touch.

All the above is affirmed by Jews. In no other race of the world so many identical, cynical, and unanimous admissions can be found.

The destructive revolution is at our doors. The enemy is within our walls.

Where Is the Christian Power-Will to Replace the Jewish Power-Will?

LET'S PUT A REAL SHOW ON THE ROAD - - - OR GET OFF THE ROAD

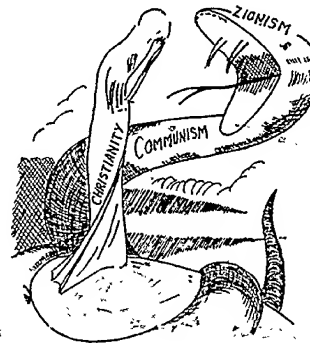

By FRED FARREL

The Jewish tyranny under which we Americans live today is one of the most luridly corrupt tyrannies of all history. It is thinly disguised by the surviving relics of the old American constitutional system. The political parties really stand for nothing. They are merely the masks of concealed Jewish power. The profit is gone from mere partisan politics. More real power is held today by Universities than by elected officials. No matter whom you may elect, he is likely to find himself at the mercy of the ESTABLISHMENT MACHINE, which rules by extra-legal and unconstitutional means. Likewise, there is no profit in the spurious battle which rages between "Right" and "Left." The Right Wing and the Left Wing alike are mere puppets of the Jews. There is really only one battle to be fought: THE BATTLE AGAINST THE JEWS.

Today racism is decried everywhere; yet the tyranny under which we live is a RACIST tyranny. The racial superiority of Jews is proclaimed everywhere. The Jews have constituted themselves the DE FACTO ruling class of the United States. Like all tyrants, they have endeavored to make any criticism of their rule a crime. Criticism of the Jews is branded quickly as immoral. The American Jews have learned to exercise political power without appearing to do so. Yet they exercise it with total ruthlessness and without moral compunction of any kind. Today under Jewish rule the U.S.A. is headed for the oblivion of Nineveh and Tyre. Many of our fat, complacent, prosperous, and intellectually shallow citizenry worry about "Having to live under Communism." They are worrying themselves over nothing. They will not live under Communism; they will not live at all; they will be dry bones, bleaching in the sun. The vultures gather over a gentile nation which allows itself to be ruled by Jews. Jewish rule has made the U.S.A. a Great Harlot's House, a center of world corruption, a hissing and a reproach to the honest men of the earth, the object of universal loathing and contempt in every corner of the globe. The rest of the world is determined to shake off Jewish rule, to destroy the Jews by violence if necessary. Only the U.S.A. remains a corrupt and complacent Jewish colony.

Why do we Americans allow this tyranny to rule over us?

Many fancy "Anti-Semites" tell us that we are helpless because the Jews "Control the currency." There are indeed those who will always bow down before the Golden Calf; but there are also those who will not. Once upon a time there was a certain King Croesus, who was very wealthy and "controlled the currency" over a wide section of the then civilized world. Some vulgar characters came along and put King Croesus atop a pile of wood and set fire to it, thus burning Croesus alive. The money power is a weak power; the power of the unsheathed SWORD is strong. The world will not submit to the Jewish money power. Those corrupt people who do submit will suffer the fate of the weak, mercenary, and corrupt of all the ages. Oswald Spengler has made a masterful discussion of the downfall of money power in the last two pages of THE DECLINE OF THE WEST.

Our fat, complacent Goy citizenry want to keep the Nineteenth Century going forever; but the Twentieth Century will make mincemeat of those who want to live in the past. This is the century of steel rather than gold; the century of war rather than peace; violence rather than order; of young men rather than old men. In short,

ADMINISTRATION WARS ON SOUTH

By CARL LYONS

To soothe and nullify by giving concessions to the left wing element is the Nixon policy in concert with a "fait accompli" befitting the totalitarian trap manipulating peoples with a handful of psychological tricks. The communication gap widens, and this was never more evident than in Nixon's news conference statement that he "had no intention of sending teams of federal lawyers and U.S. Marshals into the South to force school desegregation orders of the courts." His statement was the antithesis of what General Mitchell, who, that 100 attorneys and as many marshals will converge in a massive assault against Southern schools. Southerners now know for certain that credence in the Nixon statements has little credibility for reliance on truth, and that speculation on reforms remains for all meaningful purpose so much "SOCIAL POLLUTION."

Human Relations

Efforts to improve human relations are as old as the hills. Federal aggressiveness on sectional environmentalism has many "sleepier effects" and it is time to put a stop to erroneous beliefs for the sole purpose of altering attitudes. Keeping the South on the defensive is tactical warfare by the theoreticians, realistic situations are distorted in such a way as to rationalize a caste system practice as a distinctive culture. Circulated by the National Conference of Christians and Jews are pamphlets on INTERGROUP EDUCATION; EDUCATION IN A CRISIS; and THE RESOLUTION OF INTERGROUP TENSIONS.

Page 18 of INTERGROUP EDUCATION states: "Again, the fundamental premise of intercultural education says in effect: no person knows his own culture who knows only his own culture. A child who grows up to believe that the sun rises and sets on his own in-group, and who views foreigners as strange beings from outer darkness, is a child lacking perspective on the conditions of his own life. He will never see the American way for what it is . . . Without intercultural information obtained at school a child cannot acquire this perspective, for most children come from homes and neighborhoods where they have no opportunity to learn about out-groups in an objective way."

Public Schools

The public school system has a long history in building American democratic principles, but the enemies of the White society are using the public education system.

PROTOCOL IX

"1. It is from us that the all-engulfing terror proceeds. We have in our service persons of all opinions, of all doctrines, restoring monarchists, demagogues, socialists, communists, and utopian dreamers of every kind. We have harnessed them all to the task; each one of them on his own account is boring away at the last remnants of authority, is striving to overthrow all established form of order. By these acts all States are in torture; they exhort to tranquility, are ready to sacrifice everything for peace; but we will not give them peace until they openly acknowledge our international Super-Government, and with submissiveness."

— Protocols of Learned Elders of Zion

this is THE NAZI CENTURY, and even the enemies of Germany in World War II recognize this fact and pay the Hitlerites the sincere flattery of imitation. Nobody imitates the Nazi more assiduously than the Jew. Adolph Hitler, Heinrich Himmler, and Martin Bormann were never more ardent racists than the Jews. Zionism is a RACIST philosophy all the way. It aims frankly at the destruction of the Christian culture and civilization. It contemplates no friendly collaboration with Christians.

In the last forty years, the American Jews have virtually destroyed the Christian culture of America. Their power over book publishing, media, and higher education has been used to wipe out nearly every last vestige of the old Goy America. The Jew is an implacable enemy of Goy America. He is a blatant RACIST, seeking to establish the supremacy of the Jewish race over all of the other races on the American scene. The Jews use the Negroes as cats' paws. Meanwhile our prosperous Goy citizenry occupy themselves with futile partisan politics or with futile economic philosophies, with anything and everything except an ORGANIZED AND EFFECTIVE WILL-TO-POWER. They often propose some very good things, such as abolishing the Federal Reserve System. NEVER do they whisper a word about how we are to get the POWER to accomplish these laudable ends. Be sure that none of these desirable reforms will be accomplished as long as the Jews remain in power. ONLY A POWER-WILL CAN OVERTHROW ANOTHER POWER-WILL. None of the reforms which estimable old gentlemen of "The Right Wing" so ardently desire will ever be accomplished UNTIL A GENTILE POWER-WILL HAS ARISEN TO BREAK THE JEWISH POWER-WILL. Yet a whisper against the Jews sets our "Conservatives" aghast. Robert Welch has told them that "The Jews are the great achievers of American Life." All hail the Super-Jews! Conservatism has degenerated into a Jewish racket. It is not only the Left Wing which submits to Jewish control; the Right Wing also submits. COMMON SENSE has repudiated that jejune sector of "The Right Wing" which is always propounding excellent ideas, but has no WILL-TO-POWER to implement any of these excellent ideas. It is painfully obvious to us that the only function of this sector of the Right Wing is to keep the Goyim busy howling worthless slogans, engaging in political futilities, and wasting the time, effort, and money which might otherwise save the nation. The function of such Right Wing leadership is to lead and limit the opposition, so that the Jews may continue to rule. Only one thing might save America from destruction: A BUSINESSLIKE SHOWDOWN WITH THE JEWS. If this does not occur in the near-term future, then we are living in a doomed and defeated nation.

PROTOCOL III

"7. We appear on the scene as alleged saviours of the worker from . . . oppression when we propose to him to enter the ranks of our fighting forces—Socialists, Anarchists, Communists . . . to whom we always give support . . ."

The U.S.A. is tied to bankrupt and disastrous Jewish policies which can lead only to the downfall of the nation and the extinction of the American people at the hands of foreign enemies. Worst of all, we have been manipulated into a contemptible moral position. Our support of the bandit Republic of Israel has brought us the contempt and hatred of most of the Eastern Hemisphere. We have fallen into a contemptible strategic position. We have no real allies left in the world. Our Country has become the capitol of Marxism, of Zionism, of Jewish power, of Jewish degeneracy, of Jewish corruption. Our University professors mouth imbecilities, untruths, and impossibilities as if such things were everyday occurrences in international affairs. Our Right Wing and our Left Wing howl standardized imbecilities at each other. Our national culture is in the grip of a fatal galloping putrefaction. Our Armed Forces are being corrupted and weakened at a time of maximum danger. The Jews have demonstrated beyond reasonable argument their corruption, their decadence, their total inability to function as a leadership class, yet they hold a death grip on political power in the U.S.A. Mere anti-Semitism will not remove this pack of corrupt incompetents from the positions of power which they have usurped. Only an organized WILL-TO-POWER can oust them.

Last winter our hopes were raised high. In issue No. 552 of COMMON SENSE we published Revilo P. Oliver's brilliant article After Fifty Years. Oliver said, "American youth is our last hope, and at long last an effort is being made to rally it." Unhappily, the effort seems to have been short-lived.

Oliver said in his amazingly brilliant article, as to why there has never been an effective patriotic youth movement: "It was not what was wanted by the good-hearted and white-haired patriots who, in their ever-diminishing conclaves, orated to one another in the hope that some miracle might yet waft them back to 1924 or, better yet, to the Spring of 1914. It was dreaded by the super-salesmen of anti-Communism, who know what nice mixture of fact and shibboleth opens pocketbooks, and who naturally mean good business every step of the way — to the end."

American Conservatism is having a last chance, and if it fails now, it will have failed forever. The time of the last chance is NOW!

We must face the fact that "Economic Conservatism" is not enough. We must face up to the importance of RACE. We must offer real backing to intelligent Goyim who are fed up with Jewish Intellectual Supremacy. WE MUST PUT ON THE BRASS KNUCKLES AND GO OUT AND FIGHT FOR POWER. We must have an organization with local chapters in every part of the country. We must back brave young people who will fight on the University campuses. If our Conservatives can manage to be satisfied with "Voting" and "Electing" then they are finished in any case, and we cannot advise intelligent young people to waste time of day on them. So much POWER has been drained out of the political process, and transferred to the technological powers centered on the University campuses, that the whole business of "Electing" has been rendered nonsensical. Nothing any longer can be accomplished through the subsidized parties. The reasons run deep. Spengler has pointed out that the period of subsidized parties lasts barely 200 years; time is up.

We invite the American Conservative to answer this question: ARE YOU GOING TO SUPPORT A VITAL, DYNAMIC YOUTH MOVEMENT, OR AREN'T YOU? If you are not, then you will never be anything but a noise-maker. Mere noise does not constitute an effective will-to-power.

Which will it be? Empty sloganeering, phoney anti-Communism, worthless gasbagery? Or a real showdown fight with the Jews? We are tired of hearing slogans like "Free Enterprise" and "Private Property." Soon only the Jews will be free to engage in enterprises; soon they will own all of the property really worth owning. Let us now face the fact that the real issue is RACE, or let us shut our big, loud mouths and stop making worthless and uncouth noises. EITHER PUT A REAL SHOW ON THE ROAD OR ELSE GET OFF THE ROAD. The kind of so-called "Conservatism" which will not fight the Jews is a pox and a pestilence. If the Jews are to continue to rule the U.S.A., then we can in good conscience give you only one kind of advice: flee the country. Under Jewish rule this nation will never be a fit abode for civilized and intelligent people, and it will not long continue to adorn the world map. The hour of decision is NOW, in this Year of Our Lord 1970, and not at some later time. If you cannot make up your mind before next year, just don't bother. The decisions of future history will be made elsewhere and by other people, by people who have a WILL-TO-POWER and have no inhibitions about using it. In the U.S.A. today only the Jews have power. The Goy Conservatives have nothing but the sound of their own gasbagery. The ONE AND ONLY problem is to BREAK THE POWER OF THE JEWS and to get power back into Christian hands. There is no other issue in American life worth talking about. American Jewry represents an organized WILL-TO-POWER determined to rule or ruin. Oswald Spengler gave us the formula we need: ONLY A POWER-WILL CAN OVERTHROW ANOTHER POWER-WILL. Arguments about "Economic Issues" are worthless, because the Goy Conservatives totally lack any POWER to put any of their excellent ideas into practice.

In his article AFTER FIFTY YEARS Revilo P. Oliver said, "Young Americans have the courage and the will to fight and if need be to sacrifice themselves for what they instinctively feel is great and noble. They are the last force to which we can appeal." Bluntly, we cannot invest any lucid hopes in the kind of Right Wing charlatans who howl that they are "Fighting Communism" but in fifty years have never struck a real blow against Communism. If all genuine patriotic youth organizations disappear in the murky quicksands of the jejune Right Wing, we shall have to abandon all hopes which we have ever invested in the older generation of so-called "Conservatives." We shall have to look elsewhere for the future hopes of THE WHITE RACE and the future of THE CHRISTIAN WORLD. We are confident that the White Race and the Christian World will go on and on for centuries, but the American Conservatives are having their last chance now. Before January 1, 1972 they will answer forever the question of their worth or their worthlessness. Young Americans of real character and worth will be guided accordingly. If Conservatism is to remain merely a fine hobby for elderly people, as it is now, then the young cannot be expected to take much interest in it. Decent young Americans see that their RACE is being destroyed by alien enemies, while their elders do nothing about the matter. "Nations can exist only in the cohesion of a common will manifested in authority and discipline." We shall decide within this year whether or not we are to be a nation or to go the way of Nineveh and Tyre. The decision may be made by dynamic action or by stagnant inaction; but made it will be, one way or the other, and once made will be final and binding.

PROTOCOL X

"13. We shall arrange elections in favor of such presidents as have in their past some dark undiscovered stain, some 'Panama' or other — then they will be trustworthy agents for the accomplishment of our plans . . ."

This is Father Robert Hugh Benson's famous novel written more than 60 years ago depicting the calamitous events befalling the Church at the hands of its satanic enemies. REAL NATURE OF THE CONSPIRACY: BATTLE BETWEEN GOOD AND EVIL

Anyone who has read Common Sense for any length of time should be aware of a conspiracy that is going on at the present time for world conquest. They should also recognize that this conspiracy is now in its final stages — soon to be completed! Surely many are well informed as to the numerous particulars of the movement, but what has actually been done to halt this plot to control the world? Really not much.

The main reason that we have failed miserably against this conspiracy is because we are dealing with more than just a political or military maneuver. We are in the midst of the end product of a battle between good and evil. This conspiracy is actually Satan working through evil men to control and rule all men so that he can raise, corrupt, and harvest many souls for hell, stealing them from God and their everlasting rewards. This beats the haphazard method of tempting each individual away from a norm of good to an abnormal of evil. People so easily follow the crowd. For when corruption and sin are the normal, a way of life, the fashion, and even the law, Satan picks souls like over-ripe fruit. This

"Come to Me, all you that labor, and are burdened, and I will refresh you."

masses in the sad state of being necessarily concerned with making a living, making ends meet, getting ahead, saving for the future, and other such consequences of the financial system. One cannot truly fight Satan's conspiracy when the conspirators control his paycheck, his property and his very means of sustaining life. The Bible predicts "... And it (the beast of the earth) will cause all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the bond, to have a mark ... and it will bring it about that no one may buy or sell, except him who has the mark ..." (Rev. 13, 17). How close are we to having this "mark of the beast"? To defeat this phase, we would have to put all things in common, giving up luxuries and live simply, in the spirit of charity as did the early Christians. But Satan does not fear that this will happen on any large scale because his corruption has made the true Christian life very undesirable. He has substituted "enjoyment" and "possessions" as the goal of life. We vaguely remember: "God made me to know Him, to love Him and to serve Him in this world and to be happy with Him in the next."

(3) MENTAL — We have been corrupted mentally with such skill that it is difficult to formulate an objective thought or idea not shaded by the brainwashing of the conspiracy. For you see, besides corrupting individual truths, the devil has corrupted whole concepts and philosophies of life which consequently lead us to many erroneous conclusions on our own. We would then be unlikely to comprehend the real essence of the conspiracy, thusly begin to fight it inadequately, and fall into Satan's hands anyway. It is only through the Grace of God, obtained by prayer, sacrifice and following the example of Jesus Christ that we gain the whole truth and become accurately enlightened. If we follow the world, the devil will surely help us in our mental contemplations and lead us into error.

(4) PHYSICAL — We are corrupted physically by the perversion of the natural laws through adulterated food, contaminated water, polluted air, falsified and commercialized healing methods, and distorted methods of personal health care. These are all a direct or indirect result of the conspiracy. Their purpose is to make us a sickly, soft, germ- superstitious, and disease-prone people who will be unable and unlikely to resist the final moves of our "earthly master." It would take many volumes indeed to adequately cover the numerous ramifications of this phase of the conspiracy. Let it suffice to say that most of us fall prey by our bad eating and health habits. Only the so-called "health fanatics" make an effort to avoid this phase.

(5) SPIRITUAL — We are being corrupted spiritually so that we will ignore God's plan of creation, lose grace and accept Satan's worldly and human interpretations. By falling away from God's truths, we not only become deeply ensnared in the conspiracy, but we also overlook our only salvation from it, for without God's grace we become hopeless victims of evil. This is the most important phase of the conspiracy, because if we had truly loved and served Jesus Christ, the devil would not have been able to get a foot-hold and we would not be in the mess we are in today. It is fruitless to fight the other phases of the conspiracy without returning to God because it is a conspiracy of evil, and the greatest evil is to reject God !!! This is why you could die fighting Satan's conspiracy for human reasons of freedom and lose your soul for spiritual reasons, by rejecting God and His Divine Laws. The devil's schemes have progressed so far that at the present time, most if not all recognized Christian churches are working in favor of Satan by promoting a watered-down worldly religion of brotherhood and the worship of man. This includes the Roman Catholic Church with its heretical Vatican II and its apostate hierarchy.

So by this review of the conspiracy we can see that it is so complete and encompassing that most of us fight it and promote it at the same time. It is not hard to realize why we have failed miserably against Satan. He is too clever for us, and we increased our ignorance by falling further away from God and His graces as we became more "educated" and "modern." The college graduate is so burdened with half-truths and falsehoods that to find God through this maze of garbage is becoming more improbable every day.

"We have long past taken care to discredit the priesthood of the Goyim, and thereby to ruin their mission on earth which in these days might still be a great hindrance to us. Day by day its influence on the peoples of the world is falling lower. Freedom of conscience has been declared everywhere, so that now only years divide us from the moment of the complete wrecking of that Christian religion ..."

We do not want to imply by this article that there is no hope. Quite the contrary, for we are now in the era of the greatest hope, for God is now intervening to save His children in this critical time. Satan will soon be finished. He has had his hey-day. He is now playing his last card!

For those who still believe that a massive political movement will release us from this conspiracy, or that the people at some given time will rise up against it, do not be disillusioned. Most people have actually begun to cherish the ways of Satan and reject only the extremes — but remember that the extremes of one generation are the norms of the next.

Only a few will have the faith to accept the following, as only a few at first accepted Jesus Christ, but the facts are:

God is now, supernaturally, by messages and orders from Heaven, directing a movement to combat this universal conspiracy and to crush the head of Satan.

As the churches fall into darkness under the schemes of the devil, Christ is re-establishing His church, the church He promised He would never leave. As Satan plans to play his last card, a third world war, to massacre unprepared souls in this time of evil and to then finally achieve absolute world domination through one-world government in the midst of chaos, God has His own plans to use the war as part of a punishment to the world, to destroy the wicked, so that His faithful can establish the reign of God on a purified earth.

PROTOCOL X

"19. But you yourselves perfectly well know that ... it is indispensable ... to utterly exhaust humanity with dissension, hatred, struggle, envy and even by the use of torture, by starvation, by want, so that the Goyim see no other issue than to take refuge in our complete sovereignty in money and in all else ..."

is what makes this conspiracy so diabolical. In the end, you will not only lose your freedom, your family, or your life, but you may also lose your soul — even if you are politically fighting the conspiracy. Let us see why ...

As we said before, Satan is accomplishing his plan through evil men. He chose to inspire the modern Pharisees and their vassals over the years because they continually reject Jesus Christ as God and our Saviour, and are the fertile breeding ground for the devil's schemes. Because Satan is the head conspirator, he knows best how to lead men astray. He was, at one time, the proud Lucifer, the heavenly archangel before his fall into hell. (If by chance you don't believe in angels, devils, or hell, then you are the perfect example of the effects of the conspiracy). As a superior being, Lucifer possessed wisdom, and cunning far greater than most men. Using these talents, he has devised a plot to destroy us, a plot that would actually become our daily life and appear to be progress, the result of normal, human development. He is corrupting us in so many different ways at the same time that they seem unrelated even though they are all leading us to the same destruction. This totality almost guarantees success for the devil because those who attack the conspiracy will meet opposition, not only from the conspirators, but also from the well-meaning average man, because they are also attacking his habits, his beliefs — his way of life. As an example, the following is a summary of the main phases of the conspiracy:

(1) POLITICAL — We have been corrupted politically, obviously, so that evil men and their puppets could rule us; and less obviously, so that we would continue to believe that we could effect change through government channels, voting, petitions, or even overthrow. In this way we would ignore the other phases of the conspiracy and get all tangled up in the Right Wing, the Left Wing, the Conservatives, the Patriots, the underground movements, etc., and accomplish very little, if anything.

(2) ECONOMICAL — We have been corrupted economically so that life would revolve around the almighty dollar which Satan invented and controls. This puts the tem as the WALL OF PARTITION to create deep feelings of social hostility, insecurity and sensitivity. Prejudice is never rational, therefore the manipulators realize that genuine equalizing of opportunity is a transition project in social activities by intermingling in the schools children of various races, creeds and origins. This spells out the dramatic play of Nixonism and the death-hold on many private schools that have sprung up in the South, declaring that "a new policy has been adopted denying tax deductions to persons contributing to private institutions which fail to comply with desegregation rulings."

Private Schools

Monopoly in education is essential, and what should be read in depth to this purpose escapes the average person who reads only the captions of the columnist who analyzes these conditions. The Nixon action is a forked-tongue operation. While declaring control of the trump cards, he throws the joker to his assistants and agencies. Several months ago, President Nixon recommended some form of assistance to nonpublic educational institutions, in the form of a voucher as economic relief to low income families whose children attend private education systems. COMMON SENSE stated then, that "vouchers would be redeemable only under working conditions laid down by the manipulators." A well stated remark on the "freedom of choice" where the OEO guidelines set forth "eligibility" to receive federal assistance is herein quoted from Russell Kirk's column, 7/26/70. "American society is pluralistic: that is we tolerate many forms of religion, private association, and political affiliation. Why shouldn't schooling be pluralistic, too? Freedom would be increased by the voucher plan — the freedom to pray and to read the Bible in school, for instance, or the freedom to develop special programs for the gifted and special programs for the ethnic groups. The only sufferer would be entrenched mediocrity."

Continuing list of NCCJ organizations: Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. — Department of Social Action and Education. (Philadelphia); In Richmond, Va., Presbyterian Education Association for the South; in Rock Hill, South Carolina, Catholic Committee of the South; Toledo, Ohio, National Association of Intergroup Relations Officials; In Atlanta, Ga. — Southern Regional Council, Inc.; the Presbyterian Church in the U.S. Board of Christian Education; Council of Liberal Churches (Universalist-Unitarian), Inc. of Boston Mass.; Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod, St. Louis, Mo.; Evangelical and Reformed Church, Commission on Christian Social Action, Cleveland, Ohio.

The above named organizations count for a very small segment of the constituent workers in social policies . . . but this fragmentary list of organizations has close intercommunication through their liaison workers. Principles of these, drawn from one or more of the following organizations, are purely metaphysical; Buddhism, Christianity, Confucianism, Hinduism, Islam, Jainism, Judaism, Shintoism Zoroastrianism and other participating faiths allied to spiritual summit conferences advocating "One World Religion." A new one world Bible will be released soon including many of these religions in their classic saying. The drive to revamp the culture of the South is not motivated by racial, but religious thinking . . . the South is too Bible minded, and presents problems of vexation obviously of a rebellious character, thus to affect cold war on parental authority in the South, is to realign the thinking of the children through divisionary tactics and political humbuggery. The roots of our heredity strike deep down into the past, and draw from the ages accumulative experiences to meet the innermost craving of man's soul, — evidence that there is something, some power greater than himself in the universe. Christians associate this power with the Gospel expression of the New Testament. Today "LAW AND ORDER" is symbolized as the standard for ethics and morals. This making of a product of our time differs little from the gimmicks of the priesthood of the past, when the first-fruits of the field and the flocks were demanded as a holy sacrificial consecration to the gods . . . by this holy rite the priest enjoyed the fat-of-the-land. Of the present, the WITHHOLDING TAX exemplifies the first-fruits of man's earnings, which is a CONSECRATING RITE to the right of life and liberty, the holy sacrifice to placate the gods of political-power. In either case, it amounts to "sacrificial rites" to attain atonement with the establishment. Like the false doctrines of religion, the mystical veil of Nixonism serves as a stimulus to philosophical thinking, with the unintelligent disdaining all truth while the more capable make light of it. Thus, what is in effect is the excommunication of the Southland by the iron-hand of political-priesthood. This political priesthood hangs like a pall over the mental world and only the rays of intelligence can pierce the gloom, with all underlying truth nearly obliterated by the false.

Hope in Private Schools

Just as Infra-rays penetrate the darkness, and the telescope proves the vastness of space, the White society comes to a fuller realization that it is more sensible to build private schools to educate children in the right way to live, than to build prisons to house the ignorant who become criminals. This is an accurate picture of public education today in view of the anarchy and chaos in campus unrest, gang beatings and rape in public elementary and high schools, college know-it-all's including the Jews operating the SDS and dispensing LSD.

Usurpers of All Law

The Jewish point of view is to diminish the common objectives supporting racial and religious tenets; they have taken the law into their own hands by making laws which suppress others . . . thus, the usurpation of ALL LAW. Artificial integration is a conflicting and violent reform. The untouchables have always existed, will always exist, for they are a part of the natural laws of nature as much as the parasite and the predator. Thus counter-currents in human relations, and unequal status will continue to remain in the test-tube form . . . there is no peaceful solution apart from personal conduct, personal pride and clean competition. History is just the story of the activities of the mind of man in contact with the social and physical forces about him, and each mind plays its part in navigating its own ship, the more accurate the compass the straighter the course we sail. Liberty lubricates, but tyranny clogs. The world appears to be headed for a new reformation. Just as thought stimulated by environment produces reaction, in the form of movement, I'm for joining the FARTY HATS.

Rep. L. Mendel Rivers, (D-SC), chairman of the House Armed Services committee, wants the United States to stop the war in Viet Nam immediately and bring the troops all home and stop the killing, so long, he says, as this government is not going to attempt to win the war.

Rivers, obviously getting more disgusted, says the Nixon Administration has said it does not intend to try to win. It is evident that Rivers thinks the country could win the war if it wanted to do so.

"Let us put an end to this miserable chapter of our history as soon as possible and bring this gutless nation out of Viet Nam," said the congressional leader who has always been one of the staunchest supporters of the military establishment.

How could the United States win the war? "By cutting the enemy's supply lines and by putting the Navy carriers out there and shelling the enemy targets around the clock for days on end and by not limiting the pilots of our planes to alleyways as has been done by the White House during the past administration.

"I don't care who they are — none of the enemy, nobody can take that continuous shelling of Navy ships if we want to do it, and I believe it could bring the enemy to their knees in a short time.

"But since we are not going to try to win, as the Nixon administration has admitted, I am opposed to continuing the war and letting our boys get killed there day after day. I say bring the troops home now, and get out of this the quickest and easiest and least painful way we can and call it over. We ought not to continue it another day in the way we are doing it."

Our Judaized Establishment Destroying Western Civilization

By JOHN SULLIVAN

Informed observers of the eternal Jewish Question have always understood that the machinations of this sect are for the purpose of destroying Western Civilization and the white race as a prelude to ushering in the so-called "messianic age" in which the Children of Israel would rule the world and possess its riches. The Talmud and Kabbalah are chock full of prophecies of this event. They contain exact descriptions of the tortures in store for the Goyim and even more juicy descriptions of the joys awaiting the "Chosen" once their avenging messiah defeats the combined armies of the world and establishes his kingdom. Modern political Zionism echoes the same belief, though in less strident tones, and the fabric of Judaism is stitched together with the vision of world domination.

The odd thing is, that not such a mixture of nonsense exists, but that it is firmly believed by an influential, supposedly intellectual minority that is, scattered throughout the most advanced nations on earth.

While their potential for destruction is vast, the Jews will never attain their age-old dreams. Great races with great leaders have failed miserably in reaching for global power. So there is no reason to believe that a race of pornographers and push-cart peddlers are going to succeed where Alexander the Great and Genghis Khan failed.

For all of his professed sophistication and intellectualism, the Jew is basically a savage with a culture and moral code less than that of cave men. The iron laws of unfolding History make no provisions for fantastic delusions rooted in prehistoric blood-rites and modern day sexual neuroses. Such is not the stuff of world conquerors! Yet the Jews function quite well in botched-up Twentieth Century America. This is because the American possessing classes have become ersatz Jews who share the culture and mental quirks of their masters. However, on the stage of world events, the Jews have run up against a stone wall: History says NO to the "Chosen People" — "Rabbi" Marx and Prophet Freud notwithstanding.

The problem, therefore, is not stopping the Jew from grabbing the world, but simply getting the Jewish monkey off our backs before he drags us down with him into the suicidal oblivion which nature reserves for biological and cultural failures. To steal a phrase from the inimitable Fred Farrell, I for one, do not relish "riding the mushroom cloud", especially in the company of Jews and clowns like a certain Massachusetts candy bar mogul who, it is rumored, is in line for the B'nai B'rith's "Man of the Year Award." Nor do I want my race to be amalgamated into a dull herd of coffee-colored mongrels laboring on Chase Manhattan's consumer plantation. I don't want this because History has shown that mixed races don't last very long on a planet where nature demands racial and cultural identity as a prerequisite for survival.

The Jews will certainly not rule the world. In fact, if present trends are any indication of the future, there will shortly be no more Jews on earth, or at least a vastly diminished number of them. The Jew longs for destruction. He has a death-wish; he enjoys suffering. He is about to get his wish. While he is still around he is going to cause a great deal of trouble for those of us unfortunate enough to live under his rule. We may go "up the mushroom cloud" with him too.

Of course the ersatz Jews of the white bourgeoisie are far worse than their mentors. Together with the Jews, they form one of the most odious ruling cliques in world history. The American Establishment is the most venal, corrupt, ignorant, decadent, illegitimate tyranny ever to be fastened upon the backs of human beings. It is intellectually barren, morally non-existent and culturally rotten. Its ideals are meaningless, its economics insane, its politics on a lower level than Caligula's who, although he appointed his horse a consul, was never crazy enough to appoint a Jew.

The Establishment is sick and is fast reaching the terminal point of its cancerous disease. It is going to die and it deserves to die. But there are millions of good, decent work-a-day Americans who don't deserve to die, but who will die if someone doesn't find a way of ending the grim dominion of Yiddish culture and the reign of Bankers.

What is needed is new aristocracy which sees as its primary task the restoration and guardianship of Western Culture and its racial foundation. If such an aristocracy does not congeal out of the now atomized, scattered elements of this nation's Culture-bearing stratum, and pick up the standard of the West out of the mire into which bourgeoisie greed and Jewish hatred have cast it, then Marshal Grechko's legions of barbarians will make short work of us very soon. And do you know that Norman Mailer won't be able to stop them?

Due to the Judaizing activities of the Establishment we have already been defeated in the world-important Mediterranean Basin. How serious this defeat is can be gauged by the fact that anti-Communist Spain has just concluded agreements with Russia. Franco is one of the most astute statesmen on earth. He is not surrounded by a rat-pack of Jewish "intellectuals." Therefore, he is quite capable of seeing the handwriting on the wall and acting accordingly.

The recent Russo-German Treaty is another case in point. TIME Magazine blithely stated that Russia plans to call a "European Security Conference" in the near future. Of course they never indicated what such a step means for American security. In fact, they may never know until the "mushroom cloud" rises over Harvard University and the New York Stock Exchange. People laboring under delusions of grandeur like the Jews and their gentile bedmates never see things in their true perspective until it is too late. For one thing, it means a combination of Slavic manpower, German technology and French political cunning. It also means the eventual loss of America's European markets and the total collapse of our artificial economy. It is, in effect, the death sentence of the Zionist World Order. It can also mean that millions of innocent Americans are going to perish in a vain attempt to sustain this dying system.

The realistic European sees that America is a loser, a snake-pit of anarchy and stupidity. Being a realist he sees that Russia has most of the chips in this poker game. The European wants to be on the winning side. I can't say I blame him. Russia is completely realistic, and that is why her diplomacy has been such a success. The example of Germany in the World Wars has taught Russia the futility of engaging in a two-front war. With a fiendishly de-Americanized Europe at her rear, Russia can proceed to the main business at hand — the destruction of China. Russia needs European technology and they are perfectly willing to allow the European

United States Postal System Ends

The most effective means devised to silence all opposition.

We can now bid good bye to the United States Postal System as we have known it. Our solons in Congress have given it away.

This could be the final blow that completes the ruin of America. The internationalists have accomplished it in three strikes: (1) The Federal Reserve Act, giving bankers absolute control of our money;

C. DOUGLAS DILLON

(2) The United Nations Treaty, giving this one world organization complete control over our military and foreign policy; (3) The 1970 takeover of the Postal System, turning full control of our mails over to the money power.

It is very possible that, after Jan. 1971, all patriotic publications will be compelled to cease publishing because all such material will be censored. Likewise, writers, like myself, who are suspect, will have their mail confiscated and if their letters do not contain anything derogatory, they will be reread. Those letters containing material derogatory to the money power will be destroyed.

The U.S. News and World Report, 4-13-70, page 8, contained an interesting item which should have tipped off the discerning reader. It stated that President Nixon had failed to appoint one local postmaster since he took office, and vacancies in postmasterships throughout the country exceed 3,800. Another interesting development: have you noticed that our street mail boxes are being repainted BLUE and WHITE—United Nations and Israel colors?

All of the above should surprise no one when we tell you that the new Postal System will likely be headed by former Secretary of the Treasury, Zionist Douglas Dillon (real name Lapowski) Chairman of Dillon Read, a Rothschild institution.

Well, gutless gey Americans, the Jews have slipped the chains around your throat one notch tighter!

You can look forward to:

1. Increased prices!
2. Unlimited Jewish snooping and censorship!
3. The worst postal service ever!

From Goldberg for President Deliver Us, O Lord!

(Excerpt from the Roanoke Rapids, N.C. "Daily Herald," issue, Jan. 22, 1970) ARTHUR TULLY SAYS: — — —

"Goldberg Eyeing Presidential Race."

"Those in the Goldberg know, say flatly that his Curt Flood (professional baseball player) case is Goldberg's first step toward a try at the Democratic Presidential nomination, in 1972, and the White House.

"A group of New York financiers has promised Goldberg all the 'money' he needs to pay his political bills.

"Senator Fred R. Harris, (Chairman of the Democratic Committee, said privately that he has been 'assured' Goldberg will be a presidential candidate in 1972 . . . Goldberg could not pick a better time. His campaign team is already forming.

" . . . Goldberg will get political mileage from the Flood case . . . Goldberg would be a new and glamorous face."

It Can't Happen Here?

(Press Release)

In the "debugging" profession I offer service to many, and have access to information not generally available to the general public, such as:

1. Shortly after the May 31, 1970 earthquake in Peru, 65 Russian cargo planes, AN-12s and AN-22s, left Murrnansk for Peru.
2. All of these AN-12s and AN-22s stopped in Cuba allegedly for refueling.
3. All of these AN-22s can fly non-stop from Murrnansk to Peru.
4. Three weeks after take-off, only 12 of these AN-12s and AN-22s arrived in Peru.
5. Apparently 53 AN-12s and AN-22s still remain in Cuba.
6. Each AN-12 remaining in Cuba probably delivered one IRBM with a 1,500 mile range.
7. Each AN-22 remaining in Cuba probably delivered either . . .
 - a. Two IRBMs of 1,500 mile range, or
 - b. One ICBM of the 5,000 mile range.
8. If this information is correct, there are now in Cuba a total of somewhere between . . .
 - a. Up to 100 IRBMs with the 1,500 mile range
 - b. Up to 50 ICBMs with the 5,000 mile range
 - c. More likely, 46 IRBMs and 30 ICBMs
9. When and if these missiles are completely installed, cities and their inhabitants from coast-to-coast could have a life expectancy of about 5 minutes east and 10 minutes west of the Mississippi River from thermonuclear holocaust.

Eight years ago Americans were compromised, again, by their government officials in Washington, D.C., over the Cuban missile crisis of 1962 by agreement with Russia that U.S. would take no action against Cuba. If the missiles ever left Cuba — are they now back?

Mexico Has the Answer

In the student riots in the Summer of 1968 at Mexico University — where some 90,000 students are enrolled — President Ordaz ordered the police and troops to fire on these rioters with machine guns, resulting in the deaths of some 20 to 200 of these rioters (according to William F. Buckley, Jr., in a recent column).

Ever since, for the past two years, not ONE student has rioted in any of the colleges in Mexico!

Gun Control Means Jew Control

It can be said that the entire population of America has been disarmed and registered by the plotting of two Jews, with the help of a few non-Jew flunkies.

Take the famous New York Sullivan Law. It bears a good old Irish name, the name of big Tim Sullivan, Tammany leader and New York state senator, who may have been tricked into supporting the bill in good faith. But who conceived the idea of the Sullivan Law, finally passed by the New York State Senate in 1912? You guessed it! A New York City former coroner's aid George P. LeBrun, a Zionist, actively assisted by two leading Jews: Dr. Simon Baruch, (father of Bernard Baruch and co-author of the bill) and Nathan Strauss. The country will only know it as the Sullivan law, enacted to control the purchase of firearms and save lives. Little did duped Tim Sullivan, who called the law that bears his name "a law against murder," realize that it was but one more step in the Zionist plan to enslave America.

Enter the Dodd Bill

There is hardly a knowledgeable American who is not familiar with the Dodd Bill. But how many know who really authored it? One David Martin, alias Isadore Levine, Zionist, born in Canada of Russian immigrants, admitted Socialist, former investigation analyst of the Senate Internal Security Committee, active for years in Montreal, Canada, with the LEAGUE FOR A REVOLUTIONARY WORKERS PARTY.

BEWARE THE COMMUNIST "PEACE" SYMBOL!

"The symbol of the Communist peace is a very well known symbol. It was called the 'witches foot' in the Middle Ages, and it was a common symbol of the devil, with the Cross reversed and broken."

— Rev. Michael Wurmband, formerly of Roumania.

Open Letter to the President

Dear Mr. President:

You as Commander in Chief of the armed forces are neglecting your duty and violating your oath of office.

Secretary of the Army, Stanley Resor has issued a memorandum which allows the distribution of Communist literature on Army bases. Servicemen MUST be allowed to attend Communist coffee houses where they are taught revolution, mutiny, sabotage and desertion.

The Commandant of the Marine Corps has gone even further to destroy discipline and fan the fires of revolution. He has ruled that the clenched-fist salute may now be used by Negro troops.

There is now an underground revolutionary press within the armed forces and Secretary of the Army, Resor has authorized servicemen to work with these underground papers.

Resor is promoting and backing Andy Slapp to work with the Army and he is a SELF PROCLAIMED COMMUNIST. Another Communist, a Roger Priest, the Navy, charges is soliciting his fellow servicemen to desert.

Mr. President the foregoing facts constitute treason. I am recommending to my Congressman and Senators that they demand that you clean house at once and issue orders for Court Martials of all offenders in our armed services.

Should you fail to act in a positive manner, I shall demand your prompt impeachment. (Signed), Robert J. Miller, M.D.

THE HARDHAT REVOLT

By DOUGLAS T. KAYE

Enough time has now passed to allow us to take a long and complete look at one of the major events relating to our Movement, the mini-"revolt" of the New York City construction workers, the "Hardhats." From a standpoint of building the mass movement needed to restore decency and white unity in this country, this was the most important event which took place in the last decade.

To those who live in states far from where the action took place, it is necessary to envision the physical surroundings of the event: a one square mile parcel of lower Manhattan Island, the Wall Street area, a tanglework of narrow streets and skyscrapers. Here lies the nation's most concentrated nest of wealth: the major exchanges, banks, foreign trade firms, brokerage houses—numbered in the thousands—all clustered within a few blocks.

The amount of new construction is staggering. Every other block presents a scene of an older skyscraper being demolished and a newer beast rising in its place. Of course, the largest project in the area is the Rothschild "World Trade Center"—a complex which will cover 25 city blocks and be dominated by twin towers each taller than the Empire State Building.

Usually the district is packed with representatives of America's fraudulent ruling clique: brokers, usurers, influence peddlers, speculators, money-changers, parasites over and above the usual number seen in any modern society—about 60% Jewish in composition. Then there are the hordes of lower-ranking office workers, most of whom are fine patriotic white people, but nonetheless lack the robust, productive class muscle needed to clean up our nation and give the establishment the whipping it deserves. There are very few heavy industrial workers who even venture into the Wall Street area for any reason. They are all employed elsewhere.

However, something that completely eluded the careful gaze of the establishment was the necessary importation of hundreds of thousands of the roughest, toughest, no monkey-business workers in the entire city for work on their tabernacles of trade. It was like an entire army group infiltrating a fortress. The "troops" were men who perform physically demanding, highly skilled and dangerous work in good weather and bad. Most are drawn from European ethnic stock, predominantly Italian, Irish and Slavic—the sort of white men who will eventually save Western Civilization in America. Most of the men are vets, many honored in combat. These men were provided no wishy-washy lifestyles in their youth; they did not fatten through a parasitical existence in the nation's colleges and universities. They never learned to shoot dope, race mix and destroy civilization. The establishment gave them two choices in their youth: get to work or go into the service!

All had been calm on Wall Street until the weather turned warm and the culture-distorting mold sprang from the "pads" of East Village and began to stage "demonstrations" downtown. Their daily doses of Jew-Bolshevik treason and their filthy denunciations of productive America quickly drew the attention of the antibodies laboring nearby.

Well, what has happened to this heaven-sent opportunity for race-victory? . . . ?

As usual, nothing. A few conservatives timidly appeared to pass out literature extolling the virtues of "free enterprise." They were promptly told: "We don't want any!" A few Birchers appeared and were told to seat. Some young men from a local group attempted to pass out some good material before being stopped by a high-ranking union stooge. An older patriot was able to get some hand-made signs denouncing Mel Lindsay carried by the workers. One bright-eyed old lady was seen berating the workers about not fighting the "world conspiracy." The establishment allowed the Hardhats to have a field day of sorts—a large "rally," plenty of bumper stickers, paper flags, hooyin, vacuous slogans and gabagabery from their union "leaders." There were no rank and file speakers and no local leaders were permitted to speak. The whole atmosphere was cleverly designed to tone down the anger that had been evident a few days before . . . there were hands supplied to cheer things up—not brass bands playing patriotic music, but carnival bands pumping out bilious sounds. What was needed was resistance—the establishment gave us a rest. We needed solidarity—the unions gave us stops. The white race demanded a pogrom—the Jews gave us a picnic.

Here's what should have happened: an emergency fund of $1 million raised in 24 hours; a task force of 100 top Movement organizers flown to N.Y. and billeted nearby; a mass circulation tabloid hitting on gut-issues doped out, printed and distributed in 18 hours; a speaking cadre supplied with trucks, sound equipment, platform men, etc. out in the streets; a legal squad of 15 Movement lawyers available to secure and protect our Constitutional rights; a cadre of liaison personnel to circulate among the intermediate leadership stratum of the Hardhats and gain

More Treason in the Senate

Senator William J. Fulbright, promoter of the infamous 1964 "Gulf of Tonkin Resolution," which committed America to an unconscionable land war in Asia, invited the Senate on Monday, August 24, to authorize the sending of Americans in uniform to confront Russia in a new theatre of war—Africa!

Senator Fulbright is thus again identified as the spokesman for State Department planners who, under the guise of "international peace and security" seek to bind Americans and their soldier sons to United Nations military adventures all over the world.

What is actually proposed by Mr. Fulbright and his hidden sponsors is an international political authority backed by overwhelming armed force provided by the United States. News stories of this fantastic "guarantee for peace" in the Middle East failed to explain that the Fulbright proposal is in direct violation of the Constitution which is very specific about authority for keeping peace and declaring war.

Mr. Fulbright, eager handmaiden to the God of War, makes it clear that U.S. treaty guarantees of United Nations "peace" insure, not peace, but the involvement of Americans in interminable "no-win" military actions . . . an unending series of Korea, Vietnam, Cambodia, and African wars to sustain a perpetual climate of conflict.

I will send details concerning America's little known U.N. "peace treaty" commitments to readers who send me a stamped, self-addressed No. 10 envelope. Mention "Fulbright proposal."

We Will Not Fight for Israel

Britain and the United States of America are both International Banker and International Jew controlled. International Jew headquarters are in New York City. Ironically Russia, largely white, has slipped the Jewish leash and its anti-USA policy is really anti-Jewish, because the USA is where the Jews are. The anti-Soviet rantings of the Jewish Press are revealing. The fundamental present program of International Jewry is "GET WHITEY." Destroy the white race by whatever means: disarmament with anti-gun laws; poisoning (fluoridation of water supplies); race integration; wars, white against white, preferably, but white against anybody, except Jews; supplying woman-destroying abortion pills sold as openly as candy to young people whose appetites have been whetted by pornography administered via school instructors, television, theater, movies, and uncontrolled floods of filthy literature. When the white citizen is completely disgraced, world wide, reduced to the status of 'sheep, the prize for which the International Jew has plotted for centuries will fall into his soft sticky little fingers: CONTROL OF THE WORLD.

White Men of the World, Unite,
We will not kill our own kind anymore.
We have nothing to lose
But our Jews,
By letting them fight their own wars.

their support. Of course, none of this happened. It never will happen until . . .

1. We stop kidding ourselves and start thinking in terms of will-to-power.

2. The financially capable people on our side decide to put their collective assets where their collective mouths are.

3. The incompetents, the jerks, the playboys, the opportunists, the professional patriotic profiteers and the lee-age fossils are booted out and replaced by white men with honor, talent, imagination and faith.

4. We abandon the "right wing" mentality and get out into the bright sunlight of social justice and cultural decency, there to organize the masses of white people, diagonally across class lines, on the broad base of race, culture, history.

Unless we can do the above, and do it NOW, we are simply wasting our lives and insulting the memory of our ancestors.

ABORTION IS MURDER

We hear a lot about genocide these days. The genocide of the so-called "six million Jews" has been dinned into our ears for decades. Every available pressure has been exhausted to force Congressional passage of the so-called genocide treaty, allegedly to forestall some possible future national or international genocide. Yet a real genocide has recently been launched in our midst which is not only being actively opposed but has been actually legalized in many states. We refer to the crime of legalized abortion, the final number of victims of which will far exceed Hitler's alleged genocide of the Jews. We defy anyone to read this description by a medical doctor of the actual abortion procedure, and then say that abortion is not murder!

"First dilate the entrance to the womb, then insert a large forceps and drag out the baby and the afterbirth. This is not as easy as it sounds. The surgeon must work by touch alone; he gives a tug; a tiny arm gives way; then other fragments of the body. The head is always difficult; the skull gets crushed, the eyeballs protrude. All the time the bleeding is profuse . . . when the abortion is completed, the problem of the disposal of the remains has to be faced by the nursing staff . . . incineration is the favored method . . ."

— Dr. H. P. Dunn, Royal College, England.

Satan and the Pill

The basic unit of American Society, the family, has long been under deadly attack by proponents of International Communism. The marriage of today has an increasingly slim chance of survival. The reasons are many and all are promoted by these Satanists. Included are: breakdown of religious belief, sex education, pornography, immorality, alcohol and narcotics, easing of abortion and divorce laws, availability of venereal disease cures, and contraceptive measures. Regarding the latter, the old saying that there is "nothing new under the sun" is literally true.

An oral contraceptive was in use some 4 to 5,000 years ago, before the flood, in the days of Noah. This information comes from the book of Jasher which was in common use in early Christian churches. "Jasher" is referred to in the Old Testament in II Samuel 1:18 and Joshua 10:13. The quote is from Chapter II:19, 20 — "For in those days the sons of men began to trespass against God, and to transgress the commandments which he had commanded to Adam, to be fruitful and multiply in the earth."

"And some of the sons of men caused their wives to drink a draught that would render them barren, in order that they might retain their figures and whereby their beautiful appearance might not fade."

Is not this another of many signs that we are at the end of the age? For, according to Luke 17:26, Jesus said "And as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man."

Destroying Western Civilization

capitalists to come in and "do their thing." While the C.I.A.-oriented dupes of the Italian Communist Party strike the Fiat Works, this same company is building an enormous industrial complex in Russia. So much for Communism! With the exception of the French Communist Party, all left-wing movements in the Western World are controlled from New York and always have been. The French Reds are nothing more than a workingman's club under orders from Moscow — and deeply hated by the Jew-CIA-Danny Cohn-Bendit "New Left."

Against such a "blood and iron" alliance, the only hope for the Jews would be to ally America with their stooge Mao. The machinery for this has already been set into motion. Such an alliance might be hard to pull off. If they do succeed, it will be a bad day for America — China for Europe is a very bad swap. Of course the thought of several hundred million Chinese without electric toothbrushes, automobiles, dirty books, marijuana and other day-to-day necessities of the Consumer Culture leaves the Chamber of Commerce types simply panting with desire. You can bet that these worthies will be in the vanguard of any attempt to sell Mao as a "humanist" and "champion of democracy" to the yokels.

A world confrontation based upon a Sino-American alliance would kill a lot of people. But in the end it would be America who would be defeated, if not totally obliterated. The neurotic mongrelized rabble of our urban sewers and the unwieldy bulk of China are really no match for a Teutonic-Slavic Juggernaut, especially if large numbers of White Americans decide that a Chinese Alliance is racial treason, and act accordingly. Without the reservoir of White engineers, technicians and military planners there can be no crusade to make the world safe for Jewry. Who would lead it, design its weaponry, command its forces? Philip Roth, Eldridge Cleaver? Abbie Hoffman? Margaret Mead? Dr. Spock?

As an added reminder of the sword hanging over our head: whose side do you think the industrial giant of Japan would be on? The Japanese are hardly fools.

So you see, dear brainwashed American Goyim, the Jew is not really the genius you thought he was. Actually he is the most incompetent, destructive, retrogressive form of life this earth ever spawned. With the rise of the inorganic, materialistic bourgeoisie society of the Nineteenth Century, he had his moment of glory on the world stage. For a brief moment this curious combination of certified, commercial shyster and prehistoric throwback was able to pose and posture as a seer of sorts. He thought himself a superman and you, sniveling little bourgeoisie, seeing that he was light years ahead of you in your chosen profession of swindling, hitched your wagon to his star.

You were also fond of his "ideals" which confirmed your smug class prejudice, "ideals" which enabled you to loot and exploit on the basis of "humanitarianism." The Jew, the great peddler of ideals, was a Godsend. He supplied you with ideals for every occasion: liberal, left-wing, Marxist ideals to further debase your industrial serfs; right-wing, conservative, free enterprise ideals to keep you steadfast in your contempt for your racial brothers of the working class; Universal ideals, warmed-over intellectual hash, concocted in eastern ghettos by Talmudic rabbis.

In exchange for such dubious merchandise, you have turned your literature, your art, your educational system and all the formative aspects of your culture over to these pornographic aliens. It didn't take the Jew long to convince you that his was a sacramental people, a race of Jew-givers showing to a bloody and weary humanity

USA-HUNGARIAN RELATIONS

Dean James A. Pike said in the New York Cathedral of St. John the Divine on November 11, 1956: "We are for the freedom of Hungary to the last Hungarian." I am not sure we should have taken on Russia in order to free the satellite states, but short of that intention we should have kept our mouths shut. Prayer without any intention of action, in the light of the years we have encouraged such revolts abroad, will not clear our consciences. The blood of the Hungarians is on our hands. We have encouraged them to continue in their thirst for freedom, but when they rise up, we are able to say only, good luck!

The events of 1956 belong to the past: they cannot be changed.

We have followed Hungarian events and matters and have often written about them, e.g., "THE LIVING DEAD HUNGARY," in our October 15, 1959 issue. Our November 1, 1962 issue carried an article entitled: "ZOLTAN KLAR OPPOSES HUNGARIAN ANTI - COMMUNISTS." Such articles do not usually appear in the "FREE" American press.

We are informed that the late Zoltan Klar was a ten-times convicted criminal, collaborator with the Gestapo during World War II. The prominent Hungarian Jew, Mr. Jozsef Nadass, in his book "Karmos Evek" (Szepirodalmi Könyvkiadó, Budapest, 1961—586 pp) on page 322 calls Zoltan Klar: "The refuse of society (társadalmi hulladék)." The same Zoltan Klar was also President of the B'nai B'rith in Hungary before W.W. II, and the President of the Budapest Lodge of the B'nai B'rith in New York. Zoltan Klar arrived on June 6, 1953 in the USA, as an exchange student at the age of 59! The Jewish written MORNING FREIHEIT carried an article about Klar on July 9, 1961, glorifying him. MORNING FREIHEIT IS ONE OF THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATIONS OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, U.S.A.! The New York Times, Jan. 5, 1966, reporting on his death, carried an article praising Klar. When Klar died, Geza Korda, associate editor of the Hungarian-English SZABAD MAGYARSAG, presented important documentation about the criminal background of that political Jew, Zoltan Klar, in the June 4, 1961 edition of that paper. As a result, Mr. Korda was indicted by the grand jury of New York for criminal libel. That case never came to trial. It was postponed 37 times until Klar died.

the path of peace and universal justice. You still believe this fable even though it is apparent that the Jews are the torturers and executioners of humanity, the nemesis of justice, the despoiler of innocence, the cancer of history and the contradiction of life.

Now that the natural order of things, the normal pulsebeat of history is beginning to re-assert itself, now that naked power is once again going to determine world events instead of ethical ideals and money hoards, the Jew shrivels up to his true microscopic dimensions.

And you, little bourgeois, are shriveling too. See the mighty American industrial middle class reduced to mere valets of the synagogue, weak hangers on, imitating as best they can the lifestyle of the Jews: reading Jewish literature, eating Jewish food, cracking Jewish jokes, passionately concerned with Israel, and no doubt wishing in their heart that they too could have been born Jews.

Go to your Jewish sources little bourgeois. Ask them what the Russian cosacks did to the Jews in the days of the pogroms. And then dwell for a while on the nuclear pogrom the mechanized cosacks of the 1970's are cooking up. That is to be the end of the real Jews as well as ersatz ones — unless, of course, we in America find a solution to the problem before that time.

We are also informed that on March 2, 1955 a deportation order, File No. VO-10715 DDFS, was issued by A. J. Salturelli, Acting Chief of Deportation and Parole Section, against Zoltan Klar. However, through the maneuvering of Monsignor Bela Varga, President of the "Hungarian Committee," the deportation order was not enforced and Klar was allowed to remain in the U.S.A.

We have been recently advised of a Hungarian-written Message No. 4 — with some English notations. We learned of a court case at the U.S. Court of Appeals, Docket No. 35090 Calendar No. 173, Geza Korda vs. U.S.A.

Judging from what we have seen of the English portion in this ten-page text, a translation of that part written in Hungarian should uncover some important and very interesting facts. We would very much appreciate it if one of our Hungarian readers would send us an accurate translation of the above so that we can report further on the matter.

We are interested in what is going on in our country, besides calling everyone an Anti-Semite who reports about the activities of political Jews. If the material in the Message is of sufficient import, we shall report about it to our readers.

A copy of Message No. 4 can be obtained by writing to: Geza Korda, Publisher and Editor of Alkoto Magyar, G.P.O., Box 174, New York, N.Y. 10001.

United States of America—1970

By MARILYN R. ALLEN

A child once gave this definition of a skeleton:

"A man with his insides outside, and his outsides gone." That's what AMERICA is today: a LAND with its insides OUTSIDE and its OUTSIDES GONE with the wind: a hollow shell, a skeleton of a once virile white Christian Republic! The true American is rapidly becoming the vanishing American. Either he WILL rise up, OR he goes the 'way of all flesh' into oblivion!
